

HONDURAN REBELS ARE DRIVEN BACK

Uprising Spreads—Davila's Power Is in Danger.

GEN. BONILLA WILL SOON LAND

Former President Will Have Support of Eastern Part of Country. Expects to Capture Ceiba and Will Collect Customs Duties as Estrada Is Doing in Bluefields.

Mobile, Ala., July 26.—News of an attack upon the government barracks at Puerto Cortez by sympathizers of Gen. Bonilla, former President of Honduras, came today by the steamer Bodo. The attack was made last Friday morning.

Hundreds of shots were fired on both sides in which Gen. Meron leading the Bonilla adherents, and the colonel commanding the barracks were killed. After an hour's fighting the revolutionists withdrew. Martial law has been declared at Puerto Cortez.

Information brought here is reliable and authentic. While it is well understood that an effort is to be made to prevent Gen. Bonilla from landing in Honduras, it is a recognized fact that President Davila is powerless. According to the report Davila's army along the coast of Honduras is in sympathy with Bonilla, and openly declare their faith in him. So Davila cannot prevent landing in this way.

Navy Ready to Sink. The Tumbia, the entire strength of the Honduran navy, rolled into one, is anchored in Puerto Cortez harbor in an unseaworthy condition. The crew is kept busy pumping water out of her hold to prevent her from sinking, so Davila can look for no aid in that direction. During the attack on the barracks, the Tumbia fired several shells into the revolutionists. Their aim was bad.

When the Bodo left Puerto Cortez it was generally known that Gen. Bonilla was to land at some point near there. His landing, it was stated, had been agreed upon as a signal for a general uprising along the entire coast. From Ceiba to Puerto Cortez the natives are with Gen. Bonilla, and it is said that Davila's followers are few and far between. In fact, it is the impression that Bonilla will have little trouble in overthrowing the government.

Hopes to Capture Ceiba. Bonilla is concentrating his forces at a point west of Ceiba for the purpose of capturing that town. Bonilla will probably have little difficulty in capturing Ceiba, as it is not fortified, and many of the government troops at that place are reported to be disloyal to Davila. With Ceiba in his hands, Bonilla will use it for a base of operations against Tegucigalpa, the capital. He will not only supply his arms and ammunition through Ceiba, but will collect the customs duties at that port and use the funds thus derived in his war against Davila.

The action of the United States in recognizing the right of the Estrada faction to collect the customs duties at Bluefields, Nicaragua, has encouraged the Bonilla colony in New Orleans to believe that the State Department will accord the Bonillistas the same rights in Honduras.

DOG BITES THREE CHILDREN

Killed by Policeman After Causing Excitement in Northwest. Three children were bitten yesterday by a dog in Holmead place northwest. Helen Prentiss, two and one-half years old, of 347 Holmead place, was playing in the street when the dog rushed upon her and mangled her left hand. Allen W. Kidd, eight years old, of 349 Holmead place, was bitten in the face, and Charlotte McKeever, ten years old, of 347 Holmead place, was bitten on the right ankle.

Officer Harrover, of the Tenth precinct, killed the dog. The children were treated by Drs. Harding and Grafty. The dog's carcass was taken in charge by the pound authorities, and its brain will be analyzed.

HOT WEATHER

Is dreaded by people with low vitality. They cannot sleep at night, do not enjoy their meals, suffer continually from dysentery, malaria, chills, fever, and other summer ills. To overcome this the system must be built up, the vitality restored, and the whole body made strong and vigorous and able to ward off the attacks of all disease germs. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the medicine you need. It has been doing this for over half a century, and the fact is attested to by the thousands of letters we have received from patients everywhere endorsing it as the world's greatest medicine in all cases where a tonic stimulant and body builder is necessary.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus producing a liquid food, tonic, and stimulant, requiring no digestion in the form of a medicinal whiskey. Its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. Its gentle and invigorating properties influence for good every important organ in the body. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer, or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 a large bottle. Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctors' advice and an illustrated medical booklet containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.

