

ALL THE NEWS IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

AMERICANS VICTORS

Cooke and Gilbert Tie for Pole Vault Honors.

SET NEW OLYMPIC RECORD

Both Yale and Cornell Athletes Clear Bar at 12 Feet 2 Inches. Americans Win All Heats in 110-meter Hurdles—United States Now Leading England by 44 1-3 Points.

OLYMPIC MEET FINALS.

Marathon race, 40 kilometers (25 miles)—won by John J. Hayes, Irish A. A. C. United States; Joseph Forsyth, South Africa, second; Joseph Forsyth, Missouri A. C. St. Louis, United States, third. Winner's time, 2:38:25.

Pole vault—A. C. Gilbert, Yale University, and E. T. Cooke, Cornell University, United States, tied for first and second, at 12 feet 2 inches. Clarke S. Jacobs, University of Chicago, United States, E. B. Archibald, Canada, and D. C. Campbell, Yale University, United States, tied for third, at 11 feet 9 inches.

YANKEE ATHLETE WINS MARATHON

Continued from Page One.

mile behind, with Hayes still in third place. A little farther on Appleby and Alken took third and fourth places.

FORSHAW CRAWLS UP.

Not until twenty-three and a half miles had been covered was Forshaw really noticed. He was then in fourth place, with Walton fifth. Hefferon led at Willens Junction, in 2 hours 25 minutes and 30 seconds.

WINNER TYPICAL IRISHMAN.

Jack Hayes is an Irish as you find them, with black hair, blue eyes, a good-humored and freckled face, and a ton of confidence in himself. With all his triumphs on the cinder path—and he has won enough cups and medals and trophies to fill a cupboard—he is a modest chap, who doesn't care to gloat about his own achievement. When he talked about his chances in the Marathon, before he left this country, young Hayes said to his friends in the store:

DORANDO AGAINST HAYES.

The Italian rapidly cut down the distance separating him from the South African, and Hayes, using Dorando as a pace-maker, swept after the second man and won, with a new Olympic record, and two more, Jacobs and Campbell, tied for the meager point going to third with Archibald, of Canada.

AMERICA ALSO SUPPLIED ALL THE WINNERS IN THE SEMI-FINALS OF THE 110-METER HURDLES.

Insuring all the points in the final going to its credit, a new Olympic record, and two more, Jacobs and Campbell, tied for the meager point going to third with Archibald, of Canada.

AMERICA ALSO SUPPLIED ALL THE WINNERS IN THE SEMI-FINALS OF THE 110-METER HURDLES.

Insuring all the points in the final going to its credit, a new Olympic record, and two more, Jacobs and Campbell, tied for the meager point going to third with Archibald, of Canada.

THE SUMMARIES.

Marathon race, 40 kilometers (about 25 miles) won by John J. Hayes, Irish A. A. C. United States; Joseph Forsyth, South Africa, second; Joseph Forsyth, Missouri A. C. St. Louis, United States, third. Time, 2:38:25.

POLE VAULT.

First heat won by A. C. Gilbert, Yale University, United States, and E. T. Cooke, Cornell University, United States, tied for first and second places at 12 feet 2 inches. Clarke S. Jacobs, University of Chicago, United States, D. C. Campbell, Yale University, United States, tied for third at 11 feet 9 inches.

20-METER (218.6 FEET) SWIMMING TEAM RACE.

United States, Hungary, second; United States, Sweden, third, with 77 points; R. T. Anderson, Sweden, tied, with 74 points.

WRESTLING.

Greco-Roman heavy-weight—T. Weise, Hungary, defeated I. Petroff, Russia. 110-pounder middle-weight—J. B. Shaw, Dartmouth College, United States, won, 2:15:25.

SECOND HEAT WON BY GERMANY; HOLLAND, SECOND.

Third heat won by United States, with W. T. Hamilton, Chicago, A. J. N. J. O'Connell, University of Pennsylvania, United States, and M. W. Sheppard, Irish A. A. C. United Kingdom, second, 2:17:45.

WRESTLING.

