

All These 98c Many Others

Read Clipping from the Evening Star:

"Visit the principal stores of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York—and you'll find the $1.00 undergarments are so very much alike that one finds no difference. Not until the Palais Royal is visited—there one finds lingerie at 98c vastly superior, and many garments as good as ordinarily sold at $1.00, for only 69c. The Palais Royal 'White Sale' of 1910 has already made these facts beyond dispute to cosmopolitan Washington."

THE PALAIS ROYAL A. LISNER, G and 11th Sts.

SOCIETY

PERSONALS.

Continued from Page Two.

Mrs. E. K. Happersett and Miss Happersett, widow and daughter of Maj. J. G. Happersett, are now located in E. 9th street, where they will remain for the rest of the season.

Lieut. Commander E. H. Campbell, U. S. N., and his family are temporarily located at Brandon Hall, Brookline, Mass., awaiting the departure of the North Dakota, of which Commander Campbell is executive officer.

Miss Robyn Young, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Young, returned from Baltimore yesterday, where she was the guest of Miss Isabelle Chapman, of that city. Mrs. Young and Miss Young will go to Florida shortly to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner C. Shoemaker closed their I street house early in the week, and sailed on Friday from New York for a trip through Southern Europe.

Miss Josephine Dorr, who has been the guest here of Mrs. Roscoe C. Bulmer, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

There was a large Washington contingent that made the trip to Annapolis yesterday morning to spend the weekend and attend the hop at the Naval Academy. Mrs. Henry Sherman Boutell, wife of Representative Boutell, chaperoned a party, including Miss Boutell, Miss Mary Baker, of Utica, N. Y., who is the house guest of Vice President and Mrs. Sherman, and Miss Mercedes Stewart, of Chicago, who is a guest at the Arlington.

Brig. Gen. William M. Wherry, U. S. A., retired, and Brig. Gen. Edwin V. Sumner and Mrs. Sumner are among the army and navy people stopping at the Valencia, St. Augustine, Fla., for the winter. Gen. Wherry's daughter, Mrs. Robert N. Dickman, and her children are occupying one of the hotel cottages. Maj. William P. Van Ness, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Van Ness, with their son, Percy Van Ness, are occupying their villa on the bay.

Maj. F. P. Reynolds, U. S. A., and Mrs. Reynolds have gone to New York for a brief stay. They are at the New Grand Hotel.

Mrs. Charles M. Fowler, wife of Representative Fowler, of New Jersey, has joined the latter at the New Willard, where she will remain during the present session of Congress. Mrs. Fowler will not receive next Tuesday, but will be at home later in the season.

Capt. James R. Goodale, U. S. A., retired, is in Washington for a brief stay, a guest at the Army and Navy Club.

Maj. Gen. A. W. Greely, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Greely, who are spending the winter abroad, are now in Florence, Italy, were among the guests recently at a tea given by the Countess Mory Joye, in compliment to Mrs. Grover Cleveland, widow of the late President, who is now in Italy with her children.

Count and Countess Wedel, of the German Embassy, sailed from New York yesterday for Europe.

First Lieut. Edwin S. Hartshorn, Fourteenth United States Infantry, who was a guest at the Portsmouth for the last few days, will leave Washington tomorrow.

First Lieut. Allan S. Briggs, Twenty-ninth United States Infantry, is in Washington on leave from his post of duty at Fort Jay, N. Y., and will remain until February 11. He is a guest at the Army and Navy Club.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. I. H. Cone, of 239 Le Roy place, have as their house guest their niece, Miss Baxter, of Elizabeth City, N. C.

Commander Thomas W. Kinkaid, U. S. N., and Mrs. Kinkaid and her daughter, Miss Dorothy, who were here for some time as the guests of Mrs. Kinkaid's mother, have returned to their home in Annapolis.

Mrs. Francis H. Parsons and Miss Parsons will not be at home January 31 or February 7, owing to the illness of Mr. Parsons's mother.

Dr. R. T. Oliver and Mrs. Oliver were in New York last week, at the New Grand Hotel.

Mrs. Van Aulken Mills will go to New York to visit with relatives and friends until the latter part of February.

Miss Mary Perkins Horsley has returned to her home, 1823 G street northwest, from Lynchburg, where she was called by the sudden death of her only brother, Judge John Dunscombe Horsley.

Mr. W. R. Brown is in New York at the Hotel Wolcott.

Mrs. Albert Evans, wife of Dr. Albert Evans, recently of Washington, arrived from New York Saturday for a two weeks' stay with Dr. and Mrs. George W. N. Curtis.

