

DEMOCRATS UNITED

Maryland Clan Grooms for Its State Campaign.

CONVENTION ON AUGUST 8

Gov. Warfield Among Those Said to Be Aspiring to Place in United States Senate—Short Term Probably Will Be Given Senator Whyte, Furst or Jackson for Governor.

Baltimore, June 1.—Whether Maryland is a province adjacent to the nation's Capital, or Washington is a part of Maryland territory, the relations are as clear as the politics of the State has a peculiar interest.

Maryland Democrats are putting the party house in order. Last week the State committee met to fix a date for the State convention.

Party Avoids Trouble. The Maryland Democracy has had some chastening experiences. It has been compelled to witness Republican State officers and United States Senators speaking for Maryland.

When one says that the Commonwealth is one of groups, he means the more definite term, "factions."

Process Breeds Factions. But the process bred factions. Many a time when, with a word, he could have stopped a fight, he silently let it be waged to a climax of bitterness and disappointment.
