HOBBIES OF WASHINGTONIANS.

No. 30—Benjamin S. Minor.

The all-absorbing delight of Benjamin S. Minor, the popular young attorney, is sweetening near the first base coach line with the home team one run to the good, and Johnson and Street doing the honors. Ben says to himself, but that wouldn't be necessary.

"He would go without his daily shave and cut down his luncheon in order to get to the grounds in time to enthuse over the youngsters slamming them out in the practice preliminary to the umpire's joyous cry of "Play ball," said a friend of Mr. Minor yesterday.

"It is my 'big gun' hobby," Mr. Minor admitted. And he is right. He is the most hopeful fan in the Capital. He attends every game, and before each contest is always sure the team will redeem itself. When it fails, he is equally confident it will be different next day.

All summer long he follows the play closely, with a personal interest in the individual work of the men. And in winter, baseball is still his hobby. When the snow is whirling around the Peace Monument, he is able to show that the team will do better the coming summer than ever before. He knows. He has a magic set of figures that shows how.

In his attendance on the games, everything else is made secondary. Once he was unable to attend because of a case in court to interfere with his getting to the game. The team won, and he profited by the experience.

SEEKS TO RECONCILE PARENTS

Ridley Sotheron Says Whole Affair Is Misunderstanding.

"My Greatest Desire Is to See My Mother and Father Live Happily."

Ridley Sotheron, son of Dr. Elmer H. Sotheron, who is defendant in a suit for divorce, declared yesterday that he wants to bring about a reconciliation between his parents.

"My greatest desire," he said, "is to live by mother and father united and seeing happily together, and I would do anything in the world to bring it about. The whole affair is the result of a misunderstanding. I believe it will be eventually cleared up, and that my mother and father will be reconciled."

Mrs. Sotheron brought suit against her husband, charging him with cruelty, abuse, and ill treatment. In affidavits filed in answer, Dr. Sotheron denied the charges, declaring his wife left him. An affidavit by Young Sotheron was filed, in which he asserted he had intervened between them.

"I have tried to be fair to both my father and mother," the young man said yesterday. "I would not permit any one to say a word against my mother, and have never taken sides against her as has been said."

Dr. Sotheron said that it was a case of "too much mother-in-law." Justice Stafford has ordered him to pay $20 a month alimony, pending the settlement of the suit.

MONORAIL ROLLER CHAIRS.

One Wheel Proves Success in the Far East.

Consul General James T. Du Bois, of Singapore, reports that the monorail idea is being applied to Jirikshas among the Chinese of the Malay States.

The one wheel Jiriksha is said to possess many advantages over the two-wheeled vehicle, but the American who has ridden in the latter, haunted by the constant fear that he was going to be tipped out backward, will hardly experience any sense of security in this one-wheel affair.

"There is no jarring drag in rounding corners, the wear and tare is reduced to a minimum, the work on the pullers greatly reduced, and a 20 per cent increased speed obtained," says the consul.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL INITIATES

Royal Arcanumites Exemplify Ritual on Three Candidates.

Municipal Council No. 213, Royal Arcanum, held a regular meeting and initiation at Pythian Temple last night. The Kempton Ritual was exemplified on three candidates.

Grand Regent H. G. Lentz was present and made an address in which he defined lines along which he hopes to increase the membership of the order. He announced that the prize banner, which the council won at the rifle match held at Chevy Chase on June 23, would be presented to the lodge at an early date.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Others Fatally Hurt When Home Burns In Early Morning.

Pertland, Me., July 6.—Dorothy Doughty, aged six, is dead; her sister Etta, aged ten, is so seriously injured that she is not likely to recover; two other sisters are seriously burned, and their father, Arthur Doughty, is in the hospital in a critical condition as a result of a fire at their home on Chebeague Island.

The father's injuries were caused by his heroic efforts to save his children after he had been awakened early in the morning to find his house in flames.

FUNERAL OF JURIST

Simple Services for Chief Justice M. W. Fuller.

FLORAL TRIBUTES ARE MANY

Beautiful Piece from President Taft Among Those Surrounding the Coffin in Little Church at Sorrento, Me.—Only One of Daughters Able to Be Present at Funeral.

