

Marquette League Completes Circuit--Naval Medicos to Enter

NAVAL MEDICOS TO ENTER MARQUETTE LEAGUE FRIDAY

Manager Collier's Team to Be Admitted at Next Meeting. Commissioners Anticipate Banner Year.

By C. W. SWAN.
The Naval Medical School baseball team will enter the Marquette League at the meeting called for Friday night at the Center Market Armory.

By dint of the untiring efforts of Capt. Edwards, the league's roster is now practically completed and all that is necessary is the formal admittance to the circuit, which will take place at the next meeting.

In speaking of the Naval Medicos Capt. Edwards said: "The team will be admitted Friday night and we are contemplating ourselves on securing such a strong nine to complete our circuit."

The league will be considerably strengthened by the acquisition of the Medicos, as they have played three games this season and have won all of them, defeating Central High, Georgetown Reserve, and the Army and Navy Prep. All of the games were won by a good margin and the Medicos were never in danger.

Yoho, the Medicos' star slab artist, will do the bulk of the box work, with Capt. Snider and McIntire as best hitters, and Watson as the best receiver in amateur ranks in the District, will be behind the bat for the Medicos, while Hayden, Robinson, Lawrence, and Snider will guard the mound.

The outfield will be in charge of seasoned veterans, Savage and Burton, cracks from the U. S. S. Minnesota, and the king pin of them all, "Dope" Kerr. The extensive schedule arranged by the Medicos' hustling manager, W. V. Collier, will be played out until May 1, when the league season commences, and the remaining games of the schedule will be played when they do not conflict with a league game.

Manager Collier is confident of making a good showing in the Marquette circuit, showing Aloysius as the best pitcher should bring the flag to the Hospital team.

Though no meeting of the Capital City League was held last evening, it was learned from a reliable source that the league is contemplating having a four-club circuit during the coming season.

The difficulty which is attending the organization of the circuit as a result of the fact that Aloysius still holds a franchise, which they will not use, but is caused by the weakness of the St. Stephen's organization, the impossibility of being able to admit a team in place of Aloysius which would have the necessary strength to hold their own with the other fast teams which are already members.

The plan as presented, effecting a four-club circuit, provides for the purchase of the franchise now held by St. Stephen's, allowing Aloysius to play the games, which will have to be placed on the schedule.

The league will meet Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at President Gibson's office in the Century Building when the course which will be followed will be agreed upon.

Will Handlowe, who has been representing at the District League meetings the Commissioners' team, which will be affiliated with the District League this season, said yesterday that he fully expected that his team would be right up among the topnotchers at the time when the curtain is rung down on the schedule of the District Baseball League.

"There is the utmost enthusiasm manifested among the players of our team," said Mr. Handlowe, "and with the men whom we have correlated it is quite certain that we will have a team of baseballers capable of giving the best of them a hard run for the money."

Improvements will be made upon the playing field at Grant circle, New Hampshire avenue and Uppass street, Petworth, and provision made for the erection of suitable accommodations for the spectators. The adoption of a schedule and appointment of an umpire are other affairs which will engage the attention of the league.

"Lefty" Cleveland, well-known among the baseball fraternity of this city, has been mentioned as a probable selection for the position of umpire, and will make the league a good man if appointed.

If the qualifications of the candidates count for anything, the Ingram Memorial Church baseball team will give a good account of itself in the Sunday School League this year.

Ligon of Eastern High, "Boots" Walters, of the champion Washington Herald nine, and Elmer Smith, of the crack Olympia A. C., will do the twirling for the Tenth streets, and also Smith, who will be remembered as the twirler who pitched the newspaper nine to victory in the Commercial League last season by winning a no-hitter from the S. E. Y. M. C. A., that decided the championship.

Goebel and Parker will do the back stopping for the church boys. In the infield Manager Adams has Leland, of Eastern High School; Jack Dodge, of Business High School; Varela, of Eastern; Thornton Allen, and Capt. Cassidy, of the Olympia A. C., and Tipton and Crabbe, of the O. A. C.

