WISHES LEAP YEAR CAME EVERY YEAR

Mrs. Barney-Hemmick Advises Girls to Grasp the Opportunity in 1912.

Say, girls, you are a backward bunch. One of your own sex says so, and it's true. Mrs. Christian Barney-Hemmick, a woman who speaks authoritatively, says so, and it must be true.

"Leap year, why, it's a great thing," said Mrs. Barney-Hemmick last night. "Do I think that a girl should take advantage of leap year opportunities? Why, I must certainly do. I never could understand why girls will sit back and wait for the young man to make the advances. Why should they not change from the defensive to the offensive? I have noticed the backwardness of girls especially at dances. Why do the girls sit quietly and wait for the young man to make the advances for the dance? "I believe that the girls should be more forward and aggressive. Leap year, ah, it's a great thing. There ought to be some arrangement whereby it would come every year."

INJURY HASTENS RETIREMENT.

Admiral Potter, on Leave, Will Quit Service in May.

Rear Admiral W. P. Potter, aid for personnel, yesterday was detached from that duty and granted four months' leave, at the expiration of which he will retire from active service.

This abrupt termination of Admiral Potter's active career in the navy came yesterday as a result of the injuries sustained by Admiral Potter on New Year's Day, when he fell on the steps of the Navy Department building. Though not seriously injured, his recovery from wounds on his face and legs has not been as rapid as had been expected.

Admiral Potter will be succeeded by Capt. Tempin M. Potts, Chief of the Office of Naval Intelligence. Capt. Thomas B. Rodgers, supervisor of New York Harbor, will succeed Capt. Potts as head of the Intelligence Office.

PRINCETON WINS.

Defeats Dartmouth in Uphill Game, 43 to 38.

Princeton, N. J., Jan. 10.—Princeton won an uphill struggle in intercollegiate basketball from Dartmouth this evening, 43 to 38. The Tigers played a whirlwind, fighting game that for a time demoralized the other team.

The Tigers have won two out of three intercollegiate games played thus far. Points were taken into camp in the first contest, but Cornell shot a stumbling block to the Orange and Black.

To-night's victory ties Princeton and Dartmouth for second place, the Green having defeated Yale and Columbia. Cornell, with one victory and two defeats, leads the league.

LEHIGH BY FOUR MARGIN.

Makes Twenty-four Points Before Pratt Tallies.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Jan. 10.—Lehigh outplayed Pratt at all points of the game to-night. The score was 24 to 12. The locals got their team machinery working smoothly at the outset, scoring 24 points before Pratt made a tally. The first half the score was 12 to 1. Pratt played a somewhat better game the second half, but tallied too late.

THE RUBINSTEIN CLUB WARMLY GREETED. Miss Florence Hinkle and Reed Miller, Soloists of New York, Score Big Success.

The Rubinstein Club, Mrs. Blair conducting, gave its first evening concert this season last evening in Memorial Concert Hall before an audience which filled every seat in the auditorium.

The club of 30 women singers, with 54 on the piano, formed a harmonious and effective white group, with a background of delicate festoons of green on the white wall. A hedge of green plants with pink blossoms outlined the edge of the stage.

In the center of which, in front, the piano was placed. The soloists were Miss Florence Hinkle, soprano, and Reed Miller, tenor, both of New York.

Miss Hinkle's coming was something of a surprise, as Miss Marcella, of New York, had been engaged to sing.

Miss Hinkle made a very pronounced hit. She was in excellent voice, and while she has had previous success here, she never appeared to better advantage. She has improved in style and finish, and her voice, a very pure high soprano, has a remarkable range.

Her first number was the "Prayer" from "La Traviata," which she sang well and with splendid effect. For encore she gave the charming little song, "My Lullaby." She also sang a group of songs, including Stevens' "Nightingale's Song," "Yesterday and To-day," by Sprague, and "The Birthday," by Woodcock.

Her second number was "When the Roses Bloom," Miss Hinkle materially added to her laurels as she sang in Washington.

Mr. Miller was suffering from hoarseness and did not make the effects in his last numbers that he did in his first. His voice was very pleasing in the beautiful tenor aria, "Mignon," and "The Sleeping Priestess" and "Nedding's Serenade," with incidental solo by Mr. Miller, completed the program.

The accompaniment was played by Mrs. Mamie Morrice Burdette, one of the best-known of the local pianists.

Senator Curtis Favore Hook. Senator Curtis, of Kansas, yesterday called upon President Taft to urge the appointment of Judge Hook to the vacancy on the Supreme Court caused by the death of Associate Justice Harlan.

Miss Helen Hardy, daughter of Representative Hardy, of Texas, made her initial loss to Washington society at a tea yesterday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock at the home of her parents in Massachusetts avenue. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with quantities of small palms, and pink and white roses. A string orchestra was in attendance during the afternoon.
