

PLAN TO RAISE CASH

Mitchell Mining Company to Deposit Stock.

COMMITTEE IS THEN NAMED

Under Direction of This Body Reorganization Will Be Effected—Directors in Negotiation with Capitalists Who Propose to Advance $2,000,000 to Finance the Concern.

HOW IT LOOKS.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes Number of shareholders of record, Total number of shares, Shares to secure railway bonds, etc.

Action was taken by the stockholders of the Mitchell Mining Company last night looking to the establishment of a temporary office of the company here, to receive deposits of stock, according to the terms of the circular sent out from the New York offices of the company last week.

Chiefly at the suggestion of Mr. Le Roy Gough, one of the stockholders, it was determined to appoint a committee to canvass the shareholders in Washington, to explain the situation to them, and secure their agreements to the terms of the circular.

It was also decided to open a temporary office of 1202 F street, northwest, where the transfers could be effected.

The meeting of the Washington stockholders was called by President J. A. I. Cassidy, for the purpose, as he stated it, of answering questions and making an effort to get concerted action from the Washington holders of stock, which constitute nearly a majority of all.

President Cassidy said he had recently come from the New York offices of the company; that responses to the circular had been coming in quite satisfactorily, but that it was yet too early to determine whether the plan would succeed.

It was urged upon the holders of stock that it was urgent to act promptly, if the plan of reorganization proposed by the committee was to be carried out. He had called the meeting in the hope of clearing the way to accept the offer of the syndicate, which had offered to finance the company out of difficulty.

Mr. Cassidy went briefly over the statements made at the former meeting in Washington, showing the company was indebted to the extent of about $300,000, which about $75,000 was in urgent claims that must be met as soon as money could possibly be raised to meet them.

Mr. Cassidy said the directors imperatively must have $50,000 shortly or the company must go into the hands of a receiver.

The circular sets forth an agreement of the stockholders of the Mitchell Mining Company with the Standard Trust Company of New York, for which he receives a negotiable certificate or receipt, which carries with it the right to sell or otherwise dispose of the stock.

The depositing holder also signs a proxy by which he authorizes the committee on reorganization to act in his name in the pending negotiations with the syndicate.

The committee on reorganization consists of six directors of the company—F. V. Robinson, John A. I. Cassidy, William F. Frazier, M. F. Morris, and Philip W. Russell.

The circular states the directors are in negotiation with a company of capitalists which proposes to advance $2,000,000 to finance the company. The plan of reorganization is that the par value of the shares shall be made $5 instead of $10.

New stock will be issued, the present shareholders receiving one share and the syndicate taking one share for each share the company would pay $153 a share for the stock so received. That, he argued, would make the shares of the present holders worth an equal amount, at least in the development of the mining property in Mexico.

Four of the committee who will canvass among the Washington shareholders were named last night, as follows: Le Roy Gough, H. L. East, John R. Shields, and Henry C. Johnson, all of whom voluntarily offered to serve without compensation.

Receiver is Considered. The alternative of allowing the company to go into the hands of a receiver was considered. Judge Morris explained to the meeting how this might be effected. He said the mining property in Mexico was owned by the La Dicha Smelting and Mining Company, a Mexican corporation. The Mitchell Mining Company is an Arizona corporation, with principal offices in New York City. This company owns the stock of the La Dicha company.

Judge Morris said there were large legal difficulties in the way of a receivership, owing to the uncertainty as to the proper place to apply for a receiver. He said it would be best to try to bring such a suit in the courts of New York, but it might not be allowed on the ground of jurisdiction.

The company holds no property in Arizona, and he thought it could not be brought there. The result of the statement was that all agreed it would be the wisest course to avoid the legal proceedings, if possible.

When a call was made as to the willingness of the shareholders present to sign the agreement of the circular, nearly all present agreed, and a process was taken to allow time for the signing of the circular. About seventy-five signatures were given, many of whom surrendered their stock to the local committee.

It is the purpose of this committee to gather in as much of the Washington stock as possible within the next few days, with the voluntary assessments of 20 cents a share voted at the last meeting, and forward both to New York. It is hoped by this means to enable the committee on organization the means to complete the negotiations for carrying the deal through.

Teachers Attend Education Rally. Special to the Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Nov. 2.—Practically every school-teacher in Winchester and Frederick County attended the big rally in behalf of public schools and education held last night. Addresses were made by Dr. Ormond Stone, of the University of Virginia; Hon. R. E. Byrd and Hon. Robert M. Ward, of Winchester, Superintendent of Schools M. M. Lynch presided.

