

"BARONESS" ON TRIAL

Anisia Louise de Massy a Strange Figure.

SHOT A SHIRT-WAIST MAKER

Testimony at Opening Trial Points to Quarrel Over Money Matters.

New York, April 24.—The Tenderloin turned out to-day for the trial of Anisia Louise de Massy for the murder of Gustav Simon, a Broadway shirt-waist maker.

The powdered and painted woman who was barred from the Shaw trial came to the same courtroom to-day and looked on.

Mrs. de Massy shows little concern about the proceedings against her. She talked earnestly at times with her counsel.

Mrs. de Massy took notes all day, and sometimes she handed slips of paper to Mr. E. Barber, one of her counsel.

The first witness was Coroner's Physician Weston, who described the course of the bullet that killed Simon.

Miss Rae Forscher, a good looking young woman, was the principal witness. She told of the row between the defendant and Simon over money due the defendant.

Mrs. Forscher's story will be continued to-morrow, when the trial will be resumed before Justice Blanchard.

The defendant is very sensitive about her attire. So that her dress should not be improperly described in the newspapers during the trial, Mrs. de Massy furnished the reporters with a description of her and the clothes she wore.

Neither Nervous Nor in Fear. She was particular that her counsel should be able to converse with her in French. She held several long conversations with representatives of the French consul in this city.

Would Keep Men Guessing. "I am not beautiful by any means," she said to the matron who assisted her, "but I am a distinction, which counts tenfold more than beauty. I care far more about exciting the interest of my jury than their admiration for them, as you Americans say, 'I have them guessing,' and once a woman has the men guessing, half the battle is won."

COL. GEORGE SMITH DIES. Civil War Veteran Served with Infantry. Cape May, April 24.—Col. George W. Smith, aged seventy-nine, died to-day at his home at Cape May. He was born in Cincinnati. During the civil war he served as captain of Company H, Seventh New Jersey Volunteer Infantry.

Veterinary Association Meets. A meeting of the Veterinary Association of the District of Columbia, will be held last night at the office of Dr. D. E. Buckingham, 2116 Fourteenth street northwest. There was the usual large attendance. A paper was read by Dr. E. C. Schroeder, superintendent of experimental station, Bureau of Animal Industry, Bethesda, Md., on the subject of "Tuberculosis; its mode of infection and the cow." The paper was discussed at length by the association.

Folding Bed Causes Death. Hamilton, Ohio, April 24.—Charles Hunter and his wife were found unconscious in a folding bed to-day. The bed closed while they were asleep. Hunter will die, but his wife will recover.

Will Get Post's Place. San Juan, P. R., April 24.—It is practically assured that W. F. Willoughby, at present treasurer of Porto Rico, will be appointed insular secretary, vice Mr. Post, recently appointed governor.

TAFT FACIATION WANT EARLY PRIMARIES

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE. had a personal grievance against Senator Foraker, for the reason that shortly before Mr. Herrick came up for re-election, Senator Foraker told him in a personal conversation that he could not be re-elected, for the reason that he had incurred the opposition of both the temperance and the liquor men of the State.

TAFT'S SILENCE UNBROKEN.

President's Policies to Be Made the Real Issue. Secretary Taft was just as profoundly silent about politics yesterday as he was Tuesday. He has made up his mind to say nothing on that subject for a time at least.

On the brief visit which he will make to Ohio this week and next he will not refer to his own political status or to the Ohio political situation in any of the addresses which he is scheduled to deliver. These addresses, it was explained, in behalf of Mr. Taft yesterday, will be sort of "mothers' meetings" talks.

"If he makes a statement," said one who knows the Secretary's views, "it will not be made to any one person and will not come out piecemeal, it will here and a bit there. It will be given the widest circulation possible and will be complete."

What Taft is likely to do, it is contended, is to insist that the policies of President Roosevelt comprise the real issue, and that Taft's own personality will not be involved.

There have been indications lately that this is the White House position. In spite of the knowledge that the President wants Taft to succeed him, intimations have been given in a quarter close to the President that Mr. Roosevelt is not in favor of any particular candidate.

