BECKENDORF ARRIVES; HE WILL BE IN GAME TO-DAY

Backstop Purchased from Detroit Reports to Manager McAleer—Is in Fine Condition—Other Gossip.

By WILLIAM PEET. Catcher Beckendorf, purchased from the Detroit Tigers last week, was reported to the Detroit Tigers last week, and will work behind the bat in one of the games against Boston this afternoon.

Several clubs in the American League wanted Beckendorf, the Athletics and St. Louis Browns tried hard to buy him from Henry Jennings, but McAleer's personal friendship with the scrappy Detroit chief turned the trick, and Charley Street will now have a capable substitute on the bench.

The writer has a short talk with Beckendorf last night, in which the latter stated that he was in the pink of condition, and proposed to work his head off for Washington.

"I am tickled to death with the change," said Beckendorf, "for now I believe that I will get a chance to work often, and that's just what I want."

Beckendorf is a nice looking, well built chap, and rated as a first-class backstop. He is some better, too, than for the few games in which he has been given a chance with Detroit he hit for .423.

Providing the rain does not interfere, two ball games will be pulled off at National Park to-day. In the morning contest at 10 o'clock Karger will pitch for Boston, while Dolly Gray will toe the rubber for the Nationals.

The absence of Lord is bound to weaken Boston considerably, and although Engle can play a very good game at the third sack, he cannot begin to cover that position as the Boston captain. Furthermore, in New York, Engle is liable to be a bit nervous, as he will be on exhibition against the Nationals.

The Red Sox are very much disappointed over the extremely poor showing of the Highlanders made against the Athletics, and they fear that they are likely to have such a long lead by the time that they are through with Stallings' recruits that it will be next to impossible to head them. And the worst of it is, that, after being so badly treated by the Athletics, the New York bunch is liable to play like a pennant winning aggregation against Boston.

Yesterday afternoon Secretary Rolly and Manager Donovan took the Boston newspaper men and a couple of friends out to Great Falls in an automobile. Another machine conveyed to the same place Gardner, Collins, Stahl, Arrellanes, and Duffy. They were out for a long drive from his bat took chances of going to the hospital with a broken hand. Were it possible to measure the speed of a batted ball from the time it leaves the bat until it hits the catcher's glove or the ground or the fence, I wouldn't be surprised if a ball from the only Del's bat would be found to hold all records for speed.

What may keep the Tigers from winning the pennant in the American League? It is the southpaw pitchers of the various clubs which the manager of the Tigers stick in whenever possible. During a recent Detroit series a Detroit player remarked to a Boston man, after the Speed Boys had walked away with the majority of the games of the series: "If it wasn't for left-handed pitching, Detroit would win the pennant in a gallop. Any one you put a left-hander in the box and he has his speed and is feeling good, nine times out of ten he will beat Detroit. The heavy end of the Detroit batting order doesn't take a fancy to southpaw pitching."

It is true that the Tigers show a tendency to favor right-handed pitching in preference to left-handers. With few exceptions, left-handed hitters are easy for good southpaw pitchers. The left-handed wallopers on the team are D. Jones, McIntyre, Cobb, and Crawford, the hitting end of the batting order. McIntyre hits left-handers. The other three are not so successful. Bush can swing at the ball from either side of the plate, and is therefore not handicapped. But the champions go along in streaks. For weeks they are helpless before the portside flinger. Then, for the spell, they will hit right handers and left handers alike. Crawford, who fears no pitcher, has more confidence in himself against a right hander. Cobb would have a tremendous average if he did not have to face a left hander all season. Davy Jones never could boost his average on southpaws, whereas McIntyre delights in batting against them.

"Doc" Charley Green, the Boston trainer, says Johnson will beat Jeffries. "Greene" says it's true because a friend of Johnson's told him so.

A lesson in "inside baseball," from the Manhattan (Kans.) Mercury: "To show to what extent team play is perfected in the big leagues, Robert Brock cites the incident in a game he saw between the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati the other day: Cincinnati was at the bat and had a runner on second base, when a long drive was walloped out over center. The instant it was seen where the ball was headed, Johnny Evers, the Chicago second sacker, tore out for the home plate as hard as he could run, and Kling, who was catching, at the same instant started for Evers' position. The header relayed the ball to Kling at the second sack, who threw the base runner out at the home plate. The Manhattanite was mystified by the play at first but it was later explained to him that Evers had to have the whip possessed by Kling and that the two players changed places so that Kling could shoot the ball to the plate the instant it was thrown in from the field. The fraction of the second that saved Brock Cincinnati of a run, as the runner would have scored on anything but a perfect throw from second."

White Sox split with the Browns. Chicago Wins First of Double-header; Loses Second.
