IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Musical at White House Next Tuesday Evening.

MISS RIDGELY ENTERTAINS

Has for Her Guests One Hundred Friends Who Were Identified with the Play "We Are in Society"—D. A. R. Delegates Entertained by Washington Hostesses.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Roosevelt for a musicale on Tuesday evening, April 23, at 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Ridgely, daughter of Mr. William Barrett Ridgely, comptroller of the Currency, was hostess at a merry party at the Portland, yesterday afternoon. Her guests were the actors in the little society musical comedy, "We Are in Society," and all who assisted her in the management of the amateur play presented at the Belasco two weeks ago for charity.

About 100 guests met to talk over the success of their theatrical venture, and the suite of drawing rooms in Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely's apartment was filled with a jolly company, who finally gravitated to the tea table in the last of the series of rooms, where Mrs. Ridgely and some of the matrons in the party took turns in presiding. The guests included:

Mrs. Piquette Mitchell, Miss Thomas Noyes, Mrs. James F. Mitchell, Miss Shelby and Olga Converse, daughters of Rear Admiral Converse; Dr. Alfred Hopkins, Mr. Le Roy Gough, Mr. Phelps Brown, Mrs. James C. Hovey, Miss Edith Spofford, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bradley, Mr. George O'Connor, Miss Bayard, Miss Katherine Clabaugh, Miss Jean Crosby, Miss Lucretia and Mollie Dodge, Miss Polly Mason, Miss Florence Worthington, Miss Marguerite Le Breton, Miss Esther Denny, Miss Elizabeth and Stephanie Trecoff, Dr. Frank Lincoln, Lieut. Roger Black, E. S. A., Mr. Beale Bloomer, Mr. Philip Spencer, Miss Anne Bayard, and Miss Mary Brewster, Miss Gertrude Brown, Mrs. Victor Cordell, Miss Mary Curtin, Miss Helen Donahue, Miss Orla Cloward, Mrs. J. A. Kingman, Lieut. William L. Littlefield, Mr. William Kendall Evans, Mr. Frederick de C. Faust, Mr. Henry H. Gower, Mr. Charles Harris, Mr. Edward Heald, Mr. Charles Ken, Mr. John Kingman, Lieut. William L. Littlefield, Mr. Henry Alkove, Mr. Chester Neal, Mr. J. A. C. Palmer, Mr. Carl Ritter, Mr. Manuel Salmer, Mr. Morris Thompson, Mr. Henry Williams, and Mr. Charles Wilson.

The orchestra at the Willard Hotel played the music for several nights after the production of the play, and it proved very catchy and pretty, even without the words. Even those who were strangers in town, patrons of the hotel, who therefore knew nothing of the play and its players, were seen keeping time to the list of the prettiest pieces on the orchestra played them for the theater crowd, which wandered in for midnight suppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely were hosts at a supper one night after the last performance of the charity play, and Mr. Brown, the composer, was one of their guests, and many of those who had taken part as principals or chorus were scattered round the supper table. A jolly crowd, while the music they were just singing before the footlights was played from the musicians' balcony.

Maj. Wilcox, U. S. A., and Mrs. Wilcox entertained a dinner company at their charming home, in Twenty-first street, last night. Their guests were Brig. Gen. William P. Duval, U. S. A., and Mrs. Duval, the military attaché of the German Embassy and Mme. Korner, Mrs. Ernest Garlington, wife of Gen. Garlington, and Capt. John C. Gilmore, U. S. A. Major and Mrs. Wilcox will have as their guests later Col. W. A. Simpson, who will arrive the end of the week. Some time next week Maj. and Mrs. Wilcox will give a reception to the members of the opening of the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was hostess yesterday afternoon at a reception given complimentary to the Michigan delegation to the Congress of the D. A. R. Mrs. Newberry is from Detroit, Mich., and was, therefore, naturally interested in the women from her own State who are visiting the Capital. She received alone.

Mrs. Dalzell, wife of Representative Dalzell, of Pittsburg, was another hostess who opened her hospitable home to the Daughters yesterday. The Pittsburg delegation to the D. A. R. Congress were her special guests. Assisting Mrs. Dalzell in the courtesies of the afternoon was her house guest, Mrs. Charles G. Carter, of Pittsburg, who leaves to-day for Atlantic City, en route to her home.

Mrs. Albert Key, wife of Lieut. Commander Key, naval aid to the President, was hostess at a delightful bridge whist party yesterday afternoon at her home, in I street.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. James Bryce, who are spending a few days in Philadelphia, were entertained at luncheon yesterday by the Bishop and Mrs. Mackay-Smith, formerly of Washington, Bishop Mackay-Smith being rector at that time of St. John's Church. Dr. and Mrs. S. Weir Mitchell were hosts at an afternoon reception yesterday in honor of the same distinguished visitors.

SKATING CARNIVAL URGED.