Early Morning Fire at Winchester. Special to the Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Nov. 2.—The residence of George W. Keller narrowly escaped destruction by fire which broke out at 3 o'clock this morning. The family was aroused barely in time to escape suffocation. Prompt work by the firemen confined the blaze to the wing, and the damage will be about $500. The origin of the fire is unknown.

POSTAL REFORMS PROMISED.

Parcels Post and Postal Savings Banks Are Probable. Special to the Washington Herald. Richmond, Va., Nov. 2.—At a banquet to the visiting postmasters by the business men of the city last night, some speeches were delivered which are significant. Postmaster Wood, of Louisville, Ky., said that he violated no confidence when he said that President Roosevelt will, in his annual message to Congress, come out in favor of the establishment of a parcels post.

C. W. Vickers, chief inspector, and personal representative of the Postmaster General, said that he favored, and that the administration is committed to, the postal savings bank.

ACTOR ACCUSED OF ABDUCTION.

Maryland Girl Says She Was Enticed from Home. Special to the Washington Herald. Norfolk, Va., Nov. 2.—Charged with abduction, Jacob Harmon, an actor, was arraigned in the police court to-day, the case being continued until November 8. Complaint in the case is made by Miss Florence Tracey, a pretty eighteen-year-old girl, of Frederick, Md., who alleges that Harmon persuaded her to leave her home under promise of marriage. Chief of Detectives Ford has communicated with the girl's parents, requesting them to send transportation for her return home. She gave her father's address as Charles Edward Tracey, 218 North Capitol Street, Frederick, Md.

DEMOCRATS AGAIN UNITED

Political Conditions in Prince George County Are Unique.

Republicans Not in Good Form. Sentiment Largely in Favor of Briscoe for Chief Judge.

Special to the Washington Herald. Upper Marlboro, Md., Nov. 2.—Political conditions in Prince George County are unique in that many of the candidates on either ticket appear to be padding their own accounts, and the result will be many split tickets at the election Tuesday.

Based upon the results in the election of 1905, it would seem that the Democrats have a slight advantage and that they should elect their entire ticket, as the conditions this year are about what they were in 1905.

There is a likelihood of a portion of each ticket being elected, and many are of the opinion that this is what will happen. The Democrats claim an advantage, as the result of the recent registration of new voters and the revision of the books is not less than 150 votes. If this claim is well founded, and as many ballots are rejected as in 1905, the Democrats should elect their State ticket and a majority of the candidates for the local and county offices. Then, too, the holding of the Democratic primaries will aid the State and county ticket, because many Democrats who would otherwise indifferent about coming to the polls will come out to vote for their choice for the United States Senate.

The Republicans are not in the best of form, especially in the upper districts, and the Democrats appear to be united, and, as a rule, their candidates are working for the success of the entire ticket. They seem to have more confidence than their opponents, and this counts for a great deal in a campaign where the result is likely to be close.

A pretty contest that is being watched with interest is between C. A. M. Wells and Richard N. Ryan, the Democratic and Republican candidates, respectively, for county treasurer. These gentlemen are jointly interested in several business enterprises, but this consideration does not enter into the contest, however, and both gentlemen are working day and night for supremacy. Mr. Wells is particularly strong in the upper districts of the county, and will get many Republican votes. On the other hand, Mr. Ryan is strong in the lower districts, and likely to take some Democratic votes from Wells.

The sentiment all over the county appears to be in favor of the retention of Judge John P. Briscoe, Democratic candidate for chief judge of the Seventh judicial circuit, on the bench, and both he and C. C. Magruder, a native of Prince George County, candidate for clerk of the Court of Appeals, are apt to run considerably ahead of their ticket.

It is the purpose of this committee to gather in as much of the Washington stock as possible within the next few days, with the voluntary assessments of 20 cents a share voted at the last meeting, and forward both to New York. It is hoped by this means to enable the committee on organization the means to complete the negotiations for carrying the deal through.

A Thanksgiving Day Proclamation.

Aside from the significance attached to Thanksgiving Day as a time when the nation is giving thanks for its prosperity, there is another thought which occupies the attention of almost every one:

THE THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER.

There are no greater epicures than the residents of Washington, and the readers of The Washington Herald, especially its woman readers, are requested to send in menus which will best give their individual ideas of the most appetizing Thanksgiving Day dinner.

To the four best menus received on or before November 22, The Washington Herald will give the senders $5 each. The winning menus will be published in The Washington Herald Sunday, November 24, and will be selected by a competent committee.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Conference on Extension of Paving to Be Held.

WEST END IMPROVEMENTS

Albert McCuen Found Dead in Fish-town—Mrs. Beach Repels Attempted Assault by Unknown Man—New Road Proposed—Charters Granted, Negro Arrested for Stealing.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone 88.)

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 2.—With a view of making arrangements for extending the modern paving on King street, from the corporation limits to the union passenger station, a conference will be held Sunday between the members of the Alexandria County board of supervisors, officials of the Washington Southern Railway, the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, and Mayor Paff, of this city, at whose request the matter will be considered. The meeting will probably be held early next week.

In a short time the work of repaving the western end of King street will be completed as far as the corporation line, leaving the balance of the distance to the station without a better walkway than a dirt road and a plank walk. This section lies in Alexandria County, and the city is, therefore, unable to complete the improvements to the station. An extension of the paving is regarded as necessary, as the roadway becomes almost impassable to pedestrians in winter.

Fisherman Found Dead.

Albert McCuen, a resident of the north-western section of the city, was found dead early this morning in a small frame house in Fish-town, where he was spending the night in company with Frank Williams. The couple had been engaged in fishing during the day, and at night retired to sleep in a small structure near the wharf. Williams arose about 3 o'clock this morning and called to his companion, without receiving any response. An investigation showed that the latter was dead. Dr. Samuel E. Moore, the city coroner, was notified, but deemed an inquest unnecessary, finding that death had resulted from natural causes. The remains were removed to an undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

Attempted Attack Repelled.

Report was made to the station-house to-night that an unknown man had attacked and badly frightened Mrs. Leroy Beach, about 7 o'clock this evening while she was in the yard of her home, 108 Prince street. It was stated that as Mrs. Beach was about to enter the woodshed she was assaulted by the man, who knocked her down. He became alarmed at her cries and ran away at once. Mrs. Beach was so agitated that she was unable to tell whether the intruder was white or colored.

The State corporation commission has granted a charter to the Blue Ridge/Lumber Company, of this city, with a capital stock to range between $1,000 and $15,000. The incorporators are Louis C. Barley, of Alexandria, president; W. C. Waite, of Culpeper, vice president; and R. T. Green, of Culpeper, secretary and treasurer.

The commission has also granted a charter to the Frank Hume Company, of Alexandria, with a capital stock to be between $25,000 and $100,000. The incorporators are Frank Hume, president; Howard Hume, vice president; R. S. Hume, secretary and treasurer, all of Alexandria. The object is to conduct a wholesale and retail grocery business.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of supervisors for Alexandria County was held to-day at the county courthouse on Fort Myer Heights. Routine business was transacted, and a commission was appointed to view the route of a proposed road, connecting the Muckpot road with the Leesburg turnpike in Jefferson district.

Rev. W. M. Palsal, pastor of Bethany M. P. Church, will deliver an address to-morrow afternoon at the special meeting for men to be held in the lecture room of the Washington Street M. E. Church South. The subject will be "The Man Behind the Gun."

Sylvester Quail was arrested to-night on suspicion of stealing a quantity of copper wire belonging to the Alexandria Electric Company. He was taken to the station-house, where he was locked up at the station-house. The arrest was made by Policeman Knight.

Special to the Washington Herald. Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 2.—Republicans of Washington County closed their campaign to-night with a large mass meeting at Clear Spring, where addresses were delivered by Thompson A. Brown, candidate for the house of delegates, and Frank G. Wagaman, both of the Washington County bar. The past week has been one of the most strenuous for both parties ever experienced in this section of the State.

RUSSIAN DOUMA IS A FARCE

Third National Body Supports Autocracy and Countenances Crimes.

Prisons Filled with Innocent Political Prisoners, and Wholesale Executions Frequent.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—The farcial elections for the third Douma are now complete, and, on its face, the new legislation is favorable to the existing government. To pretend that it represents Russia in any sense would be a absurdity. It is a mere travesty on the representative body. Yet some Constitutionalists seek comfort in the retention of its existence in any form. It is argued that the government may not find it so amenable as they expect, whereas, if it develops a will of its own, the Czar will find it extremely difficult to coerce it on the ground of its being revolutionary.

The Octobrists, who apparently control it, are by no means prepared to accept either autocracy or bureaucracy on the old lines, and they are certain to demand at least moderate reforms. Meantime, the old struggle between tyranny and terrorism goes on, throughout the country with increasing vigor.

Secret trials and wholesale secret executions of the records of them, such as become known, are not so commonplace that they are no longer sent to the foreign press, because even slaughter oftentimes repeated, becomes monotonous, and the world at large takes little interest in its record.

