WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 65 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Dec. 8.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at noon today at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Marshall, 508 Wolfe street, when their youngest daughter, Miss Inez F. Marshall, became the bride of Frederick B. Cook, a business man of New York City.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. M. Carter, pastor of Methodist Episcopal Church South, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride wore a blue tailored traveling gown and carried lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Marshall, and the bridesmaid had for her best man, Leroy Ball, of New York. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cook left for a trip by water to Havana, Cuba. They will reside in Havana, Cuba.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Haggarty, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Constable A. J. Payne, of Fairfax County, was acquitted in the Police Court this morning, following an arraignment for shooting at William Ferguson, a negro, Saturday night last at Wilkes and Royal streets as Ferguson jumped from a car and ran away from him after being told he was wanted. Constable Payne produced a warrant he had for Ferguson's arrest, which was dated December 11, 1909. Ferguson was represented by Attorney Robinson Moncure, and Attorney R. D. Brumback represented Payne. Attorney Moncure, after the disposition of the case, said he would take steps to have Constable Payne indicted by the grand jury.

After the hearing Ferguson was required to leave $10 collateral for his appearance before Justice Wright, of Fairfax County, to-morrow morning to answer the charge of hunting without permission on December 17, 1908.

The preliminary work for harbor improvements will soon be started by the hydraulic dredge Dawson. The docks will be given a depth of twenty-four feet in order to accommodate any vessel that comes up the Potomac.

An improved chute had to be constructed to reach the loft over the stable owned by John Agnew to-day in order to reach a horse which had made its way into the loft and was unable to get out. Efforts to lead the animal down the steps were futile.

SHORT LENGTHS

Some people's idea of excitement—A game of chess.

"Doc White's song hit, entitled, 'Little Puff of Smoke, Good Night,' must recall July 4 and Reno to a number of those present at each performance.

Hans Wagner himself says that there is no truth in the stories that he is to be traded. The big Dutchman said he wanted to quit the game two years ago and only remained with the Pirates to help out Dreyfuss. Now we shall hear from Barney.

Maybe while he is in sunny Italy Connie Mack will organize an eight club league, to be used as a farm for the Athletics.

Public sentiment and the majority vote on the rules committee will prevent the tail from wagging the dog any longer in football.

Billy Clymer says he is not a candidate for the Eastern League presidency. Pat Powers will now breathe easier and proceed to keep both eyes on the turnstiles at the six-day grind.

King Cole, of the Cubs, will break into vandyville. If he gets past Oshkosh, Kalamazoo, and Oconomowoc, Cole will strike for the major league circuit.

There is no getting away from the fact that the baseball business is about the most precarious livelihood a man can engage in. Today he may be a star. Tomorrow he may find himself crippled, unable to place any value whatever on his ability.

INGRAM TO PLAY Y. M. C. A.

Team from Capitol Hill to Open Season with Terminal Quint.

Ingram Memorial Institute will open the season on its own floor, Tenth street and Massachusetts avenue northeast, to-morrow night with the strong Terminal Y. M. C. A. five, and the game should be hotly contested. The Ingram boys have been unfortunate so far, Capt. Plummer being out of the game probably for the remainder of the season, having been operated on for appendicitis, and "Country" Morris, one of the strongest defense men in the District, is just recovering from a dislocated shoulder.

Physical Director Haas is not in the least discouraged, and feels that by the first of the year he will have one of the strongest aggregations in the District. On Saturday, December 17, the West Branch Y. M. C. A., of Baltimore, will play at Ingram.

Spalding's Athletic Primer Out.

The latest addition to Spalding's Athletic Library has just made its appearance in the shape of an athletic primer, edited by James E. Sullivan, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union. This book is the most complete of its kind ever issued, and will be a great boon to all connected in any way with athletic activities. Complete instructions, invaluable to those who contemplate holding an athletic meeting and are not thoroughly acquainted with the proper methods of so doing, are given in a special article. The book is really dedicated to William B. Curtis, father of American athletics, his picture being published in the front of the book. The early history of athletics in the United States forms an interesting chapter.

Basket-ball at Y. M. C. A.

