YALE FENCERS WIN

Defeat Midshipmen at Annapolis by Close Score.

TIED UNTIL THE LAST BOUT

Smith, of Yale, Came to the Rescue at the Last Minute and Saved the Day for Old Eli—Capt. Brandt, of Navy, Despite His Illness, Showed Fine Form, Winning All Bouts.

Special to The Washington Herald. Annapolis, Md., Feb. 12.—In the second of this season's fencing contests between teams of the Intercollegiate Association, the midshipmen were defeated to-day by the fencers of Yale, by the close score of five bouts to four.

It was the second defeat of the season for the Midshipmen, the team of Pennsylvania having won last Saturday's contest by the same score.

The feature of the match was the splendid work of Brandt, captain of the Navy, who won all of his bouts. Brandt has just recovered from an illness and he displayed fine form in all of the bouts, being aggressive and defending himself well at all times.

The teams were composed of three men each, and there were nine bouts, each man of one team engaging all of his opponents. The weapon used was the foil. The match stood a tie after the eighth bout, when Smith came to the rescue of Yale by defeating Lotrop by a narrow margin.

The summary:

First round—Brandt, Navy, defeated Smith, Yale; Lotrop, Navy, defeated Lotrop, Yale; Brandt, Navy, defeated Lotrop, Yale; Brandt, Navy, defeated Lotrop, Yale; Lotrop, Navy, defeated Lotrop, Yale.

Leut. Arthur J. Hephurn, of the Navy, was master of ceremonies, and the judges were Prof. F. W. Morrison, Navy; Lieut. A. W. Johnson, and Ensign Harry Knox, Navy. The bouts were 4 minutes each.

FEDERAL MEET NEXT

More Than Four Hundred Athletes Are Entered.

EIGHTEEN RELAYS SCHEDULED

Among the Competitors in Convention Hall Next Saturday Night Are Mike Driscoll, Lawson Robertson, Harry Hillman, and Other Record Holders—Olympic Pictures Feature.

World's Olympic champions and record holders in three events, a world's record holder in the all-around champion of America, three national champions and record-holders, five intercollegiate champions, the cream of the track team candidates of Princeton, the University of Pennsylvania, Virginia, Georgetown, Johns Hopkins, George Washington, the Catholic University, Villanova College, and half a dozen smaller colleges, and representatives of practically every high and prep school track team south of Philadelphia will be in competition in thirty-six events in the sixth renewal of the Federal indoor games in Convention Hall next Saturday night.

Sheppard and Driscoll Entered.

Among the competitors in the eighteen individual events will be Melvin Sheppard, premier middle-distance runner of the world, conqueror of Just and Wilson, England's best, in the London Olympiad; Mike Driscoll, of the Mercury Athletic Club, New York, national two-mile champion and record holder; Harry Porter, of the Irish-American Club, American and Olympic champion high jumper; and Hillman, of the New York Athletic Club, a member of the all-American Olympic teams since 1900; Lawson Robertson, of the Irish-American Club, who won the 100-meter run from the University of Virginia in the Olympic trials; and E. F. Fanning, of Princeton, winner of the American all-around championship and victor over Martin Sheridan last fall; Martin, of Virginia, the new world's record holder in the 100-meter run; and Frantz, of Princeton, two of the best college half-milers; Smith, of Georgetown, the best Southern hurdler; and Gill and Hall, of Mercersburg Academy, interscholastic champions.

Eighteen Relay Races.

The list of relay teams which will compete in eighteen races in the largest and most gathered in one set of indoor games, sixty-one teams having entered from grade schools, high and prep schools, colleges, and athletic clubs.

Chief among the events for colleges are the 200-meter race between Princeton and Richmond College, and the 150-meter race between Pennsylvania and Virginia and George Washington and Johns Hopkins.

Next Saturday night will be the first time a middle distance relay team from Princeton has competed in Washington, and the work of the Tiger half-milers will be watched with unusual interest.

The team will be chosen from the men: Laird, McGee, Frantz, and Georgetown, with the probability that the first four named will run. Whitley and Frantz are intercollegiate point winners, but the other men are new at the game.

For two years Princeton has had a top-notch one mile team, and Coach Dunlap believes that Capt. Bristol, Lodge, Meek, and Lankford will give just as good an account of themselves in the longer distance relays.

