

DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Business Men Outline Chamber of Commerce Scheme.

BROAD POLICY IS NOW URGED

Question of Amount of Annual Dues Remains to Be Settled—Secretary Clum Discusses Luncheon Club Feature of the Merger of the Two Business Organizations.

The joint committee of the Business Men's Association and the Jobbers and Shippers' Association charged with the organization of the Washington Chamber of Commerce has organized by the election of Charles J. Bell as chairman, James F. Oyster as vice president, and Woodworth Clum as secretary.

The business community is watching with interest the deliberations of this committee, as it is conceded that upon its success depends largely the commercial development of the Capital City. It is understood that at its first meeting the committee agreed that amalgamation of the two associations should be effected, if the material welfare of Washington is to be conserved.

Another matter that is causing some concern, according to one of the members of the committee, is the matter of dues. It has been pointed out that the great handicap under which every local commercial organization has had to work has been inadequate dues.

It was learned yesterday that steps are to be taken by this committee to carry into effect the plan of a special subcommittee of the Jobbers and Shippers' Association that has been working for several weeks on a commercial luncheon club, similar to those now in operation all over the country.

How Club Building Would Help. "The Chamber of Commerce, if effected," says Secretary Clum, "will be a satisfactory result of the past year of effort, as well as a safety net in the climb we are making for the Greater Washington."

With the Jobbers and Shippers' Association, we are able to show for our year's work several rearranged freight schedules and a materially reduced freight tariff.

Interclass Smoker Held. The first smoker of the National University interclass was given last evening at the Cochran Hotel, with several hundred present.

Appoints Dr. John A. Holmes. Postmaster General Meyer yesterday announced the appointment, as his private secretary, of Dr. John A. Holmes, who has held the position tentatively ever since Mr. Meyer was made Postmaster General.

Doing Business on a Business Basis. The Washington Herald offers no prizes, gives no rebates, sells no hold-ups, but gives its whole efforts to the printing of a wide-awake and clean newspaper.

What President Said to George Alfred Townsend in 1905. The President's move upon the State bosses is not to be charged to excitement, but to the momentum of knowledge and experiment.

Named Harriman as Author of a Scheme to Take Possession of Presidential Campaign. The President's move upon the State bosses is not to be charged to excitement, but to the momentum of knowledge and experiment.

How Club Building Would Help. "The Chamber of Commerce, if effected," says Secretary Clum, "will be a satisfactory result of the past year of effort, as well as a safety net in the climb we are making for the Greater Washington."

With the Jobbers and Shippers' Association, we are able to show for our year's work several rearranged freight schedules and a materially reduced freight tariff.

Interclass Smoker Held. The first smoker of the National University interclass was given last evening at the Cochran Hotel, with several hundred present.

Appoints Dr. John A. Holmes. Postmaster General Meyer yesterday announced the appointment, as his private secretary, of Dr. John A. Holmes, who has held the position tentatively ever since Mr. Meyer was made Postmaster General.

Doing Business on a Business Basis. The Washington Herald offers no prizes, gives no rebates, sells no hold-ups, but gives its whole efforts to the printing of a wide-awake and clean newspaper.

ARMY AND NAVY UNION.

Anniversary Entertainment Takes Place at G. A. R. Hall Friday.

BROAD POLICY IS NOW URGED

Question of Amount of Annual Dues Remains to Be Settled—Secretary Clum Discusses Luncheon Club Feature of the Merger of the Two Business Organizations.

The joint committee of the Business Men's Association and the Jobbers and Shippers' Association charged with the organization of the Washington Chamber of Commerce has organized by the election of Charles J. Bell as chairman, James F. Oyster as vice president, and Woodworth Clum as secretary.

The business community is watching with interest the deliberations of this committee, as it is conceded that upon its success depends largely the commercial development of the Capital City. It is understood that at its first meeting the committee agreed that amalgamation of the two associations should be effected, if the material welfare of Washington is to be conserved.