THE VALUE OF COACHING.

Teamwork on the diamond is nothing but a combination of knowledge and ability. Its value cannot be estimated in figures. With it we have everything; without it, nothing.

One reason teamwork is hard to attain is because it requires both of the necessities enumerated. Neither will not do. Any number of players possess physical ability, but through inexperience are lacking in knowledge of the game's fine points. If told to make a play, they can execute it beautifully, but they do not possess that initiative which is shown by unhesitating execution. Plays arise that call for instinctive action, which comes only from experience.

It is hard to say which is the more valuable, physical ability or knowledge. The man with ability has the best chance, as he can acquire knowledge if he is a thinker, but the veteran with the knowledge has little chance to develop ability that is lacking. His day is gone.

Many big league players are retained because of the knowledge they possess. They may not be so fast as some of the youngsters, but they can direct plays in a way that would not occur to less experienced men.

To illustrate this I mention the case of Harry Steinfield, the Cub third baseman. Harry may not be so fast as he was ten years back, but Manager Chance will go a long way before he can get a man who understands the game's fine points as well as Steinfield. With him on third the infield has confidence that a play in his territory will be made as it should be. They know he will do the right thing at the right time, and will assist in carrying out any play that may be started across the diamond.

An inexperienced pitcher, when on third would cause so much anxiety that the pitcher's progress of the whole machine would be impaired.

Teamwork in baseball is the same as teamwork in any other business. What cooperation could succeed unless the men understand each other and worked together.

JABS AND JOLTS.

Johnny Dohan, the New York welter-weight, defeated Jack Smith in a hard ten-round bout at the North End Athletic Club, of Albany, on Monday night.

Billy Reynolds has taken the management of Jimmy Toland and wants to match him against any feather-weight in the country.

Billy Corcoran, of Pittsburg, manager of Mike Schroek, thinks that Carl Morris is a fighter of great promise.

Young Sammy Smith, the clever Philadelphia pugilist, easily out-pointed "Fighting Dick" Hyland, the California lad, in the star bout of ten rounds at the Olympic Athletic Club Tuesday night. Smith's extreme cleverness gave him the victory, for he rained an endless variety of punches on his antagonist.

Boston fight fans are enthusiastic today in their praise of Charlie Smith, of Philadelphia. Substituted at the last minute to meet Kid Alberts, of New York, Monday night, he made the Gotham lad extend himself to the last ounce to get a draw decision.

Because he misstepped, a battle with Johnny Coulin, in New Orleans recently, the chances of Frankie Burns, the Jersey fighter, getting the Chicago man into six rounds at the New York ring are mighty small, according to "Pop" Coulon. Coulon declared Western men are given cool receptions in the East, and when this is coupled with the dilatory tactics of the challenger, the hope of a match fades.

Daddy Roche wants to match Walter McDonald with any 105-pound boy. He recently boxed the semi-final of the World-Walsh-Matt Wells fight in England.

Mike Tutts has matched his protegee, Jack Donaldson, with Sailor Davis for six rounds in one of the bouts at the Whitebird A. C. on Friday night. Donaldson is said to be a comer.

Tommy Maloney, the light-weight of the West Side, will don the gloves again shortly. He was recently defeated by Jimmy Johnson, matchmaker of the Fairmont Athletic Club, to meet Jack Jordan, of the Bronx, in a ten-round bout at the special weekly stag of the club, which will take place on next Saturday night. This will be Jordan's first battle in several months.

Tommy Ryan, the retired middle-weight champion, has taken another fighter under his management whom he claims will develop into a great middle-weight in another year. The fighter is Howard Marrow, of Syracuse, who has already won several battles. Ryan has matched Marrow to meet Paddy Lavin, of Roxbury, for six rounds at a show to take place in Syracuse within ten days.

