

Woodward & Lothrop, New York. WASHINGTON. Paris.

An Exhibition of Imported Costumes, Wraps and Blouses

Is Announced for To-day, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Our personally selected European models in Women's Outside Wearing Apparel will be on exhibition this Monday and succeeding days of the week.

We have made very special efforts this season to obtain the finest examples of Fashion's latest dictates, and the result we place before you with perfect confidence of your approval and appreciation.

The collection consists of garments selected by us personally in Paris, Berlin and Vienna, the best productions of the leading modistes of these fashion centers, and suitable for all formal and informal occasions.

We Show: Elegant Day and Evening Costumes

From Francis, Doucet, Drecoll, Agnes, Paquin, Nicolas, Maurice Meyer, and others

Superb Evening and Street Wraps

From Raffin, Artus, Gersen et Cie, Laferriere, and others.

Magnificent Silk and Lace Waists--

Blouses they call them--from Elsie Papat, Ignace, Agnes, Klein, Sarah Meyer, Callet Soeurs, and Others as famous.

We did not buy a single garment which did not present its individual style idea or some unusual merit in treatment of combination. Herein is the chief charm of the assemblage--each garment is a study, a masterpiece of artistic effort.

The collection as a whole is the most comprehensive and most interesting we have ever shown--a truly magnificent array.

The exhibition is for your enjoyment and information to-day, and for the possession of those who desire the best that the dressmaking craft of the world can produce.

We also show a splendid collection of

American Costumes, Wraps and Waists

The handsomest and latest copies and adaptations of European ideas by America's most famous and exclusive tailors.

We Also Show a Charming Assemblage of

Misses' and Children's Garments,

Including exquisite specimens in Evening Wraps and Dresses, Dancing School and Party Frocks, and garments adaptable for all dress occasions and school wear.

This presentation then combines two magnificent and unusual collections, deserving of the attention of every lover of beauty and fashion to whom this invitation may come.

The invitation which we here extend requests your attendance to view the largest, most beautiful, most varied, and most costly exhibition of costumes which we have ever presented to our public.

A cordial welcome to all.

Diplomats Returning to the Capital for Winter.

MRS. BONAPARTE IN TOWN

Returns from Summer at Nahant, accompanied by Mr. Jerome Bonaparte--Viscount d'Alite Sailed for America on Saturday--Mr. and Mrs. McCallum Back for the Season.

The First Secretary and Charge d'Affaires of Spain and Madame Pastor have returned to the city and are in their house in K street for the winter.

Viscount d'Alite, Portuguese Minister to the United States, sailed for this country Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Benet, who have been making a visit to Washington, will sail for their home in Paris tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles Bell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julian Ripley, in New York, has returned to her home in Woodley lane.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Perley H. Eaton have issued invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter, Alida H., and Upshaw Wilson, Wednesday, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, in their 27th street home.

Madame Bonaparte has arrived in Washington and opened her house in K street, after spending the summer at Nahant. Mr. Jerome Bonaparte accompanied his mother.

Mrs. Huntington Wilson, wife of the Assistant Secretary of State, arrived at her home in Sixteenth street yesterday.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins and Miss Elkins, who have spent several months abroad, will sail for New York this week, and before opening their home in Washington for the winter will spend several weeks at Elkins, W. Va.

Miss Helen Frouke, of Massachusetts avenue, is visiting friends in Maryland.

Mrs. Robeson and her daughter, Miss Ethel Robeson, who have spent the summer abroad, are now in Paris on their return home, but will not arrive in this country until the middle of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Macauley and son, of Detroit, who have been visiting relatives in Washington for the past few days, returned to their home last evening.

The Misses Hickey, of 1817 Sixteenth street, are making a visit of several weeks in New York.

Col. John D. Hall, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Hall have returned to their apartment in the Cairo, after spending the greater part of the summer at Westhampton, L. I., later visiting in New York.

Miss Marie Routh, who was at Newport this summer, where she visited friends, has returned to her home, at 1140 Connecticut avenue.

Capt. Edward Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, the latter formerly Miss Henrietta Sands, of Washington, are at Hot Springs, Ark.

Lieut. John C. Montgomery, U. S. A., and Mrs. Montgomery, whose wedding was celebrated in Alexandria, September 21, are spending their honeymoon at West Point, and will go later to Fort Riley, Kans.