N. H. SHEA, 632 Pennsylvania Avenue, THE JOHN WEDDERBURN CO., 616-GIS F Street N.W., A. E. DEWITZ, 401 G Street N.W., EUGENE SCHWAB, 525 Eighth St. S.E., Distributors.

PITTSBURG WANTS MEET.

Aero Club Plans Flight from Ohio River Island. New York, July 26.—President W. S. Ford Smith, of the Pittsburgh Aero Club, which was recently organized, has asked the national council of the Aero Club of America to sanction a meet to be held August 4 and 5. It is planned to have the contests for Bruny Island, in the Ohio River, just below Pittsburgh. The island is about a mile square and the surface is level. Mr. Smith has been assured that his request would be granted. Glenn H. Curtis, Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin, and J. C. Mears have entered, and others are expected.

REGULAR DEFEATS INSURGENT NORRIS

Senator Brown Chairman of Nebraska Convention. Lincoln, Nebr., July 26.—George W. Norris, Nebraska's insurgent Congressman, was defeated this afternoon at the Republican State convention for the permanent chairmanship by Senator Norris. Brown by a vote of 531 to 268. The convention passed a resolution indorsing county option, Bryan's pet issue. It also declared for direct legislation by a vote of almost 2 to 1. Representative Norris offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

"For the further and better regulation of the liquor traffic in Nebraska, we favor the passage of a county option law by the next session of the legislature, and pledge our candidate for governor, if elected, to sign such a law on that subject as the legislature may enact."

Although the naming of Senator Brown as permanent chairman was regarded as a victory for the "regulars," Representative Norris succeeded in having the convention pass the following resolution sponsoring the insurgent movement in Congress:

"Every protest against wrong is insurmountable for the right. We are unalterably opposed to the system known as Cannonism, and are in hearty sympathy with the insurgent movement in and out of the Congress. We herewith urge our Senators and Representatives to continue to use their votes and influence along progressive lines in the future."

The convention, which had been heralded as giving promise of a bitter contest over the chairmanship, passed off with remarkable harmony. There was a clash at first when a motion was made to make Brown permanent chairman. Delegates from the Fifth district, which Norris represents, made a game stand for their chief. They were on the floor with speeches urging the selection of Norris. But the junior Senator of Nebraska had the party organization behind him, and he won with ease. He was also supported by Senator Burkett and Victor Roosevelt of Omaha.

After the selection of the permanent chairman the convention settled down to business. President Taft's administration was indorsed and Roosevelt was referred to as one of America's greatest citizens and foremost statesman. The mention of his name set the convention wild. It was several minutes before order was restored.

FRYE NOT TO RETIRE.

Maine Senator Denies Report that He Is in Poor Health. Portland, Me., July 26.—Senator Frys to-night, over the long-distance telephone to Lewiston, Me., denied that he had any intention of retiring. Mr. Frys said that his health was better now than it has been in months. He said in proof of his good health that he had just got back from a thirty-mile automobile ride, and last night sat up with friends over many rubbers of bridge. Retirement, he said, was far from his mind.

Herkimer Primaries Tomorrow. Utica, N. Y., July 26.—The crucial test in the struggle between Theodore Douglas Robinson, nephew of former President Roosevelt, and Representative Charles S. Millington for the Republican Congressional nomination in the Onondaga-Herkimer district will come on Thursday of this week in the Herkimer primaries, and two days later in the Herkimer convention to elect delegates to the Congressional convention.

AMERICA A POWER IN THE OLD WORLD

Daily Mail Alarmed at Attitude in Liberia Case. London, July 27.—A news agency circulated an interview with Rolan P. Falkner, United States commissioner to Liberia, who said his mission had for its object the complete reorganization of Liberian fiscal affairs, beginning with the funding of the entire debt.

Mr. Falkner was quoted as saying that America's interests in Liberia is wholly nonpolitical, but the news agency announces that the United States, with the approval of Great Britain, France, and Germany, has intimated to Liberia her willingness to take entire charge of the republic's finances, military organization, agriculture, and boundary questions, and gives further details.

A majority of the morning newspapers do not print the matter, but the Daily Mail makes a sensational feature of it, proclaiming the "apparition of the United States as a new power in the Old World."