All he wants, it was said, was to see the Republican party nominate for President some strong Republican who could be depended on to carry out the policies which Mr. Roosevelt initiated. The administration is worried over the outlook, however, which would be eliminated from the contest for the nomination, the President and his friends might find trouble in getting the honor for some other man friendly to the administration and what it has done and wants to do.

THINKS ROOSEVELT WINNER. Littlefield Believes He will Be Nominated, Despite His Declaration. St. Paul, Minn., April 24.—Congressman Littlefield, of Maine, to-night addressed the members of the Twin City Foundrymen's Association at a banquet given at the West Hotel, in Minneapolis. Mr. Littlefield was asked who, in his opinion, would be the Republican Presidential nominee.

LABOR MEN INCENSED. Plan Demonstration to Protest Against President's Letter. Milwaukee, April 24.—A plan to hold big demonstrations by labor unions throughout the country on an appointed day, on which to protest against the action of President Roosevelt in the Haywood-Moyer incident, has been launched by labor leaders in this city. The plan is to set aside a day early in May, to suspend work that day, and hold big meetings, at which to make formal protests on the action of the President. It is also proposed to then take up funds with which to provide a stronger defense for the accused miners.

COLORED MEN FOR FORAKER. Head of Negro K. of P. Gives Views on Contest. Chillicothe, Ohio, April 24.—Dr. S. S. Jordan, the grand chancellor of the Colored Knights of Pythias of Ohio, and one of the leaders of his race in the State, has come out openly for Senator Foraker for President as against any man that President Roosevelt may name.

BROWNSVILLE A FACTOR. Springfield Contest to Be Based on Soldiers' Dismissal. Springfield, Ohio, April 24.—The President's dismissal of the negro troops from the United States army, without honor, promises to cut a figure in the contest in this State for delegates to the Republican National Convention. This is in no sense a race question, but there is considerable feeling among old soldiers, white and black, over the summary dismissal of the negro soldiers. The sentiment hereabouts is square deal to the negro battalions stationed at Brownsville, Tex.

CLAIMS TAFT IS GAINING. Lieut. Gov. Kelly Says Michigan is for Ohioan, After Roosevelt. Lansing, Mich., April 24.—"I believe the overwhelming sentiment of the people of the State is for Roosevelt," said Lieut. Gov. Kelly to-day, "and I believe if Roosevelt would not run, that sentiment would be transferred to Taft immediately."

FRISCO FACES CAR STRIKE. Men Demand $2 for Eight Hours, Company Offers $3.20 for Ten. San Francisco, April 24.—San Francisco is facing a street car strike which will tie up practically all lines in the city. President Richard Cornelius presented the demands of the car men's union to President Callahan, of the United Railroads, this afternoon. The union insists upon a flat rate of $2 for an eight-hour day, and all overtime to be paid at one and one-half regular rate.

REPLY TO PRESIDENT

Chicago Labor Men Bitter in Denouncing Letter.

E. V. DEBS HURLS CHARGES

Moyer-Haywood Supporters Put Roosevelt in Anaxias Club—Plan Protest Day in May—Thousands of "Undesirables" Expected to Attend. Grand Stands to Be Built.

Chicago, April 24.—President Roosevelt was placed in his own Anaxias club by the Moyer-Haywood conference committee at a meeting held here to-night. Trade unionists who have heretofore been known principally because of their conservatism, swooped down upon the hall to the number of 30, and after practically ignoring the social element that brought forth the now famous Jaxon letter from the President, framed and passed verbal resolutions branding Roosevelt as "A liar from top to bottom."

Immediately after the passage of these resolutions, George Koop, recent candidate for mayor, issued a call to all "undesirable" laborers to attend a meeting in Grant Park on the evening of May 19 to protest against the language used by Roosevelt in his classification of Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood, and Eugene V. Debs.

Hurling Charges. Velled charges of cowardice were hurled at the President by Eugene V. Debs, whose name was linked with that of Moyer and Haywood and Harriman in the Jaxon letters. He also charged Roosevelt with seeking to dodge the force of his former references to the men and quoted his speech at the laying of the cornerstone of the office building of the House of Representatives, in which he said the Chief Executive held the officers of the Western Federation of Miners to be guilty of the charges lodged against them.