The six-round bout between Frank Klaus, of Pittsburg, and Jimmy Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., which was slated to be fought at the Duquesne Garden in Pittsburg tonight, has been postponed until April 11. Gardner asked for the week's postponement because he was arrested after his recent bout in Dover and consequently could not get into condition in time to fight Klaus.

Frankie Burns, the Jersey City bantam-weight, who put up a good fight against Abe Attell at the National Sporting Club on last Friday night, was matched today to meet Tommy Houck, of Philadelphia, for fifteen rounds before the Washington Athletic Club, on New Haven Court, on April 21. Charley Griffin and Benny Ford will also box fifteen rounds at the same show.

The members of the National Sporting Club, New York City, will get a line on a new English "phenom" tonight when Joe Brooks, who is better known as the "English Bearcat," clashes with Charlie Griffin, the Australian champion, in a great showing in his training work, and will play Georgetown here on Saturday.

Handlowe, who has been representing at the District League meetings the Commissioners' team, which will be affiliated with the District League this season, said yesterday that he fully expected that his team would be right up among the topnotchers at the time when the curtain is rung down on the schedule of the District Baseball League.

ROSA TAKES MATCH.

Last night at the Lamb's Club, 397 Ninth street northwest, Rosa, defeated Strasburger, 100 to 82, in the seventh game of the pool tournament now in progress at the club.

One of the largest crowds that has ever thronged these popular clubrooms was in attendance last night. The match was exciting and hot, and went until the last frame was played, when Rosa walked away from Strasburger.

To-night Johnson meets Lower, and as the cue handlers are evenly matched, a good game is looked forward to.

TRIS SPEAKER ILL.

May Be Out of Opening Game This Season.
Special to The Washington Herald.
Topeka, Kans., April 5.—Tris Speaker, star outfielder of the Boston Americans, left for Boston to-day seriously ill, and may not be able to play in the opening game Wednesday.

While Speaker's illness is not of a nature which will incapacitate him for an extended period, Patry Donovan may have to use a substitute in his outfield for a few games.

Tommy Maloney, the light-weight of the West Side, will don the gloves again shortly. He was recently defeated by Jimmy Johnson, matchmaker of the Fairmont Athletic Club, to meet Jack Jordan, of the Bronx, in a ten-round bout at the special weekly stag of the club, which will take place on next Saturday night. ### Germany's Great Standing Army —is not only strong numerically, but PHYSICALLY as well. This is due largely to the fact that Germany is a BEER-DRINKING nation. Her sturdy sons are among the world's finest types of manhood. From childhood their bodies are nourished and strengthened by the use of good, pure beer, such as this company's "Diamond" and "Munich" Beers.

(LIGHT) (DARK)
These noted beers are exact counterparts of the finest German brews—pure, wholesome, and healthful in the highest degree. Try them in your home.

The prospects are that Griffin, who is noted for his mix-up ability, will be carried along at a terrific pace.

Ruby Tinkler's "tin ear" is not going to keep him from meeting Tommy Moore in St. Joseph, Mo., Friday night. The little boxer's friends tried to prevent him from going West until his head trouble had passed, but the South African batter didn't like to see a fat purse slip.

Will Play Georgetown Here on Saturday.
Hanover, N. H., April 5.—The Dartmouth baseball squad, number one in the East, will leave here to-morrow morning and will play Andover at Melford, Mass., to-morrow afternoon. Immediately after the game the team will leave for Washington, where they will open the Southern series with Georgetown University on Saturday. The Andover game was scheduled to be played at Andover, but the diamond there is snowed under.

Prokes Disqualified.
In a handicap match at the Lyceum Theater last night Jim Prokes was disqualified for using a strange hold. The match was awarded to Joe Grant, the Washington politician.

