JAP AND HIS WHITE BRIDE MAKE MERRY AT BANQUET

Ice Cream and Beer and Plenty of Music Make Things Hum for Mr. and Mrs. Sadaske Fujita—Sailors and Marines Among the Guests.

A treaty of peace and love for life was entered into yesterday between a son of the land of the Mikado and a daughter of Uncle Sam at the modest two-story dwelling at 817 L street southeast, the home of Sadaske Fujita, the Japanese steward of the yacht Dolphin.

The young woman who became the wife of the Japanese was Miss Zaida M. Striker, an eighteen-year-old girl of the southeast section. She obtained the marriage license yesterday at the City Hall, where she said that she and Sadaske had been friends for four years, that she was an orphan, and that he had been so good to her that she decided to marry him.

The ceremony was performed yesterday afternoon by Rev. B. F. Crawford, Fujita came from Japan when a boy, and has been in Uncle Sam's navy nearly twenty years.

There were big doings last night at the L street house, where the wedding feast was celebrated. The ice cream wagon rolled up and discharged its sweet cargo; the beer wagon drove up and the liquid was carried in; the musicians arrived, and in a few minutes there were shouts of laughter and song, and the dance was on, and Mr. and Mrs. Fujita were being congratulated. The whole neighborhood were guests, and there were a number of sailors and marines in evidence.

NABBED IN CONNECTION WITH W. U. FORGERY CASE

Reeves Wood, a Telegrapher, Informs Detectives Thomas J. Wynn Told Him of Fleecing Company.

Detectives Howlett and Pratt yesterday afternoon arrested Reeves Wood, alias Reeves E. Hood, a telegrapher, at the MacLennan Hotel, 217 Thirteenth street northwest, in connection with the charge of forgery against Thomas J. Wynn, who is supposed to be in Canada.

At police headquarters Wood was questioned concerning what he knew of the affair. He told Inspector Boardman that he met Wynn in F street, near Fourteenth street, the day Wynn left Washington, about two weeks ago. He said Wynn told him his brother had given him $500 and asked him to go to Baltimore with him. Wood said he was accompanied by J. E. Duskun, another telegrapher, and the trio went to Baltimore. Before going Wood said that Wynn paid him $25 he had borrowed from him last February when he (Wynn) was married in Rockville.

Wood accompanied the pair to Baltimore and on the way over he says that Wynn told him he had "bunked" the Western Union Telegraph Company out of a sum of money. Wood did not think this was possible, and told him so. When the trio reached Baltimore Wood was separated from the other two and, after trying to find them for several hours, returned to Washington.

Wood is detained at the First precinct station.

Held for New York Police.
John Nelson Tolson, twenty-two years old, who gives his address as New York City, was arrested yesterday morning by Precinct Detectives Howes and Mendenhall at the First precinct on suspicion of having come into possession of jewelry by theft. The police say Tolson tried to pawn jewelry, and the pawnbroker, becoming suspicious, notified the police. The police say Tolson confessed he stole the jewelry from the home of his brother-in-law, Harry Salvin, 104 West 147th street, New York City. He is held for the New York authorities.

School-teacher Seeks Damages.
Mary A. Burns, a school-teacher, yesterday filed suit against the Anacostia and Potomac River Railroad Company for $10,000 damages for personal injury, alleging that October 22 last, while she was a passenger, the car gave a sudden lurch and threw her to the floor, dislocating her shoulder.

LABOR OFFICIALS TAKE UP FIGHT OF BUREAU WOMEN

Director Ralph Is Urged to Grant Salary Increase.

AID OF CONGRESSMEN

Conferences Held Daily with Union Sympathizers.

Better Wage Scale Will Also Be Asked for Engineers in Munsey Building—Sum of $500 Subscribed Toward Defense of Men Accused of Dynamiting Los Angeles Newspaper Plant—Plans for Big Parade.

Labor leaders in Washington have determined to take measures, radical, if necessary, to insure increased pay for the young women who act as plate printers' assistants at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, according to a statement made by Milton Snellings, president of the Central Labor Union, after a meeting in Typographical Temple last night.

