

GEORGETOWN

GEORGETOWN.

Continued from Page Two.

Harmony, Miss Mary Williams, Mr. James Drysdale, Mr. Louis Ansell, Mr. Ernest Briscoe, Mr. Gaston C. Hand, Mr. Oden Bowie Roberts, Mr. Orville Ecker, Mr. Billie Naylor, Mr. Leonard L. Nicholson, Jr., Mr. Tallor, and Mr. Walter English.

A wedding of great interest to Georgetown society was that of Miss Anne Coleman Willson to Commander George Mallison, U. S. N., retired, which took place last Wednesday, April 28, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Donnan Willson, of Newport News, Va. Mrs. Mallison, who has been spending the past few winters as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Preston Roper, of Petersburg, Va., is well known in both Georgetown and Washington, as she has often visited here. Commander and Mrs. Mallison left on an extended wedding tour and upon their return will make their home at the Warwick Hotel, Newport News, Va.

ALEXANDRIA.

Rev. W. F. Watson has returned from a trip to North Carolina.

Miss Estelle Betts, of Heathville, Va., is visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. Amy C. Welch has returned from a visit to friends in Portsmouth.

Mrs. Augustine Butts is spending a few days with relatives at Annapolis, Md.

Miss Elsie Pettit, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Elsie Thomas in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Elmer Norris, of Richmond, are visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Rose Ritter, of Baltimore, is visiting her brother, Mr. J. A. Ritter, in this city.

Mrs. S. R. Shinn and her children, of Baltimore, are visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. Louis Ansell, of Charleston, S. C., visited friends in this city during the past week.

Miss Julia Cone, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Eliza Douglas, in Cameron street.

Mrs. Charles Carter, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Louis Green, in Prince street.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Summers, of Barnesville, Ga., are visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Marvin Briggs, of New York, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. L. Price, in this city.

Miss Sibyl Smoot has returned from a visit of several weeks to friends at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Miss Richard Wise, of Leesburg, was the guest of friends in this city during the past week.

Miss Eleonora Atkinson, of Baltimore, is visiting her uncle, Capt. R. H. Atkinson, in this city.

Miss Blanche M. Wesley, of Atlanta, Pa., is the guest of Miss Agnes Trivona, in North River street.

Miss Sue Yates, of Fredericksburg, is the guest of Miss Blanche Stansbury, in North Columbus street.

Mrs. Eliza Simpson and Mrs. Isaac Groves have returned from a visit to relatives in Lynchburg.

Miss Hilda Shriver, of Union Mills, Md., is the guest of Miss Anne Lewis Jones, at her home in Prince street.

Mrs. Horace B. Thompson, of Keewauke, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. John Monroe at her home in Cameron street.

Mrs. William E. Floyd, of East Orange, N. J., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Edward L. Leadbeater, in Prince street.

Mrs. Betton, who has been visiting Miss Rose McDonald, in Cameron street, has returned to her home in Boston.

Miss Emily Smith, of Berryville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Charlotte Blackburn, in North Washington street.

Mrs. Joel Cochran and her children, of Charlottesville, are visiting Miss Cora Cochran at her home in King street.

Mrs. A. W. Althaus has returned from Birmingham, Ala., where she spent the past three months visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. K. Mason, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting her brother, Judge J. Keith M. Norton, at his home in Prince street.

Mrs. Louis Cheeseman, of Scranton, Pa., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Edward S. Fawcett, at her home in Prince street.

Mr. Louis Kraft, formerly of this city, now of Kaiserslautern, Germany, is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Mrs. Percy Evans has returned to Warrenton, after a visit to her father, Mr. James S. Dougan, in Cameron street.

Mrs. Lucy Kinzel and her daughter, of Winchester, are the guests of Mrs. Clarence Walker, in South Columbus street.

Mr. Mahlon H. Janney has issued invitations to a dance, to be given at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Monday evening, May 11.

Miss Elsie Snowden returned on Monday from Richmond, where she was the guest of Miss Mary Ball for several weeks.

Mr. Joseph T. England, of Baltimore, was the guest during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Anderson, in Prince street.

Miss Beall Daingerfield returned on Saturday from Lynchburg, where she spent the past few weeks visiting Miss Phoebe Edmunds.

