

ANOTHER "DRY" DAY

Primary Cuts Down Attendance at Bush Meeting.

THREE THOUSAND PRESENT

Rev. Ora Samuel Gray Delivers a Strong Temperance Lecture, Which Was Free from Politics—Thunderstorm Sweeps Over the Chautauqua Grounds—W. C. T. U. Day Today.

Special to The Washington Herald. Purcellville, Va., Aug. 5.—This was another day when prohibition talk was the feature at the Chautauqua grounds, and lectures being of an especially interesting character.

The attendance to-day was smaller than either of the preceding days, numbering not over 3,000. This was in a measure due to the prevailing stifling dust in the country roads, but more largely to the Democratic primary being held throughout the county. Not only has there been great interest in the gubernatorial contest, but during the past few days the local race for the legislature has been wrought up to the highest pitch known for years, and many persons spent the entire day at the polls.

The exercises opened this morning with an interesting prayer service under the direction of Rev. M. H. Hoge, and J. W. Fleming. At 10 o'clock a brief concert was given by assembly talent, after which Bishop Berry delivered his lecture, "Lend a Hand." The lecture is a strong plea for the temperance cause, and the speaker received close attention.

This afternoon Rev. Ora Samuel Gray made another strong presentation of the temperance question, which, like his lecture yesterday, was free from politics. Just before the closing hours of this afternoon a thunderstorm swept over this section, which drove many hurriedly to their homes. There was a copious shower of rain, which has left the grounds and roads in this condition, and a large crowd turned out to the evening concert at 8 o'clock.

To-morrow morning the exercises will be conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and will be presided over by Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, State president of the organization. The principal address will be delivered by Mrs. Frances W. Graham, State president of the New York Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who is a talented singer and a forceful lecturer. The evangelical meetings will begin in the afternoon with a sermon by Rev. Richard Wilkinson, of Augusta, Ga.

RAYNER IS INDORSED

Hagerstown Democrats Favor Senator's Re-election.

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—Col. Buchanan Schley and his friends of the Democratic organization in Washington County were in complete control of the conventions held in Junior Hall in this city today to select delegates to the State convention to be held in Baltimore next week, and the judicial convention to be held in Cumberland on August 13.

Col. Schley heads the delegation which will go to the State convention. The proceedings were entirely harmonious, and much interest was manifested. The resolutions indorsed the re-nomination of Joshua W. Hering for State comptroller, the administration of Gov. Crothers, and recommended the reelection of Senator Rayner to the United States Senate.

The following delegates were elected to the State convention from this county: Col. Buchanan Schley, William K. Hoffman, David E. Conrad, E. P. Conhill, Dr. J. H. Wade, J. A. Mason, Leon R. Youtree, B. A. Betts, Ernest Hoffman, Dr. L. M. Schindler, Richard Moore, and W. A. Carr.

Ernest Hoffman was chosen chairman of the judicial convention, which convened immediately after the State convention adjourned, and resolutions were adopted pledging the delegates cast their votes at the Cumberland convention for the judicial convention. A Hunter Boyer was chief judge of the judicial circuit. The resolutions paid a high tribute to the character and public service of Judge Boyd. A mass delegation of twenty-two was elected to represent Washington County in the judicial convention.

Alleged Diamond Thief Arrested.

Special to The Washington Herald. Parkersburg, W. Va., Aug. 5.—"Dutch" Goldstrom was brought here to-day from Homestead, Pa., where he was arrested yesterday in connection with the Parkersburg diamond robbery. Goldstrom was placed in the county jail. He will probably be given a hearing to-day. It is alleged that Goldstrom is implicated in the theft of more than $100,000 worth of diamonds. All the time he has been in jail of a half a dozen men, has now been run down, and are either behind the bars or out on heavy bail. The Perkins Detective Agency, of Pittsburg, helped run the culprits down.

Oil Well Near Hancock.

Special to The Washington Herald. Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—John A. Morgan, of West Virginia, has purchased from Frank Ray a tract of nearly 200 acres of timber land five miles west of Hancock, this county, and will begin at once to sink an oil well on the land. Oil and gas experts claim there are gas indications on the surface and that oil underlies the gas.

Hamilton Case Continued.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 5.—The charge against A. S. Hamilton for the murder of Mrs. Sallie Hicks was called in the police court to-day for preliminary trial, and was continued until Saturday on account of the absence of counsel for the prisoner.