Brig. Gen. B. K. Roberts, U. S. A., retired, who has spent the summer at Mohagan Quarries, N. Y., has returned to Washington, with Mrs. Roberts, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, who returned to Washington several weeks ago and opened their home in K street, left Saturday for Mansfield, Ohio, to spend a short time. They will return to Washington for the winter and occupy the Sherman house, where Mrs. McCallum lived during the time her distinguished father was in the Senate, and where many very delightful entertainments were given at that time.

Mrs. M. D. McConnell, of this city, left last week for a trip of several weeks through Middle New York State, where she will visit relatives.

Representative and Mrs. Swagar Sherry, of Kentucky, have leased for the winter the house at 1722 Twenty-first street, and will take possession about the first of November.

The Misses Wheeler, daughters of the late Gen. Joseph Wheeler, are making a short visit in Washington en route from New York, where they have spent some time, to their home in Alabama.

Miss Jennie Silver has returned to her home, in New Hampshire avenue, after spending several months in New York.

The marriage of Miss Louise Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Stanton, of Georgetown, to Mr. J. L. Kolb will take place next Saturday at high noon at Holy Trinity Church. A breakfast for the bridal party and family will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Thirtieth and O streets.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs, of Baltimore, who are frequent visitors to Washington, have closed their cottage at Newport.

Miss Margaret Draper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Draper, who were in Washington for a few days recently, and will later return to their residence in K street for the winter, has been entered at a boarding school at Catonsville, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederik Howard announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Blanche May Fritz, to Mr. Harry J. Wilson, of Philadelphia, which will take place next Thursday at St. Peter's Church, at 6 o'clock. Miss Agnes Nally, of Washington, will be the bride's only attendant, and Mr. Howard Walker.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 5 o'clock in the parsonage of St. Matthew's Church, by the Rev. Father Cover, assistant rector. Only the families and a few friends will be present, and the bride and bridegroom will leave immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Jamestown and Norfolk, and from there will go to Boston by water. On their return trip they will spend some time in New York and Philadelphia. Their future home will be at 189 P street, northwest, where a newly furnished apartment is awaiting them.

Mrs. Le Roy Sunderland Smith, of New York, is spending two weeks at the New Willard. Mrs. Smith is president of the New York State Chapter of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, the society to which Mrs. Flora Adams Darling dedicated "Memories of Virginia," the proceeds of the sale to establish a fund for the purchase of a clock to be presented October 19 to the College of William and Mary, a memorial to Yorktown Day.

TWO-BASE HIT WINS BRIDE.

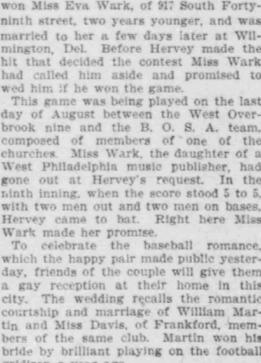

Girl Promises to Marry Player if He Brings in Winning Run.

Philadelphia, Oct. 13--By winning a tie baseball game at the West Overbrook Club, when he made a two-base hit, newly engaged Hervey, of 3217 Warren street, twenty years old, and an all-round athlete, won Miss Eva Wark, of 917 South Forty-ninth street, two years younger, and was married to her a few days later at Wilmington, Del. Before Hervey made the hit that decided the contest Miss Wark had called him aside and promised to wed him if he won the game.

This game was being played on the last day of August between the West Overbrook nine and the B. O. S. A. team, composed of members of one of the churches. Miss Wark, the daughter of a West Philadelphia music publisher, had gone out at Hervey's request. In the ninth inning, when the score stood 5 to 5, with two men out and two men on bases, Hervey made his hit. Right here Miss Wark made her promise.

To celebrate the baseball romance, which the happy pair made public yesterday, friends of the couple will give them a gay reception at their home in this city. The wedding recalls the romantic courtship and marriage of William Martin and Miss Davis, of Frankford, members of the same club. Martin won his bride by brilliant playing on the football gridiron a year ago.

Charming Design for a Tucked Waist.