Miss Fannie Washington, of Washington, was the guest during the past week of the Misses Dent, in North Washington street.

Miss Sarah Appold, of Washington, was the guest, for several days during the past week, of Miss George Anderson, in Prince street.

Mrs. Herbert W. Anderson has returned from Richmond, where she visited Mrs. R. Turner Arrington, and Mrs. Dabney Jefferson Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kaufman and their children, of Richmond, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Constant Fommet, in Duke street.

Gov. Claude A. Swanson was the guest for several days during the past week of Representative Charles C. Carlin, in North Washington street.

Mr. Milton Alexander and Mr. Carl Alexander, of Lancaster, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, in North Washington street.

Mrs. John Leary and Mrs. Emma J. Spencer left on Monday last for Norfolk, where they will spend several weeks visiting their brother, Mr. G. S. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Lindsay, of Bridgewater, Va., are spending several days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lindsay, in South Columbus street.

Mrs. W. Cable Truman, of Richmond, and Miss Zaldie Saunders, of Warrenton, are the guests of Mrs. M. C. Peyton at her home on Braddock Heights.

Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson was hostess for the Matinee Five Hundred Club on Monday afternoon at her home in North Washington street. Among those present were Mrs. Edward H. Kemper, Mrs.

MUSICIAN

MUSICIAN

Reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra Will Give First Concert at Belasco Thursday.

A musical event of the greatest interest and importance will take place at the Belasco Theater Thursday afternoon at 1.30, when the reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra will render their first concert. While this concert will probably be the only one given this season, the orchestra is permanently organized and will give an extended series next season in this and other cities.

The success of this symphony orchestra would or should receive hearty endorsement from local lovers of music. Washington has the musicians as was proved some years ago when Reginald de Koven organized them into the old Washington Symphony Orchestra. The present organization will number only the representative and best local musicians, many of them being members of the former symphony orchestra. The greatest attention will be given to musical details of the orchestra and its evident efficiency will afford Washington music lovers the long wished for opportunity to enjoy a perfectly balanced, and artistically efficient group of musicians under scholarly and spirited direction of Herman Carl Rakemann.

This well-known musician was born in Washington in 1864. He was educated at the Royal High School of Music at Berlin; pupil of Dr. Joseph Joachim and Emanuel Wirth, 1882-1888, and of Max Bruch, 1888-1890. He was violin soloist instructor of the Georgetown University and violinist of the Richmond and Washington Musical Club, and concert master of the former Washington Symphony Orchestra. Reginald de Koven, who has been in the orchestra for thirteen years, Mr. Rakemann has been leader of the orchestra at the Belasco Theater.

The programme of the symphony concert for Thursday afternoon consists of the following: Overture, "Romeo and Juliet," Bellini; Egyptian Ballet Suite, Lullig; Prelude third act, "Lohengrin," Wagner; Russian scenes, "Festiva March," Rimsky-Korsakov; "The Swan," local soloist will also be a feature of the programme.

In honor of the centenary of Mendelssohn's birth the Washington Choral Society will present two of the works of this famous composer at its last concert of the season on May 11 at the hall of the Washington Choral Society, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue. The programme includes "The First Walpurgis Night" and the finale of the second act of the unfinished opera, "Loreley." "The First Walpurgis Night" was first produced in Berlin during the winter of 1823, the composer himself directing the production. The Washington Choral Society has been very diligent at work rehearsing this very beautiful composition, under the direction of Mr. Heinrich Hammer, and under the same competent leadership the amateur orchestra, which will be assisted by a large contingent of professional musicians.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells are at the St. Dennis Hotel, Atlantic City. Miss Bessie McIntosh, of Warrenton, Va., has been visiting friends near Upper Marlboro.

Mrs. John Ball, of Forestville, is visiting her daughters, Mesdames Harry and George Buck.

Mrs. G. C. Owens, widow of Dr. Joseph R. Owens, is visiting her son, Mr. Charles C. Owens, in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Greager, of Manchester, N. H., are visiting their son, Mr. O. A. Greager, Wine avenue.

Miss Susan G. Hunt, of this county, has returned after a pleasant stay with friends in Baltimore and Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, of Philadelphia, have been visiting State Senator and Mrs. William B. Claggett at "Navajo."