Babies Defy Heat—Remedy FREE

The summer is a very trying time for children. The child that is not robust becomes weaker still from the withering heat, while the full-blooded child who breaks out with sores and pimples because its blood is overheated. Caldwell, 528 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

PIEDMONT ASSEMBLY OPENS.

Big Gathering of Christian Church Lasts Ten Days. Special to The Washington Herald. Gordonsville, Va., Aug. 5.—The Piedmont Assembly, under the auspices of the Christian Church, convened here to spend the next ten days of August. The assembly grounds include eight acres of beautiful woodland, one mile west of Gordonsville, on the Chesapeake and Ohio. A large tabernacle on the ground will comfortably seat one thousand. Two excellent springs furnish an abundance of pure cold water.

For the convenience of the visitors, the assembly maintains a restaurant. Altogether it is a most delightful place to spend the ten days of August. The programme is perhaps the strongest the assembly has ever had. W. H. Book, minister of the great church at Columbus, Ind., will preach twice each day, and J. W. Wilson, his fine choir director, will have charge of the music. Prof. W. M. Forrest, the scholarly Bible chair man of the University of Virginia, will give a Bible study each morning.

W. McGarvey, the venerable president of the College of the Bible, at Lexington, Ky., will deliver several addresses. He is one of the greatest Bible preachers of the world, and everybody will want to hear him. There will be other able men to speak also.

BEATEN BY MOUNTAINERS

Men Wanted for Shooting Another Escape from Officers.

Special to The Washington Herald. Charlottesville, on Top of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 5.—The sheriff of Greene and his three deputies, who came here Tuesday night in search of Sam and Carey Hauley, wanted in that county for shooting S. J. Sullivan, who is now at the point of death from a bullet wound in the head, were outwitted by the mountaineers. The fugitives came to Charlottesville some time during the day Tuesday and spent a portion of the night with their father, R. Hauley, on Rose Hill, a suburb just north of the city. Toward morning the Greene sheriff and his deputies surrounded the Hauley home, having in the meanwhile, sent to this city to secure the aid of the local police. Officers Stratton and Davis went to the scene and a thorough search of the premises was made.

The mountaineers had made good their escape by a back entrance. They were traced to a corn field near by, but nothing further was seen of them. Residents of Rio say that two men answering the description of the Hauleys passed that point, going north.

There is a strong feeling against the Hauleys in Greene. It is reported that twenty-five mountaineers have pledged themselves to lynch Sam Hauley if he is caught. Further particulars are to the effect that the shooting occurred in the public road leading to Rockingham County, about one-half mile from the county line, near the home of Sam Hauley, and in sight of the Episcopal Mission Church, near the top of the Blue Ridge. Hauley and Sullivan are near neighbors and cousins, and had been on bad terms for several years back.

BIG STORM IN CUMBERLAND.

Windows Shattered by Hail Stones. Streets Are Torrents.

Special to The Washington Herald. Cumberland, Md., Aug. 5.—The drought was broken this afternoon by a cloudburst which deluged the eastern section of Cumberland, doing much damage. Large hailstone fell, and the big plate glass window in the store of J. Gross & Co. yielded to the battering. C. Philip Jolley, a window batters, was at work and was covered with broken glass. He escaped injury. Baltimore street, the main thoroughfare, was turned into a river two feet deep. Water rushed down over the Waverly terrace through the residences of Howard C. Oglesby and Edward Welbie, doing much damage, as the houses were filled with debris.

POINT PLEASANT SHAFT READY

Monument to Frontiersmen Will Be Unveiled in October.

Special to The Washington Herald. Parkersburg, W. Va., Aug. 5.—The monument at Point Pleasant, which will mark the site of the battle of Point Pleasant, fought in the early days of the Revolutionary war, has been completed and will be ready for the unveiling early in October. Preparations have been made for the event and thousands are expected to be present to witness the unveiling. The monument was erected in commemoration of the battle of Point Pleasant, in which a band of frontiersmen defeated the allied Indians, acting under the British, and paved the way for the settlement of West Virginia.

Battery D at Hagerstown.

Special to The Washington Herald. Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—Members of Battery D, Third Field Artillery, who have been out since July 2, passed through Hagerstown to-day on their return to Fort Myer. They are in charge of Capt. Horn and Lieut. Shepherd, and their equipment includes twelve cannon. The battery, numbering 130 men, encamped to-night at Boonsboro, at the foot of South Mountain.