Conferences with members of Congress are being held daily. The labor officials say they have planned a course of action, and will ask for a conference with Director Ralph, of the Bureau.

"The future attitude of the Central Labor Union will be determined by the conference," said Mr. Snellings. "While we do not expect a declaration of our request for increased wages for the women, it is likely the Central Labor Union will find some way of overcoming the difficulty."

Behind this statement, it is said, there is a demand by organized labor that the women receive what they term more adequate compensation. It is asserted by labor leaders that there are fifteen bona fide labor union men in Congress and four more Congressmen who have strong labor sympathies.

Aid Alleged Dynamiters.
Five hundred dollars has been subscribed by the Central Labor Union toward the defense of the men accused of complicity in the destruction of the Times Building in Los Angeles.

It has been decided, after a conference with a committee from the Engineers' Union, to demand an increase in wages for the engineers employed at the Munsey Building. The engineers, it is claimed, are demanding that they be paid their union wage scale.

Preparations are being made for the greatest Labor Day parade known in the history of Washington. Every union man will participate, and the old-time parade, with tradesmen exhibiting their drafts, will be surpassed.

Plans are being made for a banquet on June 1 in honor of the labor men in Congress. While the place has not yet been decided, the date is decided upon to fitly celebrate the birth of the American flag.

COOLER IN A FEW DAYS.

Several Heat Prostrations Reported to the Police.

The hot wave which has been general over the entire country east of the Rocky Mountains is about broken. Rains in several parts of the West promise to end the high temperature along the Atlantic seaboard. The Weather Bureau predicts a lower temperature by tomorrow. A number of prostrations were reported to the police last night.

Mrs. Mary Lee, thirty-five years old, of 329 Eleventh street northeast, was overcome in front of her home and fell to the pavement, receiving a slight cut on her head. She was sent to the Casualty Hospital, and later returned home.

About 7 o'clock last evening Emma Forest, colored, forty years old, was overcome at 421 P street northwest, and taken to the Homeopathic Hospital.

Thomas Walker, colored, twenty-two years old, was stricken while at work in a bottling establishment at 1312 Wylie street northeast, and was taken to Casualty Hospital.

About 11 o'clock yesterday morning August Torrence, forty-eight years old, of 118 D street northeast, was taken to Emergency Hospital from Seventh and Pennsylvania avenue. He had fallen to the pavement.

Police-men found Vincent Myers, colored, forty years old, lying in Thirteenth street. He was sent to Casualty Hospital.

Two other prostrations were reported from Emergency Hospital last night. They were Charles Lincoln and Charles Briscoe, colored.

Utica, May 22.—All known heat records for the month of May in this section were smashed to-day when the thermometer registered 94 degrees at 4 o'clock this afternoon. In the sun the mercury went to 112. Several cases of prostration occurred during the day.

Schenectady, N. Y., May 22.—This town is sweltering in the grip of a hot wave of unprecedented fierceness for May. The mercury registered 94 degrees in the shade at 3 o'clock this afternoon. There were three cases of heat prostration.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Earnest H. Robertson Says Father Authorized Checks.

Charged with having passed a worthless check for $45 on William P. Allen, of 428 Tenth street northwest, Earnest H. Robertson, of 119 N. York avenue northeast, was arrested yesterday by Detectives Evans and O'Dea.

Robertson is alleged to have passed two checks on Allen, one for $20 and another for $25, using his father's name. Robertson says his father, who is now in Panama, authorized him to draw on him.

Temperature certificate that you will possess until some day you go with some healthy young American to the county clerk and get a marriage license, and judging from looks, I expect all of you will receive orders to congratulate you for graduating at all and I wish you much joy.

Speaker Clark was visibly embarrassed when one of the young women met him as he descended from the platform and presented a huge bouquet of flowers. He remarked that he hoped the young women did not think he had been fishing.

Members of the faculty delighted those present with an attractive musical program. Thomas E. Greene responded to several encores. The piano solos by Felix Garziglia were enthusiastically received. A recitation from Kipling by Mrs. Glennie Thoms was pleasing.

