AVOID JURY SERVICE

Talesmen Fear Prospect of Long Seclusion.

LAND FRAUD CASE GOES ON

Eleven Men in Box and Panel Exhausted—Censor Appointed, to CIP Newspaper Which Jurors Will Read—Opening Statement on Monday—Case May Last Three Months.

Locked up, day after day perhaps for three months, isolated from family and friends and business, particularly in the spring of the year, is the unattractive outlook that faces the jury in the land-fraud trials. Talesmen make many shifts to avoid service.

The trial of Frederick A. Hyde, John A. Benson, Henry P. Dimond, and Joost H. Schneider for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government out of valuable land in the West continued yesterday. After two days' work, during which 101 talesmen were examined, but eleven men are in the box, and the panel is exhausted.

The case was adjourned until Monday morning, when the work of examining twenty-five additional talesmen which Justice Stafford ordered summoned will be taken up.

Three Months' Seclusion.

It has been practically decided that when completed the jury will be quartered at a local hotel, and will be kept together in charge of deputy marshals until a verdict is returned. It may be July 1 before the case goes to the jury.

Justice Stafford has given careful consideration to pleas of talesmen to be excused from jury service. Where talesmen have stated that their health or business would suffer, they were excused.

President Albert F. Fox, of the Columbia National Bank, was one of the talesmen summoned yesterday. Both sides tried hard to secure Mr. Fox as a juror, and Mr. Fox tried hard to escape.

He was excused only after he stated that he takes an active part, and gives his personal attention to all the affairs of the bank, and that he did not think he would be able to give his closest attention to the testimony, in view of the responsibilities connected with his position.

Sick and Dent Talesmen.

Several talesmen filed doctors' certificates. Others stated they were deaf, and thought it would be difficult for them to hear testimony.

Of the eleven men selected Thursday, but one remains among the eleven who are now temporarily selected. This is Frank W. Ross, negro, and the only negro thus far chosen.

Following are the eleven men now selected: Edward H. Jett, Elmer H. Catlin, Charles P. Hart, Henry P. Elliott, John P. Dunn, Frank W. Ross, Charles E. Burdett, Alfred B. Dent, Bennett A. Fowler, Samuel U. Funk, and Egbert A. Pitkin.

Justice Stafford has appointed Clerk Samuel McC. Hawken censor. Mr. Hawken will cut out of papers furnished to the jury all references to the trial.

The government has three challenges remaining, and the defense has one. It is thought the jury will be completed and the opening statement made on Monday morning.

ALIMONY PENDING TRIAL.

Mrs. Brown, whose husband would Annul Marriage, Gets $40 a Month.

Justice Gould yesterday signed an order requiring the Riggs National Bank to pay out of funds belonging to John A. Brown, an octogenarian, $40 a month alimony to Mrs. Rachael A. Richardson Brown, against whom Mr. Brown some time ago filed suit for annulment of marriage.

The bank is instructed to pay into the hands of the clerk of the court $500, from which the payments of alimony will be made.

In his petition for annulment of the marriage, Mr. Brown said when the ceremony took place, in November last, he was absolutely helpless, being paralyzed. He stated that the license was procured without his knowledge and consent.

In a cross bill filed, Mrs. Brown denied the allegations, and said her aged husband told her to get the license, etc. She also alleges that Brown's relatives are responsible for the filing of the suit.

Mr. Brown is said to be wealthy, and, in addition to other property, owns about $50,000 in stocks and bonds.

TAKES ISSUE WITH SENATORS

Members of Chamber's School Committee Object to Dolliver Bill.

Controversial Statement Made in Congressional Record that People of District Are Not Opposed.

The school committee of the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting yesterday, at which the recent discussion in the Senate of the proposed Dolliver school law was considered at some length.

The committee took offense at some statements made by Senator Burkett on the floor of the Senate. The meeting was for controverting some of these statements and to strengthen the hands of Senators opposed to the passage of the bill.

One of the statements read from the Congressional Record was to the effect that there was no objection to the passage of the bill on the part of the people of the District of Columbia.

The committee decided to send a letter containing some newspaper clippings which set forth in detail the objections made by the people of the District through the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade, Citizens' associations, and other media of expression. This letter will show, according to the views of the committee, that 90 per cent of the people of the District are opposed to the passage of the Dolliver bill.

It was also decided that letters should be written to those Senators who had stood by the people of the District in opposition to the bill and express appreciation for their attitude toward the measure.

It is understood that a meeting of the board of directors of the Washington Board of Trade has been called for the purpose of receiving the report of its special committee on the merger of the two grade bodies of the city.

WOULD AMEND THE CODE.

Measure Submitted to Congress by the Commissioners.

An amendment to the District code of laws, which has as its purpose the filing of annual reports by the corporations of the District, was submitted by the Commissioners to Congress yesterday.

The present code provides that their reports shall be filed with the recorder of deeds, but no provisions are contained in it to impose penalty for nonconformance with the law. The newly drafted amendment, as prepared by the District corporation prosecutors, requires all corporations failing to comply with the law, with the view of restraining them from doing business in the District. Provisions are contained in the new amendment making it a punishable offense to willfully swear falsely in regard to any provision of the report, or to misappropriate any funds of the organization.

More than 7,000 incorporation papers have been filed with the recorder of deeds since January 1, 1907. Most of these were filed by companies formed for business purposes and gain, of which there were about 1,000 since 1902, but less than 300 have filed the annual reports required by law. The number grows smaller each year, the Commissioners contend, and to check this evil, the proposed amendment was drafted, to compel the issuance of reports by the corporations operating in the District.

