Mrs. H. L. Rust Hostess at Small Bridge Party.

DOUGLAS FAMILY IN PARIS

Senator and Mrs. Burrows May Leave City Friday—Maj. and Mrs. Reber at San Francisco—Dr. and Mrs. Boyd Sail To-day for Europe—Miss Marston Lentze to Visit Narragansett.

Mrs. H. L. Rust was hostess at a bridge party yesterday afternoon in her pretty home in Cleveland Park. There were five tables, and an unusually pretty decorative scheme of nasturtium, with the nasturtium colors carried out in everything, which was especially effective with the mahogany woodwork. A buffet luncheon was served at 3 o'clock. Among the guests were Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Daniel Keefe, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. J. Eakin Gadsby, Mrs. Robert Talbot, and Mrs. Norton, of Rosedale.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Douglas and their two children, who went abroad a few weeks ago, are now at the Hotel Montana, in Paris.

Mr. William Powell, of Georgetown, and her daughter, Miss Katherine Powell, have gone to Spring Lake, N. J., to spend the remainder of the summer with Mrs. Powell's elder daughter, Mrs. George Hillman, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., at her beautiful seaside home. Mrs. George Laws, wife of Commander Laws, of Annapolis, another daughter of Mrs. Powell, is also there for the months of July and August.

Miss Caryl Crawford has returned to her parents' apartment at Stoneleigh Court after a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Jackson at their home near Baltimore. Mrs. Jackson was formerly Miss Shelby Converse, daughter of the late Rear Admiral Converse.

Mrs. Thaddeus Tysowski has as her guests at her handsome country place, Alpha Hall, Va., Mrs. and Miss Ferris, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Burrows, wife of Senator Burrows, of Michigan, will leave next Friday for the country place of the Senator's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George McNeil, formerly of this city, on the Hudson River. Senator Burrows will join her there after Congress adjourns, and after visiting in Atlantic City. They will return to their home at Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil will sail for Europe early in August.

Miss Mary Gwinn has gone to Deal Beach to join her mother and other members of the family in the Gwinn cottage, where they are having a family reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gwinn and their two children, of Baltimore; Miss Elizabeth Gwinn, of New York, and Miss Mary Gwinn and Mr. Thomas Gwinn, of Washington, will all spend this month with their mother.

Mrs. Sturgis, wife of Maj. Samuel D. Sturgis, of the General Staff, U. S. Army, and their children have gone to White Bear Lake, Minn., to spend the rest of the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, at their summer home.

Maj. and Mrs. Samuel Reber, the latter a daughter of Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, retired, and their children, who have been in the Philippines for a year or more, have arrived at the Presidio of San Francisco. Maj. Reber has been in the Philippines more than two years, and his family joined him a year later. They lived previously in Washington, where Maj. Reber served on the General Staff, U. S. A., under his father-in-law.

Dr. and Mrs. Boyd, the latter formerly Miss Kate Willard, are at the Hotel Waldorf, in New York, and will sail to-day for Antwerp for the remainder of the summer.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Kate Hanford Carpenter, daughter of Mrs. Frances L. Carpenter, of this city, to Mr. William G. Rawles, son of Gen. J. B. Rawles. The engagement was announced a few weeks ago. The ceremony was performed Thursday in San Francisco, in the home of the bridegroom's father, in Green street, by Right Rev. William Fox and Nichols. The bride was attended by her little niece-in-law-elect, Miss Ethel Rawles, and Mr. Thomas H. Means was best man. The future home of the bride and bridegroom will be in Fallon, Nev., where the latter is engaged in the Reclamation Service of the government. The bride wore a gown of heavy white satin trimmed with rare old lace, and a full bell-shaped orange blossom. The house was decorated with a color scheme of pink, which was carried out in an arrangement of roses and sweet peas.

Miss Marion Lentze, daughter of the commandant of the Washington Navy Yard, will go to Narragansett Pier next week to be the guest of the Misses Downing, daughters of Mr. A. C. Downing, of New York and Washington. She will go from there to Stockbridge, Lenox, and some more northern points before returning to Washington.

Dr. D. H. Kress and his wife, Dr. Lauretta Kress, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage last evening in the Seventh-day Adventists' Sanatorium at Takoma Park, D. C. More than a hundred guests were received in the drawing-room of the sanatorium, and Elder K. C. Russell acted as master of ceremonies. A charming programme of music and speeches was given, the opening number being a vocal solo by Prof. Griggs, superintendent of the educational department of the Adventist denomination.

After a stirring number by the Takoma Seventh-day Adventist Orchestra, Chairman Russell spoke and drew from Dr. D. H. Kress a very interesting outline of his life's experiences. He was six years with the Battle Creek Sanatorium, then toured England, Scotland, and Ireland, delivering health lectures. After this he and his wife were sent by their denomination to Australia to establish sanatorium work, and in a short time built up in Sydney an institution larger than the one here.

