IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Tableaux Vivants Draw Another Large Audience.

BOXES OCCUPIED BY NOTABLES

MaJ. and Mrs. Wilcox entertained at Dinner—Other Hosts of Last Night. "She Stoops to Conquer" to Be Presented by the Gunston Hall Alumnae Association—Social Notes.

Another large and fashionable audience greeted the second performance at the Belasco Theater yesterday afternoon, when the beautiful tableaux vivants were seen again. Many in the audience Thursday came again yesterday. So charming were the pictures, they are well worth seeing even a dozen times.

Miss Boardman, in her box, entertained the Baroness von Sternburg, wife of the German Ambassador, and her sister, Miss Langham; Mrs. Taft, wife of the Secretary of War, and Mrs. Murray Crane.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Mrs. Nabuco had in their box party the Naval Attache of the French Embassy and Mme. de Blampre, Mrs. Fish, and Signor Montana, of the Italian Embassy.

Mrs. Jusserand, wife of the French Ambassador, also entertained a box party. Her guests included Baroness von Freuchen, wife of the naval attache of the Austro-Hungarian Embassy, and Signor Cora, of the Italian Embassy.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Newberry were among the box-holders. With them was the senior Mrs. Newberry.

Mrs. Richardson Clover was also hostess of a box party. Others in the fashionable audience were Prince Koudacheff and M. de Thal, of the Russian Embassy; the Mexican Charge d'Affaires and Mme. and Mlle. Godoy, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Brownson, Mrs. Welmore, Col. Francis Colton, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. H. G. Slater, Mrs. Lee Phillips, Mrs. Philip Sheridan, Mrs. Cowles, Mrs. and Miss Condit, Mrs. Don Cameron and Miss Martha Cameron, Mrs. Chetard, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. James, Miss George Williams, Mrs. Reed Knox, Mrs. Eldridge Jordan, Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, Mrs. Hinkley, Miss Mabel Hume, Mrs. Churchill Candee, Mme. Hebbinghaus, and Miss Anna Cockrell.

MaJ. and Mrs. Wilcox entertained at dinner, last night, at their home in Twenty-first street. In the company were Capt. Fox Connor, U. S. A., and Mrs. Connor, Miss Brandreth and Miss Robinson, of New York, Gen. Edgerly and Capt. George H. Shelton, U. S. A.

Mrs. George M. Robeson and her daughter, Miss Robeson, entertained at dinner, last night, at their home in N street, complimentary to Mrs. Robert Drayton and Miss Julia Berwind, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hawkins, wife of Brig. Gen. Hamilton Hawkins, entertained at luncheon, yesterday, complimentary to their house guest, Mrs. George Gray, wife of Judge Gray, of Delaware.

Mrs. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings were among the dinner hosts of the evening, entertaining for Miss Parish, who has been visiting their daughter, Miss Jennings, and is now leaving for her home in New York.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cowles were their dinner hosts of the evening.

Mrs. Seth Shepard, wife of Judge Shepard, entertained a number of ladies at bridge whist, at her home in K street, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Andrew Y. Bradley, who has been away, all winter, in Pennsylvania, has returned, much improved in health.

Mrs. Sheridan and the Misses Sheridan, after spending the winter in Mexico, have returned to Washington.

Mrs. Reayburn, wife of Mayor Reayburn, of Philadelphia, arrived in Washington, yesterday, to spend Easter as the guest of her brother, Gen. Crozier.

Mrs. Van Vechten Olcott has returned to her home in this city from New York, where she spent several days this week.

Mrs. Madden and Miss Madden, wife and daughter of M. B. Madden have left Washington for Chicago, and will not return to their apartment at the Highlands again this season.

Mrs. Henry W. Fitch and her daughter, Miss Henrietta Fitch, left for Detroit Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Pound, of Buffalo, N. Y., are at the Albany for a few weeks.

"She Stoops to Conquer" will be given by the Gunston Hall Alumnae Association on April 2, at Gunston Hall.

Mrs. Edwards, wife of Brig. Gen. Clarence Edwards, and daughter, little Beesie Edwards, who have spent several weeks in Cuba, returned to their home in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Robert Winthrop, mother of the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, who has been the guest of her son, has returned to her home in New York City.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Straus, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Hockaday, left Washington for Savannah, Ga., Thursday evening.

Wives of Candidates

One of the Many Articles That Will Interest Sunday Readers of The Washington Herald.