BYRD'S BIG VICTORY

Renominated by Overwhelming Majority.

CARRIES MANN WITH HIM

Speaker of House of Delegates Will Have Majority Between Five and Six Hundred—Mann Sweeps Frederick County—Tucker Has Only Eight Majority in Native City.

Special to The Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Aug. 5.—Richard Evelyn Byrd has been renominated for the house of delegates by an overwhelming majority over his opponent, Thomas P. Spates, carrying both Winchester and Frederick County.

Frederick County will give Byrd, according to the returns on board of nineteen precincts heard from, a majority of between 500 and 600, the largest polled in years. Winchester gives Byrd a majority of 53 votes over Spates. Mann, for governor, will receive a majority in Frederick County of 550 over Tucker. Tucker carries the city of Winchester by the narrow majority of eight votes.

Mr. Byrd's fight for re-election has aroused more interest than the gubernatorial contest. As author of the Byrd bill he incurred the displeasure of the major element and nothing was left undone to defeat him. His victory over such odds will practically assure his reelection as speaker of the next house, as his nomination is equivalent to election.

TUCKER WINS ALEXANDRIA.

Majority Gained in City Slightly Reduced by County Vote.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 5.—In the primary held here to-day Harry S. George Tucker came out victorious. Out of 1,321 votes polled, his majority in the city was 227, which was but 73 votes less than his majority here had anticipated. Tucker carried three out of the four wards of the city, but the Third ward gave Mann a majority of 21, leaving Tucker's majority in the city and county 206.

In Alexandria County, however, Judge Mann won out, with a majority of 12. There were 296 votes polled, of which Mann received 174 and Tucker 122. Out of the three precincts in the county Tucker carried Jefferson and Washington, while Mann won in Washington district. For lieutenant governor, James R. Cato, of this city, received a vote in the city of 530, while J. Taylor Elyson received 373, giving Cato a majority of 51 votes. Cato also carried Alexandria County, receiving 154 against Elyson's 133, or a majority of twenty-one votes in the county and county of 338.

Robinson Monroe, defeated J. Fred Birrell for a seat in the house of delegates, carrying both city and county. In the city Monroe received a majority of 190, carrying all four wards. In the county he also carried the three districts, receiving a total of 208 votes against Birrell's 81, or a majority of 125. Monroe, therefore, received a total majority of 31 votes. The vote by wards in the city was as follows: First ward—For governor, Mann, 135; Tucker, 132; for lieutenant governor, Cato, 155; J. Taylor Elyson, 124; for attorney general, Robert A. Cletts, 135; Samuel W. Williams, 133; for commissioner of agriculture, John Thompson Brown, 138; G. W. Kolner, 175; for house of delegates, Robinson Monroe, 130; J. Fred Birrell, 145.

Second ward—Mann, 138; Tucker, 221; Cato, 264; Elyson, 100; Cletts, 120; Williams, 231; Brown, 190; Kolner, 239; Monroe, 207; Birrell, 167. Third ward—Mann, 164; Tucker, 143; Cato, 263; Elyson, 48; Cletts, 170; Williams, 114; Brown, 109; Kolner, 106; Monroe, 165; Birrell, 107. Fourth ward—Mann, 130; Cato, 171; Elyson, 103; Cletts, 107; Williams, 119; Brown, 31; Kolner, 155; Monroe, 135; Birrell, 95.

The vote by districts in Alexandria County was as follows: Jefferson—Tucker, 41; Elyson, 26; Cato, 43; Elyson, 34; Cletts, 23; Williams, 37; Brown, 34; Kolner, 37; Birrell, 24, and Monroe, 55. Arlington—Mann, 159; Tucker, 41; Cato, 70; Elyson, 79; Cletts, 43; Williams, 101; Kolner, 50; Brown, 62; Birrell, 23, and Monroe, 112. Washington—Mann, 29; Tucker, 38; Cato, 41; Elyson, 30; Cletts, 21; Williams, 35; Brown, 43; Kolner, 25; Birrell, 20, and Monroe, 35.

The election was an unusually quiet one, although the managers of both sides had been active throughout the entire day and every available carriage in the city was used in transporting voters to and from the polls. The election was orderly. Returns were quickly made from all the wards, except the Second, it being nearly 10 o'clock before they were announced.

