Mrs. John E. Reburn, wife of the mayor of Philadelphia, who has spent the winter in Washington at Wendell Mansion, took a party of young people down the river on her yacht, the Gretchen, last evening. The party was made up of the friends of Mr. William Stuart Reburn, son of Mayor and Mrs. Reburn, who is spending some time with his mother. They left the dock about 5 o'clock and dined on board.

Mrs. Timmons, wife of Lieut. John W. Timmons, and daughter of the Vice President, left yesterday to join Lieut. Timmons at Philadelphia, where he will be stationed for the summer.

The Cuban Minister entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Gen. Guerra, of Cuba, who has been in Washington for a week or more. The other guests were Gen. J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, U. S. A.; Gen. Humphrey, U. S. A., retired; Gen. Duvall, Gen. Davis, Gen. Crozier, Gen. Allen, Gen. Wotherspoon, Gen. Clarence Edwards, Col. Bromwell, Maj. Wilcox, Capt. Davis, Capt. McCoy, Capt. The Naval Attaché of the Austrian Embassy and Baroness Preuschen will leave their apartment in the Highland the first week in June for the West. They will spend the early summer traveling through the Yellowstone Park and Grand Canyon and on the Pacific Coast. Later on they will go to the New England coast until the cool weather sets in.

Lieut. Commander Roscoe C. Bulmer, who until last week commanded the President's yacht the Sybil, has gone to Quincy, Mass., where the Salton, to which vessel he has been assigned, is being completed. Mrs. Bulmer will go North about the first of June, and will spend the summer somewhere in the neighborhood of Boston, as the Salton is apt to be stationed in that locality. Lieut. Roger Williams, who has been stationed at the Naval Proving Ground at Indian Head during the past winter, has succeeded Commander Bulmer in command of the Sybil. Lieut. Williams has been ill a large part of the season, but is about recovered now. He and Mrs. Williams are interesting additions to the naval circle here.

Miss Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of the President, will go to New York the second week in June, to be bridesmaid for Miss Georgiana Harding Farr, who will be married to Mr. Fletcher Harper Sibley in St. Mark's Church in West Orange, N. J., on June 10.

Others in the bridal party will be Miss Marion Farr, sister of the bride-elect; Miss Oring-Sibley, sister of the bridegroom-elect; Miss Harriet Alexander, Miss Cornelia Lee, Miss Margaret Lee, Miss Susan Sedgwick, Mr. William Ruch Farr, Mr. T. H. Powers Farr, Jr., and Mr. Barclay Hardin Farr, brothers of the bride-elect; Mr. W. Donnell Iselin, Mr. Walter G. Oakman, Mr. Parrish, Mr. Malcolm D. Sloane, Mr. Gordon Arthur Smith, Mr. John Husband, Mr. George Burnett, and Mr. Henry Elliott Corbett.

The Italian Ambassador and Baroness des Planches will spend the week end in Wilmington, Del., as guests of Senator Du Pont, who entertains a house party every week end. Mrs. Francis B. Crowninshield, daughter of the Senator, will act as hostess of the occasion. The Ambassador and Baroness will spend their summer on the North Shore of Massachusetts, but have not as yet selected their cottage.

The Minister from Uruguay and Mme. Lafaur will spend the summer at Bar Harbor, going there early in July. The minister will go to Chicago to attend the Republican convention next month. The Minister and Mme. Lafaur have made many friends in their comparatively short residence here.

LAWN PARTY GIVEN.

Many visitors from Washington assisted at the lawn party given at the Children's Convalescent Home in Grant road, yesterday for the purpose of raising funds for the summer expenses of that institution.

Morrow, Miss Victoria Emory, Mrs. Murray Cobb, Mrs. George Dunlop, Miss M. Nichols, Mrs. J. J. Waggoner, and Mrs. Richard Wainwright.

A novel feature of the festivities was the presentation to the institution of a refrigerator, a number of floral plants, and a year's telephone service by the Chevy Chase Club, a club's organization conducted by Miss Emory.

DIPLOMAS FOR GIRLS.

Class of Four Graduate from Martha Washington Seminary. Four young women, pupils of the Martha Washington Seminary, received their diplomas last night at the annual commencement of that institution. E. W. Thompson, superintendent of the school, conferred the honors.