Mrs. R. W. Silvester, of Collee Park, has returned after a pleasant stay with relatives at Woodville, this county.

Miss Regina Summers, of Westwood, this county, is visiting her brother, Mr. J. K. Summers, Jr., in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McManus, of Thompsville, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Johnson, near Tuxedo, this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Hawks, of New York City, and Miss Mary Hawks, of Summit, N. J., have been visiting friends near Marlboro.

The Woodville Social Club was hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Owens, at some near Woodville Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Nally, of Mount Rainier, have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. H. P. Queen, in Lower Prince George county.

Rev. J. H. Schooley and wife, who have been visiting friends at various points in Prince George county, have returned to their home in Asbury, W. Va.

Mrs. Parsons, of Towanda, Pa., has been visiting Mrs. H. W. Gore, Marlboro. Mrs. Parsons was a delegate to the D. A. B. convention recently held in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Holden entertained the members of the local Stage Bridge Whist Club last evening at their home, in Ralston avenue. At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served.

Mr. Marcus L. Hurley, a mining engineer, of Butte, Mont., has been visiting his aunt, Miss A. L. Hurley, Franklin avenue. He accompanied Miss Elizabeth Hurley from New York, she having come from Tampa, Fla., after spending three months in various sections of the South.

Union Increases Membership.
Northwest Union added four new members to its roll of ninety-two, all of whom listened with the greatest interest to the reports of superintendents, Mrs. Bailey, who had been ill, was present to tell of the pleasure she had in a pot of beautiful violet sent her by sang flower committee. Mr. Dr. Ruble sang "Not a Sparrow Falteth." Prohibition reports from many States were interesting, particularly of the debates in Milwaukee. One liquor dealer said he felt as if he would like to sell his saloon for $1.

Death of Robert Englehart.
Word has been received in this city of the death in Colorado of Robert Englehart, formerly a resident of Georgetown. The body will reach this city to-day, and funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Georgetown Lodge of Red Men. Mr. Englehart is survived by his mother and one brother, Joseph Englehart.

Psychology of Dreams.
From the Birmingham Age-Herald.
Dreams go by contraries, but they nearly always agree with what we eat.

Mme. Lichtenstein, of New York, will be at the Shoreham Monday and Tuesday, with an exhibit of the latest creations in summer headwear and lingerie.

MRS. FREMONT.
Wife of Lieut. Commander John C. Fremont, U. S. N.

MUSICIAN

MUSICIAN

Reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra Will Give First Concert at Belasco Thursday.

A musical event of the greatest interest and importance will take place at the Belasco Theater Thursday afternoon at 1.30, when the reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra will render their first concert. While this concert will probably be the only one given this season, the orchestra is permanently organized and will give an extended series next season in this and other cities.

The success of this symphony orchestra would or should receive hearty endorsement from local lovers of music. Washington has the musicians as was proved some years ago when Reginald de Koven organized them into the old Washington Symphony Orchestra. The present organization will number only the representative and best local musicians, many of them being members of the former symphony orchestra. The greatest attention will be given to musical details of the orchestra and its evident efficiency will afford Washington music lovers the long wished for opportunity to enjoy a perfectly balanced, and artistically efficient group of musicians under scholarly and spirited direction of Herman Carl Rakemann.

This well-known musician was born in Washington in 1864. He was educated at the Royal High School of Music at Berlin; pupil of Dr. Joseph Joachim and Emanuel Wirth, 1882-1888, and of Max Bruch, 1888-1890. He was violin soloist instructor of the Georgetown University and violinist of the Richmond and Washington Musical Club, and concert master of the former Washington Symphony Orchestra. Reginald de Koven, who has been in the orchestra for thirteen years, Mr. Rakemann has been leader of the orchestra at the Belasco Theater.

The programme of the symphony concert for Thursday afternoon consists of the following: Overture, "Romeo and Juliet," Bellini; Egyptian Ballet Suite, Lullig; Prelude third act, "Lohengrin," Wagner; Russian scenes, "Festiva March," Rimsky-Korsakov; "The Swan," local soloist will also be a feature of the programme.

