

POSTAL BANK BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

Administration Measure Has a Big Majority.

PARTY LINES ARE SPLIT

Democrats and Insurgents Bolt the Leaders.

After Nine Hours of Debate, and Under a Gag Rule Shutting Off Amendments, Leaders Muster Majority of 94—Will Establish Postal Savings Banks Paying 2 Per Cent Interest on Deposits Up to $500.

The postal savings bank bill, one of the administration measures, was passed by the House at 8 o'clock last night by a vote of 195 to 101.

Ten hours devoted to its enactment, one being devoted to debate on Tuesday and nine consecutive hours being devoted to it yesterday. It went through under a "gag" rule brought in by the Committee on Rules, shutting off amendments. Far from being in danger at any time, it received generous Democratic support.

The bill provides for the establishment of postal savings banks for the receipt of savings accounts up to $50 for each account. As amended in Republican caucus, it provides that 65 per cent of deposits shall remain in the local banks in the localities where the accounts originate.

Representative Francis Burton Harrison, a Democrat, from the Sixteenth district of New York, is persona non grata at the White House.

President Taft no longer wants to meet Mr. Harrison, and yesterday refused to permit him to enter the Executive sanctum, even though the New York Representative had made an appointment through Mr. Carpenter, the President's former secretary.

Representative Finley, a minority member of the committee, offered, as he was at liberty to do under the special rule, the minority bill as a substitute. This bill differed from the Republican bill by providing that 95 per cent of the deposits should be retained in the local banks, except in time of war.

The minority substitute was voted down—aye 113, nays 195, Norris, of Nebraska, a Republican insurgent, alone among the Republicans voting for it.

The committee bill was then adopted by a vote of 192 to 113.

The bill as passed is a substitute for a radically different bill which passed the Senate some time ago. The House will now go to conference. There was some talk at the Capitol yesterday that the Senate would agree to the House bill, thus insuring its final enactment at this session.

The passage of the bill is another step toward an early adjournment.

FISH WEARS RING.

Purchaser of Codfish Gets Returns a Hundredfold.

Boston, June 9.—Stanley T. Kedder, of West Brewster, while cleaning a codfish which he bought from a fish dealer yesterday, found in the fish a diamond ring which he estimates to be worth $20. Kedder declares the ring must have been inside the fish for two or three years, because it had turned partly black. The original color of pure 14-karat gold, however, was restored when he used polish. The ring had engraved in fancy lettering on the inside, "K. D. O., 1884."

BEDE AS STATE SENATOR.

Former Representative Makes Humorous Announcement.

Minneapolis, June 9.—Former Representative J. Adam Bede, noted during his stay in Congress as a humorist, has decided to become a candidate for the state legislature. In a letter addressed to the voters of his district he announces his candidacy and states his platform. He concludes: "If these sentiments win approval and my candidacy is not in conflict with that of any one who could render better service, it would be pleasure to me to take the humblest part in the upbuilding of our State. Otherwise I have cattle on my farm that always welcome me home, and the social sacrifice would not be great."

PRESIDENT REFUSES TO SEE HARRISON

Representative Is in Disfavor at White House.

SEQUEL TO GLAVIS INCIDENT

Was Invited to Leave Line of Persons Waiting to Enter Mr. Taft's Private Office and to Come Into the Private Secretary's Quarters. Statement from Executive Office.

Representative Francis Burton Harrison, a Democrat, from the Sixteenth district of New York, is persona non grata at the White House.

President Taft no longer wants to meet Mr. Harrison, and yesterday refused to permit him to enter the Executive sanctum, even though the New York Representative had made an appointment through Mr. Carpenter, the President's former secretary.

Later at the Capitol the New Yorker told the story, and declared that he knew no reason for such action, except that the President perhaps had been angered by Mr. Harrison's comments on the pre-dating of Attorney General Wickensham's exonerating report on Secretary Ballinger.

STORMS SWEEP MIDDLE STATES

Train in Arkansas Goes Through a Bridge.

Memphis, June 9.—Reports from Arkansas, Mississippi, and west Tennessee indicate the worst rain, wind, and hail storms throughout this territory that have been known in years.

A Frisco train went through a bridge near Fort Smith, Ark., the engine getting across in safety, but fourteen cars of merchandise went down to destruction.

St. Louis, June 9.—Terrible rain and wind storms swept St. Louis last night and this afternoon. Many buildings were unroofed and lightning set fire to many dwellings.

Joplin, Mo., June 9.—Cloudbursts to-day, following those of yesterday, have flooded every stream in Southwest Missouri. Serious damage to crops is reported.

VICTIM PROBABLY DR. SIMON.

San Francisco, June 9.—It is probable that "J. S. Simon," of this city, who was yesterday reported killed on Mount Vesuvius, is Dr. Jules A. Simon, former president of the board of health of San Francisco. He was traveling in Italy, and letters to friends here written from Rome on May 21 indicated that he would make an ascent of Vesuvius about this date.

REVOLT IN G. O. P. SEEN OVER CLERKS

Private Dalzell Threatens to Lead Deserters.

CLAIM 2,500,000 VOTES

Would Swing Veterans, Sons, and Grandsons.

"I Helped to Rock the Cradle in Which the Republican Party Was Born," Says Famous Soldier and Ex-Clerk, "but When It Turns on My Gray-haired Comrades I Shall Turn Upon It."

Through the government crusade against aged clerks the Republican party will lose 2,500,000 votes of G. A. P. veterans and their sons and grandsons throughout the United States this fall, according to Private John Dalzell, who plans to lead the revolt unless relief is promised.