Another matter that is causing some concern, according to one of the members of the committee, is the matter of dues. It has been pointed out that the great handicap under which every local commercial organization has had to work has been inadequate dues.

It was learned yesterday that steps are to be taken by this committee to carry into effect the plan of a special subcommittee of the Jobbers and Shippers' Association that has been working for several weeks on a commercial luncheon club, similar to those now in operation all over the country.

How Club Building Would Help. "The Chamber of Commerce, if effected," says Secretary Clum, "will be a satisfactory result of the past year of effort, as well as a safety net in the climb we are making for the Greater Washington."

With the Jobbers and Shippers' Association, we are able to show for our year's work several rearranged freight schedules and a materially reduced freight tariff.

Interclass Smoker Held. The first smoker of the National University interclass was given last evening at the Cochran Hotel, with several hundred present.

Appoints Dr. John A. Holmes. Postmaster General Meyer yesterday announced the appointment, as his private secretary, of Dr. John A. Holmes, who has held the position tentatively ever since Mr. Meyer was made Postmaster General.

Doing Business on a Business Basis. The Washington Herald offers no prizes, gives no rebates, sells no hold-ups, but gives its whole efforts to the printing of a wide-awake and clean newspaper.

What President Said to George Alfred Townsend in 1905. The President's move upon the State bosses is not to be charged to excitement, but to the momentum of knowledge and experiment.

Named Harriman as Author of a Scheme to Take Possession of Presidential Campaign. The President's move upon the State bosses is not to be charged to excitement, but to the momentum of knowledge and experiment.

How Club Building Would Help. "The Chamber of Commerce, if effected," says Secretary Clum, "will be a satisfactory result of the past year of effort, as well as a safety net in the climb we are making for the Greater Washington."

With the Jobbers and Shippers' Association, we are able to show for our year's work several rearranged freight schedules and a materially reduced freight tariff.

Interclass Smoker Held. The first smoker of the National University interclass was given last evening at the Cochran Hotel, with several hundred present.

Appoints Dr. John A. Holmes. Postmaster General Meyer yesterday announced the appointment, as his private secretary, of Dr. John A. Holmes, who has held the position tentatively ever since Mr. Meyer was made Postmaster General.

Doing Business on a Business Basis. The Washington Herald offers no prizes, gives no rebates, sells no hold-ups, but gives its whole efforts to the printing of a wide-awake and clean newspaper.

DOES GOOD QUIETLY

Central Union Mission Rescues Men from Sin.

WORTHY OF BETTER SUPPORT

Institution Reclaims Many to Better Lives—Work Costs Only $5,000 a Year to Meet All Expenses of Salaries and Wages—Prominent Citizens on Board of Directors.

There are a number of institutions in this city of great public benefit, which, while known to exist from annual reports in the press and other brief mention from time to time, yet, outside of certain circles, the general public is practically ignorant of what is being accomplished by them.

One of such institutions is the Central Union Mission. This mission is a corporate body under the direct personal management of a board of directors, composed of gentlemen of good standing in our city, and whose conduct of the mission has the indorsement of a ministerial council, an advisory board, composed of clergymen of leading churches, and the properties are held jointly in the name of the board of directors and a board of trustees composed of prominent business men.

Design of Mission. The design of the mission is to rescue men from lives of sin and to befriend the friendless. The mission therefore is located in the center of the downtown district, on Louisiana avenue, near the corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue, with branches in different parts of the city.

Many Reformed Drunkards. At a recent evening meeting the leader was a convert of the mission, commemorating his change from a life of sin, which occurred sixteen years ago, as a son of a clergyman, who had spent eighteen years in gambling and drunkenness, and in the audience were fifteen or twenty other converts, now sober, industrious citizens, one for many years a drunkard bartender, but for the past five years leading a Christian life.

As before stated, one needs to see this work to realize how far-reaching it is in results for good. Nor is the work confined to its mission halls, but during the summer orderly meetings are held on the street corners, especially with the large conveyance service and the garbage wagon, at which meeting many men who would not go even to a mission hall have been attracted and rescued.

