

SCARPIA THE WINNER

Takes Adirondack Handicap at Saratoga Track.

CHICKASAW IN SECOND PLACE

Big Stick, Dalhousie, and Joe Morris Lead the Field for Nearly a Half Mile, Then Scarpia Comes with a Burst of Speed and Finishes with a Length to Spare.

Saratoga, Aug. 25.—The Chelsea Stables won two races here to-day with Scarpia and Simple Honours.

Scarpia was victorious in the Adirondack Handicap for two-year-olds. Big Stick, Dalhousie, and Joe Morris were the front runners for nearly half a mile.

Then Scarpia moved up swiftly and, taking command, came home in a drive, with a length to spare. Chickasaw, a 15 to 1 shot, closed from the ruck with a fine turn of speed and got the place.

Simple Honours made all the pace in the opening race and won in a drive by half a length from Spooner, the favorite, who was all tangled up at the start.

With a better break, Spooner could not have lost.

May River, 13 to 5 second choice, had to be many pounds the best to win the handicap. She was last when she reached the head of the stretch, but came fast under the whip and won by a head. Zienap lasted long enough to take the place.

Rufus was an easy winner of the steeplechase at about two miles. He was in front all the way and came home under a pull ten lengths to the good. Ballacalla was second.

After several unsuccessful attempts Turncoat went over the plate in the third race at a mile. He got away from the post flying and took such a big lead that Ural eased him up at the end to win by a length and a half.

TROTTERING RECORD LOWERED.

Hamburg Belle Goes Mile in 2:01 1-4 on North Randall Track.

North Randall, Ohio, Aug. 25.—A new trotting record for a race mare was made this afternoon when Hamburg Belle defeated Ulian in the first heat of a world's championship match race for $2,500, made by stepping the heat in 2:01 1/4.

The previous record was 2:03 1/4, made by Crescus, at Brighton Beach August 15, 1901, in a match with The Abbot.

Immediately after the race, D. R. Hanna, of Cleveland, paid $50,000 for the new world's champion.

Hamburg Belle remains unbeaten, and Ulian, for the first time, has come down the stretch a defeated trotter.

Hamburg Belle also took the second heat and the race, the time being 2:01 1/4. The race had attracted a number of horsemen and followers of the light harness game from all parts of the country.

Before the race it was said that James E. Madden, of Lexington, Ky., representing his son, the owner of Hamburg Belle, and Charles Saunders, of Springfield, Mass., owner of Ulian, had signed articles to have their trotters meet in two other matches before the close of the Grand Circuit season. It is probable one of these matches will be run at Readingville.

The Washington Herald is absolutely supreme in the morning field as two is to one.

Widow of the famous financier, and two rows of "model" houses erected at Cedarhurst, Long Island, which the tenants declare are "batheless, unventilated, and insanitary."

RENNER ENTERS HERALD RUN

Technical High Distance Runner to Compete for Honors.

Warrenton Athletic Club Enters Team with Hopes of Carrying Off The Herald Trophy.

Another cinderpather with an enviable record, in the person of Frank L. Renner, a Technical High School long distance star, has sent in his entry blank for the ten-mile run to be pulled off by The Washington Herald on Labor Day.

Renner is one of the best long-distance runners of the Washington set, having showed up among the leaders in the runs held in Washington to date. This season is his first at the "Marathon" game, and he is showing far better form each time he runs.

In speaking of the coming event Renner, said: "I have tried my luck at fifteen and twenty miles, and have fared pretty well, when taking into consideration the fact that this is my first season at the game. I think I will find ten miles my distance, and hope to show among the leaders at the finish on Labor Day."

The Warrenton Athletic Club, a newly organized body composed of natives of the quaint little Virginia town, will make its debut in long-distance society in The Herald run. Two members of the club, Elbert R. Zirkle and Walter B. Shield, have already handed in their blanks, and are indulging in daily road work. Several other runners from the club are expected to join them within the next week.

One athlete will journey all the way from Norfolk, Va., to take part in the run. The man referred to is W. E. Youngblood, who claims some experience in long-distance running. He has often represented the Y. M. C. A. in long-distance events.

Prospective contestants are again reminded of the short time left for training. Remember it is but ten days off. Enter now, and you will have a chance to win one of the many handsome prizes offered.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Richmond Defeats Roanoke in Close Game.