Those to receive diplomas were Rosa De Henzley, Mary Lewis Berry, Mary Almyra Bowen, Grace Louise Browne, Edith Odile Dowdell, Letitia Mae Henry, Isabella Ewing Hill, Marguerite Marie Iling, Estyl Marie Inman, Adelaide M. John, Anna Louise Keller, Sallie Josephine Lentz, Marjorie Mayo, Elizabeth Myrtle Morgan, Margaret Louise Oliphant, Gladys Alma Potter, Clayton Melanle Tilles, Italia West, and Irma Zinsmeister.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, Monday, May 22-8 a. m.

The indications are that there will be showers Tuesday and Wednesday, with the latter State Tuesday, the Ohio and Upper Mississippi valleys, and the Lake region. Showers are also possible Thursday in the Northern Plains States and the Northern Rocky Mountain region, followed by fair weather in those districts Wednesday.

The weather is generally fair Tuesday and Wednesday in the Southern Plains States, the West Gulf States, and the Southern Rocky Mountain and Colorado regions. In the Atlantic States the weather will be generally fair Tuesday and Wednesday, although conditions are favorable for scattered thunder showers.

MERRITT ORDERS PROBE OF STATION B AFFAIRS; FOREMAN UNDER FIRE

Letter Carriers in Capitol Hill Branch Charge W. B. Dent with Making Conditions Unbearable—Five Postmen Shifted "for Good of Service."

There is trouble brewing over in Station B, Capitol Hill branch of the Washington City Post-office. Foreman W. B. Dent, head of the carrier force for that section, is to be investigated. The carriers are up in arms. They charge that Foreman Dent has been overworking them and showing a lack of consideration so patently that the conditions in Station B have become unbearable.

There are forty-five carriers attached to the station force. Of this number thirty-seven met in conference. They had under consideration the treatment they were receiving at the hands of the foreman, and decided to enter a written protest. They then appointed a committee of five of their party to present a petition to Postmaster Norman A. Merritt. This the six carriers did.

A week passed, and then came from the main city post-office orders transferring five of the six men to duty in other sections of the city. These transfers are not to the liking of the five involved. They say they simply obeyed the request of their fellow-carriers in taking the petition to Postmaster Merritt. They regard the transfers as a punishment which is undeserved. They feel that because they were the bearers of the written complaint they are being treated as though they were ringleaders in an effort to stir up trouble.

Postmaster Merritt last night denied the transfers were in the nature of a punishment or even a rebuke to the carriers. "They were transferred for the good of the service," said Mr. Merritt.

Mr. Merritt said he had instituted an investigation of Foreman Dent's conduct of the business of the station force. He said he was going to the bottom of the trouble, if trouble existed, and that it was not the intention of the Post-office Department to permit tyranny to go unpunished or to permit petty officials to mistreat their inferiors.

TOOK POISON ON MAY 8; DIED YESTERDAY MORNING

Mrs. Matilda M. Rorick Lives Fourteen Days After Taking Dose of Poison—Coroner Gives Verdict.

Mrs. Matilda M. Rorick, thirty-eight years old, who has been living with her sister at 12 Third street southeast for the last two months, died yesterday morning from the effects of poison taken on May 8. The case was not reported to the police at the time. She was attended by the family physician, and was unconscious for nearly thirty-six hours before taking the drug. After she had fallen she was apparently over the effects of the poison until two days ago, when she was taken ill with what appeared to be pneumonia, and sank rapidly.

Coroner Nevitt issued a certificate of death by suicide.

ENJOY LIFE WHEN YOUNG, SPEAKER TELLS GRADUATES

Champ Clark Presents Diplomas at Chevy Chase Seminary and Gives Characteristic Speech.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House, delivered one of his characteristic speeches last night before the graduating class of Chevy Chase College and Seminary. He told the young women to enjoy life while they are young.

"In case you should tire of the ordinary pleasures of life," he said, "come up to the Capitol next week when we take up the wool schedule, and I promise you a warmer time than we are having here to-night."

He said he understood that Heinz advertised fifty-seven varieties, but that he had nothing on Washington, for in the city there are sixty-nine schools and seminaries of one kind or another for young ladies. He said there used to be fifty-seven kinds of Democrats at the Capitol, but that now there was only one kind, and that was the Republican.