New York Avenue and Seventeenth Street Intersection Suggested.

An outdoor roller skating carnival for boys was yesterday suggested to Commissioner West by Albert M. Chesley, secretary of the boys' department of the Young Men's Christian Association. Commissioner West approved the plan, and suggested that, with the consent of the Board of Commissioners, New York Avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets northwest, be made the scene of the carnival, the date of which has not been definitely determined upon.

The carnival, in which it is expected a hundred or more boys will participate, is to consist of races, fancy skating, and matches of various kinds, such as "shinney" and hockey.

SOCIETY ON DIAMOND

Chevy Chase and Metropolitan Nines Play To-day.

BELLES SELL SCORE CARDS

Public Will Get the Fun and Charity Proceeds from the Game at the National Ball Park This Afternoon. All the Boxes Have Been Sold. How the Teams Will Line Up.

Society will grace the National baseball grounds with its presence this afternoon, the weather gods being kind, when, for charity's sake, teams composed of members of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs will play a game of alleged baseball, and fair fans and their escorts will sit in the grandstand and cheer their favorites on to victory. The proceeds from the game will go to the Providence Hospital, and it is expected that the general public will take advantage of this triple opportunity—contributing to a worthy cause, seeing Washington's social celebrities at close range, and witnessing what will at least prove an interesting, if not thrilling, acrobatic contest.

Miss Mathilde Townsend, one of the leading patronesses of the affair, will have a committee of charming young women selling score cards. Miss Catherine Ekins, Miss Isabelle May, Miss Edith Sanger, Miss Wadsworth, and Miss Sheridan will be the distributors of the cards, while society's small brothers and sons will move about the stands, hawking peanuts, popcorn, chewing gum, and candy.

All the boxes have been sold for a week, and the box parties are expected to be as interesting as those at the grand opera. The President has a box, and it is expected that at least the younger members of the Roosevelt family will be present.

Line-up of the Teams. The teams will probably be made up as follows:

Metropolitan: Chevy Chase, Manville Carlisle, pitcher; Dr. J. B. Bayne, Murray Cole, catcher; Beale Bloomer, Fred Newbold, first base; Ned McLean, Jack McCoy, second base; Dr. J. P. Mitchell, Reginald Guldensperth, third base; Dr. Billy Mason, Westcott, shortstop; Dr. L. W. Gledhill, Newton Guilekoff, left field; George Messer, Ned Mitchell, center field; Philip Hichman, Phil Sheridan, right field; W. B. Ellis, Substitutes: Metropolitan—Col. Denny, Jack Steyer, Jack Seibert, Fred Brooks, Capt. Logan, Ed. McCauley, Capt. Wright, and Randall Hagner. Chevy Chase—Nathan Wirth, John Dunlop, Willie Peasby, B. H. Warner, Jr., Hudson Pool.

The weather man has not made many promises, but it is probable the weather will permit the game to be played to a finish. The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

WILL FOSTER TENNIS.

Georgetown Undergraduates Form Club and Appoint Manager.

A tennis association has been formed at Georgetown on the same plan as that on which the "varsity" basketball team was so successfully run last season. Tennis is to be regarded as a secondary sport, and the manager of the team, who is appointed by the executive board of the athletic association, is responsible for all bills and has charge of all of the courts. Dan McCann, '16, of New York, has been appointed manager. Two new courts have been constructed to the south of Ryan Hall, and are now ready for use.

There are several players of high quality in the university, and although it is doubtful whether any intercollegiate contest will be arranged, unless with George Washington, the matches for the tennis cup, which is offered annually to the best individual player in the university, is sure to bring out some good men.

TRAVIS AND TRAVERSE WIN.

Golf Finals To-day Will Be Last Year's Competitors.

New York, April 19.—Travis and Traverse will fight out the final for the first cup at the Garden City Golf Club to-morrow, as they did last year. Then the match was at eighteen holes, and Travis won two up. To-morrow the final will be thirty-six holes, a form of match in which Travis is believed to be invincible, yet the friends of Traverse are not without hopes. The weather was abnormal in its viciousness, snow and sleet falling constantly all day.

Travis conquered the storm, for he went out in thirty-nine, and then finished the massacre of young Harold Sands by a four on the tenth, winning the match nine up and eight to play. The score:

Garden City Cup—Semi-final—Travis beat Whitcomb by 7 and 6; Traverse beat McDevonald by 7 and 5; Hemptstead Cup—For beaten eight, semi-final. Bowers beat Hall by 3 and 1; Kibbet beat Simons by 3 and 1.

President's Cup—Semi-final. Behr beat Battersby by 3 and 2; Taylor beat West 2 up. Semi-final—Rich beat Egan by 2 and 1; Vanderpool beat Taitner by 1 and 6. Club Cup—Semi-final. Tappin beat Stillman by default; Watson beat Anthony by 5 and 4.