When Pennsylvania and Virginia come together it will be the first time the Charlottesville quartet has run against a Northern team in the South. The Quakers have already beaten Columbia, and Virginia defeated the College of William and Mary in the Alexandria Academy. He had the place pinched and the case brought before a magistrate.

"Not on your life," thundered Marc. "Nobody gets a chance but the house." And do you know that the same thing is true to-day.

Press Agent Bright would never make a good bowler. He can't even say "Set 'em up."

There was a run on court plaster at local drug stores last night. The Caldons and Sons of St. George played soccer football.

The forecast is that this year will be one of the greatest that baseball has ever known. Don't doubt it. Even 1909 has two "nines" in it.

George Driver told us yesterday that Harry O'Day's grandfather was one of the most humorous characters known in Georgetown in the '60s. His name was Peter O'Day and he was a great fancier of dogs. He got into a dispute with an owner of local kennels about the disposition of a litter of pups, and a suit ensued, in which O'Day lost. The magistrate, in order to mollify O'Day, said humorously, "Never mind, Peter, every dog has his day." "That's true, your honor," said O'Day, "but every O'Day don't have his dog."

President Died-in-the-Wool Fan, of the Fireside Baseball League, announces that, in spite of the balmy near-spring weather that is prevailing at present, there will be no change in the regular schedule of baseball taekfests.

Randolph-Macon Beaten at Basketball, 47 to 19.

Special to The Washington Herald. Lexington, Va., Feb. 12.—Virginia Military Institute literally played Randolph-Macon College off their feet in basketball to-night, winning by the score of 47 to 19.

The cadets were especially strong at goal throwing.

Capt. Porter, McEntee, and McCreezy starred for Virginia, while Capt. Sessler and Sturman were stars for Randolph-Macon.

One indoor meet off our minds.

"The affair at Convention Hall was better managed and a lot classier than last year's effort," said a prominent Hatcherite.

Al Kubiak is a busy man. Sam Langford wanted to meet some one before he left for abroad. They thought Al Kubiak, of Grand Rapids, Mich., would be the likeliest candidate for "The Boston Tar Baby," so they wired Al in Philadelphia that he could get a match with the Ethiopian. And here is what Al replied:

"Will be busy for the next two months."

A New Yorker's idea of a good time in Washington is to hang around a hotel lobby and make a noise like a Congressman.

Evidently Bobby Baker does not feel in the mood of accepting Frye King's proposition for a six-round bout. King's $25 remains uncovered.

According to the report of the architect, regarding the seating capacity of the Polo Grounds, New York, the odds against the umpire this year will be 4,000 to 1.

Tommy Burns? Let us see, the name sounds familiar, yet we cannot recall just where we heard it.

New Fool—The fool who spits the revolting dogs. Have you met him?

We reach the centenary of the great emancipator with a colored man heavy-weight champion of the world.

Perhaps the oldest sport in existence to-day is the game of billiards, of which mention is made as far back in history as 30 B. C., when it was popular in Alexandria. Cleopatra and Charmion used to play the game. It suffered an eclipse after Marc Antony had dropped a few stanzas in the Alexandria Academy. He had the place pinched and the case brought before a magistrate.

"Not on your life," thundered Marc. "Nobody gets a chance but the house." And do you know that the same thing is true to-day.

ORGANIZE NEW CLUB

Riverdale A. C. to Make Bid for District Honors.

FAST NINE IS PROMISED

Catcher Galt, of Suburban League, One of the Stars—Latent Organization Plan to Enter Athletes in Georgetown Meet and Will Take Up Football in the Fall.

At a recent mass meeting the Riverdale Athletic Club was organized and the officers for the ensuing year elected. Many of the members of the new club are well known in the District, having competed at various times under the colors of the high school, athletic clubs, and colleges.

As the club grows older and becomes more firmly established it is the intention of the officers to develop teams in all five branches of athletics, but at present only baseball and track will be taken up. Next fall football and basket-ball teams will be rounded out.

At present baseball promises to occupy first place on the club's roster of sports. Galt, the star backstop of the Suburban League, will look after the catching department of the team, and being the most experienced and at the same time the cleverest and most consistent player in the line-up is largely depended upon to round the team into championship form. Johnston and Cole will also be on hand to work behind the bat should the occasion arise.

In the pitching department Hunter, Prozet, Bergline, McFarland, Holmes, and Raybold should be ample material from which to choose boxmen.