FREDERICKSBURG FOR TUCKER

Gives Majority of Twelve—Hot Legislative Fight.

Special to The Washington Herald. Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 5.—The election here to-day passed off quietly. On account of the pledge being on the ballots a large number of voters stayed away from the polls. The fight for the house of delegates from this city and county between Connor O. Goodrich, a young lawyer of this city, who was up for re-election, and Richelieu Coleman, a lawyer of Spotsylvania County, has been the warmest in this vicinity for a number of years. Goodrich's majority in this city was 206. The county will affect this majority, giving Coleman a total majority of about 250. This is believed to mean that the people of this city will refuse to support Coleman in the general election, strengthening the Republican candidate. The surrounding counties will give Judge Mann a small majority. The total vote cast here is as follows: Mann, 229; Tucker, 208; Cato, 37; Elyson, 315; Cletts, 194; Williams, 238; Brown, 66; Kolner, 239.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

Rockingham County Gives Mann a Majority—Warren for Tucker.

Special to The Washington Herald. Harrisonburg, Va., Aug. 5.—Returns from the precincts in this county are coming in slowly. It now appears that Mann will have a majority of 900 and it may reach 250. A very light vote was polled, and it is not thought that more than 1,000 votes have been cast. Mann carried this town by forty-four. Practically no interest has been taken in the fight, though the "machine" has been trying hard to ginger up the campaign and get out the vote.

Tucker Carries Warren.

Special to The Washington Herald. Front Royal, Va., Aug. 5.—Very little interest was manifested in the primary, and incomplete returns from the various precincts show Tucker in the lead. The absence of both candidates during the entire campaign in this county made the po-

ANOTHER SOUTHERN SHAFT.

Confederate Monument Will Be Unveiled at Pearisburg Saturday.

Special to The Washington Herald. Pearisburg, Va., Aug. 5.—Under the auspices of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, a monument to the Confederate dead will be unveiled at Pearisburg on August 7. An elaborate programme has been prepared. Graham Commandery No. 22, Knights Templars, by special request will escort the most worshipful grand lodge of Virginia to the courthouse square, where the monument is located. In the procession preceding the laying of the corner stone, Gov. Claude A. Swanson will ride on horseback. The Daughters of the Confederacy will be in carriages, and lodges of the Masons, Woodmen, and Odd Fellows, will march in the parade. The corner stone will be laid at 10 o'clock in the morning by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Virginia, P. A. A. M. There will be a Masonic service by Most Worshipful Joseph W. Eggleston, grand master of Masons in Virginia, and addresses by James D. Johnson and Rev. Taylor D. Frazer. In the afternoon, Dr. Swanson will deliver an address, which will be followed by the unveiling of the monument. The programme will be interspersed with music.

COUPLE KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Andrew Jones and Wife Struck by Bolt in House.

Special to The Washington Herald. Warrenton, Va., Aug. 5.—Andrew Jones and his wife were struck by lightning this afternoon at their home in Bealeton, Va., and instantly killed. An electrical storm, one of the fiercest in years, broke over the town this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were seated in their house when a bolt entered through the flue. There was no fire caused by the lightning. The victims are survived by two infant children.

UNCLE SAM ARRESTS TWO.

Charged with Using Mails for Fraudulent Purposes.

Special to The Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Aug. 5.—Charged by the authorities of the United States government with using the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud individuals or to obtain goods for which they do not pay, two men, one giving the name of Morton Davis, and the other as Clyde W. James, were arrested here to-day in their store in the Faulkner Building, Sixth Main street. Davis, it is said, is one of the moving factors in a concern known as the Winchester Dry Goods Company, which has been engaged in business here since May last. James, according to a statement made by Davis, is employed as a clerk. Davis is a man of about fifty-five, while James is twenty years younger. The arrest was made by Officer John Massey, of the local force, acting under orders of Deputy United States Marshal T. C. Gearty, of Stanton, Va., and Post-office inspector J. L. Pemberton, and the two men were taken into custody upon the request of the authorities of Gadsden, Ala., by whom they are wanted for alleged fraudulent transactions. They offered no resistance to arrest.

New Dog Law for Hagerstown.

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—After thrashing the question over at intervals for a number of years, the city authorities have at last decided to give Hagerstown a dog law. City Attorney Neill has been instructed by the mayor and council to prepare a measure providing for a license, ranging from $1 to $3, the appointment of a dog catcher, and making it unlawful for dogs to be upon the streets unless accompanied by owners.

