Sale of Umbrellas

At Half Price.

WE have secured from a manufacturer a lot of Women's and Men's Umbrellas at a concession which enables us to offer them at One-Half Regular Prices.

These umbrellas were made for a firm which failed before they were ready for delivery. We were fortunate in getting the entire lot (about 200), which we offer at half price.

There's a variety of handsome handles, including sterling silver, ivory, pearl, and silver, copper, and natural wood.

They are divided into two lots, as follows:

- Women's, $1.00 to $12.75 each. Values, $2.00 to $25.00 each.
- Men's, $2.00 to $14.00 each. Values, $4.00 to $30.00 each.

We would suggest an early inspection of these, as they are principally one-of-a-kind styles, and there is a choice, of course.

Guimpes for Jumpers.

JUST received a new line of Lingerie Guimpes, to be worn with jumper suits. A variety of pretty styles—lace and embroidery trimmed, 3/4 and full-length sleeves. Prices, $1.00 and up.

Putz preparations are pre-eminently the best and most successful ever placed upon the market. They have been handled by us for several years with uniformly good results. They are scientifically and correctly compounded of the very best oils, and guaranteed to produce quickly and easily a brilliant and lasting polish on any metal—gold, silver, copper, brass, nickel, &c. Wedding of Miss Howe and Mr. Felix Garziglia.

MISS ESHMAN ALSO A BRIDE

Mr. John W. Garrett, Secretary of the American Embassy in Berlin, Salls for New York—Baron Hengel-muller Returns from Baltimore. Baron Moncheur Will Give Dinner.

A wedding of especial importance to Washingtonians because of her father's long association with the interests of the District, was that of Miss Marie Angelo Howe, daughter of Dr. F. T. Howe, of the Evening Star, and Mr. Felix Garziglia, which was celebrated last night at 7:30 o'clock in the Shrine of the Sacred Heart, at the corner of Fourteenth street and Park road, by the Rev. Father McGee, assisted by the Rev. Father Southgate and the Rev. Father Fortier.

Mrs. Wade Hampton Atkinson.

pink peau du sole. The small niece and nephew of the bride, Elsie and Franklin Theodore Howe, third, were flower bearers, and preceded the bridal procession to the chancel. There was an elaborate musical programme under the direction of Mr. Sidney Lloyd Wrightson, before the entrance of the bride party. An interesting feature of the ceremony was the exchange of two rings, after the French custom. Mr. Eugene E. Coulou, of New Orleans, acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. Fitzhugh Corle Goldsborough, Mr. George T. Sabornie, of New Orleans, Mr. Martin McHugh, and Mr. J. W. Pollock.

After the ceremony at the church there was a reception at the house, where a wedding supper was served. Mrs. Howe's toilette was an exquisite gown of Brussels lace built on white liberty silk. Mr. and Mrs. Garziglia will make their home in Washington.

The secretary of the American Embassy in Berlin, Mr. John W. Garrett, will sail from Southampton on April 12 and expects to arrive in New York about the 15th of this month. Mr. Garrett will act as best man at the marriage of his brother, Robert Garrett, to Miss Katharine Johnson, which takes place in Baltimore on May 1, at St. Paul's Church.

The wedding of Dr. Wade Hampton Atkinson and Miss Mary Christine Eshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eshman, took place yesterday afternoon in the Lutheran Memorial Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Butler. The bride wore her traveling suit of fawn-colored chiffon broadcloth and a picture hat trimmed with long drooping plumes. She carried a prayer book, and a single American Beauty rose. Miss Ethel Hochman, a cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor. Her gown was of gray chiffon over pink silk. Thomas H. Atkinson served as his brother's best man. The ushers were Dr. George D. Wick, of Selma, N. C., a cousin of the bridegroom; Burnham Eshman, brother of the bride; Dr. R. M. Elyson, and Charles Barnham, of Washington.

There was no reception after the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson will sail for England the 13th, where they purpose passing the summer. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Henry Henjes, of New York; A. C. Goodman, of New York; George Sidner, of New York; Mrs. B. Leutzecher, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. William Perrygo, of Baltimore; Miss Myers, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Cornish, of Norfolk; Richard Reynolds, of Norfolk; Holcom, of Harrisonburg, Va.; Capt. and Mrs. Payne, of Harrisonburg, Va.

SOCIETY STORMS STRONGHOLD IN CHARITY'S NAME.

Fort Myer surrendered unconditionally yesterday afternoon to the society women of Washington. The assault was made in the name of charity. The action was sharp and decisive, and the general engagement began, and the loot that fell into the invaders' hands, as the fair enemy streamed over the battlements, consisted of several thousand dollars, and chattels and captives without number.

NOTABLE GUESTS WATCH OPERATIONS.

Notable guests followed this army in its fortunes. Assistant Secretary of War Oliver and the Chief of Staff presided along the Potomac was followed by the occupation of the avenues leading to the fort. Gradually the invading host thickened until Mrs. Sternberg, wife of Gen. Sternberg, flung her battle line of troop debentures, grenadiers of notable conquests, keen and polished veterans of many campaigns, and wise and cautious matrons of calmer beauty—flung that formidable legion far down the valley and moved upon the fort.

PIANO MERGER COMPLETED.

The piano merger, which was announced a few weeks ago, has been completed, and beginning next Monday the new corporation makes its bow to Washington. During the past few weeks the officers of the corporation have been busy with the factories making the best grades of pianos, selecting a line of instruments representing the greatest values. These have at last been decided upon, and when the doors are opened to the public next Monday there will be shown a stock of pianos without parallel in the history of local piano selling.

ROB PEOPLE WITH THEIR SMILES.

But the administration building was there society was really at its best. There was a reception by wives of prominent officers of the army and navy, dancing, pretty girls to sell you ice cream and make a noise like peaches while you eat; flower stands and bric-a-brac booths that sold novelties by means of bewitching looks. With cute little baskets held by ribbons over their shoulders, flower girls wormed their way through the crowds, turning people's money away with small bouquets and large smiles.