It says editorially: "Liberia thus becomes an American Egypt. The event is momentous in every way. It will be heartily welcomed by Great Britain. The change will affect future history as perhaps no other event in the last twenty years, with the single exception of the fall of Fort Arthur."

Kermit Reaches Paris. Paris, July 26.—Kermit Roosevelt has arrived here. He is stopping at a quiet hotel close to the vigilant eye of the American Embassy, where Ambassador Bacon will resume his duties Saturday after his American trip.

Leslie Coombs Is Better. Lima, July 26.—The condition of Leslie Coombs, the American Minister, who has been indisposed, is better.

OHIO CONVENTION CHEERS FORAKER

Continued from Page One.

the opposition of the Anti-Saloon Leagues to Mr. Longworth is looked upon as a very serious obstacle to his nomination.

Another story, based upon substantial evidence, is that President Taft would have no objection to the nomination of James R. Garfield, if Mr. Garfield would recant and withdraw his restrictions and criticisms of the Taft administration. This Mr. Garfield has done in his signed statement issued last night, announcing the platform he wants adopted.

Stands by Judge Brown. Boss Cox, however, stands solidly for Judge Oren Britt Brown, of Dayton. "If the delegates do not all drop dead to-morrow," said Mr. Cox to-night, "Judge Brown will be nominated in a walk, and mind what I tell you."

There is not, however, a great leaning toward Warren G. Harding. Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, chairman of the State committee, seems to favor Garfield. On the other hand, Senator Dick and his friends proclaim themselves loudly for Carnie Thompson, of Ironton, the coal miner, who rose to be city solicitor of his city.

After extended conference, which lasted well toward midnight, the candidates for governor narrowed down primarily to Judge Brown and James R. Garfield. Of course, this situation may be changed in the morning, and a fight on the floor of the convention may bring forward Mr. Longworth or Mr. Harding or Mr. Thompson, but the situation at midnight is that either Brown or Garfield has the best chance.

Republican party in Ohio, will appeal to the people in this campaign is and must inevitably be the tariff.

"We could not do it if we would; we ought not to do it if we could. We are responsible for it in the fullest sense. It would be mere futility to attempt now to shirk our responsibility."

"We did not make this law in secret; we made it in the open. It was not railroaded through either House of Congress. It was fully and carefully considered, debated, and amended. A Republican delegation from Ohio in both Houses of Congress, with one exception, voted for it; it remains for the Republicans of Ohio to fight for it. We refuse to be stampeded."

"Ohio is the battle ground this year of titanic forces—forces which will sway for good or evil the fate of the nation. It is a conflict of principles first, but personalities also. Personality will not move everything, but it will mean much. Our Democratic opponents have nominated as head of their ticket a strong man—make no mistake about that. Whatever may be the principles he stands for, principles which, in our opinion, would spell, if adopted, the ruination of this country. Judson Harmon is nevertheless a big, forceful individual; a keen, shrewd politician, always on the job; a man of unlimited ambition, whose great confidence in himself and in his luck is great."

"Not content with nominating himself for governor, he has nominated himself for President also. There is nothing small about this."

Too Big for the Office. "The proceedings of the convention, which conferred upon him this dubious office, reveal a most amazing state of facts. It appears that if elected he does not intend to serve out his term as governor; that he apparently too insignificant an office—it might interfere with his leading all his energies toward securing the nomination for President from his party in the nation—and so the programme, as frankly announced at the Democratic convention, is that he shall resign after a few months and turn over the office to the candidate for lieutenant governor, a gentleman by the name of Pennington, a very agreeable gentleman, who, I believe, is a lawyer in the city of Canton. Here we have a case of two men, both, in their own estimation, at least, too big for the office they are nominated to fill. This is, at least, a refreshing novelty in Democratic politics."

"Laying all other questions aside, there is one thing in Judge Harmon's career that disqualifies him for the Presidency. No man who has spent the active years of his life as an advocate of the interests of corporate wealth can bring to the Presidency that single-minded devotion to the interests of the people, that capacity for seeing clearly their side of the question that they have the right to demand."