Sailor Burke Trims Mitten.
New York, April 5.—Sailor Burke had an easy time of it when he beat Jim Mitchell in the third round at the Long Acre Athletic Club. After a minute of fighting in the round the referee stopped the bout, saving Mitchell from an imminent knockout.

Indiana Win from Lehigh.
Bethlehem, Pa., April 5.—The Carlisle Indians with ease defeated the lacrosse team of Lehigh University to-day, 7 to 1.

Reliable Laxative for Old People Given Free

Life is so arranged that there is a close resemblance between infancy and old age. By this is not meant the mental, but the physical faculties. For example, the organ of digestion is the most difficult thing the child has to contend with, as it is that of the old person.

When a person gets past middle life his power of digestion decreases, and consequently so many old people are habitually constipated. They try everything recommended, from hot water to strong cathartics, without avail. Now, if there is any one thing a person of advanced years should not take it is a cathartic. The bowels cannot stand it. What is required is a mild, gentle, non-gripping liquid laxative.

You have it exactly as required in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which stands to-day, after a generation, as the ideal remedy for old people, women, children, and all others who require a mild, natural remedy. We could give the names of thousands of old people who use nothing else but Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, among them Mr. A. Lewis, of Bentonville, Ark., and Mr. Enos Gilpin, of Danville, Ill.

They first sent to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle, which every reader is invited to do, and then, having tested it and found it satisfactory, they bought it of their druggist at 50 cents and 11 a bottle. Their words of public praise should prompt the present reader to at least send for a sample bottle. It costs nothing. Results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver, and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample, address him Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

"CY" YOUNG TELLS AMATEUR PLAYERS HOW TO MAKE GOOD

Eschew Beer and Tobacco if You Would Have Long Career.

Run and Walk Plenty, for It Means More Strength.

By the time the Nationals are playing out at American League Park the amateur leagues will be ready to begin their schedules. The Capital City and District League have vacancies to be filled, but there is a team ready in each instance. As there is a team already secured for the District organization, which will be admitted at the meeting called for Sunday morning at the Aloysius Club, that league is practically ready to start operations. The work on the park is nearly completed, and by the time the few minor matters of the new circuit are disposed of everything will be in readiness to begin the season.

SOME SOUND ADVICE FROM A VETERAN

Don't use tobacco or drink beer. Walk and run plenty; most players are too lazy. Use as few curves as possible. Pitch to the batter and rely on your support. Use the whole body in pitching—not the arm alone. Model your batting after some free, natural hitter.

claim immunity from its ill effects, but Cup's lost his arm after six years' work. He was a better pitcher than I.

"Last year I quit using tobacco. I had been an inveterate smoker for twenty years. But I took a last taste of it, put away my beloved pipe, and feel 25 per cent better for it. Tobacco, like liquor, affects men differently. Some it depresses, others it exhilarates. It depresses me, and I feel much better for having given it up.

Long in Fast Company.
"I have pitched longer in fast company than any other man. I think that I was blessed with naturally supple arm muscles and a free delivery. Then I used as few curves as I could. For fifteen years I relied mainly on a fast, straight ball that 'jumped—that is, shot up a little as it passed the batter. For the past several years this ball has not been so good with me. My speed has not been so great. I took to using a curve about six seasons ago. Once in a while I use a spitball. I have never used the drop, fade-aways, and other balls that are hard on the arm. I have been lucky in always having a good club behind me, and I have always relied upon the other eight men in the game. I have never tried to strike out a man in my life. I pitch him the best ball I know and trust to my fielders. He may strike out, but to make him do so is never part of my plan.

Youngsters Too Fickle.
"I have never ranked as a 'ficky' pitcher or a man who studied hitters. I do not rely much on tricks or stratagems, but do rely upon large general policies of pitching. I have believed in wasting few bats. I use speed and curve, and change of pace as the situation may dictate, and I do try to avoid giving a batter balls he likes. But on the whole, I am conservative. I believe in the good old way, good speed, good control, and pitch to