At the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to-morrow night in a twelve game the Y. M. C. A. Rogers will line up against the Y. M. C. A. Regulars. The game will start at 8:30. Before the basket-ball game and during the intermission two of the best teams that could be chosen from among the enthusiasts of volley-ball will play. One team will represent the morning class and the other the clerks and graded evening classes. Line-up of basket-ball teams:

Y. M. C. A. Rogers—Frazier and Mulloy, left forwards; Miller, center; right forwards; Thomson, Miller, left guard; Hope, right guard. Y. M. C. A. Regulars—Strassburg and Hall, left forwards; Hanna and Howe, right forwards; center; McKay and Drennon, left guards; McDonald and Albene, right guards.

CRACK DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES—NO. 3.

George H. Hamilton, son of Charles A. Hamilton, of 1032 Lament street northwest, of Central High School, has an enviable athletic record. George is eighteen years old, stands five feet eleven and one-half inches, and weighs 173 pounds. His schoolmates have not given him a nickname, and he is called plain George. Hamilton has made a name for himself on the track as well as the gridiron, winning his letter in both. In his first year at school he showed his ability on the track, but too heavy for him, but he made it in his second year, under the coaching of "Tom" Kirby. His track record since he has been in school is one which any runner should be proud of. He was picked by all four of the papers this fall for half back position on the all-high school eleven.

Hamilton has been elected captain of the football eleven again for next year by a unanimous vote. He was captain of the championship eleven this year, and he made it a factor in bringing the bunting and the O Street School. He is counted on for a number of points to the track team in the spring meet next year, as he is a fine sprinter and can travel some in the middle-distance events. He showed his ability at Convention Hall in the indoor meet last year, and it was his running that landed Central first place honors.

Hamilton graduates in 1912, and his loss to the track and gridiron will be severely felt. Hamilton did most of the punting for the Blue and White school in the gridiron battles. His ability on the track was a big factor in the dual meet with the Episcopal High School last year. He does not play baseball, but should be try his hand at the diamond sport, it is predicted that he would shine. Hamilton is a natural leader, and one of the most popular boys at Central. He is planning to enter the University of Virginia after he graduates from the local school.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Router, who is one of the mainstays on the Central track team, has not been out of late, as he hurt his leg. Coach Foley expects to have him on soon. The advisory marks go in to-day and some of the leading basket tossers may be out of their team's line up until they get down and "bone" for the semester "country." Morris will get back to the basket tossing game Saturday when he plays his first game of the season with the Ingram Memorial Church team against the strong Carroll Institute five. Dr. Hudson has started a boxing class at Business High School and all the boys are taking to it like a duck does to water. Some first-class bouts are pulled every week. The Rhode Island avenue school Central will enter one of the largest track teams in its history in the first indoor meet. The O streeters are out to defend the title they gained on the track in past seasons. Coach Foley has all the men going good.

If any high school roller skating races are pulled off this winter, Business, which won the high school championship race this year at the Arcade skating rink when it first opened. Varela, who is captain of the Eastern High School basketball team, may spring a surprise on the other high schools this coming season. From reports a lot of new material will be seen when the team goes out for their spring practice. Blaine Mallan, upon whom the Western High School depended much in the basket-tossing line, this is something the Blacksmiths have never had, although they have a few players who are ranked among the top notchers in the basket-tossing game.

Tanner, captain of the Western track team, is putting up a great game at forward for the basket-ball outfit. He has his hands full playing basket-ball and handling the track team. Curley Byrd may make him quit the basket-tossing game. Ligon was elected captain of the Eastern High School basket-ball team for this season. He has some fine material on hand, and with a little luck should make a good showing in the interhigh school games. The team plays its first game Friday, when they meet the Georgetown Preps in the Eastern High gymnasium.

Scott, who decided at the first part of the season that he would not be seen on the floor tossing baskets this year, but when the first game was played he was right on the job. This is a great boost to the Business five as they needed a good man in center. Scott played this position on the championship quint last season.

Eastern and Business meet in the first of the series of the inter-high school basket-ball games next Tuesday. Both teams are in good condition and a fast game can be expected. Business has played one game while the Capitol Hill boys play their first game to-day when they line up against the Georgetown Preps.