The women readers of THE WASHINGTON HERALD, whether interested in politics or not, will find an article that will engross their attention in to-morrow's edition. A clever writer will discuss the wives of the leading candidates for the Presidential nomination. This article should likewise appeal to the politicians, as it offers suggestions to them of how to win favor where favor counts for much.

Doctor Edward Everett Hale, the venerable Chaplain of the United States Senate, was eighty-six years old yesterday. A sketch of his career will appear to-morrow.

Am I My Sister's Keeper?

Rich women of the larger cities respond, "Yes," as is shown by their interest in the work as factory inspectors, which many have taken up. These women leave homes of luxury to help alleviate the conditions of the less fortunate members of their sex.

Stage Charms Most Potent

Actresses have had more success in capturing titles than have the daughters of millionaires, and a greater number of former stage attractions find life happy in their new surroundings.

How to Wash the Hair

Mrs. Henry Symes will this week discuss the shampoo, hair nets, and other features that will appeal to every woman who takes pride in her tresses. Mrs. Symes takes to task those women who are otherwise neat, yet are careless about their coiffure.

Tragedies of Royal Nurseries

The Ex-Attache describes princely cradles and indicates that they are not free from danger, despite the precautions thrown about the tender infants they ensconce.

Satires on Political Candidates

H. L. Saylor, a Chicago newspaper man, has written a clever book on the Presidential candidates. It is a Wild West Thriller, and records the valorous deeds of "Terrible Teddy" and "Peaceful Bill," "Silver Bill," "False Alarm Joe," "Joke Annon," "Big Smoke," "Buttermilk Charlie," "Bill Whiskers," "Pittsburg Phil," "Yon Yonson," "Randolph Curst," and "Artie Tishbain." The treasure box of "Terrible Teddy" has been stolen by the Mocrats, and the search for it proves as exciting as any half-dime yellowback ever turned out by Street & Smith.

In addition to these special features, the Woman About Town, The Social Arbitrator, Dexter Marshall, and other regular features, will be found on the pages of THE WASHINGTON HERALD to-morrow.

Real Estate Section

The Real Estate and Industrial Section will be replete with facts upon the local sale and transfer of property and news of the latest building operations. It will contain the first of a series of articles on the industrial development of Central and South America from data furnished by the Bureau of American Republics. It will contain a history of electrical development in Washington for the last thirty years, and other interesting features which will appeal directly to Washington readers.

GIRL PIANIST IN CONCERT.

Mildred Kolb Appears Before the Washington Club.

Mildred Kolb, the thirteen-year-old local pianist, appeared in piano recital last night at the Washington Club.

Her instructor, Mme. von Unschuld, who had her for four years, from a beginner to this grade of performance, and who predicts for her a place among concert pianists, will finish her musical education and personally introduce her in piano recitals to the European critics in Roumania, to whom she is court pianist.

The programme was as follows: Beethoven Sonata, A major; Chopin Nocturne, C minor, and Poissonaise, A flat major; Weber Perpetuum Mobile, D-flat major; Schubert-Tausig Military March, Heller Concerto Brillante, F sharp minor. Orchestral accompaniment on the second piano by Mme. von Unschuld.

A short address was made by Robert Cook.

The patronesses were Mlle. Caroline Nabuco, daughter of the Brazilian Ambassador, and Mme. Nabuco, Mrs. Shelby Converse, Mrs. Chester L. Long, Mrs. Albert J. Hopkins, and Miss Isabel Leneman.

Rev. W. F. Brown Preaches.

Rev. W. F. Brown, D. D., of Pittsburgh, will preach to-morrow morning and evening in the First Presbyterian Church of this city.

While you think of it, telephone your want ad. to The Washington Herald, and bill will be sent you at 1 cent a word.

CARDINAL IS GUEST.

Dines with Senator and Mrs. Elkins, and is Also at St. Patrick's.

Cardinal Gibbons came over from Baltimore on Thursday, and was the guest in whose honor, Senator and Mrs. Elkins entertained at dinner, Thursday evening, at their residence in K street.

Among those invited to meet his eminence were the Austrian Ambassador, the Italian Ambassador, Senator Davis, Hon. Bourke Cockran, Rev. Father William T. Russell, Senator and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Blaine Elkins, Secretary and Mrs. Newberry, and Mrs. Lee.

The Cardinal remained over night at St. Patrick's rectory, the guest of the pastor, Father Russell, and mass at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Patrick's Church, and left at 9 o'clock for Baltimore.

His will return to Washington to-day to officiate at the confirmation ceremonies to-morrow in St. Aloysius' Church.