Board of Directors. O. B. Brown, chairman; N. A. Robbins, secretary; J. C. Pratt, treasurer; W. C. Tyler, Charles J. Ladd, Clayton K. Zieg, W. L. Spiden, Owen P. Keller, and J. S. Moore.

Checks may be made payable to the Central Union Mission, or to J. C. Pratt, treasurer, and mailed to 622 Louisiana avenue northwest.

Warn Public Against Danger of Piles of Tiling. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Red Lights Line Avenue. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Warn Public Against Danger of Piles of Tiling. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Red Lights Line Avenue. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Warn Public Against Danger of Piles of Tiling. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Red Lights Line Avenue. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Warn Public Against Danger of Piles of Tiling. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Red Lights Line Avenue. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

Warn Public Against Danger of Piles of Tiling. Pennsylvania avenue, from the southeast to Georgetown, is dotted with more red lights to-night than at any time since the last flambeau parade.

ARCHITECTS COMING HERE.

Plans Made for Convention of League of American Architects.

READY FOR OPENING

Details Complete for First Day of Jamestown Fair.

BIG SALUTE FOR ROOSEVELT

War Ships of the United States Fleet and All Those of the Foreign Navies to Greet President—Military Escort to Be One of the Features. Diplomats Will Occupy Stand.

G. T. Sheppard, secretary of the Jamestown Exposition, under whose direction the opening ceremonies have been placed, has completed the arrangements, with the assistance of Lieut. P. H. Bagby, Sixth United States Infantry, military attaché to the department of the Secretary of War.

At sunrise on the opening day, April 25, the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, stationed at the exposition grounds, will fire a salute of 300 guns. Upon the arrival of President Roosevelt a salute will be fired by the United States fleet and all foreign war ships.

The programme is as follows: 1. Opening prayer by the Right Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of the Diocese of Southern Virginia.

2. Address and introduction of the President of the United States by Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company.

3. Address by the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt.

4. Opening of the exposition by the President.

5. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

6. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

7. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

8. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

9. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

10. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

11. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

12. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

13. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

ARCHITECTS COMING HERE.

Plans Made for Convention of League of American Architects.

READY FOR OPENING

Details Complete for First Day of Jamestown Fair.

BIG SALUTE FOR ROOSEVELT

War Ships of the United States Fleet and All Those of the Foreign Navies to Greet President—Military Escort to Be One of the Features. Diplomats Will Occupy Stand.

G. T. Sheppard, secretary of the Jamestown Exposition, under whose direction the opening ceremonies have been placed, has completed the arrangements, with the assistance of Lieut. P. H. Bagby, Sixth United States Infantry, military attaché to the department of the Secretary of War.

At sunrise on the opening day, April 25, the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, stationed at the exposition grounds, will fire a salute of 300 guns. Upon the arrival of President Roosevelt a salute will be fired by the United States fleet and all foreign war ships.

The programme is as follows: 1. Opening prayer by the Right Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of the Diocese of Southern Virginia.

2. Address and introduction of the President of the United States by Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company.

3. Address by the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt.

4. Opening of the exposition by the President.

5. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

6. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

7. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

8. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

9. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

10. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

11. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

12. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

13. Presentation of the gold button. When the President presses the gold button, starting the machinery of the exposition in motion, 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition will be unfurled.

BARGAINS IN WHITE GOODS.

S. Kann, Sons & Co. Announce Sales in Four Departments.

WANT BEAUTY SPOTS

Citizens Urge Restoration of Treasury Flower Beds.

HOPE CORTELYOU WILL AG

Civic Improvement Committee Discusses Plans for Beautifying the City—Plan Made that Residents Follow the Designs in the Adjoining Parks—Paris Cited as Example.