Light-weight—John King, Newark Turners, United States, defeated H. K. King, United Kingdom, 2:17:45. Middle-weight—United States, defeated H. K. King, United Kingdom, 2:17:45. Heavy-weight—United States, defeated H. K. King, United Kingdom, 2:17:45.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAMME.

Morning—Running high, step, and jump; trials; 100-meter race; 400-meter race; 1,600-meter relay; final; 400-meter race; 1,600-meter relay; final; 1,600-meter relay; final.

MULLIGAN HOME FROM ABROAD

Former Georgetown Runner Thinks Well of Halswelle.

Philadelphia, July 24.—Jim Mulligan, the former Georgetown athlete who went to England to compete in the British track championships, has returned home. Mulligan entered and ran in the 110-yard hurdle championship. He got away well in his heat and at the last hurdle from the tape was leading the second man by seven feet, but he struck the last obstacle and was thrown heavily, putting him out of the race. The second man then went on and won the heat and later captured the championship. Mulligan doctors his knee, which was badly injured, but physicians told him that it would be six weeks getting well and he decided to return home. Mulligan has nothing but praise for his treatment while abroad and said:

"I am sure I would have won the race but for my accident, but it is useless to cry over spilt milk. The hurdles there are much harder to negotiate than ours as they are stationary and a rap against one of them is likely to put a man out of a race for some time. I saw Halswelle run and win the 440-yard championship at the meeting and I don't think a man in the world can beat him. He ran a heat in 59 seconds, and then half an hour later he came out and won the final in 52-5 seconds. This was in cold, dreary weather and it rained quite heavily between heats. I do not believe Taylor, Carpenter, or any other American could possibly defeat Halswelle on their merits and it is strange that they kept him in third place in the 400-meter final unless he was 'boxed' in. He is not a pretty runner, but he has terrific speed, and it is remarkable how he can cover the ground."

QUEEN TO PRESENT CUP.

Dorando Will Be Rewarded for His Splendid Race.

London, July 24.—At the government banquet to the Olympic representatives this evening Lord Desborough announced that the Queen declared she wished to present a special cup to Dorando in recognition of his being practically, if not de facto, the winner of the Marathon race and in admiration of his splendid performance.

BIDDING HER TIME.

From the Boston Herald. A Boston child not yet in her teens and unusually precocious, with exceptional penetration, asked her mother the other day: "How long, mother, will it be before I get old enough for you to say that I am nervous and not naughty when I do so and so?"

PHOTOGRAPHIC SPECIALS.

Folding Cameras.....$1.00 to $3.00
Folding Brownies.....$3.00 to $5.00
Premo Junior Cameras.....$1.80
Premos.....$2.00 to $4.50
No. 2 and No. 3 Bull's-eye.....$5.00
No. 3 Folding Weym.....$5.00
No. 3 Folding Weym.....$5.00
No. 3 F. P. Kodak.....$12.00
No. 3 F. P. Kodak.....$12.00

WALFORD'S,

909 Pa. Ave.

MARATHON RACE WINNERS.

The Marathon race has been the feature event in every Olympic since the revival of the games at Athens in 1896. The distance has varied from time to time according to the possibilities of the course selected, but has always been between twenty-five and twenty-six miles.

In 1906 the race, which was run over the historic course, was won by a Greek runner named Lous, who covered the course in 2 hours, 55 minutes, 20 seconds. Four years later, at the Paris meeting, the Frenchman, was first to complete the grueling struggle over the dusty roads. His time was 2 hours, 39 minutes, 10 seconds. America's run, for when the great distance was held at St. Louis, it was sticks and stones that made the winner's time being 3 hours, 20 minutes, 30 seconds.

Two years ago Shering carried the maple leaf to the top of the podium, his time being 2 hours, 55 minutes, 20 seconds. It was the first at Athens, much to the disappointment of the thousands of Greeks who filled the stadium in the hope of witnessing another victory for their countrymen. Shering's time was the best ever made in a modern Marathon, being 20 seconds less than the 1896 record added credit to the Canadian's feat.

HE KNEW HE'D WIN

Marathon Victor Verified His Own Predictions.