McFarland, Burnside, Johnston, Fanning, Bergline, Espey, Cole, Hubbard, and Maloney will take care of the infield positions. The latter especially is of proven caliber, covering the first bag in great form in his condition.

Joseph Fanning, Baker, and Frederick are the outfielders on hand to date. All these men are good hitters and experienced "A" strikers.

BASEBALL NOTES AND COMMENT

Wright Keeler, Neal Ball, and "Doc" Newton are the latest of the Highlanders to sign contracts.

It is said that Jimmy Collins will only draw $2,500 from Minneapolis, which club he will manage next season.

The Boston American League club has sold Pitchers Brockett and Hughes, who were purchased from Newark, to the New York Americans.

Manager Jimmy Casey, of the Montreal club, is trying to persuade McAlleer, of St. Louis, to let him Lave Joe Yeager to bolster up his infield.

Harrisburg has agreed to let Harry Swacna by his release, and the ex-Pittsburgh player will try to connect with some major league club.

A wit remarks that the man who discovered Lajoie can be found in abundance, but no one has yet been found who has discovered Lary's weakness with the bat.

"Noodles" Hahn, only a few seasons ago one of the best pitchers in the National League, has returned with the Hamilton, Ohio, team, which is in the small Kentucky-Indiana-Ohio League.

Cecil Ferguson, the Boston National pitcher, gives out the news in Terre Haute that he has signed an amended contract for to his liking than the one President Dovey first sent to him.

"I have not offered to trade Mike Mowrey for any of the Chicago players," says Clarke Griffith. "If you haven't the question is, would you give Mowrey for Evers, or Tinker, or Kling, or Brown, for instance?"

Manager Jennings had an object in view when he appointed "Germany" Schaefer captain of the Detroit Tigers. Schaefer can talk to the umpires when Jennings loses his voice, as he did several times last season.

Edward Pfeffer, brother of Frank Pfeffer, of the Boston Nationals, has signed a contract to play with the Fort Wayne team of the Central League next season. He pitched for the Gunthers, of the Chicago semi-pro league, last summer.

Hugh O'Brien, secretary of the Boston Americans, yesterday received two more contracts. They came from "Trie" Speaker and Harry Hooper. The latter is the Sacramento outfielder. A letter was also received from Fred Bourchell, the Boston "Southpaw," who is already at Hot Springs.

The Pittsburgh baseball club has made a move intended to strengthen its infield, and is after Byrne, the third baseman from St. Louis. It is known that Alan Stark has been offered for Byrne, with one or two other men who are not regulars on the team. It is intimated that Pitcher Camnitz may also figure in the deal.

Catcher Wilson has signed with the Giants. Manager McGraw says he thinks a good deal of this youngster. Secretary Fred Knowles has looked another exhibition game for the team. The Newark will play the Giants on the Polo grounds on April 12. McGraw's second team will play in Trenton on April 10, the day on which the regular Giants play Yale at the Polo Grounds.

Detroit secured La Fitte, a player of the Jersey City club, with the understanding that $1,000 was to be paid for the release and that the services of Detroit would be given to Jersey City. Detroit found that waivers could not be secured on Downs, and offered to substitute Coughlin, which was not acceptable to Jersey City. The latter club asked for Kilfeer, but Detroit would not grant his release. Now that Detroit has given no player to Jersey City, as the agreement called for, the national commission has decided that the Detroit club must pay Jersey City an added $1,000.

Brown, 26; Yale, 17. Providence, Feb. 12.—Brown's basketball five defeated Yale 25 to 17 before a large audience in Lyman Gymnasium to-night. McKay was Brown's particular star, while Van Vleck played a fast game for the visitors.

Dartmouth, 27; Holy Cross, 17. Hanover, N. H., Feb. 12.—Dartmouth had team work to-night while Holy Cross presented a disorganized individual play. Dartmouth won, 27 to 17.

STRIKES AND SPARES

Union still holds the lead in the Sunday School Bowling League, Mount Pleasant and Cavalry following in order. Union also leads in team average, 571. Mount Pleasant and Union meet for the last time this season Tuesday next, and unless their chances are small.

Lansdale has not only held the lead, but is gradually pulling away from Campbell, Bunn, and Shaffer. Jimmie Field has an average of 391 for twelve games, which is going some. The following averages include games rolled February 10:
