Fitz Herbert Wins Realization Stakes at Sheepshead.

GREENER'S OLAMBALA SECOND

Hildreth Colt Handled Superbly by Jockey Powers, but Farman Declared Splendid Racer Was All in at Finish—10,000 Spectators Pronounce Race Best of the Season.

New York, July 12.—Fitz Herbert won the Lawrence Realization Stakes for three-year-olds at Sheepshead Bay today, but he had to break the world's record to accomplish the feat.

The great colt ran the distance in 2:45 flat, and had two lengths to spare when he passed the judges, but in the opinion of many turfmen he was pretty well exhausted.

The second horse was J. G. Greener's Olambala, who, in the opinion of his owner, is a better racer than the famous Olambala, also bred by Mr. Greener. Olambala received what was termed a rattle-headed ride by Musgrave, whereas Fitz Herbert was handled in superb style by Powers, who was entitled to a fair share of the praise bestowed upon Fitz Herbert. Madden's Payette was third, three lengths away.

Nearly 10,000 spectators were on hand, and they pronounced the Realization the best race of the season. As in previous events, Fitz Herbert was the nearest kind of a winner. Nobody believed that he would have to stretch his neck to capture to-day's race prize, which netted $15,000 for Hildreth.

Fitz Herbert was a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 7.

Roanoke, 2; Portsmouth, 0.
Roanoke, Va., July 12.—In one of the prettiest games seen here this year, Roanoke won from Portsmouth to-day by the score of 2 to 0. Hannifin was a little wild a times, and gave the Tigers the advantage which resulted in victory, for Doyle scored in the first inning after being hit by a pitched ball, and Tydeman scored in the seventh after being walked. Score:

Batters—Roanoke: Ryan; Hannifin and Smith. Umpire—Mr. Pender. Time of game—1 hour and 30 minutes. Attendance—60.

Danville, 3; Lynchburg, 0.
Danville, Va., July 12.—Danville shut out Lynchburg in the second game of the series, the contest being featured by the superb pitching of Morrissey, who allowed but two singles and gave only one base on balls. Vernelle, for the visitors, was hit for a double and two singles in the second inning, which netted Danville two earned runs. Laughlin and Stafford carried off the batting honors. Score:

Batters—Morrissey and Westlake; Vernelle and Ross. Umpire—Mr. Mac.

Norfolk, 3; Richmond, 2.
Norfolk, Va., July 12.—Richmond blew up in the sixth inning this afternoon, Norfolk getting seven runs over the plate, and these, with the one already scored, gave the locals the game, 8 to 2. Two nuthers by Messitt, mixed with four hits by the locals, one of them a three-bagger by Chandler, accounts for the run-making in the sixth. Score:

Hagerstown Wins Again.
Special to The Washington Herald.
Winchester, Va., July 12.—Hagerstown outplayed the locals at Reservoir Park this afternoon, who were defeated handsomely, 9 to 2. Gray and Johnson were both easy pluckers for the visiting batsmen, and besides received poor support. Harrell and Pleiss did good stickwork for the visitors, the latter getting a home run. Batters: Hagerstown, Bishop and Thacker; Winchester, Gray, Johnson, and Duffy.

Crescents A. C. After Games.
The Crescent Athletic Club desires games with teams averaging eighteen years. Address: 1800 Maryland Avenue northeast. Following is the line-up: Bresnahan, catcher; Brown, pitcher; Prender, first base; Darr, second base; Pitts, shortstop; Peters, third base; W. Taylor, left field; Bresnahan, center field; and Carroll, right field.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 128 South Royal Street.

Alexandria, Va., July 12.—The election of city officers at a meeting of the city council held to-night aroused considerable interest. There was but little opposition for any of the city offices, and the present incumbents, with the exception of one, that of keeper of the almshouse, were re-elected. For keeper of the almshouse, Policeman Joshua Sherwood defeated the present incumbent, William M. Smith, by a vote of 18 to 2.

In the board of aldermen, James B. Fitzgerald was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. William H. Sweeney from the Fourth ward.