TRAINED HIMSELF TEN YEARS

Employed in Gotham Department Store, He Will Be Offered Big Salary as Head of Sporting Goods Department—Big Reception Planned for His Homecoming.

New York, July 24.—John J. Hayes, the New York boy who won the Marathon race, told his friends in Bloomingdale's department store, where he is an assistant in the superintendent's office, weeks before he started with the American athletes for England that he would win the big race.

"I just know I'm going to win," said Hayes, "and I wish it were fifty miles, instead of twenty-six. The next time you fellows see me I'll be wearing the laurel wreath, or whatever they give the winner, around my ears. I've been training my head and my legs ten years for a chance at the Marathon."

The boy who made good in the toughest, most heart-breaking athletic contest in the world is only nineteen years old, a slim, little, nickel-stated athlete from his town to the crown of his head. He stands just a shade under five feet four inches, and he weighs 125 pounds.

WINNER TYPICAL IRISHMAN.

Jack Hayes is an Irish as you find them, with black hair, blue eyes, a good-humored and freckled face, and a ton of confidence in himself. With all his triumphs on the cinder path—and he has won enough cups and medals and trophies to fill a cupboard—he is a modest chap, who doesn't care to gloat about his own achievement. When he talked about his chances in the Marathon, before he left this country, young Hayes said to his friends in the store:

DORANDO AGAINST HAYES.

The Italian rapidly cut down the distance separating him from the South African, and Hayes, using Dorando as a pace-maker, swept after the second man and won, with a new Olympic record, and two more, Jacobs and Campbell, tied for the meager point going to third with Archibald, of Canada.

AMERICA ALSO SUPPLIED ALL THE WINNERS IN THE SEMI-FINALS OF THE 110-METER HURDLES.

Insuring all the points in the final going to its credit, a new Olympic record, and two more, Jacobs and Campbell, tied for the meager point going to third with Archibald, of Canada.

THE SUMMARIES.

Marathon race, 40 kilometers (about 25 miles) won by John J. Hayes, Irish A. A. C. United States; Joseph Forsyth, South Africa, second; Joseph Forsyth, Missouri A. C. St. Louis, United States, third. Time, 2:38:25.

POLE VAULT.

First heat won by A. C. Gilbert, Yale University, United States, and E. T. Cooke, Cornell University, United States, tied for first and second places at 12 feet 2 inches. Clarke S. Jacobs, University of Chicago, United States, D. C. Campbell, Yale University, United States, tied for third at 11 feet 9 inches.

20-METER (218.6 FEET) SWIMMING TEAM RACE.

United States, Hungary, second; United States, Sweden, third, with 77 points; R. T. Anderson, Sweden, tied, with 74 points.

WRESTLING.

Greco-Roman heavy-weight—T. Weise, Hungary, defeated I. Petroff, Russia. 110-pounder middle-weight—J. B. Shaw, Dartmouth College, United States, won, 2:15:25.

SECOND HEAT WON BY GERMANY; HOLLAND, SECOND.

Third heat won by United States, with W. T. Hamilton, Chicago, A. J. N. J. O'Connell, University of Pennsylvania, United States, and M. W. Sheppard, Irish A. A. C. United Kingdom, second, 2:17:45.

WRESTLING.

Light-weight—John King, Newark Turners, United States, defeated H. K. King, United Kingdom, 2:17:45. Middle-weight—United States, defeated H. K. King, United Kingdom, 2:17:45. Heavy-weight—United States, defeated H. K. King, United Kingdom, 2:17:45.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAMME.

Morning—Running high, step, and jump; trials; 100-meter race; 400-meter race; 1,600-meter relay; final; 400-meter race; 1,600-meter relay; final; 1,600-meter relay; final.

MULLIGAN HOME FROM ABROAD

Former Georgetown Runner Thinks Well of Halswelle.

Philadelphia, July 24.—Jim Mulligan, the former Georgetown athlete who went to England to compete in the British track championships, has returned home. Mulligan entered and ran in the 110-yard hurdle championship. He got away well in his heat and at the last hurdle from the tape was leading the second man by seven feet, but he struck the last obstacle and was thrown heavily, putting him out of the race. The second man then went on and won the heat and later captured the championship. Mulligan doctors his knee, which was badly injured, but physicians told him that it would be six weeks getting well and he decided to return home. Mulligan has nothing but praise for his treatment while abroad and said:

"I am sure I would have won the race but for my accident, but it is useless to cry over spilt milk. The hurdles there are much harder to negotiate than ours as they are stationary and a rap against one of them is likely to put a man out of a race for some time. I saw Halswelle run and win the 440-yard championship at the meeting and I don't think a man in the world can beat him. He ran a heat in 59 seconds, and then half an hour later he came out and won the final in 52-5 seconds. This was in cold, dreary weather and it rained quite heavily between heats. I do not believe Taylor, Carpenter, or any other American could possibly defeat Halswelle on their merits and it is strange that they kept him in third place in the 400-meter final unless he was 'boxed' in. He is not a pretty runner, but he has terrific speed, and it is remarkable how he can cover the ground."

QUEEN TO PRESENT CUP.

Dorando Will Be Rewarded for His Splendid Race.

London, July 24.—At the government banquet to the Olympic representatives this evening Lord Desborough announced that the Queen declared she wished to present a special cup to Dorando in recognition of his being practically, if not de facto, the winner of the Marathon race and in admiration of his splendid performance.

BIDDING HER TIME.

From the Boston Herald. A Boston child not yet in her teens and unusually precocious, with exceptional penetration, asked her mother the other day: "How long, mother, will it be before I get old enough for you to say that I am nervous and not naughty when I do so and so?"

PHOTOGRAPHIC SPECIALS.

Folding Cameras.....$1.00 to $3.00
Folding Brownies.....$3.00 to $5.00
Premo Junior Cameras.....$1.80
Premos.....$2.00 to $4.50
No. 2 and No. 3 Bull's-eye.....$5.00
No. 3 Folding Weym.....$5.00
No. 3 Folding Weym.....$5.00
No. 3 F. P. Kodak.....$12.00
No. 3 F. P. Kodak.....$12.00

WALFORD'S,

909 Pa. Ave.

HE KNEW HE'D WIN

Marathon Victor Verified His Own Predictions.

TRAINED HIMSELF TEN YEARS

Employed in Gotham Department Store, He Will Be Offered Big Salary as Head of Sporting Goods Department—Big Reception Planned for His Homecoming.

New York, July 24.—John J. Hayes, the New York boy who won the Marathon race, told his friends in Bloomingdale's department store, where he is an assistant in the superintendent's office, weeks before he started with the American athletes for England that he would win the big race.

"I just know I'm going to win," said Hayes, "and I wish it were fifty miles, instead of twenty-six. The next time you fellows see me I'll be wearing the laurel wreath, or whatever they give the winner, around my ears. I've been training my head and my legs ten years for a chance at the Marathon."

The boy who made good in the toughest, most heart-breaking athletic contest in the world is only nineteen years old, a slim, little, nickel-stated athlete from his town to the crown of his head. He stands just a shade under five feet four inches, and he weighs 125 pounds.

WINNER TYPICAL IRISHMAN.

Jack Hayes is an Irish as you find them, with black hair, blue eyes, a good-humored and freckled face, and a ton of confidence in himself. With all his triumphs on the cinder path—and he has won enough cups and medals and trophies to fill a cupboard—he is a modest chap, who doesn't care to gloat about his own achievement. When he talked about his chances in the Marathon, before he left this country, young Hayes said to his friends in the store:

"I know to a breath how far I can run, and how fast. I intend to go right out with the pacemakers, keep at their heels until I am ready to finish, and then go on and win. I am not afraid of any of them, but I expect our own boys to make it hot for me. Longboat will bet you the Indian crumpet up before he goes twenty miles. Tom Longboat is like a prize-fighter who has seen his best days, and I don't believe he will have enough in him to go the distance."

HIS PREDICTIONS VERIFIED.

