Demonstration of ### "Perfection Cherry Seeder."

WE have inaugurated a demonstration of this very simple and efficient device for the easy and expeditious seeding of cherries. It removes the seed and stem by a single operation, thus eliminating the necessity of first stemming, as heretofore required. Consists of but two parts; easily cleaned; no screwing to table; leaves cherry round and unbruised, and saves much soil to the hands.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Master Charley Taft Returns to the White House.

ARGENTINE MINISTER DEPARTS

Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco Will Leave Washington To-morrow for Summer Home—Commander Nebolaine in New York to Meet His Successor as Naval Attache.

Master Charley Taft, youngest child of the President, returned to the White House yesterday from his uncle's school at Watertown, Conn., owing to a fresh outbreak of diphtheria, which induced the principal to close the school to all but the first class, who have prepared to enter college. The younger pupils were excused for the vacation, without examinations.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco and the members of their family will leave Washington to-morrow for Manchester-by-the-Sea, where they have taken a cottage for the summer.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Dickinson leave Washington to-day for West Point, stopping over in New York to-night and going by boat to West Point early to-morrow morning. They will be the guests of the Superintendent of the Military Academy, Col. Hugh L. Scott, and Mrs. Scott for a few days, and then make a trip down the sound of a day or two before returning to Washington early next week.

The German Ambassador, Count von Bernstorff, will sail next month for Germany to join the countess and their daughter, Countess Luise Alexandra, who are now in their summer home in Germany.

The Mexican Ambassador, Senor Don Francisco Leon de la Barra, who returned early in the week from Paris, where he was called suddenly by the illness of his wife, has not selected a summer embassy. Senora de la Barra is recovering and improving every day, and will join the Ambassador at an early date, either here or at some summer resort yet to be determined upon.

Col. Baron de Bode, military attache of the Russian Embassy, and his sister, Baroness Elizabeth de Bode, have returned to their West Point home after a ten days' visit at West Point. They have not yet selected their summer home.

Commander Nebolaine, the retiring naval attache of the Russian Embassy, is in New York to meet the newly appointed naval attache, Commander de Vassilles and Mme. de Vassilles, who will arrive there and come direct to Washington. Mme. Nebolaine, who was popular in Washington society, and whose children returned to Russia some months ago.

The military attache of the French Embassy and Countess de Chambrun, who have spent some time at Hot Springs, Va., have returned to the embassy. They will go later on to Beverly, Mass., to spend the summer.

The Argentine Minister and Mme. Portela, who had planned to leave Washington to-day, have been detained in town until next week. They have taken a cottage at Magnolia, Mass.

Representative and Mrs. J. Van Vleet, of New York, will return to their Washington home to-night from New York, where they went to attend the funeral of Representative Olcott's mother, who died at the age of ninety years in her old-fashioned New York home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boardman and Miss Boardman will leave Washington to-morrow for their summer home at Manchester-by-the-Sea.

Lieut. Gen. and Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, who are now in Philadelphia, will sail on Saturday for Europe on the Minneswaka, accompanied by the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons. They will motor through England and on the Continent and return here September 25.

Mr. W. T. Bingham entertained a company at a theater party last evening at the Columbia to see "Are You a Mason?" in honor of the Misses Southernland, daughters of Capt. W. H. Southernland, who will leave on Saturday for Newport to spend a short time with their parents and then go to York Harbor for the remainder of the summer. They will be with Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Bulmer at York Harbor. Among the guests were the Misses Wiborg and Mr. Jerome Bonaparte. A supper at the Willard followed. The party was originally planned as a picnic party, but the inclement weather made this impossible.

Miss Mathilde Mueden, daughter of Mr. Charles Gottfried Mueden, of this city, was married last night to Mr. Luther Morris Leseing, of Lutherville, Md. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock in the Luther Place Memorial Church by Rev. Charles R. Stronbridge, of Eastern, Pa., a cousin of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. Dr. Butler, pastor of the church, before a large company of relatives and friends. A wedding supper followed in the home of the bride's father, at the Fortner, for the relatives, wedding party, and a small party of intimate friends. The church was decorated with palms, ferns, and spring blossoms. The chancel rail was festooned with garlands of roses and carnations in the most delicate tints, mingled with delicate greens and bunches of peonies, gladiolus, and hollyhocks, with sprays of oak leaves placed in various places about the altar. Tall bunches of roses marked the pews for the family and relatives. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Miss Pauline Mueden and Miss Emma Mueden, and the best man was Mr. H. Seymour Walcott. The ushers were Mr. R. Bruce Atkinson, Mr. Richard L. Watnough, Mr. Frederick Reed, Mr. William Radford, and Mr. Werner Trumbauer, of Philadelphia. The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor, heavily embroidered. Her tulle veil was held with orange blossoms, and she carried white orchids and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids' gowns were French creations of white Brussels net, with lace crepe and carried garlands of pink sweet peas. The organist of the church, Miss Ella Butler, played the wedding music. After the supper the bride and bridegroom went North for a trip, the bride wearing a suit of lavender rajah, with hat to match.