The first office to be voted upon was that of police commissioner from the Second ward. Mr. Ballenger asked if the incumbent, Thomas A. Fisher, was a resident of that ward. That ward, he said, would like to have a representation, and he thought it fair to give one to the Second ward. Mr. Snowden stated that he was in receipt of a letter from Mr. Fisher in which the writer had stated that he was at the present time but a temporary resident of the Third ward. Mr. Fisher was, therefore, re-elected with opposition.

Other officers re-elected were as follows: Edgar Warfield, jr., dispenser of medicine for the eastern district; Henry Callan, dispenser of medicine for the western district; fine wardens: A. S. Manekin, First ward; M. L. Price, Second ward; M. L. Rishell, Third ward; Courtney Acton, Fourth ward; George W. Pettey, chief of the fire department; De Wilton Craven, weigher of hay; William Craven, assessor.

The election of a health officer and two physicians to the poor was postponed until the next regular business meeting. With some amendment, the new set of health laws for the city was passed without opposition. Among other things it is provided that the health officer be elected every two years, and two physicians to the poor be elected at the same time. But the health officer cannot be elected by the physicians to the poor. He is required to make an inspection of the almshouse once a month and render monthly reports to the council.

The regulations for the physicians to the poor provide that one shall have a district north of King street and the other a district south of King street, and that they shall alternate semi-annually in duty at the almshouse and police station.

Section 14 of the laws provides for compulsory vaccination of children attending the public schools. It is stipulated that no children shall be admitted unless they can produce a certificate or a scar that they have been vaccinated four years prior to admission to the schools. In case of indigent parents, the vaccination shall be done by the city. Under the new laws the salary of the health officer will be $500 a year, while the physicians to the poor will receive $200 a year each.

Mayor Paff submitted a communication from the corporation counsel relative to a decision given recently in the Police Court concerning the bread laws, which is to the effect that the present laws are obsolete and void. The matter was referred to the committee on general laws.

Corporation Counsel Fisher submitted a communication setting forth that he had prepared a deed for the new girls' school building to be erected in the city center, and that the same would be executed upon the return to the city of the chairman of the school board.

Upon motion of C. B. Marshall, the sum of $40 was appropriated to paint the screens in the city hall and for new screens in the office of the clerk of the Corporation Court.

Mr. Marshall also introduced a resolution carrying with it an appropriation of $100 for the purchase of military records cases for the office of the clerk of the Corporation Court. It was referred to the public property committee.

A petition of the Reliance Fire Engine Company asking for an appropriation of $100 for its expenses to the State Firemen's convention at Hampton, Va., next month was referred to the finance committee.

Permission was granted Mrs. M. J. Gorman to re-erect her house at 221 D Street, and permission to re-erect to resettle was also granted George Hall for a house on Henry street, between Queen and Princess streets.

Plans are being made by Alexandria Lodge, No. 785, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, for the erection of a new home which will, it is said, cost $25,000. The building will be erected on the lot directly east of the present home on the south side of Prince street, between Royal and Fairfax streets. It is understood that the committee in charge will within a short time have the plans drawn, and the work will be begun at an early date.

The executive committee in charge held a meeting last night and organized with the election of the following officers: R. S. Barrett, chairman; Howard W. Smith, secretary; T. W. Robinson, treasurer; Zora Hill, chairman of building committee; construction committee, J. W. Baker, chairman; F. M. Hill, August Oehler, Judge L. C. Barley, and Dr. W. M. Smith.

On the ground that he has discovered new evidence in the case of Calvin Johnson, one of the three negroes convicted of the murder of Walter F. Schultz, the Chicago artist, who was slain in this city March 6 last, Attorney Lewis H. Machen will, in the Corporation Court, at 10 o'clock to-morrow argue for a new trial. In the evening the court refuses it, preparatory to record of the final trial, preparatory to taking the case to the State Court of Appeals.

Three affidavits will be presented, and Miss Mary Lee Rose has been summoned to testify regarding her affidavit. It is to the effect that she was a passenger on a southbound electric train the afternoon of March 6 last, and at 5 o'clock saw the body of a man lying in the field near where Schultz's body was found. The prosecution contends that the murder was committed between 7 and 8 o'clock the night of March 6 last.

