SAYINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON.

Being the Confessions of the Seven Hundredth Wife.

Translated by Helen Rowland.

Behold, my daughter, there was a woman of Babylon and she was a wonder. For she managed her husband with one hand and her eyes shut. And lo! on a time, when her spouse came home at night he was startled by a light that streamed forth from his wife's room. And he groaned, but she thought carryeth her mirror taking off her puffs. And her mouth was full of hairpins.

And he murmured gently, "My beloved, why didst thou sit up for me?" But the woman answered, saying, "Nay, I have not sat up for thee; for lo! I have just gotten in myself."

And he grasped the doorknob for support. For this was a jolt! Yet thereafter he remained at home every night.

Verily, verily, a man is not like unto a patent belt which can be pinned down; neither is he like unto a carpet which can be nailed to the floor. Yet, as a little moisture on a postage stamp, so will a little curiosity make him stick—even closer than a brother.

Yes, also that listlessness for her husband's latch-key shall be fed with fairy tales, but she thought carryeth her mirror taking off her puffs. Lo! a bride shall hee awake at night hearing strange noises; but it shall come to pass that after many years she shall hand her husband his hat and cane with a glad heart. Yes, she shall hunt for his cuff links and get into his dress suit with great cheerfulness, saying, "Go thy ways, but when thou returnest do not awaken me." And she shall sleep peacefully.

For, in time, even a midnight row becometh tame and lacheth excitement and home-made melodrama loseth its flavor. Moreover, a wise woman knoweth that no man existeth who is worth a good night's rest. Selah!

PERSONALS. MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Mr. Frederick T. Martin, who has been visiting his brother-in-law, Gen. Rochester, at his home, 123 Eighteenth street, during the inaugural festivities, will leave to-morrow for Palm Beach, Fla., where he will be the guest of Mr. Henry M. Flagler for a week's visit.

At her "Current topics talk" at Rauscher's to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock Miss Janet Richards will give a summary of the occurrences and changes in the social and political world during the past week, with special mention of the passing of the old and the coming of the new in administrative affairs, and particularly of certain burning public questions still unsettled which have come as a legacy from the last to the present administration.

A brief summary of foreign affairs will also be given.

It has been a long time since Col. John Scuyler Crosby has visited Washington, but he is here at present, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore at their home, in Massachusetts avenue. Col. Crosby is one of the most interesting Americans of his day, because of his distinguished military experience, because of his bravery at the time of the Mohawk disaster in New York Harbor, and of his civil achievements in the consular service, as governor of Montana, and as Assistant Postmaster General under the late Frank Hatton, who was at the head of the department. When he was consul to Florence, Italy, Col. Crosby captured a band of criminals in Tuscany, for which he received a decoration from the King of Italy, and he holds also a life-saving medal for his bravery at the time of the wreck of the Mohawk. Col. Crosby is close upon his seventieth birthday, but he is as debonair, as full of good stories and pleasant reminiscences as when he held office under President Arthur twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Edna B. Sieg, of New York, who has been visiting friends in Washington, returned to her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Falk, of Richmond, Va., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Iseman.

A delightful programme of music was rendered at the meeting of the Woman's Single Tax Club at the home of Miss Bertha Yoder on last Monday evening. A piano solo, "Bohemian Dance" (Gebel), by Miss Amy Clement Leavitt; the soprano solos by Mrs. Alphonso G. Drake, and at the close two preludes (Chopin) by Miss Leavitt, were all finely rendered.

The public rehearsal of the Hebrew Orchestra, which was given Monday evening last in the Kollar Memorial Church to an audience that filled the edifice, will be the last one of the season. As the preparations for the grand concert in April soon begin, Miss Dorothy B. Dolan gave Tosti's "Good-by, Summer," and for an encore "The Songs That Mother Used to Sing," both numbers being rendered with good effect. W. Carroll Gilbert played the sixth air (Drdla), Dr. Bischoff's march, "The Brownies," and Will T. Pierson's march, "On the Avenue," were much enjoyed. The latter was played for the first time by the Marietta Band in the inaugural parade.

The programme follows:

Overture, "Lila".....Harris
Waltz, "Spirit of Liberty".....Hall
Selection from "Purcell's Tales".....Herbert
Tone poem, "Apple Blossom".....Benedit
March, "Lights Out".....McCoy

Miss Marion McFall entertained a large company at a musicale last week in her home studio, in Sixteenth street. She presented eight pupils in a charming programme of songs. Their work was characterized by good tone production, careful enunciation, and excellent phrasing. The general applause was a tribute to the skillful training of Miss McFall, who also sang two numbers at the close of the programme. Miss Ethel Toder assisted as accompanist. Those taking part were Mr. Mayne Coe, Mr. Morrell Goodpasture, Mr. Wallace Fowler, Mr. Walter Wooder, Mr. C. R. Engl, Miss Sarah Weckerly, Miss Ruth Stoddard, and Mrs. Elizabeth McAfee.

All advertising contracts made by The Washington Herald are made upon its bona fide circulation—a circulation in Washington larger by thousands than was ever before attained by any morning newspaper at the Capital. Its books are open.

THE BEST WE CAN.

Said Abe (the nation's greatest man): "I do the very best I can; and if my course is erring, quite, no argument can make it right; and if in righteousness I'm strong, no sophistry can make it wrong; so, be the critic foe or friend, I'll do my best until the end." The fact is galling to relate, but some of us cannot be great; our ways obscure we'll have to tread, and hustle for our daily bread; our pictures never may be seen in Who's Who or magazine; but, if upon the Day-of-Doom we come castrating from the tomb, when sounds the final trumpet's notes, we won't be herded with the goats if we can say (and make it good): "We always did the best we could!"

DEATH CAN BE AVOIDED

In many instances by having in the home a bottle of GOWAN'S PNEUMONIA PREPARATION. It reduces inflammation, restores congestion, and is valuable wherever there are pneumonia, croup, colds, coughs, pains, and soreness. External, quickly absorbed. Sold by all druggists from $1.00 to 25c. Buy it to-day and keep it in the home for emergencies.