Supplementary prisons have been opened in every town of any size in Russia, and they all teem with human beings, many of them innocent of any crime. The tortures and other horrors in these places are no longer confined to the Russian people, but are being inflicted on the thousands of the "foreigners" who have commenced a campaign of assassination against the officials in charge. Certain of these have been killed within the past few days for their inhumanity. But there is nothing to show that this policy has in any way ameliorated the lot of the unhappy victims.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

To Judge the condition of the real estate market by what brokers say of it would be a difficult task. One agent will tell the inquirer that the situation is very dull, that money is scarce, sales few, and business at a standstill. Another will say his office is doing a bigger business than ever before, and will show a bunch of jacketed sales under negotiation to prove his statement.

THE TRUTH SEEMS TO BE THAT THE MARKET IS RATHER DULL, MANY OF THE BROKERS DOING A LESS VOLUME OF BUSINESS THAN AT OTHER TIMES.

In other offices business has been fairly active through the fall months, particularly in medium priced residence property, the kind which always finds ready sale. It is a fact that during the past week sales have been reported of property costing large sums, and trades that have been hanging fire for many weeks have been consummated and the payments made. The real estate record, the trust indicator of the real estate business, has been up to the average for this season of the year. Yesterday it was particularly full, indicating that the trading of the past week has been fairly active.

EVIDENCE HAS BEEN FURNISHED DURING THE PAST WEEK OF THE QUICK SALE OF TWO AND THREE STORY RESIDENCES, NEWLY BUILT.

One such row in the northeast section has been closed out and the houses are not yet all finished. Other rows in the northwest portion of the District are selling before completion, or as soon as placed on the market, and the sales are about evenly divided between persons who buy the houses to live in and those who purchase them for investments.

Building operations, that is, new undertakings, are in moderate volume this year. This is due primarily to the labor troubles under which Washington has been suffering since last spring. Many persons who have large building projects in view are afraid to begin, not knowing whether the buildings could be finished without some troublesome tie-up, which would leave things in the air, with money tied up and probable loss the result. Considerable building has been done during the summer and fall, and some has been started anew, but in many instances operations have been suspended at one point and the owners and builders put to much trouble and expense. Some have carried their operations through without union labor with comparative success. All in all, however, building has been only of the urgent sort or where the courage of the owner and contractor has been of the heroic kind.

Richardson & Burgess yesterday stated that work upon the house of Thomas F. Ryan, which they are remodeling at a cost of about $100,000, is going forward rapidly in Nelson County, Va.

Liebermann & Hawn have made public the following sales: For John H. Nolan, the new residence at 1822 Connecticut avenue, northwest, facing "Oak Lawn," for about $75,000. For Dr. Rowdybush to Mrs. Conaway, his double brick dwelling, 1165 K street northwest, price about $12,000.

For Anthony Z. Tysowski, his residence, 1217 Vermont avenue, just above Thomas Circle. Price paid, about $15,000. Liebermann & Hawn have also taken a deposit on a centrally located corner business property, and have sold three small properties in the northeast at $2,500, $3,000, and $3,500.

The following sales are reported by the Moore & Hill Real Estate Company: For Mrs. Emily J. Wilkins, to James F. Donahoe, 1229 Columbia road, $5,000. For Percy W. Pickford, to Joseph Lord, 127 E street southeast, for $3,500. For S. Morris Poff, 596 S street northwest, for $5,500.

To W. H. Athens, 152 D street northeast. For the Rothert estate, in square 274, bounded by First, Second, and D streets, and North Carolina avenue southeast, one of the lots fronting 54 feet on First street, by a depth of 150 feet. On this lot Thomas H. Pickford will erect a four-story apartment house to cost about $60,000.

For Edward B. Blizard, to B. F. Parker, 1208 Thirteenth street northwest. For John P. Spindle, to Horace G. Harding, 125 Tenth street northwest. For Charles W. Hopper, to W. Johnston, 231 Twelfth street northeast, for $4,150.

For Thomas H. Pickford, to Francis J. Stiebel, 58 Fourteenth street southeast. For Andrew Korman, 632 Fifteenth street northeast. For J. H. Tabler, 618 C street northeast.

TWO GIRLS ASPHYXIATED.

Wealthy Young Women from Italy Found Dead in Uncle's Home.

New York, Nov. 2.—Ignorance of the use of gas caused the death of Achillina Padigno and Juliette Fillet, beautiful and wealthy Italian girls, who were found asphyxiated to-day at the home of their uncle, Michael Padigno, real estate dealer, at 47 East 116th street.

They arrived here from Palermo, Italy, a few days ago on a visit. Last night they retired in joyous frames of mind. It is believed that one of them turned off the gas and then by accident turned it on again. The full flow of gas was escaping from the fire, when a servant opened the bedroom door to-day.