In honor of the centenary of Mendelssohn's birth the Washington Choral Society will present two of the works of this famous composer at its last concert of the season on May 11 at the hall of the Washington Choral Society, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue. The programme includes "The First Walpurgis Night" and the finale of the second act of the unfinished opera, "Loreley." "The First Walpurgis Night" was first produced in Berlin during the winter of 1823, the composer himself directing the production. The Washington Choral Society has been very diligent at work rehearsing this very beautiful composition, under the direction of Mr. Heinrich Hammer, and under the same competent leadership the amateur orchestra, which will be assisted by a large contingent of professional musicians.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells are at the St. Dennis Hotel, Atlantic City. Miss Bessie McIntosh, of Warrenton, Va., has been visiting friends near Upper Marlboro.

Mrs. John Ball, of Forestville, is visiting her daughters, Mesdames Harry and George Buck.

Mrs. G. C. Owens, widow of Dr. Joseph R. Owens, is visiting her son, Mr. Charles C. Owens, in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Greager, of Manchester, N. H., are visiting their son, Mr. O. A. Greager, Wine avenue.

Miss Susan G. Hunt, of this county, has returned after a pleasant stay with friends in Baltimore and Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, of Philadelphia, have been visiting State Senator and Mrs. William B. Claggett at "Navajo."

Mrs. R. W. Silvester, of Collee Park, has returned after a pleasant stay with relatives at Woodville, this county.

Miss Regina Summers, of Westwood, this county, is visiting her brother, Mr. J. K. Summers, Jr., in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McManus, of Thompsville, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Johnson, near Tuxedo, this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Hawks, of New York City, and Miss Mary Hawks, of Summit, N. J., have been visiting friends near Marlboro.

The Woodville Social Club was hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Owens, at some near Woodville Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Nally, of Mount Rainier, have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. H. P. Queen, in Lower Prince George county.

Rev. J. H. Schooley and wife, who have been visiting friends at various points in Prince George county, have returned to their home in Asbury, W. Va.

Mrs. Parsons, of Towanda, Pa., has been visiting Mrs. H. W. Gore, Marlboro. Mrs. Parsons was a delegate to the D. A. B. convention recently held in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Holden entertained the members of the local Stage Bridge Whist Club last evening at their home, in Ralston avenue. At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served.

Mr. Marcus L. Hurley, a mining engineer, of Butte, Mont., has been visiting his aunt, Miss A. L. Hurley, Franklin avenue. He accompanied Miss Elizabeth Hurley from New York, she having come from Tampa, Fla., after spending three months in various sections of the South.

Union Increases Membership.
Northwest Union added four new members to its roll of ninety-two, all of whom listened with the greatest interest to the reports of superintendents, Mrs. Bailey, who had been ill, was present to tell of the pleasure she had in a pot of beautiful violet sent her by sang flower committee. Mr. Dr. Ruble sang "Not a Sparrow Falteth." Prohibition reports from many States were interesting, particularly of the debates in Milwaukee. One liquor dealer said he felt as if he would like to sell his saloon for $1.

Death of Robert Englehart.
Word has been received in this city of the death in Colorado of Robert Englehart, formerly a resident of Georgetown. The body will reach this city to-day, and funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Georgetown Lodge of Red Men. Mr. Englehart is survived by his mother and one brother, Joseph Englehart.

Psychology of Dreams.
From the Birmingham Age-Herald.
Dreams go by contraries, but they nearly always agree with what we eat.

Mme. Lichtenstein, of New York, will be at the Shoreham Monday and Tuesday, with an exhibit of the latest creations in summer headwear and lingerie.

MRS. FREMONT.
Wife of Lieut. Commander John C. Fremont, U. S. N.

MUSICIAN

MUSICIAN

Reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra Will Give First Concert at Belasco Thursday.

A musical event of the greatest interest and importance will take place at the Belasco Theater Thursday afternoon at 1.30, when the reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra will render their first concert. While this concert will probably be the only one given this season, the orchestra is permanently organized and will give an extended series next season in this and other cities.

The success of this symphony orchestra would or should receive hearty endorsement from local lovers of music. Washington has the musicians as was proved some years ago when Reginald de Koven organized them into the old Washington Symphony Orchestra. The present organization will number only the representative and best local musicians, many of them being members of the former symphony orchestra. The greatest attention will be given to musical details of the orchestra and its evident efficiency will afford Washington music lovers the long wished for opportunity to enjoy a perfectly balanced, and artistically efficient group of musicians under scholarly and spirited direction of Herman Carl Rakemann.

