She spent the week-ends with her mother last year, and will probably do the same this year, so long as Mrs. Babcock remains in feeble health. She has been ill this week, and Mrs. Sherman will not return before next Tuesday.

Miss Helen Taft will go to Baltimore to-day for a round of entertainments planned for her honor, and attend the first Monday German, next Monday evening, when the forty or more debutantes in Baltimore's smart circle will make their first bows to society. Hilton several years ago in New York. He is a son of the late Judge Hilton, of New York.

Mrs. Theodore H. Tiller will be at home on Fridays during the season in her apartments at the Dresden.

Mrs. Frank Chisholm spent the early part of the week in Baltimore as the guest of Mrs. Frank Martin.

Mme. Camperio, wife of Lieut. Filippo Camperio, who was formerly Miss Eleanor Terry, was seen at the opera in New York on Tuesday evening, and much admired. Col. George Barnett, U. S. M. C., has taken an apartment at the Clinton in Philadelphia for the winter, where he will be joined by Mrs. Barnett shortly. SMART SET ATTENDS Riding Club of Capital Gives Unique Entertainment.

CHRISTMAS GREENS EVIDENCED

Large Tanbark Ring Presents Attractive Appearance and Horses Are Not Forgotten in Decorations. Smart Company Enjoys Tea Served in Clubrooms on Second Floor.

A unique entertainment was given yesterday when the Riding Club of Washington threw open its doors for a tea to its members and their friends, from 4 until 7 o'clock. This was in the form of a preliminary inspection, the formal opening to be held later in the month. Society looked on as some something new in the way of entertainment, and not only the "horse" set but society generally manifested great interest in the new club. The large tanbark ring presented an attractive appearance, the galleries being decorated with Christmas greens.

Not were the horses forgotten in the decorations, their stall posts being trimmed with wheat and red braided running in and out. Straw mats were laid in the aisles.

Mr. Eno engaged the services of Benjamin F. McCullough, Capt. Cheney, Capt. Vassiloff, Commander Reitzmann, Admiral and Mrs. Holliday, Mr. Edgecomb-Remdie, Miss Hammond, Col. and Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. Bowen, Miss Isabel Wells, Miss Alexander, Col. Symons, Capt. PORTRAYS CHRIST ON STAGE.

New Bernhardt Play Startles New York Theatregoers.

New York, Dec. 8.—Mme. Bernhardt produced for the first time in this city at the Globe Theater this afternoon Edmond Rostand's Biblical play, "La Samaritaine." That the play has not until this year found its way to the English-speaking stage is not hard to understand. In this country playgoers are stirred to comment by the mere intimation of the presence of Christ. In "La Samaritaine" Christ and His apostles appear on the stage. Christ not only brings about the conversion of the woman of evil life, but performs miracles in plain view.
