

TIGERS HERE TO-DAY

Detroit Winds Up Series with Nationals.

CLEVELAND COMES TO-MORROW

On Saturday the Locals Will Start on a Long Campaign, Which Will Contain Games with Other Seven Clubs of League—Doc Hillebrand a Good Pitcher, Says Schaefer.

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Detroit at Washington. Chicago at New York. Cleveland at Philadelphia. St. Louis at Boston.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS. W. L. Pct. Chicago, 22 18 .556 New York, 21 24 .467

The Nationals will wind up their season with Detroit this afternoon, and to-morrow Lajoie will bring his band of Cleveland Naps here for a series of four games.

Since the return of the club on June 4 Washington has won a fair share of the games against the strong Western clubs.

The recent moves of Cantillon in disposing of certain players meets with the unqualified approval of most of the fans.

This infield—Anderson, Perrine, Altizer, and Delehan—looks to be the strongest combination that Cantillon has tried this season.

"Don't let any one tell you that Doc Hillebrand is not a real pitcher," said "Dutch" Schaefer, the Detroit second baseman, when he read the announcement of the former collegian's sale to Boston.

It would be just like baseball if Collins got a new lease of life in Philadelphia.

There may be a new manager in the National League next season. It is rumored that St. Louis will have Frank Seale, who will supplant McCloskey.

The last time the Boston Americans were here Owner Taylor and President Noyes, of the Nationals, had a kidding

"Well, I tell you what I will do, Tom," was the way Taylor came back. "I am satisfied that we will beat you out of the race, but if you want it I will give you the flag pole which was used when we won the championship.

"You're on," yelled Noyes; so if the Nationals finish ahead of the McGuiness Washington will have a flag pole, and all that will be wanted will be a pennant winning team.

ST. VINCENT'S WINNER.

Fast Team of Youngsters Take Game on the Arsenal Grounds.

The St. Vincent aggregation again downed the Soldiers yesterday afternoon on the Arsenal grounds, by 4 to 2. Errors on the part of the Soldiers lost the game.

The soldier players were dissatisfied with the work of the umpire, and the game was marred somewhat by wrangling.

Barney Dreyfus says he is opposed to the plan of having his men engage in the field contests proposed by President Herrmann, of the Cincin. He says: "I am not growing any older, but I think I will participate in them before the close of the season.

The soldiers at Washington Barracks claim to have good cause to complain of the recent decisions given their ball team in the last two games with the St. Vincent's. They try to be impartial, and therefore do not care to offer one of their men, or even another soldier, for that purpose.

Youngstown, Ohio, June 16.—There is grave danger that the O. and P. League may not survive the season. This is due to the fact that the wet weather has made it impossible for a single team to make expense so far.

Last year Akron was the only city which cleared money on the season, and conditions are much worse this year.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Detroit again to-day. Ulica is leading the race in the Empire State League.

Tom Hughes will probably pitch for the Nationals this afternoon.

Walter Clarkson has not been much of a success since joining Cleveland.

Never before in the history of the game have so many serious injuries resulted from a single season.

Arthur Devlin has made more sacrifice hits than any athlete in the National League. It was seventeen at the last counting and is growing daily.

Pitcher Castleton, who was loaned to Atlanta by the New York Americans, has been playing several weeks, and he may be recalled to bolster up the Yankee staff.

The Milwaukee club expects to close a deal for Connors, who has been playing first base for the Toronto club of the Eastern League. Joe Kelley himself will cover first for Toronto in future.

In the opinion of the members of the Chicago team, Joe McGinnity is a greater pitcher than Christy Mathewson.

Third Baseman Betscher, released by Lynchburg, has joined the Anderson (S. C.) club.

It would be just like baseball if Collins got a new lease of life in Philadelphia.

There may be a new manager in the National League next season. It is rumored that St. Louis will have Frank Seale, who will supplant McCloskey.

Center Fielder Harry Gessler, of the Columbus team, got into trouble on an oval car at 1:30 on other morning at Columbus, Ohio, and engaged in a fight with a fellow-passenger over an insulting remark about the lady with Gessler.

Barney Dreyfus says he is opposed to the plan of having his men engage in the field contests proposed by President Herrmann, of the Cincin. He says: "I am not growing any older, but I think I will participate in them before the close of the season.

Chicago, June 16.—Taylor was batted out of the slab to-day in five innings, and his successor, Durbin, was extremely wild.

Bell held the Cubs safe and Brooklyn won a lopsided game. Batch made some of the best catches and worst muffs seen on the local field this season.

Never before in the history of the game have so many serious injuries resulted from a single season.

Arthur Devlin has made more sacrifice hits than any athlete in the National League. It was seventeen at the last counting and is growing daily.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

TO-DAY'S GAMES. Portsmouth at Lynchburg. Roanoke at Danville.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS. W. L. Pct. Danville, 21 19 .524 Roanoke, 21 21 .500

McMahon and Cooper, the two Roanoke players who jumped their contracts to play with Bramwell, W. Va., in an independent league, have been blacklisted.

If the rainy weather had kept up much longer, the magnets in the Virginia League would have had to call upon the sinking fund to help pay the salaries of the men.

Lynchburg has at last succeeded in breaking the winning streak of Danville. That club, however, is still at the top of the list. They are also still playing good ball and seem to have no intention of giving up their challenge their right to the place.

The news comes from the Roanoke bunch that Jack Grim, of Lynchburg, gave Pitcher Flowers a raw deal. It is said that Grim released Flowers and then wanted to farm him out to Anderson, S. C., but Clarke gobbled him up for Roanoke the minute he found he had been let go by Grim.

Manager Shaffer has not yet made good his promise to bring Richmond out of the hole. The attendance upon the Richmond games in reality supports the league, but it seems impossible for that city to get hold of players who can keep her even with speaking distance of the league leaders. Many of the fans are very much disgruntled.

The woes of Win Clarke, the scrappy manager of the Roanoke Baseball Club, which club played the tail-end series in Richmond last week, are many. His club is crippled and he is at a loss as to how to remedy the trouble. Clarke has had more hard luck than his men than any other manager in the league. When the season opened he had a good fast club, and all the men were playing together.

He had two men—McMahon and Cooper—very much disgruntled. He had to award to Houston, Tex., and Vernuelle, his crack pitcher, who has twirled in more games than any other pitcher in the entire association this year, is out of the running with a bad back. "We've been doing pretty good work with a broken-up club," said Clarke yesterday. "Every one of the games we have lost by us in one inning. My men are not so good as they were, and as soon as I fill a gap or two we will be there with the goods."