The separate waist, whether of plain or fancy modeling, is very necessary to the modern feminine wardrobe, and a pretty one for ordinary wear is here illustrated. It is developed in a pongee-colored foulard dotted with bottle green--one of the prettiest of the new color combinations--while the yoke and sleeve trimmings are composed of putty-colored lace and insertion. The arrangement of tucks on the waist is very becoming, in front providing just the necessary fullness over the bust, and in the back emphasizing the slender lines of the figure. The sleeves may be made in elbow length or extended to the wrist by the addition of the deep cuff shown in the outline sketch. To develop this model in the medium size 3 yards of 32-inch material will be needed. Five sizes, 32 to 40 inches bust measure. A pattern of this may be obtained by enclosing 10 cents in stamps and addressing Pattern Department, The Washington Herald, 734 Fifteenth street northwest, giving number (2673) and size wanted.

KNIGHTS PAY TRIBUTE

"Discovery Day" Celebrated by Order of Columbus.

ST. ALOYSIUS' IS CROWDED

Services Opened by Rev. P. J. O'Connell, Pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church--Marshaled by P. J. Halligan in Gonzaga Hall--Sermon Delivered by Rev. W. J. Kerby.

St. Aloysius' Church was the scene of a most impressive vesper service last night, when 1,500 Knights of Columbus attended in a body and commemorated the anniversary of Discovery Day, the day in which Christopher Columbus, for whom the order is named, discovered America.

Not a seat in the church was vacant when the services were begun by Rev. P. J. O'Connell, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, and State chaplain of the organization. As the ceremonies progressed, the aisles became crowded, and at the end it would have been impossible for another person to have entered the church.

The members of the order met in Gonzaga Hall before the ceremonies and proceeded in line to the church. They were under the marshaling of P. J. Halligan, State deputy of the order, assisted by the county wardens.

In the sanctuary were many of the prominent clergy of the city, while several distinguished visitors witnessed the services from the body of the church.

The choral part of the service was rendered by the choir of the Holy Cross College of Brookland, and was under the direction of Prof. S. J. Kubel, organist and director of St. Aloysius' Church.

The sermon was preached by Rev. W. J. Kerby, of the Catholic University, who charged the knights to be faithful to their duties as knights and their obligations as Catholics.

ARRANGE TRUST CONFERENCE

Prominent Men from Many States to Be Delegates at Chicago.

Federal Regulation of Railroads, Tariffs, and Prices of Farm Products Will Be Taken Up.

New York, Oct. 13--At the conference on trusts and combinations, to be held at Chicago, October 23-25, under the auspices of the National Civic Federation, Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations; E. E. Clark, of the Interstate Commerce Commission; and F. B. Kellogg, special assistant attorney general, will present the case of the Federal regulation of railroads and corporations.

Members of the American Bar Association, and among the delegates, Seth Low, New York; John W. Tomlinson, Alabama; Bartlett Tripp, South Dakota; James M. Beck, New York; A. T. Akeny, Minn.; William Dudley Foulke, Indiana; Lewis Mayer, Illinois; and William P. Borland, Missouri, will participate in the discussion.

The discussion of State and Federal regulation will occupy the first day of the conference. The remaining days will take up the subjects of corporations, their capitalization and control, the protection of investors and stockholders, the regulation of public service and other corporations, the just and practicable limit of regulation by State and nation of combinations in transportation, production, distribution, and labor, and the relation of labor organizations, employers' organizations, and farmers' organizations to the trust question.

"Is the tariff the mother of trusts?" will be discussed by official representatives of the American Protective Trade Association and the American Free Trade League.

J. A. Everett, president of the American Society of Equity, a farmers' organization, will discuss that organization's proposition to control prices of farm products.

Herman Ridder, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, will discuss the white paper trust and the labor trust. Don C. Seitz, of the same organization, will discuss the labor problem.

HEARS SERMON BY 'PHONE.

Aged Woman at Mount Vernon, N. Y., Paid Compliment by Friends.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., Oct. 12--Miss Sarah Algood, who for more than sixty years has been a teacher in the Baptist Sunday school in Mount Vernon, heard a service which was conducted at that church to-day in her honor, by a committee of young people of the church, because she could not attend on account of her advanced age.

A large transmitter like a megaphone was rigged up in the pulpit, and the pastor, Rev. Dr. Ganges, preached, and the Sunday school children sang into it.

Miss Algood heard the service on the other end of the wire through a receiver attached to her chair. She was also sent a set of resolutions thanking her for her long services.