Mrs. Kress followed her husband's remarks with an interesting speech, which was in turn followed by one from Elder A. G. Daniels, president of the general conference. More music was followed by a luncheon a la S. D. A. mode, which is minus all fish, fish, tea, coffee, condiments, and intoxicants.

The Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott have just returned from Scotland and England, where, at the University of Cambridge, Dr. Walcott received the honorary degree of doctor of science in recognition of his researches into the earliest geological formations and the remains of animal life found in them. The degree was conferred on the occasion of the celebration on June 22 and 23 of the centennial of the birth of Charles Darwin. Dr. and Mrs. Walcott will leave to-day for a camp in the Canadian Rockies, starting from Banff, Alberta, where Geo-

SHAW SKETCH PLEASES.

Forbidden by Censor, "Press Cuttings is Presented in Private." London, July 9.—Bernard Shaw's theatrical sketch, "Press Cuttings," which was billed for production at the Court Theatre to-day, but the production of which was forbidden by the censor on the ground that it contained "personalities, expressed or understood," was produced privately this afternoon at the above named theatre.

It is described as "A topical sketch, compiled from editorial correspondence in the columns of the daily papers." It proved to be a harmless skit upon current events, the author poking fun at political leaders, the heads of the army, members of the peerage, and the constitution. It was admirably acted and caused roars of laughter throughout.

DRUGGISTS HOLD OUTING.

Members of Retail Association Give First Excursion to Marshall Hall. The first annual excursion of the newly formed Retail Druggists' Association was given yesterday to Marshall Hall under the personal direction of A. C. Taylor, president of the association, and F. C. Weller, assisted by the entertainment committee, composed of Walter Hill, Herbert Easterday, George Hurlbush, A. T. Bronough, P. E. Boyer, C. B. Chamberlain, J. F. Simpson, Prof. W. H. Bradbury, Charles G. Lennan, J. E. Coblenz, E. A. Richardson, and George Dawson.

About 150 members of the association, with their friends, enjoyed the outing. The excursionists left on the steamer Charles Maclester at 10 o'clock in the morning and 2:30 and 6:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and returned at 11 o'clock in the evening. The programme for the day included dancing, a concert by Schroeder's Orchestra engaged especially for the occasion, and vocal selections by George O'Connor, who also entertained the crowd on the return. The proceeds of the outing will be used in advance of all expectations, will be devoted to the advancement and firmer establishment of the new organization.

RETURNS HER THANKS.

West Falls Church, Va. Editor The Washington Herald: I am in receipt of your order for the Estey piano awarded me in the recent contest of The Washington Herald, and beg to express my sincere thanks for the same.

I have seen the instrument and consider it beautiful in appearance, as well as quality of tone and touch.

Thanking you for the very generous and courteous treatment accorded me by The Herald, and with best wishes for its continued success, I am,

Sincerely yours,

GRACE G. GREENE.

FIGURES IN NOVEL ROMANCE.

Cupid Takes Part in Miss Miriam Mosher's Balloon Incident. Miss Miriam Mosher, who lives at 649 F street, northeast, a pupil in the Technical High School, is one of the principals in a pretty romance, the denouement of which is being awaited with interest by persons of two cities.

On last Monday she sent up a toy balloon at Scranton, Pa., where she is now on a visit with some friends. A few days later William Moseley, of Oil-pitt, Pa., while on his way home from a fishing trip, found the balloon, to which was attached a card bearing Miss Mosher's Washington address. The young man thought the balloon had come from the sender. They have since met, and Cupid has been busy.

Miss Mosher is considered the prettiest girl attending the Technical High School. Her large brown eyes and golden hair attract attention. She is fifteen years old, and her girl friends are writing her to inform them how the "balloon incident" turns out.

KING AS REID'S GUEST

Royalty Attends Dinner at Dorchester House.

SUPERB DISPLAY OF SILVER

Floral Decorations of Tables Are Costly Orchids—Large Company Present, Including Ambassadors and Other Foreign Representatives, British Diplomats and Americans.

London, July 9.—The King, Queen, and Princess Victoria were guests at a dinner given by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Dorchester House to-night. The ambassador and staff of the embassy received their majesties in the entrance hall, which was beautifully decorated with roses, verbenas, and palms.

Dinner was served at two large tables, on which there was a superb display of silver. The floral decorations of the tables were costly orchids.

The Queen sat at Mrs. Reid's right hand at one table, while the King had Mrs. Reid on his right at the other.