"An Ohio man, a lawyer, too, is President of the United States. How different have been the uses of his legal talents! They have not been employed in the service of the railroads and corporations, in the service of the people. Like his great predecessor, he sees the people's side first. In his administration corporations get a square deal, but they get no more than that."

Praise for Taft. "Whatever the people may have thought a few weeks ago, there is no question about it to-day. President Taft has made good. Few men realize what fixity of purpose, what strength, sagacity, good humor, and patience were required to bring order out of the chaos that existed during the closing weeks of this session of Congress. Some people mistook his good humor for weakness, his patience for pliability. Events have proved how sadly mistaken they were. To-day there are few who do not know that the Taft smile is but a mask for dogged determination and an iron will.

"Seldon has it fallen to the lot of any man to surmount greater obstacles in carrying out his promises than to the President. Beaten on all sides by violent and unjust criticism, harassed by factional disputes, he remained serenely confident to the end, and the end was a triumph. He had determined from the beginning that party pledges were made to be performed. To-day these pledges are the laws of the land."

Addressing himself to the question of "insurgents," Mr. Longworth said: "I have never asked a man to leave my house because he did not happen to agree with me upon everything that I thought right. I have never been in sympathy with the proposition to read men out of the Republican party because they have not upon all occasions voted with the majority. My general course in the last Congress has been that of a so-called regular, because I believe that in so acting I could best help to effectively promote the policies of President Taft. I have no quarrel with any man who thought otherwise."

Honest in Their Motives. "There are insurgents and insurgenes. There may be a few who act from selfish motives and are not deeply concerned in the welfare of the Republican party. But a great majority of the so-called insurgents I know to be men who are animated by patriotic motives only, and who, I have not the slightest question, are just as anxious for the welfare of the Republican party as I am.

"The principal issue upon which we, the

There is nothing on earth like it. It is entirely mechanical and is something that is positive in any and all cases. We do not care how long standing your troubles are, this treatment cures in all cases.

We do not care how many things you have tried that have failed, this one will cure you. Remember we say all troubles that come from the foot and all foot troubles.

It is within the reach of all, poor and rich alike. Examinations free. Every case we take we guarantee to cure.

'Phone Main 7639

The National Impression Company

Manufacturers of Arch Supports 720 11th St. N. W. Washington, D. C.

Republican party in Ohio, will appeal to the people in this campaign is and must inevitably be the tariff.

"We could not do it if we would; we ought not to do it if we could. We are responsible for it in the fullest sense. It would be mere futility to attempt now to shirk our responsibility."

"We did not make this law in secret; we made it in the open. It was not railroaded through either House of Congress. It was fully and carefully considered, debated, and amended. A Republican delegation from Ohio in both Houses of Congress, with one exception, voted for it; it remains for the Republicans of Ohio to fight for it. We refuse to be stampeded."

"Ohio is the battle ground this year of titanic forces—forces which will sway for good or evil the fate of the nation. It is a conflict of principles first, but personalities also. Personality will not move everything, but it will mean much. Our Democratic opponents have nominated as head of their ticket a strong man—make no mistake about that. Whatever may be the principles he stands for, principles which, in our opinion, would spell, if adopted, the ruination of this country. Judson Harmon is nevertheless a big, forceful individual; a keen, shrewd politician, always on the job; a man of unlimited ambition, whose great confidence in himself and in his luck is great."

"Not content with nominating himself for governor, he has nominated himself for President also. There is nothing small about this."

Too Big for the Office. "The proceedings of the convention, which conferred upon him this dubious office, reveal a most amazing state of facts. It appears that if elected he does not intend to serve out his term as governor; that he apparently too insignificant an office—it might interfere with his leading all his energies toward securing the nomination for President from his party in the nation—and so the programme, as frankly announced at the Democratic convention, is that he shall resign after a few months and turn over the office to the candidate for lieutenant governor, a gentleman by the name of Pennington, a very agreeable gentleman, who, I believe, is a lawyer in the city of Canton. Here we have a case of two men, both, in their own estimation, at least, too big for the office they are nominated to fill. This is, at least, a refreshing novelty in Democratic politics."