Auditor Kirk Dies.

Special to The Washington Herald. Roanoke, Va., Aug. 5.—Henry P. Kirk, traveling auditor for the Norfolk and Western Railway, died here to-day after a long illness, aged sixty years. He was a native of England, and had been with the Norfolk and Western twenty years. He was unmarried.

Plans Road-building Campaign.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Aug. 5.—West Virginia is making plans for a road building campaign next year. State Road Commissioner Charles P. Light is now making visits to all the county courts of the State and urging the appointment of good men to the position of road engineer. One will be appointed in each county to take the place of the old district superintendents. West Virginia has enacted a law whereby a large amount of money will be added to her fund, and next year expects to make real strides in road building.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Jury Returns a Verdict of Criminal Negligence.

LIGHTED MATCH CAUSE DEATH. Second Body of Three Negroes Drowned Recovered by Washington Police Boat—Fairfax Medical Society Holds Annual Meeting. Wenck-Haynes Wedding.

F. Clinton Knight, 138 South Royal Street, Alexandria, Va., is authorized agent and carrier for The Washington Herald. The Herald will be delivered daily and Sunday to any address in Alexandria for 50 cents a month.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 138 South Royal Street.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 5.—A coroner's jury, summoned by Dd. S. B. Moore, held an inquest this morning over the body of Robert M. Kennedy, one of the three negroes drowned near Fort Poote Monday last. Among the witnesses examined were Robert Grady and Frank Jackson, sole survivors of the accident. The testimony of Grady was to the effect that Ernest G. Grady, his brother, upon the return trip struck a match to ascertain the trouble with the engine, which had stopped. A sheet of flame shot upward and they all jumped overboard, after which the launch upon which Frank Jackson's testimony was similar, except that he denied that any of the occupants struck a match.

The jury gave a verdict to the effect that McKennedy came to his death by drowning, due to criminal negligence on the part of Ernest Grady. The jury was composed of the following: W. C. Davis, foreman; Capt. R. F. Knox, W. P. Taylor, S. H. Lyon, A. D. Grimes, and J. Brooke Arnold.

An inquest was held to-night over the body of Ernest G. Grady, which was recovered this morning. Grady's body was found floating opposite Fort Washington this morning by three soldiers from the fort. The police boat Vigilant, of Washington, brought the body here this afternoon.

The Fairfax Medical Society held its annual meeting to-day at the Hotel Rammel. During the progress of the meeting interesting papers were read, after which dinner was served. Officers elected for the year were as follows: Dr. F. M. Brooks, president; Dr. C. R. DuFour, first vice president; Dr. C. L. Starkweather, second vice president; Dr. E. L. Detwiler, treasurer; Dr. L. Powell, secretary; Dr. A. G. Coumbs, corresponding secretary.

Henry Beach, a well-known resident, died to-day at his home, 303 North Alfred street. He had been in failing health for some time past. Mr. Beach was more than eighty years old.

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Cooney, who died in Washington, were held at 9:30 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Those serving as pallbearers were: F. M. Hill, T. McGowan, E. F. Gorman, M. Schuler, T. J. Fannon, and Albert T. Schueler.

Mrs. Flora M. Baggett, wife of Benjamin T. Baggett, died last night at her home, 26 South Fayette street. Mrs. Baggett was twenty-three years old.

The city school board held its monthly meeting to-night, at which time the annual report of the clerk of the board was read and accepted. Considerable other business of a routine nature was disposed of.

The marriage of Miss Alice L. Wenck, daughter of Daniel W. Wenck and Herman H. Haynes, both of this city, took place last night at the parsonage of the Methodist Protestant Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Holmes, pastor.

News was received here to-night that the house on the farm of Judge J. K. M. Morton, of this city, in Fairfax County, was destroyed by fire to-day.

Rev. C. D. Bulla and wife, who for several weeks past have been attending the exposition at Seattle, Wash., returned this afternoon.

Charles M. Watson Dead.

Special to The Washington Herald. Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—Charles M. Watson, a well-known business man of Hagerstown, died this afternoon at his home of typhoid fever, aged fifty-five years. He was engaged in the grocery business for a number of years, and was also interested in several business enterprises. Besides his wife, he is survived by three children.
