Sale of Traveling Requisites At a Fourth to Nearly a Half Less Than Regular Prices.

TO-DAY we inaugurate a most extraordinary sale of Traveling Requisites. The collection, which comprises about a thousand pieces, represents the sample line and discontinued numbers of one of the most prominent manufacturers in the country.

It includes Dress, Skirt, and Steamer Trunks, Suit Cases, and Hand Bags, in all sizes, shapes and leathers. Every piece, from the smallest bag to the big trunks, is strictly high grade. The materials, the styles, the workmanship throughout are the very best. The goods are not only high grade, but are up-to-date, comprising the latest shapes, leathers, trimmings, linings, &c.

In some instances there is only one piece of a style, size, or kind; in others there are several. In every instance the value is exceptional.

This sale affords an opportunity for the purchase of a trunk, bag, or suit case at a fourth to nearly a half less than usual, and is of special interest to those contemplating a "May 30" trip out of town; also to those who are preparing for the annual summer vacation.

We commend this sale to all who like high-class luggage, and ask critical inspection.

We mention a few items—many more equally as interesting: A lot of Women's Dress Trunks, made of three-ply veneer, covered with canvas, bound with fiber, and finished with bronze clasps. A strictly high-grade trunk and an unusual value at the price. Sizes 34, 36, 38, and 40.

$13.50 to $16.00 each. Values, $22.50 to $25.00.

A lot of 42-inch Skirt Trunks, made similar to the above, with trays for skirts and hats.

$17.50 each. Value, $30.00.

A lot of Light-weight Steamer Trunks, made of three-ply veneer and bound with fiber; best lock; two straps; well braced; thoroughly riveted. Sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, and 42.

$10.00 to $14.00 each. Values, $15.00 to $20.00.

A lot of 24-inch Real Cowhide Leather Suit Cases, made on steel frame and thoroughly riveted. A strictly high-grade case.

$3.95 each. Value, $6.00.

A lot of 16-inch Real Cowhide Leather Oxford Club Bags, lined with leather and finished with leather corners.

$3.95 each. Value, $7.50.

A lot of English Grain Leather Bags, lined with leather and trimmed with brass.

$6.00 each. Value, $10.00.

A lot of 42-inch Steamer Trunks, made similar to the above, with place for women's hats.

$13.50 each. Value, $20.00.

A lot of 22-inch Heavy Cowhide Leather Suit Cases, made of best quality stock, and extra wide; fitted with double handle.

$12.00 each. Value, $18.00.

A lot of 26-inch Fiber Matting Suit Cases, lined with moire cloth. A well-made, light-weight case, and especially desirable for women.

$1.50 each. Value, $2.50.

A lot of Hornback Alligator Leather Bags, lined with leather. A well-made, attractive bag.

$12.50 each. Value, $20.00.

A lot of Cowhide Grain Leather Bags, Oxford shape, lined with leather. 15, 16, and 17 inch sizes.

$4.95 each. Value, $8.00.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Robert Roosevelt Entertain in Miss Bell's Honor.

DR. LUCIUS W. JOHNSON HOST

Flance of Miss Brooks Gives Dinner for Best Man, Ushers, and Clergyman—The Merrilans to Spend Two Weeks at Virginia Country Place. Miss Townsend at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Roosevelt entertained a dinner party of fourteen young people last evening in their Washington home in honor of Miss Grace Bell, daughter of Mr. Charles J. Bell, and her fiancé, Mr. Granville R. Porteus, who is a family connection of Mr. Roosevelt. Mrs. Bisce, of New York, sister of Mrs. Roosevelt, is her house guest. The engagement of Miss Bell and Mr. Porteus, who was formerly captain in the United States army, was announced last Sunday at a small tea given by Miss Bell's parents in their country place, "Twin Oaks." The wedding will take place at "Twin Oaks" on the afternoon of June 4.

Dr. Lucius Warren Johnson entertained his best man, ushers, and the assistant clergyman at his marriage with Miss Brooks to-morrow at dinner last night. The guests were Dr. Ralph McDowell, assistant surgeon, U. S. N.; Dr. Harold Roberts, of Philadelphia; Dr. Robert Ivy, of London and Philadelphia; Mr. Benjamin Frick, of Philadelphia; Mr. George Schelling, of Brooklyn, and Chaplain Evans, of the U. S. S. Minnesota, which ships the bridegroom has recently been attached. This evening Miss Martha Harrison, bridesmaid, will entertain the party at supper after the church rehearsal.