"Laying all other questions aside, there is one thing in Judge Harmon's career that disqualifies him for the Presidency. No man who has spent the active years of his life as an advocate of the interests of corporate wealth can bring to the Presidency that single-minded devotion to the interests of the people, that capacity for seeing clearly their side of the question that they have the right to demand."

"An Ohio man, a lawyer, too, is President of the United States. How different have been the uses of his legal talents! They have not been employed in the service of the railroads and corporations, in the service of the people. Like his great predecessor, he sees the people's side first. In his administration corporations get a square deal, but they get no more than that."

Praise for Taft. "Whatever the people may have thought a few weeks ago, there is no question about it to-day. President Taft has made good. Few men realize what fixity of purpose, what strength, sagacity, good humor, and patience were required to bring order out of the chaos that existed during the closing weeks of this session of Congress. Some people mistook his good humor for weakness, his patience for pliability. Events have proved how sadly mistaken they were. To-day there are few who do not know that the Taft smile is but a mask for dogged determination and an iron will.

"Seldon has it fallen to the lot of any man to surmount greater obstacles in carrying out his promises than to the President. Beaten on all sides by violent and unjust criticism, harassed by factional disputes, he remained serenely confident to the end, and the end was a triumph. He had determined from the beginning that party pledges were made to be performed. To-day these pledges are the laws of the land."

Addressing himself to the question of "insurgents," Mr. Longworth said: "I have never asked a man to leave my house because he did not happen to agree with me upon everything that I thought right. I have never been in sympathy with the proposition to read men out of the Republican party because they have not upon all occasions voted with the majority. My general course in the last Congress has been that of a so-called regular, because I believe that in so acting I could best help to effectively promote the policies of President Taft. I have no quarrel with any man who thought otherwise."

Honest in Their Motives. "There are insurgents and insurgenes. There may be a few who act from selfish motives and are not deeply concerned in the welfare of the Republican party. But a great majority of the so-called insurgents I know to be men who are animated by patriotic motives only, and who, I have not the slightest question, are just as anxious for the welfare of the Republican party as I am.

"The principal issue upon which we, the

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Bland Held to Grand Jury for Store Fire.

KEROSENE FOUND ON SCENE. Testimony of Chief of the Fire Department and Police Heard at Preliminary Trial—Late Lieut. Smith's Successor to Be Elected To-night by the Police Board.

F. Clinton Knight, 235 King street, Alexandria, Va., is authorized agent and carrier for The Washington Herald. The Herald will be delivered daily and Sunday to any address in Alexandria for 60 cents a month.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, Alexandria, Va., July 26.—George W. Bland, arrested yesterday morning on suspicion of having set fire to his store, at the northeast corner of Oranoco and Alfred streets, was in the Police Court this morning, and following a preliminary hearing was held for the grand jury.

The police who made the arrest and George W. Bland, chief of the fire department testified to the effect that a quantity of wall paper, saturated with what was supposed to be kerosene, was found in the store. The fire, they said, started in the rear of the establishment, a one-story frame building.

Bland testified that he left his place about 11 o'clock Sunday night, and that he was aroused from bed by a neighbor, who informed him his place was on fire. He said he at once dressed and went to the store, and that an oil lamp, hanging on the wall, probably fell during the fire, and this doubtless accounted for the oil on the paper, or otherwise it may have leaked from the lamp, he said. Bland also told the court that he carried $300 insurance on his stock, which he took out on July 13 last.

The board of police commissioners will hold a meeting at 8 o'clock to-morrow night for the purpose of electing a lieutenant on the police force to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lieut. James Smith. It is generally understood that Second Lieut. J. Frank Pettis will be made first lieutenant, and that William Schoen will be chosen a private.

There appears, however, to be considerable doubt over the fight for the position of second lieutenant, which will be made vacant by Lieut. Pettis' promotion. Several privates are making a hard fight for the position, and no stone is being left unturned by them.

Arrangements have been made for a sham battle between the members of Alexandria Light Infantry Monday night at Shooters Hill, west of this city. The company will be evenly divided, and one side will be in command of Capt. F. L. Slaymaker. The other side will be in command of First Lieut. C. H. May. The company will not hold any more drills after Monday next until the first Monday in September.

