GEN. A. S. BURT INDORSED.

Army and Navy Union Garrison Also Names Delegates.

One hundred members of Gen. William F. Barry Garrison, No. 25, Army and Navy Union, U. S. A., assembled at G. A. R. Hall, on Pennsylvania avenue northwest, last night and elected delegates to represent that garrison at the forthcoming national convention of the Army and Navy Union, which will be held in this city commencing July 17, "Santiago Day," and continue four days.

Those elected were Col. Abram S. Hart, Col. Robert Aiton, civil-war veterans; Capt. E. A. Robins and Capt. C. F. Rougeon, Spanish war veterans, with the following alternates: Col. C. F. Noske and Col. A. S. Wilder, civil war veterans; Alexander H. Burcke and George F. Livingston, Spanish war veterans.

Resolutions were passed extending the sympathy of the garrison in the recent catastrophe which befell the midshipmen and enlisted men of the United States navy Monday night, at Hampton Roads, near Jamestown.

Gen. Andrew S. Burt was unanimously indorsed as national commander, and will, it was stated, receive the support of the four local garrisons, which will have twenty-four votes at the encampment.

CATHOLICS HONOR SAINT.

Anthony of Padua Patron of Losers of Articles.

The feast of St. Anthony of Padua, which was observed by Washington Catholics yesterday, commemorates the life of one of the most popular saints on the calendar. St. Anthony is the patron of persons who have lost articles, and many stories are told of his success in helping to locate them. There were special services in almost all of the churches, those at the Franciscan Monastery being among the most impressive.

It is announced that the feast day will be solemnly observed in St. Anthony's Church, Brookland, next Sunday.