Former Governor of Minnesota and Mrs. William B. Merriam and their debutante daughter, Miss Laura Merriam, will leave Washington to-day for their country place, "Liberty Furnace," in Virginia, to spend the next two weeks. They will return here in time for the Bell-Porteus wedding.

Miss Mathilde Townsend, whose marriage to Mr. Peter Golet Gerry, of New York, will take place in about a fortnight, is spending the week-end in Atlantic City. She will return to her home here by way of New York to see to the finishing touches of her trousseau. The date for the wedding has not been fixed.

Mrs. Elkins will entertain at luncheon to-day.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. MacGowan entertained at a breakfast yesterday morning, in their sixteenth street home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Throp were hosts at breakfast in their twentieth street home yesterday morning.

Col. and Mrs. Thomas W. Symons will close their Washington home in a few weeks and go to their summer place at Cazenovia, N. Y.

Lieut. Commander Cleland Davis will leave shortly for his new post at Philadelphia, as executive officer of the U. S. S. Mississippi. He has been stationed in Washington for some time, and is one of the popular bachelor officers here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marion Johnston and their debutante daughter, Miss Sophy Johnston, are spending the week-end at Princeton.

The marriage is announced of Miss Ethel Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Nash, of this city, to Mr. Frank A. Crawford. The ceremony was performed in Trinity M. E. Church by Rev. H. S. France, on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and white flowers. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Hoffman, and Miss Gertrude Barnard. The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Mr. Lee Crawford. Only a small party of relatives and a few close friends were present at the ceremony. A small reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a gown of pearl gray satin charmeuse, trimmed with silk applique and flit lace, and carried a shower of pink rosebuds and mignonette fern. The bridesmaids wore gowns of pale blue satin and lace, and white lace over pink satin, respectively. They carried similar bouquets of white sweet peas. Mrs. Nash, mother of the bride, wore a gown of champagne silk and lace, and Mrs. Corgins, grandmother of the bride, was in black crepe de chine.

An orchestra played during the reception, and after the wedding supper, the bride and bridegroom left for a Northern trip. The bride's going-away gown was of cream serge with a large white chip hat, faced with black velvet, and trimmed with a long white willow plume. On their return to Washington, they will be at home at 217 First street northeast.

Gen. and Mrs. John P. Story will not open Whitehall, their beautiful country place, near Annapolis, until next month, after their daughter, the Countess de Beterov, wife of the Belgian Minister, has sailed for Belgium.

One of the early autumn weddings will be that of Assistant Paymaster Dallas Bache Wainwright, Jr., U. S. N., son of Capt. Dallas Bache Wainwright, United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Miss Mary E. Cassard, daughter of Chaplain and Mrs. William G. Cassard, of the Naval Training Station at Newport. The Paymaster Wainwright is on duty at the training station. He is a nephew of Rear Admiral Wainwright, of this city.

A wedding of much interest in Washington society will be that of Mr. Snowden A. Fahnestock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, and Miss Elizabeth Bacon, of New York, in the New York home of the bride's parents on the afternoon of June 1. The bride will have among her attendants Miss Eleanor Alexander, maid of honor, and Miss Harriet Alexander, Miss Helen Coster, and Miss Annie Douglas Graham, bridesmaids. The best man will be Mr. Gibson.

son Fahnestock, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers will be Mr. R. Thornton Wilson, Mr. Frank Roche, Mr. Edward Blagden, and Mr. Howland Davis. The ceremony will be performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. Ernest M. Stires, and will be followed by a reception.

Mrs. Frances Barbour Ewing, of this city, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth Bryan Ewing, to Rev. George Attmore Sparrow, of Gastonia, Cal., the wedding to take place in this city in the home of the bride's mother during the last week in June.

Senator and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew are spending a few days in Atlantic City, where former Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. George B. Cortelyou also spent the week-end.

The marriage is announced of Miss Estelle Barker to Mr. William C. Eberly on Saturday in the Church of the Epiphany. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a small party of relatives by Rev. G. Freeland Peter, assistant rector.

Invitations have been sent out for a reception at the Corcoran Gallery of Art on Wednesday evening, May 13, at 9 o'clock, to meet the delegates of the annual convention of the American Federation of Arts.

