Millinery For All Occasions. Some Smart New Juvenile Millinery

AS the season advances it is demonstrated that black and blue Hats are to be factors in summer millinery. Brown, and all shades of tan, white, and green, will come in for their share of popularity, but black and blue are the leaders. All-black, trimmed with ostrich plumes and aigrettes, or the black hats trimmed like flower gardens in all kinds of pretty flowers, will be about equally popular. We return to the vogue of blue with pleasure. Blue is such a universally becoming color—combines and blends so well with other colors.

Wings, quills, and ribbons were never so popular as trimmings for hats.

We are showing some charming models designed for all occasions. We give special attention to Juvenile Millinery—it is not considered of secondary importance with us. Some of the prettiest hats from our workrooms are those designed for misses and children.

One example is a poke hat made of pink satin braid, with a full shirred facing of chiffon. On top is a big Alsatian bow of Persian gauze ribbon, and held down in front with a square buckle made of tiny June roses.

Other beautiful hats are shown in Leghorn, Chip, and Milan, and of course, the dainty lingerie hats are much in evidence.