This well-known musician was born in Washington in 1864. He was educated at the Royal High School of Music at Berlin; pupil of Dr. Joseph Joachim and Emanuel Wirth, 1882-1888, and of Max Bruch, 1888-1890. He was violin soloist instructor of the Georgetown University and violinist of the Richmond and Washington Musical Club, and concert master of the former Washington Symphony Orchestra. Reginald de Koven, who has been in the orchestra for thirteen years, Mr. Rakemann has been leader of the orchestra at the Belasco Theater.

The programme of the symphony concert for Thursday afternoon consists of the following: Overture, "Romeo and Juliet," Bellini; Egyptian Ballet Suite, Lullig; Prelude third act, "Lohengrin," Wagner; Russian scenes, "Festiva March," Rimsky-Korsakov; "The Swan," local soloist will also be a feature of the programme.

In honor of the centenary of Mendelssohn's birth the Washington Choral Society will present two of the works of this famous composer at its last concert of the season on May 11 at the hall of the Washington Choral Society, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue. The programme includes "The First Walpurgis Night" and the finale of the second act of the unfinished opera, "Loreley." "The First Walpurgis Night" was first produced in Berlin during the winter of 1823, the composer himself directing the production. The Washington Choral Society has been very diligent at work rehearsing this very beautiful composition, under the direction of Mr. Heinrich Hammer, and under the same competent leadership the amateur orchestra, which will be assisted by a large contingent of professional musicians.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells are at the St. Dennis Hotel, Atlantic City. Miss Bessie McIntosh, of Warrenton, Va., has been visiting friends near Upper Marlboro.

Mrs. John Ball, of Forestville, is visiting her daughters, Mesdames Harry and George Buck.

Mrs. G. C. Owens, widow of Dr. Joseph R. Owens, is visiting her son, Mr. Charles C. Owens, in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Greager, of Manchester, N. H., are visiting their son, Mr. O. A. Greager, Wine avenue.

Miss Susan G. Hunt, of this county, has returned after a pleasant stay with friends in Baltimore and Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, of Philadelphia, have been visiting State Senator and Mrs. William B. Claggett at "Navajo."

Mrs. R. W. Silvester, of Collee Park, has returned after a pleasant stay with relatives at Woodville, this county.

Miss Regina Summers, of Westwood, this county, is visiting her brother, Mr. J. K. Summers, Jr., in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McManus, of Thompsville, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Johnson, near Tuxedo, this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Hawks, of New York City, and Miss Mary Hawks, of Summit, N. J., have been visiting friends near Marlboro.

The Woodville Social Club was hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Owens, at some near Woodville Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Nally, of Mount Rainier, have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. H. P. Queen, in Lower Prince George county.

Rev. J. H. Schooley and wife, who have been visiting friends at various points in Prince George county, have returned to their home in Asbury, W. Va.

Mrs. Parsons, of Towanda, Pa., has been visiting Mrs. H. W. Gore, Marlboro. Mrs. Parsons was a delegate to the D. A. B. convention recently held in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Holden entertained the members of the local Stage Bridge Whist Club last evening at their home, in Ralston avenue. At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served.

Mr. Marcus L. Hurley, a mining engineer, of Butte, Mont., has been visiting his aunt, Miss A. L. Hurley, Franklin avenue. He accompanied Miss Elizabeth Hurley from New York, she having come from Tampa, Fla., after spending three months in various sections of the South.

Union Increases Membership.
Northwest Union added four new members to its roll of ninety-two, all of whom listened with the greatest interest to the reports of superintendents, Mrs. Bailey, who had been ill, was present to tell of the pleasure she had in a pot of beautiful violet sent her by sang flower committee. Mr. Dr. Ruble sang "Not a Sparrow Falteth." Prohibition reports from many States were interesting, particularly of the debates in Milwaukee. One liquor dealer said he felt as if he would like to sell his saloon for $1.

Death of Robert Englehart.
Word has been received in this city of the death in Colorado of Robert Englehart, formerly a resident of Georgetown. The body will reach this city to-day, and funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Georgetown Lodge of Red Men. Mr. Englehart is survived by his mother and one brother, Joseph Englehart.