Dr. Paul Ritter, Minister to the United States from Switzerland, left Washington yesterday for Lake Mohonk, where he will deliver an address to-morrow. He will make a stop in New York, where he will meet Mrs. Ritter for a short visit, and return here next Monday.

JUBILEE AT TRINITY

Church Celebrates Its 108th Anniversary.

MORTGAGE WILL BE BURNED

Proceeding To-morrow Evening's Ceremony, the Congregation and Friends Hear Addresses of Prominent Methodist Clergymen—Marble Baptismal Font Dedicated.

Preliminary to the ceremonious "burning of the mortgage" to-morrow evening, special services yesterday celebrated the 108th anniversary of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, at Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

These services were also made a jubilee, in commemoration of the payment of the church debt. The present imposing structure was erected in 1866. At that time a debt of about $3,000 remained. By annual curtailment this was gradually reduced. The sermon yesterday morning was by Rev. Dr. J. C. Nicholson, superintendent of the Baltimore district, who spoke from the text "What think ye of Christ?" Dr. Nicholson was the pastor at Trinity before Rev. Dr. H. S. France was assigned to the charge, five years ago.

Baptismal Font Dedicated.
At 3 p. m. a white marble baptismal font was dedicated. Money for this was subscribed by members of the congregation to make it a memorial for Rev. Dr. E. D. Huntley, who was the first pastor in the present building, which he had joined upon being made a supernumerary member of the ministerial conference.

The dedication services were in charge of George Cook, the Sunday school superintendent. Thomas Hendricks, an intimate friend of Dr. Huntley, spoke of his life.

At 8 p. m. Rev. Dr. W. J. Thompson, of New York, another former pastor, delivered a Scriptural sermon.

Will Burn the Mortgage.
The mortgage burning ceremony, at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening, will be in charge of A. A. Clark. The church treasurer, Maurice Otterback, will speak. There will be music, refreshments, and a social hour.

Trinity Church was organized in 1802. When the new building on Pennsylvania avenue was erected the old church on Fourth street was sold to the Methodist Protestant Church.

POLES END SESSION TO-DAY

Congress Will Come to Close with Brief Meeting.

Most of the Five Hundred Delegates Leave for Home Pleased with Hospitality of Capital.

After a week of ceremonies, social affairs and business meetings, the first National Polish Congress will adjourn this morning at a brief closing session at the Raleigh.

Most of the 500 delegates left yesterday for their homes, pleased with the hospitality of the Capital and the advances made by the congress toward the betterment of the race in America. The resolution adopted Saturday declaring for the independence of Poland will be forwarded to prominent political leaders abroad.

Much satisfaction was expressed by the Poles who still remained about the hotel last night over the plan to bring all Polish Americans under one political party, to be independent of all others. They held that this will be a strong factor in American as well as European politics.

The simplest thing for removing lard from hands or white goods is household ammonia, which converts the lard into lard of ammonia.

GOSPEL MISSION OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Bowery Worker Speaks at Anniversary Services.

Celebrating its fourth anniversary, the Gospel Mission yesterday held services in two of the city's largest churches.

During the last year more than 70,000 men were given assistance by the mission. The first service was held in the morning at Luther Place Memorial Church. This was followed by a meeting at the Mission Hall, in Pennsylvania avenue, in the afternoon. The commemoration exercises closed with an evening service at First Presbyterian Church.

The principal speaker at the morning and evening meetings was Rev. Dr. J. G. Hallmond, superintendent of the celebrated Bowery Mission, of New York. He took as his theme "Modern moral miracles," and contrasted the evolution of the railroad, telegraph, and aeroplane with the miracle effected in the reformation of the drunkard, the drug habitue, and the man who refuses to work.

Rev. Mr. Hallmond is an Englishman who came to this country twenty years ago, and has since devoted his time to the work.

He was followed by B. H. Warner, who spoke on the efforts of the local mission and its accomplishments. The Baltimore Gospel Trio gave several vocal selections at each service.

Seminary Exercises Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Thompson, of Martha Washington Seminary, will preside at the commencement exercises next Wednesday evening. Miss Helen Arnold Nettleton, of the vocal department, will contribute two groups of songs, and Miss Grace Adele Freely, instructor in the piano department, will play two piano numbers.
