

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Until further notice store will close at 5:30 p. m.

Men's Stein-Bloch Suits and Others Reduced.

THE Stein-Bloch clothes represent the best methods of the foremost American tailors.

Notice the coats, how smoothly they fit about the shoulders and neck. They are made of the best strictly all-wool materials, cut in the correct shapes on scientific lines, and will fit and wear satisfactorily, for in making them patient work has been put into them—work that has been shaping itself for fifty-two years of tailoring study. Most of these suits reduced are Stein-Blochs. All the desirable colors and patterns are represented, and the sizes include stouts, longs, and shorts, besides the regular sizes.

LOT 1—Suits of Fancy Worsteds and Cassimeres; strictly all-wool; light, medium, and dark effects. A large and splendid assortment of suits that

Were $27.50, $30, $32.50, and $35. Now $22.50 for Choice.

All sizes, from 34 to 46 chest measure.

LOT 2—Many Suits, in many styles, that

Were $20, $22.50, $25, and $27.50. Now $15.00 for Choice.

$15.00 and $18.50 Suits, $12.50 each.

Separate Trousers that were $5.00, $6.00, and $7.00—$3.95 a pair.

Fancy Vests that were $2.00, $2.50, and $3.00—$1.50 each.

Main floor—Tenth st.

Special Sale of Men's Neglige Shirts.

FIFTY dozen Men's Colored Neglige Shirts—not seconds and not a maker's overstock—but our own regular goods, made to our order. Madras and percale in a most attractive line of patterns and colorings; plain or plaited fronts; cuffs attached or separate. At the time of placing the order it was our intention to sell these shirts at $1.25 each, which they are actually worth. The season being advanced, however, we have marked them at the Special price, $1.00 each.

All sizes from 14 to 17, inclusive.

Special Sale of Men's Summer Pajamas.

NEW line of Men's Checked Nainsook and Printed Madras Pajamas offered at a specially low price. They are correctly proportioned, made well and finished with military collar and pearl buttons. All sizes, including extra large.

Notwithstanding the higher prices on cotton fabrics, we offer these at the Special price, $1.00 per suit.

Showing complete lines of Men's Summer Furnishings, including Hats, Cravats, Shirts, Underwear, Vests, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Collars, Cuffs, and the various articles of haberdashery necessary to a complete outfit.

Traveling Bags and Suit Cases

At the Manufacturer's Prices.

WE HAVE just secured a lot of Traveling Bags and Suit Cases, which we offer at a third to a half less than the regular prices.

These goods are the samples of a leading manufacturer and there are no two pieces alike. They are high-grade goods, reliable in every particular, and there are all styles and shapes. A splendid opportunity for those who are contemplating a trip to the Jamestown Exposition and for vacationists and travelers generally.

We offer the entire lot at a reduction averaging,

33 1/2 to 50 per cent

From the Regular Prices.

Resistant—EQUITABLE BUILD

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

More June Weddings Chronicled for Yesterday.

MISS MAUD HANNA WEDS

Is United in Marriage to Capt. H. F. A. Browne, of the British Army. Birthday Parties of the Young Sons and Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. R. Humphries.

In spite of the serious automobile accident in which Miss Maud Hanna and her fiancé, Capt. Horace F. M. Browne, of the British army, were both hurt Monday afternoon, they were married, as already arranged, at noon yesterday.

The ceremony, which was quiet and witnessed only by the immediate friends and relatives, was performed at St. Thomas' Church, the rector, Dr. C. Ernest Smith, officiating.

Mrs. Beulah Jones, the young woman's chaperon, who was badly hurt in the accident, was able to be present yesterday and to give Miss Hanna's hand in marriage. The bride was charming in her bridal finery of white Liberty silk, with which she wore a picture hat trimmed with plumes, and carried an ivory-bound prayer book.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Normandie, where, with Mrs. Jacobs, the bride has spent the past winter.

Mrs. Browne is a native of Cincinnati, but was educated at a fashionable school here in Washington. She has traveled extensively, and it was on one of her visits in Europe that she and Capt. Browne met. Capt. Browne, whose regiment is stationed in Burma, is now on leave, which he and his bride will spend traveling in this country and also in Canada and England. Later they will join his regiment.

Miss Jane Elizabeth Bailey and Mr. Edward Francis Gillan, of Pawtucket, R. I., were married with solemn nuptials yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church. Rev. Thomas Gillan, of Pawtucket, R. I., brother of the bridegroom, was the officiating priest, and the best man was Mr. Jacob Reil, of this city. The ushers were Mr. Charles Peirce and Mr. Newton Brewer, nephews of the bride, and her niece, Miss Elizabeth Peirce, was the maid of honor. Simple decorations of green and white and the soft glow of numerous candles lighted on the altar made a pretty picture for the wedding party. The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her brother-in-law, C. B. Peirce, from whose residence the wedding took place, wore a gown of white voile over a mousseline de soie, finely tucked and trimmed with mehlina lace, the under sleeves being ruffles of the same dainty material. A small white hat, caught at the side with a cluster of white violets, was worn with this, and instead of a bouquet, a white prayer book was carried. The maid of honor wore a dainty summer frock of white muslin and Valenciennes lace, with a large white hat, trimmed with long, white plumes, and she carried a cluster of pink sweet peas. An informal breakfast followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Peirce, 2300 P street northwest, for the relatives and a few intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillan left Washington in the afternoon for an extended wedding trip, and after six weeks or two months will take up their residence in this city.

Mrs. Jeannette O. Loving and Mr. John Matthew Thompson, of Berryville, Va., were married yesterday at 1 o'clock at the residence of the bride in the presence of a number of relatives, a large breakfast following the ceremony. Rev. Herbert Scott Smith performed the ceremony, which took place at an altar in a bower of palms and pink and white peonies, placed in a bay-window recess, and the same flowers beautified the whole first floor of the spacious dwelling. The bride wore a stylish suit of mode voile over tulle, and an exquisite blouse of white lace. Her hat shaded from white to mode, and was trimmed with a bird of paradise, and the wedding bouquet was a cluster of La France roses. Mrs. John Claggett, aunt of the bride, in whose name invitations to the wedding were issued, wore a gown of black lace and diamond ornaments, and Mrs. Clarendon Smith, another aunt, wore black lace over white satin. Mrs. Norman Orme, a sister of the bride, wore a princess gown of white lace. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Thompson, of Berryville, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Richmond, Va.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will take up their abode at 2419 Eighteenth street northwest.

A pretty home wedding of last evening was that of Miss Mary L. McCormick and Mr. Joseph G. Hough, Jr., of Loudoun County, Va., which took place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charlotte M. Pine, of 300 Florida avenue northwest. Rev. Edward Marshall Mott was the officiating clergyman, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen McCormick. Mr. Charles Timms stood with the bridegroom as best man. The ceremony was performed in a recess in the drawing-room, which was banked with palms and great branches of oak, and starred with clusters of bachelor buttons. Mr. John McCormick escorted his daughter and gave her in marriage. The wedding gown was of soft French mull elaborately trimmed with Irish point lace, a wreath of Bride roses was arranged in her hair, and she carried a cluster of the same buds. The maid of honor wore a white muslin, trimmed with lace and a pink pompadour sash and carried a bride's bouquet of roses. Miss Evelyn Slater played the wedding march. An informal reception followed the wedding.

Miss Nellie Cavanagh, sister of the bride, wore a simple gown of white silk and a becoming hat of white straw trimmed with pink roses and plumes. Mr. and Mrs. Astoria left Washington for an extended trip through the West, and will return to the city to make their future home.

Miss Marlon Speaks, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Speaks, and Mr. James Edward West were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at Mount Pleasant Congregational Church. Rev. M. Ross Fishburn performed the ceremony, and there was no reception except an informal one in the parlors. A profuse setting of palms, ferns, and clusters of cut flowers beautified the church, and huge bunches of peonies marked the pews reserved for the families of the bride and bridegroom. The bride was given away by her brother, Edward Speaks; and Mr. Paul Slemman acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. John B. Slemman, Jr., Mr. Horace W. Chittenden, Mr. Horace Dulin, Mr. Walter Scott Penfield, Mr. Edwin C. Dutton, Mr. Chauncey C. Williams, Mr. Charles A. Jones, and Mr. Fred C. Robb.

Both the bride and bridegroom have been engaged in working on children, and their attendants were little boys and girls from the first grade public school, where the bride has been a teacher, and primary department of the Mount Pleasant Church Sunday school, of which Dr. Fishburn is superintendent. The bridegroom is superintendent of the entire Sunday school.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church through separate doors, and with their attendants proceeded to the altar, where they met. The bride's attendants, attired in dainty white frocks, were Marion Hill, Elsie Flor, Catherine Tilden, and Millie Bailey. In attendance upon the bridegroom were Raymond Perry, Robert Lynch, Hummel Fishburn, and Walter Young.

The wedding suit was of white serge, severely tailored, with which was worn a dainty, hand-embroidered blouse. A becoming hat of white broad, trimmed with white wings and cream roses, completed the costume. A particularly beautiful musical programme was given by Mr. Fred S. Smith. Mrs. Speaks, mother of the bride, wore a most elaborate dress of white mull and lace. Mr. and Mrs. West left Washington immediately after the wedding for a bridal trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. R. Humphries, of 1227 O street northwest, gave a birthday party Tuesday night to their three younger children, Margaret Virginia Humphries, Tucker Graves Humphries, and Edward Vaux Humphries, whose respective birthdays occur on June 14, 18, and 22. The guests were received by the little hostess and hosts and, chaperoned by Miss Imogen Reynolds, went to Iowa Circle, where they enjoyed a number of outdoor games, returning to the house refreshments were served and the birthday cake was cut.

The guests were Miss Imogen Taylor, Miss Marion Letcher, Miss Thekla Tompkins, Miss Elizabeth Woodward, Miss Gertrude Lawrence, Miss Emily Letcher, Miss Gertrude Clarke, Miss Helen Clarke, Miss Agnes Clarke, Miss Helen Burck, Miss Frances Thompson, Miss Julia Hampton, Miss Evelyn Kissinger, Miss Cynthia Ingham, Miss Will Birch, Benjamin Goodman, Lloyd Watts, Harold Justia, and Hayes Jack.

The Belgian Minister and the Baroness Moncheur leave town today for New York, and will be the guests of Gen. Charles W. Whittier till Saturday, when they sail for Antwerp. They will summer in Belgium.

The Postmaster General, Mr. Meyer, who has been spending the week with his family in Boston, where he and Mrs. Meyer entertained at dinner last night at the Brookline Country Club for the Duke of the Abruzzi, will return here tomorrow.

Mrs. Newberry, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Tarol, and her two sons, Phelps and Barnes Newberry, will go this week to Watch Hill, Long Island, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh and their daughter, Miss Evelyn Walsh, have arrived here and are at the New Willard Hotel. They will not open their large home here for this stay, which is to be but of a week's duration. They are on their way to their summer place in Colorado.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Straus, with their son Roger and Mr. Straus' secretary, Mr. Weed, will leave here in July and will travel through the principal cities of Canada, then on to California, and from there to Hawaii. The date of their return is undecided.

Mrs. Korner, military attaché of the German Embassy, will sail for Germany today to join his wife, Mrs. Korner, who, with the children, left last month for Europe.

Mrs. A. H. Smith announces the marriage of her daughter, Madge Hawthorne, to Mr. Joseph Leonard Fraught, of Eugene, Ore., June 1, at Christ Church parsonage, Alexandria, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarty and Mr. and Mrs. Guise, of Falls, Ala., are guests of Mrs. Barnett at Afton House.

A morning musicale in honor of Miss Roselle Crump, of Buffalo, will be given by Mrs. Oldberg Friday, June 21, at 11 o'clock, in the Belasco Theater music room.

CADET RAMEL DROWNED.

First Accident of Kind in Thirty Years is Reported. A dispatch to the Treasury Department yesterday from Capt. Reynolds, commanding the Revenue Cutter school ship Chase, at Yorktown, Va., announced the death by drowning of George R. Ramel, a cadet who fell overboard while the ship was at sea, June 17. A life boat was cleared away, but the young man drowned when the boat was within a few feet of him. Ramel was appointed a cadet from New York in September of last year. It is said to be the first case of drowning or of serious accident among the cadets since the service was established, thirty years ago. Cadet Ramel was twenty-four years old.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Army Orders. Contract Surgeon FRANCIS V. LANGENDER, from Chicago to Manila, thence with Third Infantry to Philippines.