Sorrento, Me., July 6.—Simple services for Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States Supreme Court, were held in the little Episcopal Church amid the tall hemlock trees, a short distance from "Mainstay," the summer home of the great jurist. The edifice, known as the Church of the Redeemer, was thronged with relatives, men of national prominence, and summer residents of Sorrento, Bar Harbor, and other neighboring resorts.

The body of the Chief Justice, in a black casket, almost covered with an immense pall of ferns and flowers, rested in front of the altar and was surrounded by scores of floral tributes from relatives and friends, including a beautiful piece from President Taft.

Following the wish of the late Chief Justice the simple funeral service of the Episcopal Church was read by Rev. J. E. Freeman, of Minneapolis, the minister in charge of the church, and a close friend of the Fuller family. A quartet from Bar Harbor sang "Lead, Kindly Light," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Peace, Perfect Peace," favorite hymns of Justice Fuller.

List of Pallbearers.

The pallbearers were Gov. Hughes, of New York; Associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, and Joseph McKenna, of the United States Supreme Court; United States Senator Hale, of Maine; Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, of New York, and Nathaniel Francis, of Washington, a son-in-law of the deceased.

With the exception of Mrs. Francis, none of the five daughters were able to be present at the service here. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Paulina Smith and Dixon Weston, of Boston, cousins of the late Chief Justice, and Miss Mildred Aubrey, of Chicago, a granddaughter, were present. Mrs. Truxton Beale, daughter of the late James G. Blaine, who was an intimate friend of Mr. Fuller, also was present.

The body, accompanied by the members of the family, Associate Justices Holmes and McKenna, and Rev. Mr. Freeman, was taken on a steamer of the Mount Desert Ferry, where connection was made with the late afternoon express, which reaches Boston at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow.

Services at Chicago.

From there the body will be taken to Chicago, where the interment service, conducted by Rev. Mr. Freeman, will be held in Graceland Cemetery Chapel at 3:30 o'clock Friday. The body will be buried beside that of Mrs. Fuller, who died here six years ago.

The funeral party will be joined in Chicago by the other members of the late Chief Justice's family, and by other members of the United States Supreme Court.

Gov. Hughes, on his arrival here, accepted an invitation to accompany Associate Justices Holmes and McKenna, and proceeded to Chicago with the body instead of returning to New York as he originally planned.

AGED MAN STILL ABSENT.

Relatives of James De Lane Believe He Has Died in Woods.

Relatives of James J. De Lane, who is seventy-five years old, fear he has been lost in the woods and is probably dead. He has been missing from his home for the past three weeks. The police have been looking for him all over the District, but nothing has been seen or heard of him.

The aged man left his home three weeks ago in a rage, and vowed he would never come back. He had just returned after having spent a night at the Central Rescue Mission.

The old man is afflicted with acute dementia, and this is a reason for the belief he has been stricken.

ARMY FORECAST VERIFIED.

Philippine Exports Fall to Reach Free Entry Limit.

As was predicted by officers of the War Department when the Payne-Aldrich tariff law was under discussion, the Philippines did not export the full amount of cigars, sugar, and tobacco permitted to enter free of duty.

The Payne-Aldrich law authorizes the free admission of 150,000,000 cigars, 300,000 gross tons of sugar, and 1,500,000 pounds of tobacco. Only 85,215,000 cigars, or a little more than one-half of the total amount allowed free, were exported to this country.

A total amount of sugar exported was 104,551 gross tons, or about one-third of the authorized amount. Only 15,294 pounds of tobacco were sent to this country. Officers of the Insular Bureau do not expect the Philippine Islands to export the full amount allowed free entry for the next three or four years.

NAVAL VETERAN SUCCEUMS.

Chief Engineer Wood Dead at New York Home.

Chief Engineer Benjamin F. Wood, U. S. N., retired, died at his home, at Mount Vernon, N. Y., Sunday.

He was born in New York State, October 6, 1830. He entered the navy of the United States as a third assistant engineer July 1, 1851. He served in the civil war, and was transferred to the retired list October 8, 1862. During the Spanish-American war he was attached to the New York Navy Yard from May to December, 1898, this being his last active duty.

