

COLONEL'S MANAGER UNDER DISCUSSION

Senator Dixon, of Montana, Now Said to Be Slated for the Position.

Medill McCormick, who opened the Roosevelt headquarters yesterday morning, went to New York last night and will go to Chicago to-day. His experts turn to Washington by the middle of the week. The Roosevelt progressives are waiting the return from New York of Senator Clapp, who was in New York yesterday, and is supposed to have had an interview with Col. Roosevelt.

Since William Loeb has decided not to direct the national organization for Roosevelt, the progressives are again turning to Senator Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana. It is believed that Senator Dixon will undertake this work if he can be assured that Col. Roosevelt is willing to enter into the fight with earnestness.

One of the interesting phases of the progressive situation discussed here is a dispute between Gov. Johnson and Senator La Follette. The governor of California came to Washington to persuade Senator La Follette that Roosevelt should be nominated, and to urge the Senator not to obstruct the movement.

Gov. Johnson asked Senator La Follette to release him, so the story goes, from a pledge of support which the governor had given Senator La Follette several weeks ago. Senator La Follette declined to release the California executive, whereupon the governor informed the Senator from Wisconsin that he would be put to the painful necessity of releasing himself. This Gov. Johnson will do, it is said, in a public declaration of his intention to support Col. Roosevelt.

HELD ON FORGERY CHARGE.

Howard P. Wilson, is accused of raising $500 check to $250. Accused of raising a check from $50 to $250. Howard P. Wilson, a well-known advertising agent, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of forgery by Detectives Pratt and Howlett and held at the second precinct station until he could furnish $1,000 bond.

According to the police, Wilson admitted the charge as police headquarters and declared he had raised the check in order to cover up his accounts and straighten out some other difficulties. A few days ago, it is alleged, Wilson made out a check on the American National Bank for $50 and indorsed Bradley S. Dixon, of 217 Eighth street northwest, to indorse the paper.

The police assert Wilson inserted a "2" before the "50" and cashed the paper at the Washington Merchants and Mechanics' Savings Bank. Two days after Wilson received the cash, the police allege the forgery was discovered and a complaint lodged by Dixon. Wilson lives at 217 Eighteenth street northwest and is married.

Spanish war veterans of all local camps joined with Gen. Nelson A. Miles Camp No. 1, last evening in a memorial celebration in honor of the victims of the destruction of the Maine fourteen years ago. The event took place at Costello's Hall.

PEOPLE CHEATED OUT OF MILLIONS

Two Lawmakers, in Addresses, Point Out Sad Need of Legislation to Protect Consumers.

Declaring that the people of the United States are cheated out of millions annually by means of fraudulent weights and measures, Representatives George F. O'Shaunnessy, of Rhode Island, and Thomas W. Hardwick, of Georgia, and prominent delegates to the seventh annual conference on weights and measures, which is now in session at the Bureau of Standards, at a dinner given at the New Raleigh last night, spoke of the need of legislation throughout the country for the protection of the consumer.

All of the speakers emphasized the need of national legislation which would bring about a uniformity of the laws. At present, the speakers, great inconvenience is caused by the diversity of existing State laws. The differences in the laws of the various States, they said, interfere to a considerable extent with interstate commerce.

Sixty-five Delegates Attend. James H. Thayer, of Vermont, told briefly of the history of the national conference on weights and measures. He said that when the first conference met there were only nine members. At the present conference, he said, there are sixty-five delegates.

J. A. Stubbs, president of the University of Nevada, and State sealer of weights and measures of Nevada, said that the enactment of the proposed weights and measures legislation would bring about fair, square, and downright honest dealing.

Addresses urging the enactment of Federal legislation were also delivered by John L. Walsh, commissioner of weights and measures of New York City; Prof. G. W. Stuart, of the State University of Iowa, who is State sealer, and D. C. Palmer, State sealer of Massachusetts.

S. W. Stratton, president of the conference, presided as toastmaster.

GRAND ARMY URGES "FREE" MT. VERNON

Anti-fee Movement and President's Army Policy Indorsed at Closing Session.

Declaring that every American should be accorded free admission to the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon, and that it is in favor of international peace, the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., at the closing session last night of its forty-fourth annual encampment, adopted resolutions, including the movement of the Mount Vernon Anti-Fee Association, and the policy of President Taft in favor of maintaining the army at its present strength.

In the first resolution the department asks Congress and the legislature of Virginia, "to promptly afford the relief now being prayed for by the Mount Vernon Anti-Fee Association and its workers for this worthy cause, as set forth in the bills, resolutions, and petitions now pending before them, respectively."

In the resolution favoring the President's policy the Grand Army declares it is in favor of international peace, and deprecates representations that reasonable military power in the control of the United States is a menace to republican government or to the peace of the world.

Resolutions were also adopted approving the plans for a memorial amphitheater at Arlington and asking Congress to pass the bill to appropriate funds for its structure, and also approving the bill now before Congress to purchase the Col. O. M. Oldroyd Lincoln collection.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: J. D. Bloodgood, commander; Thomas H. McKee, senior vice commander; Rev. N. H. Miller, junior vice commander; Thomas Calver, medical director; Rev. N. H. Holmes, chaplain; G. L. Goodwin.

DO NOT BELIEVE REPORT OF MUTINY

Navy Department Officials Skeptical of Stories from the Battle Ship Vermont.

The Navy Department has no information concerning the reported mutiny on board the battle ship Vermont, now at Guantanamo. Officers are most skeptical as to the truth of the story published from Norfolk, Washington in wireless communication with Quantico, and it is believed any such affair as alleged occurred on board the Vermont would have been promptly reported to the department.

There is good reason to believe, however, that the administering of the antityphoid prophylactic may have aroused some protest among the crew of the Vermont. Both in the army, where it was first adopted, and in the navy, ignorance of the nature of the operation, and exaggerated stories regarding its effects upon the health of the subject, have aroused opposition among the enlisted men. In all cases, however, the men have submitted to the inoculation without resistance, and no serious effects have resulted. It is stated.

The majority of the enlisted and officered personnel of the army was inoculated with the anti-typhoid prophylactic in Texas last spring. It was ordered administered to all men under forty-five years of age in the navy about six weeks ago. Naval surgeons state that in the majority of cases, the subject feels no ill effects, but that in others a slight fever follows, accompanied by depression. These effects disappear within two or three days in all cases. It is declared.

Explains the "Single Tax."

Col. H. Martin Williams, one of the reading clerks of the House, who was to have addressed a meeting last night at Carroll Institute upon the subject of single tax, was unable to fulfill his engagement, having been taken suddenly ill. Mr. J. H. Halkins and D. S. Edwards spoke on the single tax proposition, merely giving unbiased explanations of its meanings and objects.
