"A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED."

How do YOU gauge the expense of friendship? How can you estimate, in dollars and cents, the value of a friend in need? Real friendship actually costs nothing in excess of cost. It's the same with Want Ads. Every day in the week they come to you with news that is a genuine help. Every day this page offers to you real friendship—offers to spread the news of your desires and wants, far and wide, to tens of thousands of persons—offers to help you whenever and as often as you need help or assistance of any kind. Looking at the matter from a standpoint of dollars and cents is losing sight of the more important fact: the fact that the large and good circulation of The Washington Herald (at 10 cents a copy) is a power and an influence for your good—a power that will help you in every way you wish. We want your friendship—the kind that is willing to pay one cent a word for the service rendered.