There was a very large company, including the Russian, Austrian, Portuguese, and Danish ambassadors, Premier and Mrs. Asquith, many prominent Britons of title and American women who have married titled Britons, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. Ogden Mills, and J. Pierpont Morgan. A short musical entertainment followed the dinner.

Grand Ball Later.

Mrs. Nordica and John McCormack sang. Subsequently there was a ball, at which the company was augmented by the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sardinia, Prince Christopher of Greece, the Duke and Duchess of Teck, the Spanish and Italian ambassadors, a number of the best known titled Britons, Mrs. and Mrs. Bradley Martin, Mrs. Porter Palmer, Mrs. Frederick Vanderbilt, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Burns, the Earl and Countess of Granard, and Countess Szechenyi.

The King, who now dances a little, opened the royal quadrille with Mrs. Reid. Thereafter he was only a looker-on, but all the other royalties joined and the dancing continued until long after midnight in both ball rooms.

The display of diamonds and other gems was one of dazzling magnificence. It was one of the greatest gatherings of rank, fashion, and wealth of the current season.

WILL PLAY BALL FOR ORPHANS

Elks Meet Knights of Columbus at National Park To-day.

Vice President Sherman and Speaker Cannon Promise to Swell Receipts for St. Vincent's.

There was a meeting of the joint committee of arrangements last night for the Elks-Knights of Columbus baseball game to be held at American League Park this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the interest of St. Vincent Female Orphan Asylum.

Fair weather this afternoon will make this a notable event at American League Park from an attendance standpoint, in the opinion of those who attended the meeting. The sale of seats has been large, and all along the line preparation is the watchword. Chairman Donovan stated that only a great pressure of business at the Capitol will prevent Vice President Sherman from being on hand to throw the first ball. Speaker Cannon will be on hand with a large delegation of "his boys" to whom it up for the orphan cause.

There is every expectation of a good baseball contest. Harry King, manager of the Elks club, and a former Princeton athlete, said last night: "Our opponents are made up of seasoned players from the District leagues, with a particularly strong battery. We can afford to praise our opponents because we class up, as an organization, a great deal better on the ball field than do the Knights. You will find all the applause coming our way this afternoon." Capt. J. C. Cummings, of the Elks, chuckled an affirmation of this.

Felix Maguire and Tip O'Neill, on behalf of the Knights of Columbus, said that the boys' team in St. Vincent's papers would be more eloquent and convincing than anything they might say for their prospects. They were sure of one thing, however, that it would be a real ball game from the time Empire Batts gives the signal to start the game.

The joint committee was last night furnished with the following batting order and roster of players for both teams: McIntire, third base; Phil King, second base; Kitch, catcher; Cummings, first base; Murphy, left field; Harry King, right field; Kellher, shortstop; Holland, center, and Becker, pitcher. Following are the Elks substitute players: Owens, Ollcott, Luitich, Volgt, Stewart, and Taughan. Knights of Columbus team—McCarthy, third base; Pittpatrick, shortstop; Quinn, first base; Bielaak, second base; Slavin, left field; Moriarty, center; Freeman, right field; O'Neill, catcher (captain); Lowe, pitcher; Gallagher, Drenna, McDonald and O'Loughlin, substitutes. Joe Moriarty, substitute catcher.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. Empire Batts will render decisions on balls and strikes, and Mr. Riddle will make the base decisions.

THAW HEARING ON MONDAY.

Question of Sanity Will Be Decided at White Plains.

New York, July 9.—Supreme Court Justice William J. Gaynor, of the appellate division, Brooklyn, handed down a decision to-day denying the motion to change the place of the hearing to determine the question of Harry K. Thaw's sanity to New York County, on the ground that it would be of far greater convenience to the State's witnesses than at White Plains. The motion was based largely on an affidavit made by District Attorney Jerome, who says he has seven eminent insanity experts, as a matter of convenience to go all the way to White Plains.

Answers Wheelock Charges

Indiana Commissioner Denies Allegations Regarding Carlisle.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine yesterday gave out a statement denying the charges of James R. Wheelock, a former student, that pupils in the Carlisle Indian School were in open revolt, and that some of them had been put in a dungeon on a diet of bread and water. The Commissioner's statement is as follows:

"I have investigated affairs at Carlisle generally, as well as paying particular attention to the charges apparently published in the newspapers by Wheelock. No evidence was offered or could be brought out that in any way supports the charges, whether of maladministration or disorganization.

"It is due from me to Supt. Friedman and to the good name of the school bears to say that the evidence shows that any further attention to the charges Wheelock appears to have so widely published would be to do injustice to Supt. Friedman and the school.

"All who think that this statement is the so-called official whitewash are cordially invited to visit Carlisle and see for themselves. I will afford them every opportunity for making up their minds."