Special to The Washington Herald. Roanoke, Va., Aug. 25.—Ragged fielding by Roanoke and heavy hitting by Richmond gave the game to the visitors by the score of 4 to 3, although in the ninth inning bad coaching robbed the Tigers of a fine chance to tie things up. Dutch Reville was in great form, while Reynolds and the new man, Touchstone, who twirled for Roanoke, were not very effective. Score:

R. H. E. Roanoke, 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 2-3 6 2 Richmond, 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 1-11 0 Batteries—Roanoke, Reynolds, Touchstone, and Ryan; Richmond, Reville and Messitt. Umpire—Mr. Mac. Time of game—2 hours. Attendance—300.

Norfolk's Pennant Chances Fade.

Portsmouth, Va., Aug. 25.—The Truckers gave the Crew an awful throw down in the fight of the latter team for the pennant by taking a pair of games from them by 4 to 1 and 4 to 2. With Norfolk one run to the good in the eighth inning of the first game, Volz blew up, and before Fox came to the rescue four runs had been scored. Two bases on balls by Fox and three errors in the first inning of the second game, all coupled with one hit, gave the locals the second game. Score:

First game: R. H. E. Norfolk, 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-1 7 5 Portsmouth, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-4 2 3 Second game: R. H. E. Norfolk, 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-2 4 1 Portsmouth, 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-4 8 2 Batteries—Fox and Munson; Hannifan and Cowan. Umpire—Messrs. Pender and Hendryer.

Danville Defeats Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 25.—Hooker's Lynch in center lost the game for the locals to-day, and Danville won by 4 to 3. Jackson's home run was the first one of the season by a local player. Schrafer, of Portsmouth, having secured the only other one here this season. Score:

R. H. E. Lynchburg, 0 0 0 0 1 0 2 0-3 8 8 Danville, 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-4 7 2 Batteries—Vernolis and Pratt; Walker and Laughlin. Umpire—Mr. Keller.

Fredericksburg Giants Win.

Special to The Washington Herald. Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 25.—The Fredericksburg Giants defeated the Alexandria Athletic Club in a well-played game here yesterday afternoon. Score, 7 to 0.

The pitching of W. Johnson, who struck out fifteen men, was a feature.

WILL MEET KAUFMAN

Johnson to Take on West-erner September 9.

Local Light-weight in Prime Condition for Bout.

Is Below Weight as a Result of Hard Training, and Expects to Win.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 25.—Appearing fit and confident of winning by a knockout, Tommy Lowe, the Washington light-weight, matched to meet Al Kaufman, of New York, in a fifteen-round mill before the Germania Maennerchor Hall to-night, arrived in town this morning.

With Lowe was his manager, Jerry McCarthy, and several well known sporting men of the Capital City. The real contingent from Washington will not arrive until 7 p. m., on a special car. The visitors mean to make Lowe the favorite of Schumacher, as in training for the match at Washington, Lowe never displayed such promising form, and is ready for the mill of his career. Lowe stated this morning that he would not weigh 121 pounds when he stepped on the scales to-night, being lighter, as the result of untiring training, than ever before in his career in the roped arena.

Both men in to-night's star mill will try for a victory, as Manager Herford has assured the winner that his next bout in this city will be with either Ad Wolgast, the sensational young Western light-weight, or Harry Stone, the New Yorker, who last week championed the feather-weight champion to a standstill at Saratoga. Schumacher, on his part with Stone, looks very good, as he had the shade better of Stone at Albany, N. Y., where no decisions are rendered by the referee. Schumacher, who came to the city from Catonsville late yesterday afternoon, is in the pink of condition.

Another preliminary was arranged this morning. It will bring together Alex Brown and Kid Gordon, two Washington colored men. Brown, who is an old-time boxer, works for Pat O'Connor, while Gordon works for Kid Sullivan, and a side bet of $50 has been made on the result.

Hugh D. McIntosh, the Australian fight promoter, called for England to-day. He came here for the sole purpose of making an offer of a $50,000 purse for the proposed Jeffries-Johnson battle. McIntosh stated to-day that he had spent days vainly trying to find out where bids for the fight would be received, the date on which the bids would close, the amount of the forfeit required from promoters and with whom the money should be posted. He also declared that he had written a letter to Jeffries asking for definite information. It was evident that the Australian was puzzled by the attitude of Jeffries in not clinching a match with Johnson without a much tiresome delay.

