Friday's Our Remnant Day

THE counters are filled to-day with the clean-up offerings from all over the store. There are all sorts of remnants—short lengths, odd lots, broken sizes, and assortments, dented and chipped articles, &c. There are also a great many odd and one-of-a-kind things, too small to advertise in detail, but splendid picking for housekeepers and others that come early.

The items below give an indication of the attractions in values presented.

Friday Bargain in Women's Coat Suits.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Miss Margery Colton Going to Porto Rico.

RETURN OF THE LEIGHTONS

Former Governor and Mrs. J. J. Toole, of Montana, Lease House Near Dupont Circle—Mrs. Elkins and Miss Katherine Elkins Arrive at New York City.

The Surgeon General of the Army, Col. George H. Torney, and Mrs. Torney, entertained in honor of the military surgeons now in this city at a reception held in the ballroom of the Shoreham on Wednesday evening. Col. and Mrs. Torney, who have only recently arrived in Washington from the Pacific Coast, were assisted in receiving their guests by Maj. and Mrs. W. M. Ireland, and Maj. and Mrs. Jefferson R. Kean, both officers being attached to the Medical Staff on duty in the War Department. The entire company, numbering more than seventy, with the Medical Corps of the army and navy in Washington, and ladies of their respective families were present.

The former governor of Montana and Mrs. J. J. Toole, the latter a daughter of the late Gen. Rosecrans, have leased a house in Nineteenth street, near Dupont Circle, and will spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont are visiting Mr. August Belmont in Hempstead, Long Island.

The Duchess de Chaulnes, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts, and Miss Margaret Shonts, who are at Hot Springs, Va., will leave for Chicago the last of this week.

Col. George Colton will leave this city on October 20 to assume his new duties as governor of Porto Rico. His sister, Miss Margery Colton, will accompany him and act as hostess at the governor's house, for which position she is well fitted. In spite of her youth, it will be remembered that Miss Colton spent a year with her brother in the Philippines, and was a companion with him on the now famous trip of the President, then Secretary of War, from San Francisco to Manila.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins and Miss Katherine Elkins landed in New York yesterday on board the White Star liner Adriatic, and were met at the pier by Senator Elkins. They left at once for their home in Elkins, W. Va.

Mrs. Archibald H. Davis, wife of Lieut. Commander Davis, U. S. N., is in town for a few days. During their absence Miss Denny will visit her aunt, Mrs. H. R. Lemly, at the Marlborough. Col. and Mrs. Denny and their daughter spent the summer at their camp in the Adirondacks.

Mr. R. Woodland Gates has returned from an extensive tour of California. He also visited the exposition at Seattle and went as far north as Victoria, British Columbia.

Col. Nathaniel Tyler and his daughter, Mrs. Armstrong, have taken possession of their new apartments in the Parker, Park road and Sixteenth street.

Capt. H. C. Reisinger, U. S. A., and Mrs. Reisinger have returned to the city and are again at the Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Leighton are again in town, having spent the summer in an extensive tour of the West and the Hawaiian Islands. They also visited the exposition at Seattle. Mrs. Leighton left the city yesterday for Portland, Me., where her daughter Helen has been spending the summer with her grandparents, and will return with her daughter within a week.

Mrs. W. S. Teel, jr., of Bridgeport, Conn., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Davis, of this city, sailed yesterday on the Panoplia, of the Cunard Line, for the Mediterranean.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gallier have sent out announcements of the marriage of their daughter, Anns Laura, to Mr. Watts Tracy Estabrook, which took place at their residence, 98 Maryland avenue northeast, at 7 o'clock.

Miss Kate Southerland Smith, daughter of Mrs. T. Leigh Merriott, of Baltimore, and Mr. Edward B. Bilzard, of Washington, and Franklin W. Va., were married quietly in Baltimore on Wednesday by the Rev. Robert W. Weech. The bride wore a tailored suit of gray broadcloth, with hat to match. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Lakewood, N. Y., and Atlantic City. Mrs. Bilzard has been a frequent visitor in this city, where she was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. A. P. Gorman. Mr. and Mrs. Bilzard will be at home at the Knickerbocker, Miltwood place, after November 15.
