FLOWERS WILL BE STREWN ON CONFEDERATES' GRAVES

Patriotic Societies to Pay Tribute to Dead at Unveiling of Southern Cross To-morrow Afternoon in Arlington Cemetery.

Confederate Decoration Day will be observed by Southern people living in Washington to-morrow afternoon, when the Confederate veterans, their sons and daughters and friends will go to Arlington, there to place flowers on the graves of the Confederate soldiers.

The exercises, which will be held in that section of Arlington Cemetery known as Confederate section, will begin at 4 o'clock. Senator Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, will make the memorial address. The programme includes singing and music. Capt. J. M. Hickey will preside. In addition to the strewing of flowers on the graves, the grave of the "unknown," which contains the remains of many soldiers picked up off the battlefields, will be suitably decorated.

Another beautiful custom which will be observed will be the unveiling of the Southern cross, a large floral design, in memory of Confederate soldiers. A number of young women arrayed in white, with red sashes, will take part, furnishing the figure of the Southern cross, and thus presenting a scene unique and beautiful.

Many distinguished persons connected with Southern organizations will be present, including Mrs. Virginia Paulkner McHenry, president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Arrangements for the exercises are in the hands of a joint committee from Camp No. 17, Confederate Veterans, R. E. Lee, Stonehill Jackson Dixie, Beauregard, Albert Sidney Johnston, and Southern Cross chapters of Daughters of the Confederacy, and Washington Camp No. 105, United Sons of Confederate Veterans. Organizations in Virginia and Maryland have been invited to attend.

"Every man in America will buy it with a guffaw and every woman with a blush and a giggle."

Senator and Mrs. Clapp Announce Engagement of Their Daughter Ella—New Ambassador from Brazil Will Arrive Here To-day.

Senator and Mrs. Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ella, to Dr. Roy D. Adams, of this city.

No date has been set for the wedding. Mrs. Clapp went home in the early spring after spending the winter here, as usual. She was joined a few weeks ago by Miss Clapp, who had deferred the announcement of the engagement until she reached home. She is well known in Washington, where she has spent her winters with her parents since the senator's election. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, and is active in the college and younger set of society in St. Paul. Dr. Adams is one of the best known young bachelors in Washington's professional as well as social circles.

Mr. John Barrett entertained at a theater party last evening for the Mexican Ambassador, Senor Zamacona, who will retire from this post within a few weeks. His successor, Senor Crespo, who has not set the time for his arrival, will come here from Vera Cruz, and will be joined by his wife and their large family of children, from Vienna.

The charge d'affaires of Brazil, Mr. de Lima e Silva, and the members of the embassy staff went to New York yesterday afternoon to meet the new Ambassador, Senor da Gama, who will arrive in New York this morning from Argentina, where he has been Minister.

He will return with the members of the staff either this evening or Sunday morning. It will be interesting to society in Washington, where he will play an important part, to know that he is a bachelor.

Mrs. Nagel, wife of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, left Washington yesterday for their summer home at Marlon, Mass., with the members of the family. The Secretary will return here and join his family again later in the summer for his vacation.

The Commissioner of the District and Mrs. Cuno H. Rudolph have gone to Shawnee-on-Deleware, where they are spending some time at the Buckwood Inn.

Miss Martha Harrison, daughter of Maj. Russell Harrison, went to West Point Thursday for the June ball and graduating exercises, chaperoned by Mrs. Blunt, widow of Col. Mason Blunt, U. S. A. Mrs. Harrison will leave this morning for Atlantic City with her cousin, Miss Frances Saunders, for a visit of a week or more before going to her home in Omaha for a time.

The Chinese Minister and Mrs. Chang will leave to-day for the University of Pennsylvania, where the Minister will make an address at the commencement exercises. They will not return to Washington, but will continue to Garrison-on-Hudson, where they will spend the summer, and where they will be joined shortly by the members of the legation staff.

The house party of Miss Doris Hayward, composed of Miss Ellen Culver and Misspinner Barr and Misspinner Charles Curry, both of this year's graduation class at Annapolis, have all returned to their homes.

Churches Needed in West, He Says

Rev. R. B. Peery Addresses Lutheran Synod. OPPORTUNITIES POINTED OUT

Denver Pastor Gives Stirring Recital of Conditions in West Section. Reception to Visiting Clergy Held, Following Service—President Taft Received 400 Delegates.

Declaring that the West is Godless and almost destitute of churches, Rev. R. B. Peery, of Denver, Colo., presented, in a strong and stirring address, "The Challenge of the West to the Lutheran Church of America" at the session last night of the forty-fifth convention of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church at Luther Place Memorial Church.

"The West is Godless and immoral," said the speaker. "It is a land where there are no ten commandments, and where the thirst for liquor is imbibed in the very atmosphere. When people go West they always drop their religion in the waters of the Mississippi."

Dr. Peery said the challenge of the West was four-fold—the challenge of its vastness, its resources, its strategic position, and its immorality. He said this field, which includes three-quarters of the territory of the country, is enormous, and offers great opportunities for the advance of religion.

Rev. George W. Enders, president of the Board of Home Missions, presided. Following the service a reception was held at the visiting clergy.

At the morning session, a resolution asking for $10,000 for Rev. S. Dougherty, stationed at Buenos Ayres, to enable him to carry on the work of the Lutheran mission in Brazil, was introduced by Rev. A. Stewart Hartman.

At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, 400 delegates were received at the White House by President Taft. The local committee on arrangements, composed of pastors of the Lutheran churches in Washington, was in charge of the reception.