The actual running of the Marathon proved how accurately young Hayes had estimated his own ability and the strength of his competitors. Longboat gave up before the 20-mile mark, and except for the Italians and the South African it was the Americans who gave Jack Hayes the stiffest trial. He pacemakers, until he got ready to let them see his heels, and then he sprinted and won, as he told his friends he would.

When he gets back to the store, Samuel Bloomingdale will offer him the chance of making $4,000 or $5,000 a year as head of the sporting goods department. More than that, they are going to give him a big reception.

NOT HIS FIRST VICTORY.

Last November, as a member of St. Bartholomew's Athletic Club, he won the 25-mile Marathon at Yonkers, wearing the insignia of St. Bartholomew's, covering the distance in 2 hours, 45 minutes, and 35 seconds. At Boston, last May, he finished a good second to J. Y. Morrissey in the Marathon, although he thought he could have won if he hadn't been bothered by the dust kicked up by the automobile which prevented him from knowing that anybody was in front of him. Morrissey was a long way behind him in to-day's race.

LITTLE GUN KILLS A GRIZZLY.

Big Fellow Was Taken at a Disadvantage by the Hunter.

From the Vancouver World. To kill a big grizzly bear weighing nearly 800 pounds with a .32-caliber revolver is something that few men accomplish and very few would care to attempt. Yet that is the unusual feat which Dr. A. McKay Jordan accomplished while visiting some mining claims he is interested in near Jedway.

Dr. Jordan, who has just returned from Queen Charlotte Island, is having the skin of the bear dressed by a local taxidermist. The eight small bullet holes in the skin are in themselves proof of his unique experience. Of course, it is very doubtful if the bear would ever have been bagged had he not been caught in the water and practically at the mercy of Dr. Jordan and his friends.

They were taking a load of supplies to a new camp in a small boat and while passing through a channel between two islands, which was only a couple of yards wide, came upon the bear swimming across the channel. They headed him off from the shore despite the animal's angry snarl. Dr. Jordan was the only one of the party who had anything in the shape of a firearm, and that was only a revolver with 32 short cartridges. He emptied one load of these at the half immersed bear, but the bullets had little effect except to glance off the hard skull and make the animal redouble his efforts to get away from his pursuers and reach shore.

Dr. Jordan and his companions got closer to the bear with their boat, and the meanwhile the revolver was loaded up again. Two more shots were sent into the animal at short range, and finally one right over the temple, fired from a distance of less than ten feet, did the trick. The bear doubled up as the bullet crashed into his brain. The bear was so unable to drag him on board and the carcass was towed ashore to be skinned.

THE AUTOMOBILE IN NEW MEXICO.

From the El Paso News. The industrial development of New Mexico has been greatly aided of recent years by those enterprising spirits establishing automobile lines to bring the rushing districts closer to the towns along the railroads. These ventures do not always appeal to the men interested as financial investments, but they more frequently go in as public-spirited citizens. Fortunately for all, the ventures have been almost uniformly successful in a financial way, but the difficulties and cost of the enterprises have prevented many necessary lines being established. The wonderful development of the resources of Quay County is being greatly assisted by the splendid automobile service being maintained between Tucuman and Amarillo, and it is of so much importance to the entire country that some concerted action should be taken to have the service extended. Through the use of the automobile the entire county, with fully 20,000 people, can be put in close contact with the world.

THE BROAD SMILE.

"Pardon me," the photographer said, "but I think your smile is unnecessarily broad. It will show all your teeth."

"Those teeth cost me $100," growled the sitter, "I want 'em to show."

CHAMPION SCULLER TO RETIRE

Harry S. Bennett Will Not Row After This Year.

New York, July 24.—It is an unusual thing for the holder of the current season title to withdraw from competition at the end of the season. Next year Bennett would come as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Sentiment as such as anything enters into the determination of the title holder to withdraw from competition at the end of the season. Next year Bennett would come as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the best sculler in the world, and would within a few years win the coveted title.

Bennett is only twenty-two years old, and his determination to retire on his laurels at the end of the current season comes as a distinct surprise to followers of the rowing game throughout the country. Many experts are of the opinion that the Springfield man is the