

FINANCE AND REALTY

Capital Traction warrants were all the rage at yesterday's meeting of the local Stock Exchange...

Outside of the warrants it was a small investment field. Columbia Railroad 5% brought 104; Steamboat 10; Railway preferred, 95; Lanston, 93 and 94; Merchenthaler, 22 1/2.

MacVeagh for Aldrich Plan.

Declaring that politics did not enter into the question, and that there is no reason why legislation to that end should not be had at this session...

Steel Report Helped Market.

Last week, born in gloom, was a period of happy disappointment, according to a well-known New York financial writer in Bache's Review...

"The gloom of the steel mill," "country" says, "is the market the first few days of the week. The report of the steel corporation, showing net earnings for the quarter ended September 30 of $2,962,725, was much better than expected...

"That there is a turn politically against the drastic anti-trust sentiment is shown in many ways. The speech in Pittsburgh of Martin Littlejohn, director of the Stanley investigation committee...