Maj. BECKER B. RAY, postmaster, from General Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco, to Philippines.

First Lieut. ROBERT STEWART, Ninth Cavalry, from General Hospital, Washington Barracks to Fort Bliss, Texas.

Capt. ARON GROSH, Hospital Corps, from Washington to proper station.

Private First Class JAMES J. BARNETT, Hospital Corps, from Washington to proper station.

Maj. REUBEN B. TURNER, Eighth Infantry, as assistant postmaster, from Postmaster General's Office, Mexican Ambassador to the United States, was given the honorary degree of doctor of laws and letters; Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, lately named Minister to Denmark, was given the degree of doctor of philosophy on his resignation. The comparative Method of Literature; Edward William Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, received the honorary degree of doctor of laws and letters; John Callan O'Loughlin, the well-known journalist, was granted an honorary master of arts, and Dr. Frederick Stenbock, of Philadelphia, received the honorary degree of bachelor of philosophy.

After the exercises a luncheon was served in the college refectory in honor of the guests and the graduates, to which was invited a great number of prominent Philadelphians, including Archbishop Ryan and the Philadelphia clergy.

The Mexican Ambassador returned to this city last night, while Dr. Egan and Mr. O'Loughlin were the guests of honor at a dinner given in Philadelphia.

Reading Circles Entertained.

The union meeting of the Home Mission Society of the city, at the residence of Hamline Methodist Episcopal Church, was entertained at the home of Mrs. William G. Thomas, 609 Q street northwest, Tuesday evening. An elaborate programme of music and recitations was presented by various members of the circle and outside talent. After the literary and musical programme, a dainty repast was served. The circle, through a few very appropriate remarks by Mrs. Roach, presented to Mrs. Thomas two exquisitely hand-painted china plates, which was quite a pleasant surprise.

Summer School at Y. M. C. A. Boys of the Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth grades of the public schools who failed of promotion will have a chance to retrieve their loss through the Y. M. C. A. Vacation School, which opens Monday under the instruction of Charles A. Johnson, principal of the Sprucewood School. This school was conducted last year by the Y. M. C. A. with an enrollment of twenty-two and an average attendance of twenty-eight for six weeks of the summer. Supt. Chancellor has approved the plan.

Midshipman Leaphart Dead. The War Department yesterday received a reply from Lieut. Col. Ayers, Fourth Cavalry, to the inquiry addressed to him by the department asking if he had been correctly quoted in a newspaper relating to the exclusion of Mrs. Ayers from West Point.

Movements of Vessels. The following movements of vessels were reported to the Bureau of Navigation: Arrived—June 17, Walapaes at Norfolk; June 18, Alabama at Indian Head, Abredera at Newport News, Rhode Island at Cape Cod Bay.

Sailed—June 18, Prairie from League Island for Savannah, Marchion from Hampton Roads for Baltimore, St. Louis from Bahia for Rio de Janeiro, Abredera from Norfolk for Newport News.

URELL SCENTS WAR

Commander of Spanish War Veterans Warns Nation.

CALLS FOR A LARGER NAVY

Claims Japan is Waiting Only for an Opportune Moment, and that Sooner or Later the United States Must "Enter the Field Against Yellow Hordes of the Orient."

Declaring that in his opinion war with Japan is inevitable, Col. Emmett M. Urell, past commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War Veterans, last night urged the members of the organization to prepare for the conflict. Col. Urell's speech was made at a meeting of the Department of the District of Columbia in honor of his successor, Commander-in-chief Hamilton Ward, in Grand Army Hall, last night.

The building of a large navy and active preparation for the hostilities was urged by Col. Urell in forceful language. Japan, he said, is only waiting the opportunity to strike, and it behooves the veterans of the Spanish-American war to be in readiness to respond to the call to arms.

"Elated over its victory over Russia, and confident in its power, the Japanese government is awaiting the opportune moment to declare war against the United States," said Col. Urell. "The time will come sooner or later when we will be forced to enter the field against the yellow hordes of the Orient."

Can Raise Millions of Soldiers.