Eighteen years in the State penitentiary was the sentence imposed by the court to-day in the case of James Lucas, a negro, indicted for the murder of Samuel Blakey, another negro. When the case was called Lucas entered a plea of guilty to murder in the second degree. The murder occurred on the night of June 3 last at Atlantic's vacation establishment, when a dispute followed, after which Lucas drew a knife and stabbed Blakey in the throat and arm. Blakey died a few minutes afterward.

Funeral services over the body of E. Forrest Simpson, who died suddenly yesterday at Colonial Beach, Va., will be held at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from Demaine's undertaking establishment in this city, and was a son of the late Richard Henry Simpson. In recent years he had made his home in Washington. He was twenty-eight years of age. Besides his wife, one child survives.

Five horses belonging to E. T. Hartington, broke out of their stalls the night of the 11th. One of the animals, said to be very valuable, fell from the railroad trestle near-by, and when extricated at 1 o'clock this morning, died shortly thereafter.

The funeral of M. S. McLearn, who was killed in Washington yesterday morning, will be held at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from Whately's undertaking establishment. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, will conduct the services, and the burial will be in Bethel Cemetery.

Meyer Strauss, of Baltimore, was awarded the lot in George Washington Park given by Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons.

A. M. Simpson has been chosen treasurer of M. D. Core Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans. The election was made at a meeting of that organization held at Lee Camp Hall last night.

Thomas Wade, a negro youth, held for the action of the grand jury on a charge of burglarizing the Fairfax apartments, was this afternoon released on bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the September term of court.

ing anything about any threat Harry may have made against her.

"If you can prove that Mr. O'Reilly was not Thaw's counsel at the time of the communication mentioned, I will admit Mrs. Thaw's evidence as to her testimony."

"We have letters to prove Mr. O'Reilly was Thaw's counsel at that time," said Mr. Morschauer.

Several letters written by Thaw were marked for identification after Mrs. Thaw and the evidence against her were handed to Dr. Flint, who took possession of them.

"Do they contain any threats?" Dr. Flint was asked.

"I cannot say, he replied.

Evelyn Thaw was shown the will of Harry K. Thaw, which she identified as being in the handwriting of her husband, but she was not asked to read any of the writing.

Throughout the examination Thaw did not seem to take much interest in her testimony, and frequently held his face behind a palm-leaf fan.

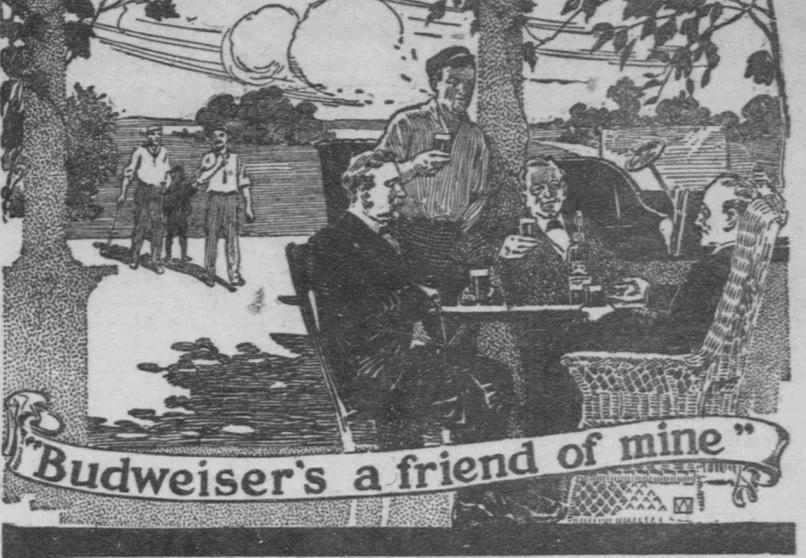

Regard Thaw as Rational.
Previous to the arrival of Evelyn on the scene, Thaw's lawyers put about a dozen more witnesses on the stand, all of whom have talked with the prisoner since his incarceration in Matteawan, and said that they regard his manner and conversation as rational. The witnesses had talked with Thaw on a variety of subjects, including religion, church work, history, railroads, and transportation, the manufacture of steel, politics, baseball, and prize fighting.