REFUSED PERMIT TO EXHUME BODY

Mrs. Sutton herself. Mrs. Sutton had decided that she wished to see her son's body to satisfy herself whether or not he was the victim of rough play before his death in October, 1907, at the Marine Barracks.

Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Parker are both convinced that Lieut. Sutton was badly beaten and disfigured in the midnight quarrel that preceded his death, and that among other things, his right arm was broken, which precluded, they say, the possibility of his having fired the fatal shot that caused his death. So convinced is Mrs. Sutton of these facts that she had served herself up to seeing the body of her son, and remaining throughout the autopsy. Mrs. Parker did not wish to see her brother's body, preferring to remember him as she last saw him before his death.

When the telephone message came from the quartermaster general's office postponing the exhumation indefinitely, Mrs. Sutton decided she would not have the ground where her son was consigned yesterday. The floral wreaths were taken in carriages and placed on the grave by the mother and sister, but the consecration is not to be made until the body is taken from the grave.

Antagonized by Ruling.

According to Mrs. Sutton's friends, both Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Parker were antagonized by the War Department's order. Mrs. Sutton is convinced that some strong pressure was brought to bear at the last moment, and that the plea of "too much notoriety" is not the real reason. Mrs. Parker is up in arms against the decision, according to her friends, and is determined to fight the "organization," as she puts it, if it costs her everything she has in the world.

It is understood that Surgeon Spear, of the navy, informed both Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Parker after the War Department's order, that the Navy Department, so far as he knew, was willing to have the exhumation take place. He could not understand why the arrangements had been broken in the last moment.

"They are something decidedly queer about this whole business," Mrs. Parker is understood to have told some of her close friends. "They think because my mother and I are women, that they can trample us under foot. I intend to get at the bottom of the whole thing. I will do it."

"They say we talked about exhuming Jimmy's body," Mrs. Sutton is quoted as saying. "We never mentioned it to a soul. That is no excuse. My comrades requested that the matter be kept as quiet as possible. It is hard enough for a mother to look upon the body of her dead son without having it aired before the public. I made every effort to keep the matter strictly private."

Inquiry at the War Department failed to throw any light on why the decision was reversed at the last moment. All inquiries were referred to Superintendent Humphrey, who is in charge and who had dealt with the Suttons. Superintendent Humphrey simply said the department had not yet acted on Mrs. Sutton's request. There was no explanation as to why he said to-morrow or next day. Other than this the department had nothing to add.

Col. Charles Doyen Protests.

Another phase of the Sutton case was brought out yesterday when it became known that Col. Charles A. Doyen, commander of the Marine Barracks at Annapolis, who was head of the School of Application when Lieut. Sutton lost his life, had visited the Navy Department, supposedly to protest against the minority report of Commander Hood, which severely criticized the discipline at the school. Col. Doyen may ask for an investigation of conditions at the school at that time. He was surprised at the minority report, and feels he has been accused and convicted by Commander Hood without being given a chance to say one word in his own defense.

He was not a defendant at the court of inquiry. The first intimation he had of any charges, direct or indirect, against him was when he read Commander Hood's report, practically convicting him of the charges made in a loose manner. Col. Doyen does not believe this is fair vestigation of conditions at the school at that time. He was surprised at the minority report, and feels he has been accused and convicted by Commander Hood without being given a chance to say one word in his own defense.

Capt. Humphrey conferred with Mrs. Parker relative to the War Department's action yesterday, but at the end of the conference it was said there had been no change in the status of the case. It was said, however, that Capt. Humphrey would make a statement to-day clearing up the War Department's attitude in the matter.

As the body of Lieut. Sutton was embalmed and is in a hermetically sealed coffin, Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Parker believe that it will be found in good condition when disinterred. Mrs. Sutton believes it will be easy to ascertain whether or not her son was bruised and beaten before his death.

REPORT IS UNCONFIRMED.

Not Known Whether Cardinal Has Sanctioned Sutton Reburial.

Baltimore, Aug. 25.—At the residence of Cardinal Gibbons it was stated to-night that it was not known whether the Cardinal has as yet given his consent for the reburial of Lieut. Sutton in consecrated ground.

Cardinal Gibbons is taking part in the annual retreat of the Secular Clergy of the Archdiocese of Baltimore at St. Mary's Seminary, and, for the present, he is denying himself to the outside world.