"Let us not be lulled into a sense of false security, but rather in time of peace prepare for war. The history of this country has shown that there will be no delay in raising an army. Thousands, and if necessary, millions, of men will enlist and fight to the last ditch in defense of their country. A larger and better navy is needed, and as veterans, I urge you to use your influence as an organization and as individuals toward this end. If we are to have war, let us be prepared for it. Three million men responded to President McKinley's call to arms and many more will respond to the call of necessity, but we must be prepared to meet the enemy both on land and sea."

At the conclusion Col. Urell spoke of the advancement made in recent years by the United Spanish War Veterans, and urged its members to cast their votes, regardless of political affiliations, with the party which will give the organization the best support.

Province of Spanish War Veterans.

Commander-in-chief Ward, of Buffalo, N. Y., is making an official inspection of the various departments, and since March 15 has visited every post with the exception of those of Iowa and Kansas. He stated that the organization now numbers 40,000 members, or 20 per cent of the total number of men who served in the Spanish-American war. Throughout the West, he said, he found a fraternal spirit and a feeling of interest which bodes well for the success of the organization.

"The Grand Army of the Republic has occupied a great place in our history, but the members are passing away," said he. "The nation looks to the United Spanish War Veterans to carry the heavy burden that was upon them of perpetuating our national existence. It is a task of which we may well be proud, and can fall to no other body, whether it be Sons of Veterans or other similar organizations."

Addresses were made also by John Lewis Smith, national judge advocate general; Mrs. Mizzie W. Culver, president of the Department Women's Auxiliary; Mrs. Irving Ball, president of the Department of the Potomac; Women's Relief Corps, Grand Army of the Republic; Maj. Edwin Hudson, and Capt. L. Lipscomb, past department commanders; J. Walter Mitchell, department commander, presided.

Commander-in-chief Ward leaves for Scranton, Pa., to-day.

DISTINGUISHED MEN HONORED

Washingtonians Receive Degrees from Villa Nova College. Several distinguished Washingtonians received degrees from Villa Nova College, at Villa Nova, Pa., yesterday morning, when the commencement exercises of that institution were held. Dionisio M. Falcioni, apostolic delegate to the United States, was the guest of honor and presented the degrees.

A large number of students received their graduation diplomas, while Enrique Creel, Mexican Ambassador to the United States, was given the honorary degree of doctor of laws and letters; Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, lately named Minister to Denmark, was given the degree of doctor of philosophy on his resignation. The comparative Method of Literature; Edward William Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, received the honorary degree of doctor of laws and letters; John Callan O'Loughlin, the well-known journalist, was granted an honorary master of arts, and Dr. Frederick Stenbock, of Philadelphia, received the honorary degree of bachelor of philosophy.

Wash Parasols

Beautifully made with hemstitched borders, from $1 Up. Those at $1.25 and over are made with insertion as well.

KROEGER'S UMBRELLA STORE, 618 NINTH STREET N. W.

DOWNY'S STABLES

Bridal Carriages FOR JUNE WEDDINGS and other occasions.

Perfect Service. Reasonable Rates. Downey's Repository, 1620-1628 L St. N. W. Phone M. 2286.

EVERYTHING For Your Outing.

ENTIS Golf, and Baseball Goods, Fishing Tackle, Camping Goods, Canoes, Hammocks, Cameras, etc. Headquarters for SAFETY RAZORS. All reliable makes in stock. LOWEST CONSISTENT PRICES.

Walford's, 909 Penna. Avenue. SPORTING AND ATHLETIC GOODS.

REFRIGERATORS.

We sell the best and most scientifically constructed Refrigerators made. Prices range from $10 up.

BARBER & ROSS, Eleventh and G Streets.

WALL PAPER.

Exclusive designs put on your walls by experts. GET YOURS TO-DAY. FOER-HERZOG CO., 724 13th St. N. W. Phone Main 6630.

RUG REPAIRING AND CLEANING

Done by us is unexcelled. M. N. Hekiman & Co., Cor. 13th and G Sts. N. W. Phone M. 2063.

SEE that your jewels are intact and in proper condition before leaving town, thus avoiding loss and annoyance.

GALT & BRO., Established Over a Century, Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers, 1107 Pennsylvania Avenue.