Psychology of Dreams.
From the Birmingham Age-Herald.
Dreams go by contraries, but they nearly always agree with what we eat.

Mme. Lichtenstein, of New York, will be at the Shoreham Monday and Tuesday, with an exhibit of the latest creations in summer headwear and lingerie.

MRS. FREMONT.
Wife of Lieut. Commander John C. Fremont, U. S. N.

MUSICIAN

MUSICIAN

Reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra Will Give First Concert at Belasco Thursday.

A musical event of the greatest interest and importance will take place at the Belasco Theater Thursday afternoon at 1.30, when the reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra will render their first concert. While this concert will probably be the only one given this season, the orchestra is permanently organized and will give an extended series next season in this and other cities.

The success of this symphony orchestra would or should receive hearty endorsement from local lovers of music. Washington has the musicians as was proved some years ago when Reginald de Koven organized them into the old Washington Symphony Orchestra. The present organization will number only the representative and best local musicians, many of them being members of the former symphony orchestra. The greatest attention will be given to musical details of the orchestra and its evident efficiency will afford Washington music lovers the long wished for opportunity to enjoy a perfectly balanced, and artistically efficient group of musicians under scholarly and spirited direction of Herman Carl Rakemann.

This well-known musician was born in Washington in 1864. He was educated at the Royal High School of Music at Berlin; pupil of Dr. Joseph Joachim and Emanuel Wirth, 1882-1888, and of Max Bruch, 1888-1890. He was violin soloist instructor of the Georgetown University and violinist of the Richmond and Washington Musical Club, and concert master of the former Washington Symphony Orchestra. Reginald de Koven, who has been in the orchestra for thirteen years, Mr. Rakemann has been leader of the orchestra at the Belasco Theater.

The programme of the symphony concert for Thursday afternoon consists of the following: Overture, "Romeo and Juliet," Bellini; Egyptian Ballet Suite, Lullig; Prelude third act, "Lohengrin," Wagner; Russian scenes, "Festiva March," Rimsky-Korsakov; "The Swan," local soloist will also be a feature of the programme.

In honor of the centenary of Mendelssohn's birth the Washington Choral Society will present two of the works of this famous composer at its last concert of the season on May 11 at the hall of the Washington Choral Society, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue. The programme includes "The First Walpurgis Night" and the finale of the second act of the unfinished opera, "Loreley." "The First Walpurgis Night" was first produced in Berlin during the winter of 1823, the composer himself directing the production. The Washington Choral Society has been very diligent at work rehearsing this very beautiful composition, under the direction of Mr. Heinrich Hammer, and under the same competent leadership the amateur orchestra, which will be assisted by a large contingent of professional musicians.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells are at the St. Dennis Hotel, Atlantic City. Miss Bessie McIntosh, of Warrenton, Va., has been visiting friends near Upper Marlboro.

Mrs. John Ball, of Forestville, is visiting her daughters, Mesdames Harry and George Buck.

Mrs. G. C. Owens, widow of Dr. Joseph R. Owens, is visiting her son, Mr. Charles C. Owens, in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Greager, of Manchester, N. H., are visiting their son, Mr. O. A. Greager, Wine avenue.

Miss Susan G. Hunt, of this county, has returned after a pleasant stay with friends in Baltimore and Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, of Philadelphia, have been visiting State Senator and Mrs. William B. Claggett at "Navajo."

Mrs. R. W. Silvester, of Collee Park, has returned after a pleasant stay with relatives at Woodville, this county.

Miss Regina Summers, of Westwood, this county, is visiting her brother, Mr. J. K. Summers, Jr., in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McManus, of Thompsville, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Johnson, near Tuxedo, this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Hawks, of New York City, and Miss Mary Hawks, of Summit, N. J., have been visiting friends near Marlboro.

The Woodville Social Club was hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Owens, at some near Woodville Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Nally, of Mount Rainier, have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. H. P. Queen, in Lower Prince George county.

Rev. J. H. Schooley and wife, who have been visiting friends at various points in Prince George county, have returned to their home in Asbury, W. Va.