In response to an invitation by Frederick D. Owen, chairman of the committee on street decorations and civic improvement, a number of prominent men interested in the beautification of this city met at Mr. Owen's workshop at 1704 G street to receive the reports of various members of the subcommittee on "landscape gardening, plants, and flowers."

George H. Brown, superintendent of public gardens, and the oldest landscape gardener in the United States, spoke at length on the subject of window gardens and house front or pavement gardens. He approved Mr. Owen's plan that residents should take the adjoining park flower designs and arrangement as a keynote for their own house front and window gardens. Mr. Brown deplored the fact that whatever is done by the government in the District in the line of tree planting and support of parks is done to the discredit of the city.

Mr. Brown expressed great hopes for Washington, however, saying that a start in the right direction had been made and that with the interest of the citizens it would, before many years, be one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

A number of florists and architects spoke in support of the movement and solicited the hearty support of every lover of plants and flowers in the District. A buffet lunch was served after the meeting.

DISCUSS MISSIONARY WORK.

Woman's Interdenominational Union Holds Annual Meeting To-day.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Interdenominational Missionary Union of the District of Columbia will be held to-day at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, John Marshall place.

At the morning session Rev. Frank M. Bristol, D. D., will offer the prayer and deliver the address of welcome. This will be followed by the regular order of business, including papers on the different mission work by Mrs. R. R. Reida, Mrs. O. B. Brown, and Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, and a violin solo by Miss Laura Russell.

"Debtors to the Jew" will be the subject of an address by Philip Sidersky. After the election of officers there will be an address at the afternoon session by Miss Carter K. Swartz on "The American Woman in China, New York City, or Lifting the Veil." Following this will be reports on the different associations by Mrs. C. W. Shelton, Mrs. W. E. De Riemer, Mrs. David McKnight, and Mrs. Wesley Bovee.

PEARY WANTS TWO YEARS.

Explorer Applies for Leave to Make Another Dash for North Pole.

Lieut. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, yesterday applied to the Navy Department for a leave of absence of two years to enable him to make another dash for the north pole.

He has raised $50,000, which will be needed in equipping the expedition, and he intends to start in the summer of 1908.

He will use the steamer Roosevelt, in which he made his last trip. Mr. Peary has been in the navy for twenty-six years, and he has been absent on leave fifteen years.

PEARY WANTS TWO YEARS.

Explorer Applies for Leave to Make Another Dash for North Pole.

Lieut. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, yesterday applied to the Navy Department for a leave of absence of two years to enable him to make another dash for the north pole.

He has raised $50,000, which will be needed in equipping the expedition, and he intends to start in the summer of 1908.

He will use the steamer Roosevelt, in which he made his last trip. Mr. Peary has been in the navy for twenty-six years, and he has been absent on leave fifteen years.

PEARY WANTS TWO YEARS.

Explorer Applies for Leave to Make Another Dash for North Pole.

Lieut. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, yesterday applied to the Navy Department for a leave of absence of two years to enable him to make another dash for the north pole.

He has raised $50,000, which will be needed in equipping the expedition, and he intends to start in the summer of 1908.

He will use the steamer Roosevelt, in which he made his last trip. Mr. Peary has been in the navy for twenty-six years, and he has been absent on leave fifteen years.

BARGAINS IN WHITE GOODS.

S. Kann, Sons & Co. Announce Sales in Four Departments.

WANT BEAUTY SPOTS

Citizens Urge Restoration of Treasury Flower Beds.

HOPE CORTELYOU WILL AG

Civic Improvement Committee Discusses Plans for Beautifying the City—Plan Made that Residents Follow the Designs in the Adjoining Parks—Paris Cited as Example.

In response to an invitation by Frederick D. Owen, chairman of the committee on street decorations and civic improvement, a number of prominent men interested in the beautification of this city met at Mr. Owen's workshop at 1704 G street to receive the reports of various members of the subcommittee on "landscape gardening, plants, and flowers."

