LATEST FASHIONS.

TWO WAISTS SHOWING THE POPULAR DUTCH NECK. Paris Patterns Nos. 2888, 3061

This simple but attractive shirtwaist has been developed in white handkerchief linen, but is equally adaptable to all the summer materials. Three tucks on the shoulders, stitched to yoke depth, give ample fullness to the front, similar tucks, stitched their entire length, ornamenting the back. The front is hand-embroidered with a conventional design and trimmed with insertions and edging of Cluny lace. The pattern (2888) is in 7 sizes—32 to 44 inches, bust measure. For 36 bust the waist requires 5 1/2 yards of material 36 inches wide, 3/4 yards 37 inches wide, 2 yards 38 inches wide, or 1 1/2 yards 42 inches wide; 3/4 yards of insertion and 2 yards of edging.

This dainty model, suitable for China silk, messaline, dotted Swiss, batiste and nainsook, is tucked in clusters below a prettily shaped yoke, which may be of the material or all-over embroidery. The back is also tucked in clusters on each side of the closing. The one-seam sleeve is cut in a point over the hand and is tucked to correspond with the waist. The neck may be finished either with or without the high collar. The pattern (3061) is in 6 sizes—32 to 42 inches, bust measure. For 36-inch bust the waist will require 3 1/2 yards of material 36 inches wide, 2 yards 24 inches wide, 3/4 yards 27 inches wide, 2 yards 36 inches wide or 1 1/2 yards 42 inches wide, with 4/5 yards of insertion.

KNOX ON FISHING TRIP.

Accompanied by Wife on Way to the Coast of Maine.

New York, Sept. 3.—Secretary of State Philander Knox and Mrs. Knox arrived at the Waldorf to-day from Valley Forge, Pa., where they have been passing the summer, and left to-night for Boston, on their way to the coast of Maine, where the Secretary expects to put in a week fishing before going back to Washington.

A big automobile, belonging to Mr. Knox, was shipped to Boston this afternoon on the Yale, and the Secretary will use it in making the rest of the journey from Boston. Mr. Knox is very much pleased with the crop of alfalfa he has raised on his farm, but when asked if he was pleased with the outcome of things in Nicaragua, he only smiled.