Miss Sarah E. R. Simpson's funeral took place at 5 o'clock this afternoon from the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Rev. H. M. Carter, pastor, conducted the services, and the interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery. The pallbearers were Henry K. Field, S. Frank Field, William C. Field, Lawrence C. Field, French C. Simpson, and K. W. Ogden, nephews of the deceased. Miss Simpson died in Newport News Sunday last.

When the cases of Nelson Banks and John, alias "Jumbo" Bryant, negroes, suspected of attempting to rob a house on the north side of Queen street, between Fairfax and Royal streets, Sunday last, were called in the Police Court this morning there was no additional evidence, and the court acquitted Bryant and fined Banks $10, to which there was added a jail sentence of thirty days.

The body of Mrs. Lillie G. D. Jeal, who died in Philadelphia Sunday last, will be brought here to-morrow afternoon and taken to the home of her father, Justice Isaac C. Burrell, Alexandria County. She was thirty-two years old, and is survived by her husband, Mrs. Jeal, was well known in Alexandria County.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary W. Page, who died Sunday last, were held at 3:30 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Rev. Father H. J. Cutler conducted the services, and the interment was in St. Mary's cemetery. The pallbearers were Frank Lucas, James Patterson, Jr., Albert Lucas, Frank Martin, Edward Martin, and W. W. Balenger.

The funeral of Shirley Keyes, of Fairfax County, took place at 10 o'clock this morning from Delaine's undertaking chapel. Rev. Robert Bartlett conducted the services, and the interment was in the cemetery at Sharon Church, Fairfax County.

The excursion given to-day to Marshall Hall by the police was largely attended. The evening boat carried an unusually large crowd. The proceeds of the excursion will be devoted to the uniform and helmet fund.

In the Corporation Court to-day George W. Hellig was granted a divorce from Carrie Hellig on the ground of desertion. The couple were married in Canada, March, 1888.

The annual excursion of the Elk's Dramatic Club will be given to-morrow to Colonial Beach. The affair promises to be largely attended.

Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons this afternoon defeated a team composed of members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge by a score of 11 to 11. This makes four out of five games Jackson Lodge has won from Washington.

Sergt. A. L. Uhler, Company G, Alexandria Light Infantry, will attend the competition for membership State rifle team at Camp Perry, Ohio, beginning August 8 next.

The local board of civil service examiners held an examination here to-day for stenographer and typewriter. Seven applicants were heard.

AN OPENING SPECIAL

We are now in our new store, 1405 F Street N.W. As an opening special and further to acquaint you with the high quality of our wine we offer 5 large bottles Claret or Sweet Catawba for $1.00.

To-Kalon Wine Co., 1405 F Street N.W. Phone Main 993 or write.

PROF. WINANS DEAD.

Princeton, N. J., July 26.—Prof. Samuel Ross Winans, from 1898 to 1908 dean of Princeton University, died at his home here last night after three weeks' illness. He had been actively connected with the faculty since 1878, and at the time of his death was professor of Greek.

SKANNSON'S 'G' 6th St & Pa. Ave. THE BUSY CORNER

CLOSE 5 P. M. TO-DAY.

211 wash skirts, gored and pleated, worth up to $1.50, each 69c

(First floor bargain tables.)

CASH LAWN PRIZES TO STIR CIVIC PRIDE

New "City Beautiful" Siege Is Under Way.

Striving for a "city beautiful," with more gardens and lawns, the People's Garden Association has arranged a long list of prizes to be distributed for the most beautiful improvements in civic lines.

Professional gardeners or florists will not be allowed to compete in the first four classes. Those who wish to enter the contest must communicate with Secretary Estabrook, 2625 Seventeenth street northwest, not later than September 1, stating the classes they wish to enter.

The prizes follow: Class I—For the best kept front lawn without regard to shrubs, vines, or flowers: First prize, $30; second, $15; third, $10. Class II—For the best results obtained from planting shrubs, vines, and flowers in a front yard: First prize, $30; second, $15; third, $10.