Mr. George Y. Worthington, Jr., and his brother, William C. Worthington, of Georgetown, entertained a company of young people at a dance last night at the Dumbarton Club in honor of their sister and her fiancé, Miss Elizabeth Lewis Worthington and Mr. Angus MacDonald, of Hagerstown, Md., and Mr. Vernon Nelson Simmons, editor of the Hagerstown Morning Herald. The ceremony was held near Alexandria, Va. There were about fifty couples dancing. The

MASTER RUSSELL HILL.

WEDDING WILL TAKE PLACE THIS EVENING AT 8 O'CLOCK IN CHRIST CHURCH, GEORGETOWN.

DR. CRAWFORD, OF THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, NEAR ALEXANDRIA, FATHER OF THE BRIDEGROOM, WILL ASSIST DR. BIRKE, RECTOR OF THE CHURCH, IN THE CEREMONY.

The bride will be attended by Miss Alice Laurie Crawford, sister of the bridegroom, maid of honor, and the following bridesmaids: Miss Gertrude Campbell Fry, of this city; Miss Frances Peyton Page, of Winchester, Va.; Miss Beatrice Crawford, of Alexandria, and Miss Nannie S. McClelland, of this city. The best man will be Mr. Charles E. Crawford, of Alexandria, and the ushers will be Mr. Oscar de Wolfe Randolph, of Chicago; Mr. Thomas K. Nelson, of Maryland; Mr. Charles R. Hooff, of Philip Dawson, and Mr. Daniel B. Conrad, all of Virginia, and Mr. George Y. Worthington, Jr., and Mr. William C. Worthington, brothers of the bride.

Much sympathy has been extended from their Washington friends to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Letter on the death of their two-weeks' old infant son in Chicago on Tuesday. Mrs. Letter's parents, Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams, were with their daughter at the time. Mrs. L. Z. Letter and Miss Dorothy Williams are in the city, awaiting the arrival of their mother and Mrs. Joseph Letter. The infant will be buried in this city.

Miss Pearl Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Potter, of this city, was married to Mr. Edwin H. Eitz, of this city, last night at 7 o'clock, in the home of the bride's parents, 1515 Rhode Island avenue, in the presence of the relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom.

The ceremony was performed by Bishop Moore, of Cincinnati, cousin and house guest of the bride, and a reception for several hundred guests followed. The bride was attended by Miss Marion Moore, daughter of the bishop, who was maid of honor, and the best man was Mr. Louis Delano, of Boston and this city. Mr. Atherschilt, tenor, and Miss Catherine Erny, soprano, sang solos, and Miss Grace Adams played the wedding music. The house decorations consisted of Killarney roses and the chandeliers were festooned with delicate green vines. The supper table also had decorations of pink, white, and green.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, made in modified empire style, and carried a shower of yellow daisies. Mrs. Potter, mother of the bride, wore a gown of soft cream satin, and carried a bunch of daisies. The bride and bridegroom went North for a wedding trip, after which they will establish themselves in their own home in Washington. The bride's going-away gown was of dark blue cloth, and she wore a hat to match. She is well known in the city, and the bridegroom is a prominent young business man of Washington.

Mr. Bell, wife of Gen. J. Franklin Bell, Chief of Staff, U. S. A., returned to Fort Myer last evening and joined Gen. Bell at their quarters there. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. J. Buford, of Rock Island, whose illness some weeks ago was the cause of Mrs. Bell's sudden departure for her mother's home.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Ida M. Wynne, daughter of the United States consul general to London and Mrs. Robert J. Wynne, to Lieut. Hugh Ronald French, of the Seventh Dragon Guard (the Princess Royals), is a matter of much interest in Washington, where Miss Wynne spent the winter with her mother. Mr. Wynne having returned to London shortly after escorting them to this country. The wedding is expected to take place in London within ten days.

Miss Wynne created almost a sensation wherever she appeared here, because of her delicate beauty. She is petite, with dark hair, dark blue eyes, and pronounced dark lashes and eyebrows, and a charming figure. She always dresses distinctively and exquisitely, and her dark hair was always wonderfully done with Grecian adornments. Miss Wynne attracted much attention and admiration when she was presented at court before her return to her old home last year.

She was constantly entertained during the winter months in Washington during the stay of her mother and herself at the Shropshire. The engagement is the result of a more than usually interesting courtship. Lieut. French met Miss Wynne at one of the charity bazaars in London last year, and it was a case of love at sight which him. He eagerly sought an introduction to her and their courtship began almost at once. Just before the Wynnes sailed for the United States the engagement was broken, and remained so until the return of Miss Wynne to London in the early spring.

The young bridegroom-elect is a member of the old Irish family of which Lord de Freyne is the head. The present Lord Freyne is Lieut. French's uncle, and his father is Hon. Robert French, a retired officer of the British army. The family is wealthy, and the bridegroom-elect has a large private income. Innumerable sums of money are being set upon the youthful and beautiful bride-elect.