Before each witness left the stand he was asked if Thaw had said anything about the murder of Stanford White, Mrs. Thaw's evidence that he had never betted that Ketchell would not knock him out in fifteen rounds. "I wanted to bet more," says Papke, "but could not get the money down. I knew that Ketchell could not stop me and that is the reason why I bet my money." It is said that Ketchell lost $2,500 by betting he would stop Papke.

Although Johnny Frayne and Young Corbett are both great favorites with the fight fans of California, there is very little interest being taken in their twenty-five-round fight which is scheduled to be fought at Colma, Cal., Saturday afternoon. No betting has been done so far on the result of the contest, and there is a slim advance sale of tickets. If Corbett knocks out Frayne, he will get a match with Hyland or Nelson.

LOCAL BOWLERS TO COMPETE In First Annual Tournament of the American Duckpin Association. Baltimore, Md., July 12.—Entries continue to come in for the first annual tournament of the American Duckpin Association, in this city, from July 19 to 21, inclusive. Word was received this morning that many crack pin spillers from the Capital City would compete for honors in the tournament.

Among the Washington clubs already entered are the Royal, the Capitol Hills, the Garrison, and the Nationals. The first named has entered three teams, and expects to make a strong bid for the handsome prizes offered.

GOSSIP OF THE BOXERS. Joe Selger, of Denver, and Jim Holland, an English light-weight, will meet at the Shurkey Club in New York to-night. Let's have the result, please.

All trace of the result of the Frankie Moore-Patsy Kline match scheduled for the wind-up at the Long Acres Club in New York on Saturday night has been lost.

Tommy Burns and Sam "Woodman" Langford have been matched to meet in London the latter part of November, according to a dispatch. Cheer up; we might all be dead by that time.

Jimmy Gardner and Young Loughrey may meet at the Fairmont Club, of New York, in the near future. Jack Hanlon, manager of the Manayunk scrapper, will go over to the big town Thursday night.

Billy Papke is thinking of paying New York a visit. It will be Papke's first visit to the big town since his great mill with Ketchell, and he will no doubt collect a little change before leaving the fast town.

Leach Cross, the New York dentist, is thinking of retiring as an exponent of the many art and may settle down at Olvera, Sullivan County, N. Y. With such a place as Manayunk on the canvas, it is surely a mistake.

Young Erbe has been billed to meet Jack Harris before the Oakland (Cal.) Club Saturday night, writes Billy McCorney. Billy adds that he has them all writing the notices, and intends to take in the fair while out there. Might as well.

Now that Jeffries has got through his vaudeville contracts, he will probably give out the statement that he never said a word about fighting Johnson, and that Sam Berger is responsible for the promises. That will pass, but some one's good reputation is due for a fall.

In a letter to a friend in Philadelphia Billy Papke states that he won close to $2,000 outside of his end of the purse by betting that Ketchell would not knock him out in fifteen rounds. "I wanted to bet more," says Papke, "but could not get the money down. I knew that Ketchell could not stop me and that is the reason why I bet my money." It is said that Ketchell lost $2,500 by betting he would stop Papke.

DEPARTMENTAL LEAGUE NOTES. Johnny Priest, of the Agriculture team, is getting to be one of the best shortstops in the Departmental League, for in every game he manages to pull off one or more sensational plays, and is a reliable man at the bat.

Interior shares with Treasury the honor of being the only teams to have won a game from Agriculture, and Manager Dugan, of the Red Men, declares that they will duplicate the victory when the two teams meet again the latter part of the week. He promises to have his new men available, including Doc McDonald, the old Baltimore Eastern League shortstop.

If Brentwood wins in the Capital City League race, and Agriculture comes off victorious in the Departmental League, Sanders will have to make a choice of which team he will play with in the District post-season series, as he pitches for both teams. It will probably be the former, as the Farmers are well fortified in the hurling line, having Newberry, one of the premier flingers of the city.

The game this afternoon between Post-office and Commerce and Labor in the Departmental League promises to be a corker, for second place is at stake. Should the Mallmen win, they would go ahead of the Laborites, the present holders, and by the victory give the pennant to Agriculture, for Commerce and Labor has to win its remaining games to be a contender for the pennant.
