MEMORIAL MEETING ON FEB. 9

Representative Men Unite to Give Public Expression to the Esteem in Which the Late Priest of St. Patrick's Was Held at the National Capital—Committees Appointed.

A memorial meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon, February 9, to give public expression to the esteem in which the late Father Stafford, Rector of St. Patrick's Church, was held at the National Capital.

Commissioner Macfarland, who presided, spoke briefly of the object of the gathering and emphasized the propriety of such a memorial. He read the list of names of gentlemen, friends of Father Stafford, who had been invited to the preliminary gathering, the majority of whom were present, and added that if all the friends of the popular pastor had been invited the list would have included the entire community.

Letter from Speaker Cannon. Speaker Cannon, whose official duties kept him at the Capitol, sent a letter, expressing the heartfelt approval of the idea and speaking of his great admiration for Father Stafford.

The General Committee. Vice-President Fairbanks, P. P. Madigan, Speaker Cannon, John A. Madigan, Baron von Heintzelman, L. H. Macgruder, Secretary Bonaparte, James D. Addresses and Music. Immediately after the adjournment of the general committee the subcommittee met and outlined the plans for the memorial meeting. It will be held in one of the theaters at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday, February 9. The program will consist of several short addresses by well-known men, including Father Stafford as a citizen and friend, as a priest, a patriot, a philanthropist, an orator, and a national character. These addresses will be interspersed with music by St. Patrick's choir and probably a section of the Marine Band.

PRaises the Milk Bill. Commissioner Macfarland's reasons for desiring its Passage. The bill proposing to regulate the local milk supply, prepared by the special milk committee appointed by the Commissioners, and approved by the committee at a meeting last Friday, has been approved by the Board of Commissioners, and will be forwarded to Congress in a few days, with a request for its early enactment.

This measure, which has been previously described, is regarded by Commissioner Macfarland, at whose suggestion the committee was appointed last April as the crown of its labors. He regards the various provisions of the bill as imperative in the interest of public health, and will use every effort to have it passed.

JOHN WALTERS IS INDICTED. New York Bookmaker Must Answer Gambling Charge.

Alleged that He Set Up a Gaming Table at Benning Fall Meeting.

As exclusively forecasted in The Washington Herald last week, the grand jury has indicted a New York bookmaker for the purpose of bringing a test case to determine whether the "perambulating" bookmaker at Benning violates the law of the District of Columbia with regard to setting up a gaming table.

The bookmaker indicted is John Walters, and he is charged with setting up a gaming table at Benning at the last fall meet in November. Two indictments were returned, charging the same alleged unlawful acts. They were prepared by Assistant District Attorney Adkins, describing the alleged offenses in different ways.

Following Davis' conviction, bookmakers at Benning discarded black boards, and all other usual paraphernalia of a bookmaker, and did not participate themselves in one place, but "kept moving." Justice Stafford, in his charge to the jury, expressed doubt as to whether a person, even though he accepted a number of bets, could be convicted of "setting up and maintaining" a gaming table, provided he did not use a blackboard, station himself in a permanent location, employ a sheet writer, etc.

SUES FOR BACK PAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Sousa Wants Money Due Late Husband.

MOTHER OF FAMOUS COMPOSER

Asserts She Is Entitled to Sum of $19,500 for Each Month from March 4, 1886, to April 27, 1892—Served in Marine Corps and Was a Member of the United States Marine Band.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sousa, mother of John Philip Sousa, famous band conductor and composer of marches, yesterday instituted proceedings in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. She brings action to compel Hon. Vespasian Warner, Commissioner of Pensions, to pay her money which she alleges is due her as the widow of Antonio Sousa, for many years an enlisted musician in the Marine Band, of which his son later became conductor, and in which he won, on account of his marches, a high place among American composers.

The widow states that in December 1892, the then Secretary of the Interior, in a case similar to hers, decided that payment under the terms of section 456 was not a pension, but "retired pay," and allowed the applicant in that case to draw both awards. Notwithstanding this decision, Mrs. Sousa states, the Commissioner of Pensions was granted, when the pension was granted, the Commissioner canceled the payment of $19,500 a month, on the ground that, under the law, no person could receive two pensions at the same time.

TAILORS DISCUSS CLOTHING. Annual Convention of Association Opens in the Arlington Hotel.

Delegates Discuss Various Styles and Methods, and Incidentally Talk of Ready-made Goods.

The Custom Cutters' Association of America, which is holding its twentieth annual convention in the Arlington Hotel, convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. An address of welcome was made by Commissioner Macfarland, and P. J. Foley, president of the local branch of the association, also welcomed the delegates.

Place Your Rented and Vacant Houses

With a Reliable and Prompt Remitting Agent.

DON'T hesitate to change agents; if his services are unsatisfactory, that is your duty and privilege.

DON'T employ an agent who does not give his personal attention to every detail in the management of his client's property.

DON'T have an agent who is engaged in such private enterprises that require his thought and personal attention and allows your interests to suffer.

DON'T expect an agent to rent your vacant house and collect rents promptly who does not advertise extensively and cannot afford to employ a large force of competent clerks.

DON'T remain with an agent who delays sending your rents, although the tenants have paid promptly. You can make better use of your money.