Mrs. Elizabeth Benson, of Maryland, chaperoned a party to the Southern Relief ball Friday evening. Mrs. Benson was gowned in black silk; Miss von Brandt, of Virginia, in white net and tulle and light blue trimming with pearl necklace; Mrs. A. Boyd, of North Carolina, in pink crepe, duchess lace, with diamond and pearl ornaments, and Mrs. J. St. Clair Hill, of West Chevy Chase, in pearl watered silk with gold trimmings and emeralds. Mr. Paul Patterson, Mr. W. King, Mr. John G. Ellis, and Mr. J. S. Hill were in the party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Loose will arrive in Washington on January 23 to be the guests of the Speaker of the House and Miss Cannon for a short time. They spend a portion of every winter here, but will not remain so long this year as usual, having taken possession of their superb new home in Kansas City, in Armour avenue, in the late fall.

Miss May Howard, 275 Thirteenth street northwest, has issued cards for a reception on Friday, January 28, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

The ladies of Grace Episcopal Church, Ninth and D streets southwest, hope to see all their friends at the parish house Wednesday evening, February 2, 1910, where they will hold a delightful oyster supper.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phelps Eno have gone to New York for a short trip.

Mrs. F. B. Moran has taken possession of her new mansion in Sheridan circle, and will entertain there in another fortnight. She will have a large reception on the evening of February 11, when she will entertain the Archaeological Society.

Judge and Mrs. Robert S. Lovett, of New York, spent yesterday in Washington. Mrs. Lovett spent the day with her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Winston, at Madison Hall Seminary, Georgetown.

Mrs. Nabuco and her family, the widow and children of the Brazilian Ambassador, will sail for their home in Brazil on February 3. They had been tendered the use of the Mayflower by the United States government, which they declined, for the reason that Mrs. Nabuco, whose health has been frail for some time, would be better able to stand the trip on one of the regular large vessels. The Ambassador's body, which is now in town. Mrs. Lovett was educated at their school in Richmond. She was formerly Miss Lavinia Abernethy, daughter of Col. Abernethy, of Huntsville, Tex., and a granddaughter of Gov. Chilton, of Georgia.

In her girlhood she was a famous belle in the South, at White Sulphur Springs, which was famous for its beauties and its belles. Mrs. Lovett is still a beautiful woman, of accomplishments and many graces, and it is frequently said of Judge Lovett, who is E. H. Harriman's successor in the financial world, that with all his superior judgment, he has never displayed such wisdom and enjoyed such success as in the selection of his wife. She is a charming musician, a cultivated singer, a connoisseur in art, and a linguist.

Col. Francis Colton, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Archibald H. Davis, and Miss Alice Clarke sailed from New York yesterday for Porto Rico. They go to visit Col. Colton's son, Col. George R. Colton, governor of Porto Rico, and Miss Marjorie Colton, who is acting as hostess for her brother.

Miss Fath Simpkins, who has been the guest of Miss Dorothy Garcia and Williams, at the latter's home in Sheridan circle, has joined her parents, in their home in Connecticut avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. Hemmick left yesterday for Atlantic City to pass the remainder of the winter.

Miss Anne Dewey Paulding has joined her uncle, Senator Dewey, and Mrs. Dewey at their home in N street for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Henry, who joined Washington's winter colony last season, have arrived in Florence, Italy, where they will pass the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Henry, who made many friends in their short season, when they occupied a house in Vermont avenue, will return to Washington next winter.

Mrs. Boutell, wife of Representative Boutell, went to Annapolis for the weekend to chaperon her daughter, Miss Alice Boutell, and Miss Stewart, daughter of Mrs. George M. Pullman, who is spending the winter here, accompanied by her daughter.

Miss Frances Miller and her house guest, Miss Darste, are spending the week-end at Annapolis, the guests of Commander and Mrs. Brittain.

GEORGETOWN.

The Dumbarton Club entertained with a dance and pool tournament Tuesday evening. Among those present were Mrs. Lloyd Smoot, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Chabauty, Mrs. John Ecker, Miss Ecker, and Mrs. Enels Waggaman. The concert Tuesday afternoon for the patients at the Home for Incurables was another one of the delightful entertainments which have been given during the winter months. Mrs. May Ramsdell was at the piano; Mrs. Annie Grant Fugitt, soprano soloist, St. Patrick's Church, and Mrs. Daigleish, contralto, sang. Miss Ethel Lee played the 'cello.

Miss Netta Craig is with friends in Philadelphia. While there she will visit the Academy, where several of her pictures are hung.

Mrs. and Miss Frisby will be at home Thursday, January 27 and February 2. The Jenette Montgomery Chapter of the D. A. R. met with Mrs. Newcomb, of Bethesda, last week.

The illustrated lecture given by Dr. Butler, of Johns Hopkins, gave a very pleasant evening to members of Peck Memorial Church and their friends. The lecture was under the auspices of the bugle and drum corps of the church. Dr. Butler has spent two summers with Dr. Grenfell in Labrador, and it was of his experiences in that section that he spoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Latimer entertained a number of their friends on the occasion of their fifteenth wedding anniversary. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Barnhard, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wallis, Dr. and Mrs. Crampton, of Summerset; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. Drum-Hunt, Mrs. Cronin, Miss McAlister, Commander and Mrs. Chase, Mrs. and Miss Lothrop, Mr. and Mrs. Latimer, of Cleveland Park; Mr. and Mrs. McChesney, Rev. Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Latimer, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Stout and Miss Stout, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, of Drummond; Mr. and Mrs. Stamper, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Richardson, and Mr. Harry Latimer, from the Adirondacks. Mrs. Barnhard and Miss Latimer entertained with music.