He said he had nothing to say to the graduates, but that he had a better looking bunch than that crowd in Congress.

In presenting the diplomas, Speaker Clark said: "Girls, this is the most important certificate that you will possess until some day you go with some healthy young American to the county clerk and get a marriage license, and judging from looks, I expect all of you will receive orders to congratulate you for graduating at all and I wish you much joy."

Speaker Clark was visibly embarrassed when one of the young women met him as he descended from the platform and presented a huge bouquet of flowers. He remarked that he hoped the young women did not think he had been fishing.

SOCIETY HONORS J. M. DICKINSON

Southerners Regret Departure from Capital.

SISSON'S ELOQUENT ADDRESS

Representative Pays Grand Tribute to Patriots of Dixie Folk and Tells of Facts in History Never Recorded—Each State to Be Represented by a Vice President.

The Southern Society of Washington paid tribute last night to its first president, J. M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War, at its final meeting before the summer vacation at the Confederate Memorial Hall, 122 Vermont avenue northwest, by adopting resolutions of profound regret that he is leaving Washington and thanking him for his faithful services.

A committee, composed of Lawrence Washington, Milton W. Johnson, and Dr. Gustavus Werber, was appointed to convey the resolutions to Mr. Dickinson, and request him to allow his name remain as president of the society until next fall, when new officers will be elected.

States Eloquent Address.
Senator Thornton, of Louisiana, who was elected a vice president of the society last night, presided, and introduced Representative Thomas Upton Sisson, who made an eloquent address on the history of the South. He paid a grand tribute to the patriotism of its people and said they did their full share in purchasing the flag of our country with their blood and placed the work of Andrew Jackson's riflemen in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Bill Phillips' long ride from Washington to the South to inform Gen. Jackson that war had been declared with England in 1812 was mentioned as a feat of valor that had never been properly recorded. Other facts mentioned were that Thomas Jefferson started the cultivation of wheat in this country by bringing it over from France, secreted in his clothing, and that he also brought rice from Italy and started its cultivation in South Carolina.

Mr. Sisson said that in 1860 all the taxable property in the United States was listed as $72,000,000,000, and that half of this amount was listed against the South. The musical programme included vocal solos by Mrs. Nellie Shinn, readings by Percy C. Bowen, and piano selections by John Porter Lawrence.

Two Already Selected.
By constitutional amendment the society will have a vice president representing each Southern State. Champ Clark and Senator Thornton are the only vice presidents yet selected. The committee which will recommend the candidates is composed of Lawrence Washington, Creed M. Fulton, and Maj. Holmes Conrad.

A plan was adopted to work for a substantial increase in membership during the summer. Members elected in the last night are: Representative W. G. Brantley, of Georgia; Representative R. F. Hobson, of Alabama; Representative T. U. Sisson, of Mississippi; Representative R. W. Austin and Mrs. Austin, of Tennessee; Representative Finis Garrett and Mrs. Garrett, of Tennessee; Rev. E. M. Schaefer, of Washington; Maj. R. W. Hunter, of Virginia; Dr. William Taylor Snyder, of Washington; Prof. A. P. Bourl and Prof. William Rosa, of Tennessee; Miss Regina McGowan, of Washington; Miss Mary B. Thornton, of Virginia; W. K. Carr, of North Carolina; Senator J. R. Thornton, of Louisiana; R. F. White, of Louisiana; Claude N. Bennett, of Georgia; Mrs. Gertrude M. Brantley, of Virginia; Bradt, of Virginia; E. C. R. Humphries, of Virginia; Miss Naomi B. Washington and Mrs. B. B. Washington, of Virginia; Judge J. C. Clendenen, of Georgia; Miss Anne S. Green, of Virginia; Representative H. M. Jacoway, of Arkansas; L. B. Biffe, of Arkansas; Senator Leroy S. Underwood, of Mississippi; G. Emery, of Georgia, and A. J. McKelvey, A. R. Chalmers, A. G. Staples, and Mrs. Edward Cohen, of Virginia.