ELECTION BY KNIGHTS.

Columbia Commandery Holds Important Annual Event.

The annual election of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templars, was held last evening, with the following result:

Eminent commander, Charles P. Swett; generalissimo, Francis A. Sebring; captain general, Charles A. Stewart; senior warden, William McAleer; junior warden, J. Frank Trazzere; excellent prelate, J. H. McIntosh; treasurer, George Gibson; recorder, Faber Stevenson; standard-bearer, F. D. Underwood; sword-bearer, H. C. C. Siles; warden, W. W. Jernane; trustee, Eminent Sir Charles W. Hanford; eminent Sir Walter B. Pettus; Right Eminent Sir George Gibson.

The past year has been an important one in the history of Columbia Commandery. A pilgrimage was made to Saratoga to attend the triennial convocation of the Knights Templars, and on that occasion the drill corps carried off second prize in a competitive drill with the crack drill corps of the United States. Again, at the annual inspection and review the drill corps won first prize for the best drilled corps in Washington, D. C.

At the laying of the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple, a project that had its inception in Columbia Commandery, the commandery acted as part of the escort, and at the Masonic Fair the total receipts of the booths operated by the knights and their ladies exceeded those of any other body by a considerable amount. The total membership of Columbia Commandery is 573.

Goldenberg's "THE DEPENDABLE STORE" SEVENTH AND K STREETS

A Noted Fifth Avenue, New York, Maker's Stock of SKIRTS at 1-2 PRICE AND LESS

Yesterday's rousing response to our announcement of the purchase of a leading manufacturer's stock of Skirts shows the public's appreciation of our efforts to bring unusual values. This latest achievement is one of the store's most notable sale of skirts. There has never been an offering of such fine quality garments at such low prices—financial necessity compelled the maker to turn his stock into money—and our low spot cash offer was accepted.

Every Skirt in the immense collection of garments represented in our purchase is of the highest class. The establishment on Fifth Avenue, New York City, is noted all over the country for its fine quality garments, correct styles, and the smart tailoring put in all the skirts which are produced in its workrooms.

It is these splendid Skirts which we offer in to-day's sale at half and less than half regular prices. No sale of skirts ever provided such extraordinary opportunity for money saving nor have you ever bought such fine qualities and good styles at such prices as these before.

Walking Skirts, consisting of such desirable materials as chiffon panamas, voiles, fancy checks, nobby stripe materials, invisible stripe panamas, shepherd checks, novelty weaves, with woolen border effect, cream serges and mohairs, and other fashionable fabrics.

In stylish grays, blues, browns, black and white checks, plaids and checks, brown and blue checks, invisible blue stripes, cream color, and many late models in plain black.

Colors include tans, light grays, navy blue, light brown, dark brown, black-and-white imported effects, plain black voiles, cream color serges, colored and black taffetas.

Values actually worth up to $12.00 offered to-day at $4.98

Values actually worth up to $16.50 $6.98

Values actually worth up to $20.00 $8.75

The lot includes Handsome Kilted Voile Skirts, richly trimmed with taffeta; plain plaited voile models; Clifton Panama Skirts, trimmed with tailored bands; Full Wide Flare Clifton Panama Skirts, trimmed with folds. Other wide flare models are beautifully trimmed with tailored folds, and still other styles are made with many gores and wide flare, trimmed with folds.

In this lot are included the finest Skirts and most exclusive styles produced by this noted maker. Finer or more desirable garments are not to be found at any price.

Many of the models are elaborately trimmed with taffeta and folds, others are flare-gored models, richly laced with velvet ribbon. Still, others are handsome plaited styles embellished with narrow tailored bands.

Some of the most beautiful and most expensive garments measure full six yards around the bottom.

In a complete variety of most sought-after colors and effects shown this season. Regular prices, up to $20.00. Sale price, $8.75.

DEMANDS $10,000 DAMAGES.

Suit Begun Against Express Company by J. J. Shea.

James J. Shea, an administrator of the estate of John B. Ingelude, yesterday filed suit for $10,000 damages. Ingelude, on December 16, 1907, was struck by a runaway horse belonging to an express company, and sustained injuries from which he died four days later.

It is charged the horse was vicious and wild and not a proper animal to be driven in the city. A son, Arthur Ingelude, twelve years old, a cripple, was wholly dependent upon his father, and by reason of the death of the boy has been left to the care of charity. Attorney H. Winship Wheatley represents the administrator.

PRIZE FOR BEST DESIGN.

Contest Won by Harry F. Cunningham, of This City.

The New Jersey chapter of the American Institute of Architects recently offered a prize for the best design submitted of a street front for a three-story dwelling, to be built on a city lot of 35 feet front. Notice of the competition was advertised in all the architectural magazines, and nearly 200 architects and students submitted designs.

The first prize was awarded to Harry F. Cunningham, Washington, D. C.; second prize, Gerald F. Galloway, Washington, D. C.; third, to Theodore E. Wirths, New York. Honorable mention: Messrs. Schell Lewis, Bayonne, N. J.; Joseph A. Locke, Birmingham, Ala.; Frederick J. Messke, Baltimore, Md.; and Dean Parmelee, Knoxville, Tenn.

Prof. Hamilton, of Columbia University, criticized the designs on April 2, at the Free Public Library, Newark, N. J.

Harry F. Cunningham, winner of the first prize, is a graduate of McKinley Manual Training School, of this city, and is a member of the Washington Architectural Club Atelier.