Mrs. Latimer looked particularly well in a most becoming gown of black lace. The house was decorated in pink, green, and white. The flowers were carnations.

Mrs. Chase, wife of Commander Chase, gave an at-home for her friends at Drummond last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wallis entertained a few friends Thursday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Flemming, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, and Mr. and Mrs. Barnhard.

Mrs. Thurston, of Drummond, entertained with a euchre at her home Friday.

Mr. Parris entertained the rector and teachers of St. John's Church at his home in F street Wednesday evening. Among the guests were Mrs. Yarnell, Mrs. Castleman, Mrs. Henry Simpson, Miss Tlighman, Miss Frances Dodge, Miss Isabelle Taylor, Miss Helen Williams, Miss Fugal, Miss Marie Fugal, Miss Havener, Mrs. John Wood, Mrs. Middleton, Miss Whitehead, Miss Offutt, Miss Crampton, Mrs. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Rev. Mr. Howden and Mrs. Howden, Miss White, the deaconess of St. John's Church; Mr. and Mrs. Wright, the assistant pastor and his wife; Mr. Ed Looker, Mr. Reginald Looker, Mr. Dodson, Mr. Cropley, Mr. Childs, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Hedrick, Mr. Williams, Mr. Keith Parris, Mr. Whitmore, and Mr. Morris Parris. Mrs. Parris and Miss Parris were also present. The parlors of the house were decorated in pink. Sweet peas were the flowers. Red roses gave the color note in the dining-room.

The "Evermay" literary club met Thursday, with Mrs. Orme.

Miss Marie Ray returned last week to Washington, after a couple of months spent with friends in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Andrews, wife of Capt. Andrews, entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. Bowman, last week. Mrs. Whiteside assisted her.

Lieut. Hammond, of Fort Myer, has been ordered to Fort Slocum.

The auxiliary of St. John's Church, Bethesda, met Wednesday, with Mrs. Offutt. Those assisting her were Mrs. E. B. Wilson and Mrs. J. C. Wallis.

The Misses Harvey will entertain at a luncheon to-morrow.

To-morrow evening Mrs. Johnson, wife of Representative Johnson, of Kentucky, will give a box party in honor of Miss Pennebaker.

Miss Marguerite Ames, daughter of Dr. Ames, in charge of the Naval Hospital at Chelsea, Mass., will spend part of this spring with Mrs. McCarty, of Dumbarton avenue.

Mr. A. H. Haag, formerly of Washington, now of Newport News, spent a few days here visiting friends.

Mrs. Thomas B. Harden, formerly Miss Eloise Cissel, will entertain at a euchre Thursday next.

The house guest of Mrs. F. B. Wallis, Mrs. Fred Gresham, returned Thursday to her home in Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Catherine Hoover, who has been visiting Mrs. Powell, of Thirty-first street, will leave Friday, for Old Point Comfort, where she will remain until March.

Mrs. Thom Williamson will entertain at a tea, January 23, for Mrs. Price Williamson and Miss Wiltman, of Germantown, Pa.

Mrs. Pennbaker has invitations out for a luncheon next Saturday.

Mrs. J. Holdsworth Gordon will entertain at a bridge party Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Whitmore, formerly of St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, Va., is now tenor soloist at St. John's Church, Georgetown.

Miss Helen Williams' guest, Miss Mary Snowden, of Virginia, has returned home.

The spring term of the mother's meetings at Peck Memorial Chapel, began Thursday last. Those in charge of the meeting were Mrs. Charles Alvin Smith, Mrs. Gilpin, Mrs. Russell B. Taylor, and Miss Isabelle Campbell. After a short talk and the reading of current topics, the ladies spent a social hour over the refreshments.

Miss Van Orsdale will entertain at a luncheon on Wednesday.

Cards are out for a tea to be given by Miss Frances Bayard Thursday.

Mrs. Benjamin Rush Logie will be at home January 28 and February 2.

The annual banquet at Peck Memorial Church last week was particularly well attended, over 100 being present. In the evening was given the girl's senior and junior gymnasium classes, and the mem-

Continued on Page 4, Column 1.

MRS. ALBERT B. CUMMINS, Wife of the Senator from Iowa.

—Photo by G. V. Buck.

Bargain for Quick Buyer.

$300 Up-right Piano $125

$5 Monthly Payments.

The very chance you've been waiting for. An excellent Up-right Piano that has been carefully used. Has good tone and action and cost $300 new. Offered to quick buyer now for $125, on $5 monthly payments. Stool and scarf, free tuning for one year, and free delivery included.

F. G. SMITH PIANO CO.,
Bradbury 1225 Pa. Ave.