Lieut. French will be obliged to rejoin his regiment at Cairo, Egypt, soon after his wedding, and he will take his bride there on their wedding journey. Miss Wynne was born and reared in Washington, where her parents have for many years been prominent in residential and official society. Their prospective return here is a matter of great delight to their scores of friends. Mr. Wynne's resignation has already been handed in, and they will return here next fall.

A wedding of more than ordinary interest to Washingtonians was that yesterday of Miss Lida May Barr, daughter of Mrs. William T. Hamilton Barr, of Hagerstown, Md., and Mr. Vernon Nelson Simmons, editor of the Hagerstown Morning Herald. The ceremony was held near Alexandria, Va. There were about fifty couples dancing. The

MEDALS AWARDED TO YOUNG PUPILS

Miss Lieberman's Class Entertains Parents.

MANY RECEIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

Youthful Musicians Assisted by Mrs. Robert Fast and Miss Leonie Young—Master Russell Hill's Creditable Performance of Two Liszt Rhapsodies—Good Work by Others.

Miss L. Lieberman gave her medal and scholarship class recital last evening in the music room of the Washington Club before an audience which filled the room to its capacity. The pupils were assisted by Mrs. Robert Fast, soprano, and Miss Leonie Young, soprano. The pupils gave an interesting programme, which included: Overture (special request).....Peschetti For twenty hands at piano, ensemble.

(a) "Lebestum".....Last Miss Ruth Skeris (b) "Overture, 'Nona'" (for three pianos).....Bellini Miss Murray, Miss Davis, Miss Strasburger, and Miss Lieberman.

"Last Hope".....Gottschalk Miss Mabel Davis.

Rhapsody No. 12.....Last Master Russell Hill.

Grand scene and aria from "The Freischutz".....Von Weber Miss Edith Stralburger.

Concerti Stuck (concerto).....Von Weber Miss Edith Stralburger.

(a) "Bermudez".....Wunderstein Miss Edith Stralburger.

(b) "Intermezzo Catalina".....Macagnoli Class.

"Wohlb".....Kolling Mrs. G. T. Robertson.

"Widnes' Deane".....MacDowell Miss Edith Stralburger.

Soprano Solo—(a) "Beaming Eyes".....MacDowell (b) "Dear Ye, O' Gael".....Dudley-Buck Miss Leonie Young.

Rondo Brilliant.....Von Weber Miss Mabel Davis.

Préludium and Toccata.....Lachner Miss Edith Stralburger.

Rhapsody No. 6 (special request).....Last Master Russell Hill.

The pupils all showed remarkably good preparation in their work with memory training and tone quality. The class playing was particularly effective in precision, shading, and tone. Master Russell Hill made a distinct hit with his two numbers, and at the close of the programme he played for an encore the charming little "Poupee Valsante" with original interpretation and much delicacy.

Others who did specially good work were Miss Ruth Doyle and Miss Angela MacMahon.

After the programme was completed Miss Lieberman made an interesting address to the audience, giving an outline of her work in Washington and paying a handsome tribute to the newspapers and the very important part they have played in her success. She then presented to Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes, who was in the audience, a splendid set of classic songs in several volumes and elaborately bound, with a large bunch of roses, as a token of her appreciation of Mrs. Noyes' efforts in her behalf. Mrs. Noyes made a graceful little speech of acknowledgment.

The scholarships for the coming year were awarded as follows: Carroll S. Bone, for The Washington Herald; Miss Edith Dewall, in place of the late Miss Mary Dorchest, for The Evening Star; Miss Edith Stralburger, for The Washington Times. Other scholarships were awarded to Miss Mabel Davis and Master Uriel Davis. The patrons and patronesses for the concert were: Commissioner Henry L. West, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott C. Bone, Judge and Mrs. Hosea B. Moulton, Representative and Mrs. Wilson, Representative and Mrs.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

Catholic Church Observes To-day as Special Devotional Holiday.

The feast of Corpus Christi, one of the most significant feasts in the Catholic liturgical year, will be observed in all the churches in the archdiocese to-day. It is one of the great feast days with an octave, but it is not a holy day of obligation, so the solemn observance of the feast takes place on the Sunday within the octave. Corpus Christi was first proposed as a feast day by a religious league in the year 1226, and commended itself to the Archbishop of Liège, who afterward became Pope Urban IV.

The third plenary council of Baltimore, held in 1854, in consideration of the many difficulties in the way of the faithful observing such days, in what was considered at that time a missionary country, reduced the number of holy days of obligation from twelve to six, and Corpus Christi was one of the feasts included in the change. The public observance will be held generally in the Catholic churches of the city Sunday next, with processions by the children and various societies, and other solemn ceremonies.

Discussing Pulp Rates.

Newspaper Association Aim to Put It on Free List.

John Norris, of New York, representing the American Newspaper Publishers Association, appeared before the Senate Finance Committee yesterday and urged the placing of wood pulp on the free list and lower duties on print paper in behalf of the newspaper publishers of the country.

Mr. Norris was requested by the committee to prepare and file a brief of his contention for a reduction of duties on these articles. No decision has been reached as to the rates on wood pulp and print paper, but it is probable they will be higher than the rates in the House bill and lower than the existing rates.