Class III—For the best results obtained from planting shrubs, vines, and flowers in a back yard: First prize, $15; second, $10; third, $5. Class IV—For the best results obtained from plantings of shrubs, vines, and flowers in front yards since October 1, 1909: First prize, $15; second prize, $10; third prize, $5.

Class V—For the most attractive individual window box in the city: First prize, $5; second prize, $3; third prize, $2. Class VI—For the best display of window boxes in any residence in the city: First prize, $15; second prize, $5; third prize, $5.

Class VII—For the most attractive garden in the city where a gardener is employed: First prize, $10; second, $5; third, $2. Class VIII—For the janitor keeping the most attractive school grounds: First prize, $10; second, $5; third, $2.

Suitable medals or certificates will be given by the association to such of the prize winners as prefer them to cash prizes.

STEEL REVENUES SHOW AN INCREASE

Directors of Corporation Declare a Dividend.

New York, July 2.—The quarterly report of the United States Steel Corporation issued to-day shows earnings for the past three months of $90,170,900, which is $2,564,000 ahead of the report made on March 31.

This figure is about $300,000 less than the earnings reported last December, but it is $1,924,000 greater than the earnings shown in the statement of last September, and $2,833,000 ahead of last year at this time. There is an increase of $2,500,000 over the last quarter in the sum appropriated for expenditures already made or to be made on authorized appropriations for additional property, new plants, and construction.

Shows an Increase. The amount on this report is $7,500,000 as against $5,000,000 on March 31. In view of the reports of unfavorable business conditions which have come from some sources this was taken to-day to be significant.

Unfilled orders on the current report amount to 4,285,000 tons. This is 1,144,000 tons less than the last quarter, 1,619,000 less than last December, 539,000 less than last September, but 200,000 tons larger than last June.

The balance of surplus of the company on June 30, after payment of all charges and dividends was $6,410,000 as compared with $6,382,531 for the quarter ended March 31, $15,327,181 on December 31 last, $2,155,113 for the quarter ended September 30 last, and $5,834,441 a year ago.

Declare Quarterly Dividend. At the meeting of the directors to-day at which this report was submitted, the regular quarterly dividends of 1 1/2% on the common stock and 1% on the preferred stock were declared. On the motion of J. P. Morgan, who was present at the meeting, the following resolution was passed:

"That officers make the public on the 30th day of each month the aggregate tonnage of unfilled orders on hand at the close of the previous month."

De Lesseps in Long Flight. Montreal, July 26.—Count de Lesseps made a flight this afternoon, starting from King Edward Park, ten miles down the river, shortly after 6 o'clock and rising to a height of over 3,000 feet. He soon disappeared from view, then approaching the city, he circled St. Helens Island, in the St. Lawrence, and then returned to his starting point, having been in the air thirty-one minutes. The count will leave for New York in the morning.

Davis Jackson Dead. Charlottesville, Va., July 26.—Davis Jackson, a wealthy farmer and one of the most prominent Democratic politicians in the northern section of Albemarle County, is dead at his home, just north of Easleyville. He had been in ill health for the past year.

THE MODERN FIGURE.

HOW TO REGAIN BEAUTY OF FORM. The vagaries of fashion are a great trial to ladies inclined to over-stress; but it is a great mistake to go in for physical repression in the shape of special diets. Fasting and violent exercising are also dangerous. One very soon becomes limp, depressed and sallow of complexion when such methods of getting thin are adopted. There is absolutely no necessity to study dietetics or deprive one's self of wholesome rest and bodily comforts.

The following is a prescription which will restore beauty of form without any sacrifice of health or strength. Any druggist will make it up for you or supply the harmless ingredients, viz: 1/2 oz. Marmola, 1/2 oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, add 1/2 oz. Peppermint Water. The dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. Don't be afraid of a good appetite, especially as the digestive system will be much benefited by this simple treatment. Indeed, the whole body is beautified, and the reduction of weight occasions no wrinkles. The skin and complexion are re-beautiful.

ATLANTIC CITY HOTELS. THE ABSECON

Formerly Belmont, Atlantic City, N. J. Fitted with all modern conveniences.