George H. Brown, superintendent of public gardens, and the oldest landscape gardener in the United States, spoke at length on the subject of window gardens and house front or pavement gardens. He approved Mr. Owen's plan that residents should take the adjoining park flower designs and arrangement as a keynote for their own house front and window gardens. Mr. Brown deplored the fact that whatever is done by the government in the District in the line of tree planting and support of parks is done to the discredit of the city.

Mr. Brown expressed great hopes for Washington, however, saying that a start in the right direction had been made and that with the interest of the citizens it would, before many years, be one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

A number of florists and architects spoke in support of the movement and solicited the hearty support of every lover of plants and flowers in the District. A buffet lunch was served after the meeting.

DISCUSS MISSIONARY WORK.

Woman's Interdenominational Union Holds Annual Meeting To-day.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Interdenominational Missionary Union of the District of Columbia will be held to-day at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, John Marshall place.

At the morning session Rev. Frank M. Bristol, D. D., will offer the prayer and deliver the address of welcome. This will be followed by the regular order of business, including papers on the different mission work by Mrs. R. R. Reida, Mrs. O. B. Brown, and Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, and a violin solo by Miss Laura Russell.

"Debtors to the Jew" will be the subject of an address by Philip Sidersky. After the election of officers there will be an address at the afternoon session by Miss Carter K. Swartz on "The American Woman in China, New York City, or Lifting the Veil." Following this will be reports on the different associations by Mrs. C. W. Shelton, Mrs. W. E. De Riemer, Mrs. David McKnight, and Mrs. Wesley Bovee.

PEARY WANTS TWO YEARS.

Explorer Applies for Leave to Make Another Dash for North Pole.

Lieut. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, yesterday applied to the Navy Department for a leave of absence of two years to enable him to make another dash for the north pole.

He has raised $50,000, which will be needed in equipping the expedition, and he intends to start in the summer of 1908.

He will use the steamer Roosevelt, in which he made his last trip. Mr. Peary has been in the navy for twenty-six years, and he has been absent on leave fifteen years.

PEARY WANTS TWO YEARS.

Explorer Applies for Leave to Make Another Dash for North Pole.

Lieut. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, yesterday applied to the Navy Department for a leave of absence of two years to enable him to make another dash for the north pole.

He has raised $50,000, which will be needed in equipping the expedition, and he intends to start in the summer of 1908.

He will use the steamer Roosevelt, in which he made his last trip. Mr. Peary has been in the navy for twenty-six years, and he has been absent on leave fifteen years.

PEARY WANTS TWO YEARS.

Explorer Applies for Leave to Make Another Dash for North Pole.

Lieut. Robert E. Peary, the arctic explorer, yesterday applied to the Navy Department for a leave of absence of two years to enable him to make another dash for the north pole.

He has raised $50,000, which will be needed in equipping the expedition, and he intends to start in the summer of 1908.

He will use the steamer Roosevelt, in which he made his last trip. Mr. Peary has been in the navy for twenty-six years, and he has been absent on leave fifteen years.

SPRING RESORTS.

The Atlantic City Office of The Washington Herald is located in the Bartlett Building, corner of Atlantic and North Carolina avenues, where advertisements can be inserted at regular office rates. H. S. Wallace, special representative.

ATLANTIC CITY.

HOTEL JACKSON.

DIRECTLY OPPOSITE STEEL PIER. VIRGINIA AVE. AND THE BEACH. American and European plans. Rooms with bath. Free use of the city. WM. E. BRIDGES, Proprietor. Also a car service. Full orchestra. JOHN CRUSE.

HOTEL RUDOLF.

ATLANTIC CITY, NEW JERSEY. Directly on Beach; American and European plans; 600 occupancy; steam heat; private and public water baths; phones in rooms; orchestra; weekly social features; capacity 1,000. CHAS. R. MYERS, Owner.

HOTEL CHETWOOD.

Steam heat; sun parlor; private bath; $3 to 115 weekly. $100 to Monday, $100. Booklet. E. M. HEMPSTREY. apt-30.