BEVERIDGE GOES TO OYSTER BAY

and will deliver a public lecture in Pittsburgh this fall. He will probably talk to the Smoky City folks on municipal problems, which in their town are complicated with the Ten Commandments and the penal code.

Former Gov. A. J. Montague, of Virginia, called on the colonel to-day.

After a lively day of editorial and social work, Col. Roosevelt left for Oyster Bay in his motor car. He will be in town again within a few days, he says.

Here is a part of the piece he wrote for the Outlook, which will print it on Saturday:

"I believe that Gov. Hughes has been supported by the bulk of the wisest and most distinguished public opinion as regards most of his measures and positions, and I think that this has markedly been the case as regards direct primary nominations.

Governor is Right.

"I feel, in the first place, that on the fundamental issue of direct primary nominations the governor is right, and in the second place, that as the measure finally came up for action in the State legislature it was well nigh free from all objections, save those of the men who objected to it because they are fundamentally opposed to any change whatever in the desired direction.

"The Republican party was in the majority in both houses of the legislature which refused to carry out the Republican governor's recommendations, and although it was only a minority of the Republican senators which brought about this refusal, the party cannot escape a measure of responsibility for the failure; but it is only just to remember that a clear majority of the Republican members of each house supported the bill, whereas three-fourths or over of the Democrats opposed it. This is one of the cases where it is easier to place individual than party responsibility."

When Col. Roosevelt returned to Sagamore Hill this evening he found two guests waiting for him. They were John Burroughs, naturalist, and Dudley Foulke, of Indiana. Mr. Burroughs is here to talk about birds and animals with the colonel. Mr. Foulke and the ex-President will discuss other timely subjects.

CALEDONIANS PLAN OUTING.

Soccer Football Will Be Played at Marshall Hall.

The Caledonian club held an enthusiastic meeting at the Eagles' Hall last night. Plans were made for the thirty-eighth annual excursion to Marshall Hall on July 22.

Selections on bagpipes will be a musical feature on the boat. At the resort a game of soccer football will be played between the Washington and Baltimore league clubs. There will be prize bowling, quilts pitching, hammer throwing, races for children, a ladies' race, an old men's race, and a club race.

After the regular meeting the Ladies' Auxiliary held a meeting and arrangements were made for providing prizes for the events on the programme.

AT REST IN OAK HILL.

Remains of the Late Adolph Gosling Interred Yesterday.

The remains of the late Adolph Gosling were laid to rest yesterday in Oak Hill Cemetery. They were brought to this city from Philadelphia yesterday afternoon, accompanied by his widow and daughter, Mrs. William H. Moses, as well as by a number of other relatives and friends. The casket, covered with floral remembrances, was conveyed to the cemetery, where the last resting place had been prepared in the beautiful plot where Mrs. Gosling's father and mother and other members of the family are interred.

Robed in his white vestments, Rev. Dr. Armstrong, of St. Mary's Church, St. David's, Pa., who had accompanied the stricken family from Philadelphia, recited the impressive burial service of the Episcopal Church. Later the mound was covered with the innumerable wreaths, crosses, sprays, and other floral tributes sent by friends of the deceased, who was one of the most esteemed and popular men in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Gosling, who will remain here with her daughter until tomorrow, has been the recipient of sincere sympathy from her large circle of friends in Philadelphia and this city.

FUNERAL OF S. G. CORNWELL.

Body Taken to New Lebanon, N. Y., for Interment.

The body of S. G. Cornwell, who died Sunday night, was taken yesterday to New Lebanon, N. Y., for interment.

Services were held at the family residence, 1353 Girard street northwest, in the afternoon, Rev. George F. Dudley, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, officiating.

MACCABEE OFFICERS INSTALLED.

The semi-annual installation of Maccabees was commenced Saturday night by State Commander D. W. Gall, who installed the officers of Anacostia Tent, No. 7. The Tuesday night he installed the officers of Metropolitan Tent, No. 12, at which a class was initiated. Refreshments were served at both meetings.

Commander Warren, of Metropolitan Tent, made the inaugural address. State Commander Gall reports June the best summer month from a business standpoint. National Tent, No. 1, will admit a class next Monday night.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Federal Court Adjourns for Chief Justice.