LOCAL GOLFERS IN BALTIMORE

Four Washington Players Survive for To-day's Game.

Special to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, Md., June 8.—The second round of the open amateur golf tournament, which was played to-day on the links of the Baltimore Country Club, was marked by many exciting plays. One of the most interesting contests of the afternoon was the match between J. L. H. Smith, Jr., of the Baltimore Country Club, and M. E. Danforth, of the Columbia Country Club. Danforth had his opponent closely pressed all over the course, but lost out in the end to Smith, one up in nineteen holes.

The Washington players who participated in the first day of the tournament yesterday were as follows:

Columbia Country Club—John C. Davidson, R. Lee, William H. Johnson, G. Burman, Otto Leubert, D. K. Jackson, R. J. Beal, Jr., M. E. Danforth, A. S. Mastaglio, Dr. W. H. Harlan, Dr. L. L. Harlan, A. Winter, George F. James, Dr. E. W. O. Thatcher, and Ed. Harlan.

Country Club—Alex. Britton, Samuel Dail, and John H. Clapp. Hancock Golf Club—Dr. J. F. W. Brown. The record of the Washington players to-day was as follows:

MORNING ROUND. First sixteen—Davidson defeated Cockran, 1 up; Le. Harlan defeated W. C. Cary, 2 up; A. S. Mastaglio defeated Jenkins, 4 up and 3 to play.

Second sixteen—Lee defeated Elliott, 2 up and 1 to play; Danforth defeated Erik, 5 up and 4 to play.

Third sixteen—A. Winter defeated Ed. Harlan, 2 up and 1 to play; W. S. Harlan defeated Allen by default; John H. Clapp defeated McKeeth, 5 up and 2 to play.

Fourth sixteen—D. K. Jackson defeated Merton, 5 up and 4 to play.

AFTERNOON PLAY. First sixteen—Jenkins, 4 up and 3 to play; L. L. Harlan was defeated by W. Leubert, 3 up and 2 to play.

Third sixteen—Winter was defeated by Strang, 3 up and 1 to play; W. S. Harlan was defeated by Erik, 5 up and 4 to play.

Fifth sixteen—D. K. Jackson defeated Erik, 4 up and 2 to play; Leubert was defeated by Strang, 4 up and 3 to play.

In the consolation, Mattingly survived through a win over B. N. Cockran, by default in the first sixteen. Leubert was defeated in the second sixteen. In the third sixteen Ed. Harlan defeated Wilberlake, but Clapp was defeated by Timcox. In the fourth sixteen Thatcher survived by a 2 to 1 margin.

For to-morrow's play, John E. Davidson, D. K. Jackson, Ed. Harlan, and W. C. Thatcher, will participate. Maj. J. J. Morrow, formerly Engineer Commissioner of the District, is in attendance upon the tournament.

NED HARRIGAN BURIED.

Old-time Actors Attend Funeral of Performer.

New York, June 8.—The funeral of Edward Harrigan was held this morning from the Church of the Atonement, in 107th street.

That he was of the theatrical world of another day was evident from the attendance at his funeral. There were present many veterans, a number of whom probably are not known to the present generation of playgoers, but of the names of whom are familiar to Broadway there was practically no representation.

JOSE LEGASPI-VILLAFLORES.

The Catholic University of America has conferred the degree of "juris doctor" to Jose Legaspi-Villaflores, of the Philippines, after having presented a brilliant dissertation on international law.

Mr. Legaspi is a graduate master of law from Georgetown University, being the only one who passed the degree of doctor of law among thirteen candidates at Catholic University this year. The expected independence of his country induced him to cultivate international law. He will sail for Europe this summer to take a course on economics and political sciences before going to Manila to practice.

MAKING CANVASS FOR NEW BUILDING

Colored Y. M. C. A. Depends Upon $15,000 Fund.

Members of the finance committee of the Young Men's Christian Association met for luncheon at the Commercial Club yesterday, and considered the progress being made in the canvass for $15,000 to finish the colored branch of the Y. M. C. A. building. Conditions of the offer by Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago, of a gift of $15,000 toward the completion of the building, make it necessary for the committee to finish the campaign by June 25. But two-fifths of the needed amount has been subscribed.

The newly organized committee includes John C. Letts, chairman; C. A. Aspinwall, James Sharp, Edward E. Clement, W. E. Robinson, and H. Bradley Davidson. Mr. Davidson is treasurer of the association. They expressed the feeling yesterday that in spite of the seasonal untimeliness of the canvass, the sum of $15,000 ought to be raised in Washington to insure the contribution from Mr. Rosenwald, and to make certain the completion of the building.

Lecture at Lincoln Temple.

Mr. Louis G. Gregory, who has just returned from Egypt and the Holy Land, will deliver a free lecture at Lincoln Temple, corner Eleventh and K streets northwest, on Monday evening, June 12, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Glimpses of three continents." The lecturer will relate his experience with Abdul Baha, the living prophet of the Bahai revelation, now residing near Alexandria, Egypt.

Pupils Appear in Musical.

The pupils of Miss M. Agnes Clarke gave a musical at Carroll Institute Hall last night. Among those who took part were Miss M. Nolan, Miss G. Sullivan, Miss E. Carrick, Miss M. Lippard, Miss A. Callahan, Miss Edna Bradley, Miss L. Ryan, Miss C. Nolan, Master P. King, Master C. Teitel, Master Chauncey Shimmer, Harry P. White, Miss Frances Dupont, Miss A.