"At the meeting of the past department and post commanders at G. A. P. Hall, some one intimated that the loyal and patriotic people of this country are taking a deep, intense interest in the proposition to throw out on the streets, as worthless beggars, the men who saved the Capital of the nation," said Private Dalzell last night.

Stirs Old Indignation. "This remark brought back vividly to memory the universal indignation expressed by every Republican paper when Hoke Smith, dismissed summarily many old soldiers. It was the paramount issue of 1888 and resulted in Harrison's election—a revolution repeated for the same reason in 1896 by the election of McKinley. Though Grover Cleveland did nothing but acquiesce, Republicans charge the crime to him, and him we punished."

"The American people do yet care for the men who saved the nation and who now command more soldier votes than the soldiers of 1864 cast for Lincoln—our sons and grandsons now count 2,500,000 of votes in the Northern States to-day. The Democrats are laughing in their sleeves to see the attitude of some Republicans to-day toward the men and their sons who elected them all."

"I am a Republican; helped rock the cradle in which the party was born. I have always believed that the party, depending solely for its majority on us and our sons, would stand by us till death do us part, and also believed that the Democratic party was our enemy."

Humiliation in Old Age. "Two millions and a half, and our sons, and sons of our dead, are amazed that any one, high or low, would permit our humiliation and degradation, and so put in the hands of Democracy a weapon fatal to all who persecute us in our old age. It can't be true."

"After the professions and promises we, as a party, have made to hold the millions of votes cast at every election since 1856 by soldiers and their sons—and our sons vote as we do, and are double the number of the survivors of, say, 1862—now it turns on the gray-haired veterans and drives them from the Capital of the Republic, saved at the cost of their young lives."

"No, no; it cannot be. I care nothing for myself or for my comrades; I would to-day sacrifice place, money, power, even my life, in their defense."

"In the name of God and my country, I demand that all this degradation of my comrades must cease, and cease at once. If it does not, my country will take up our cause and make a fearful reckoning for our persecutors and defamers at the polls in November."

TARIFF TALK TO-DAY.

Senator Clay Will Criticize Payne-Aldrich Act.

Just before adjournment of the Senate yesterday, Senator Clay gave notice that to-day he will move to strike from the sundry civil bill the provision appropriating $250,000 for the appointment of a commission to investigate the tariff.

This means that the Senate will indulge in an old-time tariff debate. Senator Clay will lead off with a speech in criticism of the Payne-Aldrich act. Two of the insurgents—Senators La Follette and Beveridge—have announced their intention of speaking in support of a further revision of the tariff. It is possible that the entire session to-day may be devoted to a discussion of the tariff.

Havana, June 9.—Chief of Police Martinez and Col. Aranda fought a duel this morning and both received scratches. The trouble grew out of a letter Aranda wrote attacking the police force. Martinez has been suspended from office. Aranda challenged Police Capt. Reguiera, who immediately arrested the men before the challenge.

G. W. U. IN DEBT

Trustees Make Public Appeal for Aid.

SEEK TO RAISE $62,000

Sum Would Tide Over a Temporary Plan.

INCUMBRANCES OF $555,000

Trustees Make Frank Statement Addressed to Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade, Urging Restoration of Endowment in the Interest of District Public, Extension of Morrill Act Benefits, and Suggesting Plans for Temporary Relief from Financial Difficulties by Occupying Rented Quarters for Its Various Branches.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

The trustees, therefore, deeming the maintenance of the university on its present basis a matter of public concern to the people of the District, respectfully request the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade earnestly and substantially to help in the work of providing the university with the adequate funds. The trustees will do all in their power, both as a board and individually, to assist in raising the necessary amount, and will continue their efforts to secure for the institution an adequate endowment. Such an endowment ought to be at least $2,000,000.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

Asserting that the George Washington University is without funds, trustees of the institution yesterday appealed to the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade for assistance in raising $62,000 required to maintain the school on its present basis. In a frank statement the trustees placed their appeal before the people as a matter of concern to the District. INDEBTEDNESS IS $555,000. The first public statement of the resources and liabilities of the university was made after long deliberation yesterday and shows the indebtedness to be $555,000. Further plans for the restoration of the university to a sound financial basis will be made at an adjourned meeting this afternoon.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

In the appeal the trustees suggest the selling of the present quarters and temporarily occupying rented buildings. This could be done at an expense of $75,000 annually. For raising of this amount the assistance of the local bodies was asked. Rear Admiral Stockton, U. S. N., retired, who was recently elected acting president of the university, said last night regarding the move taken by the trustees: "The action is in line with the policies outlined when the trustees selected me for president. It is the belief of the board that, with the public fully cognizant of the inside facts, we can go before the people with more confidence."

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

All but two of the board of trustees were present at the meeting yesterday, which lasted for three hours. Dr. Needham, retiring president, was present, as was Rear Admiral Stockton.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

Refunding Plan Proposed. A temporary plan for funding the $195,000 floating debt of the university is also embodied in the report. This would lead to an ultimate adjustment of all debts and the restoration of the endowment fund.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

There will be no changes in the education organization of the university in the reform plans. The trustees unanimously agreed yesterday that the present system should be retained as best meeting the needs of the District. An

TRAIN WRECK IS FATAL.

Three Killed and Twelve Hurt by Derailing Accident.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

St. Louis, June 9.—Three men were killed, three are thought to be dying, and nine were injured at 3 o'clock this morning, when the Iron Mountain fast mail train No. 7, bound for Texarkana, left the rails on a curve in the southern part of this city.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

The train was going at sixty miles an hour and the speed limit at the curve is twenty-five miles. The reason that more persons were not killed or injured was because the train hauled no passengers or Pullman coaches, and all of the men were railway mail clerks or members of the train crew.