CASES SET FOR SEPTEMBER

Jury Summoned for Present Term to Sit in Condemnation Proceedings of Land Near Oceogan for District of Columbia—Tract Sold Near Hunter's Station.

F. Clinton Knight, 63 King street, Alexandria, Va., is authorized agent and clerk for The Washington Herald. The Herald will be delivered daily and Sunday to any address in Alexandria for 40 cents a month.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, Alexandria, Va., July 6.—After transacting small amount of business, the July term of the United States Court for the Eastern district of Virginia, Judge Edmund Waddill presiding, early this afternoon adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning in honor of the memory of Chief Justice Fuller.

The report of the special master was filed in the case of Theodore Johnson, which involves a controversy over the military road to Fort Myer. The case went over.

The jury summoned for this term was directed to report on September 20, when the matter of the condemnation of certain land near Oceogan for District purposes will be considered.

The cases of Garrison Beckwith and W. P. Jones for violation of civil service laws were set for hearing at the January term of court. The cases of Edward T. Berry, charged with violating the postal laws, was continued until January 4, and that of John H. Craven, charged with impersonating a postal clerk, continued until January 3.

The case of Samuel Walker, charged with stealing a watch from the government reservation at Fort Myer, is slated to be heard to-morrow morning. Permission was granted the following attorneys to practice in this court: C. G. Foster, C. O. C. Goodrich, Lucien Keith, G. L. Fletcher, W. H. Gaines, of Virginia, and Joseph I. Weller and W. B. Guy, of Washington.

The following composed the petit jury summoned to-day: James E. Johnston, William B. Smithers, Oliver Underwood, Samuel L. Monroe, Robert S. Barrett, George H. Harlow, Samuel Lindsey, Edward A. Downey, George W. Keys, Charles Dearborn, Samuel H. Garnett, and Clarence R. Howard, Alexandria; George W. Hunter, William Hunter, and J. N. Carter, Oceogan; Lindsay G. Koch, Fredericksburg; E. P. Whitestones, Culpeper; H. D. Travis, Cape Charles; C. F. Hicks, Port Royal; B. F. Gaines, Griffsburg; Edward Waller, Garrisonville; C. B. Conway, Rappahannock Academy; W. J. Utley, Johnsons Springs, and Henry J. Moore, Richmond.

Thompson & Appich, real estate dealers, have sold for James B. Hunter to the Mount Vernon Land Company, Incorporated, sixty-three and two-thirds acres of land near Hunters Station, on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway. They have also sold for Daniel D. Thompson sixty-three acres adjoining to the same company.

Because John Embury, who claims Fauquier County as his home, trespassed on the property of a resident of the Fourth ward and acted disorderly toward a woman, he will spend the next six months in jail. When arraigned this morning Embury said he had been drinking. The court fined him $50, to which there was added a jail sentence of three months. In default of the fine he will, therefore, spend six months in jail.

Capt. James F. Webster, former chief of police, is reported to be critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Pulman, across Hunting Creek, Fairfax County. Capt. Webster is eighty-three years old. He holds the position of clerk of the Police Court.

Miss Agnes Posey and Frederick Sisson, both of this city, were married last night at the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, by Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector.

WASHINGTON, D. C. 147

PREMIER OPPOSES CHURCH.

Spain Determined that Power of State Shall Come First.

Madrid, July 6.—The religious question was brought up in Parliament to-day. In the Senate Premier Canalejas, replying to a statement by the Bishop of Madrid in regard to the recent imperial decrees about religious orders and the relations of church and state, stated that the government would not permit the power of the church to exceed that of the state. The prime minister maintained that he was not violating either the Concordat or the constitution. He continued:

"There are moments in life when it is necessary to take a decisive step. This moment has come for Spain. We must therefore, take it. We ought to be staunch Catholics, but at the same time men of the present day, not prejudiced, but conciliatory."

GROSS AIRSHIP DANGED.

Berlin, July 6.—The Grossed military airship, which started last night to make a voyage from Berlin to Gotha, and, being caught in a storm, was compelled to descend at Zeithain, Saxony, was not completely wrecked, as some reports stated, but was damaged. It has been placed on a train for shipment to Berlin.