Mrs. Parsons, of Towanda, Pa., has been visiting Mrs. H. W. Gore, Marlboro. Mrs. Parsons was a delegate to the D. A. B. convention recently held in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Holden entertained the members of the local Stage Bridge Whist Club last evening at their home, in Ralston avenue. At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served.

Mr. Marcus L. Hurley, a mining engineer, of Butte, Mont., has been visiting his aunt, Miss A. L. Hurley, Franklin avenue. He accompanied Miss Elizabeth Hurley from New York, she having come from Tampa, Fla., after spending three months in various sections of the South.

Union Increases Membership.
Northwest Union added four new members to its roll of ninety-two, all of whom listened with the greatest interest to the reports of superintendents, Mrs. Bailey, who had been ill, was present to tell of the pleasure she had in a pot of beautiful violet sent her by sang flower committee. Mr. Dr. Ruble sang "Not a Sparrow Falteth." Prohibition reports from many States were interesting, particularly of the debates in Milwaukee. One liquor dealer said he felt as if he would like to sell his saloon for $1.

Death of Robert Englehart.
Word has been received in this city of the death in Colorado of Robert Englehart, formerly a resident of Georgetown. The body will reach this city to-day, and funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Georgetown Lodge of Red Men. Mr. Englehart is survived by his mother and one brother, Joseph Englehart.

Psychology of Dreams.
From the Birmingham Age-Herald.
Dreams go by contraries, but they nearly always agree with what we eat.

Mme. Lichtenstein, of New York, will be at the Shoreham Monday and Tuesday, with an exhibit of the latest creations in summer headwear and lingerie.

MRS. FREMONT.
Wife of Lieut. Commander John C. Fremont, U. S. N.

MUSICIAN

MUSICIAN

Reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra Will Give First Concert at Belasco Thursday.

A musical event of the greatest interest and importance will take place at the Belasco Theater Thursday afternoon at 1.30, when the reorganized Washington Symphony Orchestra will render their first concert. While this concert will probably be the only one given this season, the orchestra is permanently organized and will give an extended series next season in this and other cities.

The success of this symphony orchestra would or should receive hearty endorsement from local lovers of music. Washington has the musicians as was proved some years ago when Reginald de Koven organized them into the old Washington Symphony Orchestra. The present organization will number only the representative and best local musicians, many of them being members of the former symphony orchestra. The greatest attention will be given to musical details of the orchestra and its evident efficiency will afford Washington music lovers the long wished for opportunity to enjoy a perfectly balanced, and artistically efficient group of musicians under scholarly and spirited direction of Herman Carl Rakemann.

This well-known musician was born in Washington in 1864. He was educated at the Royal High School of Music at Berlin; pupil of Dr. Joseph Joachim and Emanuel Wirth, 1882-1888, and of Max Bruch, 1888-1890. He was violin soloist instructor of the Georgetown University and violinist of the Richmond and Washington Musical Club, and concert master of the former Washington Symphony Orchestra. Reginald de Koven, who has been in the orchestra for thirteen years, Mr. Rakemann has been leader of the orchestra at the Belasco Theater.

The programme of the symphony concert for Thursday afternoon consists of the following: Overture, "Romeo and Juliet," Bellini; Egyptian Ballet Suite, Lullig; Prelude third act, "Lohengrin," Wagner; Russian scenes, "Festiva March," Rimsky-Korsakov; "The Swan," local soloist will also be a feature of the programme.

In honor of the centenary of Mendelssohn's birth the Washington Choral Society will present two of the works of this famous composer at its last concert of the season on May 11 at the hall of the Washington Choral Society, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue. The programme includes "The First Walpurgis Night" and the finale of the second act of the unfinished opera, "Loreley." "The First Walpurgis Night" was first produced in Berlin during the winter of 1823, the composer himself directing the production. The Washington Choral Society has been very diligent at work rehearsing this very beautiful composition, under the direction of Mr. Heinrich Hammer, and under the same competent leadership the amateur orchestra, which will be assisted by a large contingent of professional musicians.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells are at the St. Dennis Hotel, Atlantic City. Miss Bessie McIntosh, of Warrenton, Va., has been visiting friends near Upper Marlboro.

Mrs. John Ball, of Forestville, is visiting her daughters, Mesdames Harry and George Buck.