LABOR MEN INCENSED. Plan Demonstration to Protest Against President's Letter. Milwaukee, April 24.—A plan to hold big demonstrations by labor unions throughout the country on an appointed day, on which to protest against the action of President Roosevelt in the Haywood-Moyer incident, has been launched by labor leaders in this city.

ILLINOIS NOT DELIVERED. "Uncle Joe" Has Not Declared for Fairbanks, Either. It's all a joke, Uncle Joe Cannon becoming a Fairbanks boomer and promising to deliver the Illinois delegation to the Vice President at the next Republican national convention.

DEPOSED POSTMASTER FROM TENNESSEE. Seeks Reinstatement. Following the interview with President Roosevelt, in which was presented in plain and vigorous language his exposition of his case, Col. A. M. Hughes, the deposed postmaster of Columbia, Tenn., yesterday called upon Postmaster General Wood and Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock, by whom he was informed that the final disposition of the matter is still under consideration.

INVESTED WITH PALLIUM. Archbishop Bleak Honored, Cardinal Gibbons Obsequiating. New Orleans, La., April 24.—The most notable event in Catholic Church circles here in recent years was celebrated to-day in the ancient Cathedral of St. Louis, when James Hubert Bleak, Archbishop of New Orleans, was invested with the pallium.

VIRGINIA MEN BANQUET. Special to The Washington Herald. Richmond, Va., April 24.—The alumni association of the University of Virginia held its annual banquet in the Westmoreland Club, at which Dr. Edward A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, and Prof. John Bassett Moore, of Columbia College, New York, responded to toasts.

report, which could not be confirmed officially, he has been designated to feel the Republican pulse in his State. He is particularly well fitted for this delicate task. The administration is anxious to find out how the other States look upon Taft's candidacy. Mr. Reynolds is expected to bring back to the President and his advisers some first-hand information on this subject. Mr. Hitchcock will not cease his political labors with his Southern visit. He expects to go into other sections of the country on the same kind of an errand. But what section he will visit next is not known.

NO CHANGE IN THE WEST.

Rank and File Still with President, Says Chairman New. "Anyone who says that President Roosevelt has lost his grip on the sympathies of the great masses of the American public doesn't know what he is talking about. The rank and file are with the President and his policies as strongly as ever." This is the opinion of Harry S. New, chairman of the National Republican committee, who arrived in Washington yesterday enroute to the opening of the Jamestown Exposition. Mr. New declined to discuss the political situation, but when asked as to his position in regard to the nomination of President Roosevelt, said that the third term was no bogey to him.

Others Think Millionaire Maintains Country Home at Oakridge to Be in Line for Governorship. Already a Member of the State Democratic Committee.

Richmond, Va., April 24.—Considerable speculation is being indulged in in political circles in this State as to what political preference is applied to by Thomas F. Ryan, the New York millionaire who maintains a palatial residence at Oakridge, this State, and who has recently begun to interest himself in the affairs of the Commonwealth.

There are those who think Ryan will seek the Senatorial toga when the occasion shall present itself. Others are of the opinion that he will announce himself for the governorship in ample time to be in the race when a successor to Gov. Swanson is to be elected.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD Bulletin.

FOUR THOUSAND POINTS OF INTEREST. The Pennsylvania Railroad System, with its affiliated lines, offers a field for travel that embraces almost one-third of the Union—thirteen States and the District of Columbia being traversed by its trains.

Over four thousand stations are included upon the direct lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad System, east and west of Pittsburgh, and its controlled feeders. One may reach any one of these stations in passenger coaches painted in the familiar Pennsylvania Railroad red.

Over eleven thousand miles are represented in these railroads—nearly four times the distance across the Continent from New York to San Francisco.

Its through trains run between seven of the largest cities in the United States—New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, and Cincinnati, each with a population ranging from four million to four hundred thousand people.

In connection with the Southern lines, it also operates through train service into the leading cities of eight additional Southern States.

Its through service between Washington and Boston covers important points in three of the New England States.

In summer time the steamers of the Erie and Western Transportation Company, a subsidiary Pennsylvania line upon the Great Lakes, bring in touch two additional Western States.

Following the lines is a lesson in geography; considering their traffic, a study in national economy.
