JOHN D.'S FAMILY HOLDS A REUNION

Oil King Absent from Annual Celebration.

Newburg, N. Y., Sept. 9.—The Rockefeller family held its reunion to-day, about 150 appearing. It was the largest yet held of the descendants of John, Peter, and Dell Rockefeller, who came to this country in 1755. The announcement that John D. Rockefeller expected to be here doubtless had something to do with the large attendance, and there was considerable disappointment when it was learned that the sickness of his wife had prevented his attendance.

The president of the family organization came here from Canon City, Colo., to preside, bringing with him the specimens of fruit grown in his orchard for general distribution among his relatives. The family numbers, so far as known, a little over 1,000, and new ones are being found year after year. This year about two of the number have died. The officers chosen to serve the coming year include president, Benjamin F. Rockefeller, Canon City, Colo.; vice presidents, Barry Rockefeller, Montgomery, N. Y., and Harry U. S. Rockefeller, Anersam, N. Y.; secretary and historian, Dr. Henry O. Rockefeller, Brooklyn; assistant secretary, William G. Rockefeller, N. Y.; assistant historian, Miss Grace P. Rockefeller, Wilkesbarre, Pa.; treasurer, Miss Edith I. Rockefeller, Germantown, N. Y.; necrologist, Miss Bertha Rockefeller, Lebanon, N. J.; and custodian, Manard Rockefeller, Brooklyn.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was selected as the next place of meeting.

The league is preparing to enter a vigorous protest against the bill for compulsory vaccination which will come before Congress.

MORNING CHIT-CHAT.

HAS she been in your guest room at all this summer—the guest non grata?

If you have any guest room to put her in I suspect she has, for she goes everywhere in the course of the season.

Who is this guest non grata? Well, there are several varieties of her.

Here are a few that you may recognize. You invite her for the week of August 7-14—that being the only week in which you can conveniently entertain her. She accords with pleasure, making the slight proviso that, as it suits her plans better, she will come the next week instead—she is sure you won't mind, because you aren't to put yourself out for her, and anyway you are always so accommodating.

A more virulent variety goes even farther than this, and
