EXPECT TO SETTLE FREIGHT STRIKE

Adjustment Looked For Before End of Week—Unions Keeping Men from Warehouses.

Chicago, May 7.—Officers of the striking freight handlers today expressed the belief that the differences would be adjusted within a few days and the men would return to their places.

While the truck drivers may be asked to walk out in sympathy, this movement, according to the freight handlers' organization, will be made only when it is seen that the strike cannot be won by other methods.

Only a few pickets were sent out, and these were carefully selected by the business men of the various localities. The officers of the organization have cautioned the men against disorder, and have advised them to keep away from the freight houses and from the railroad tracks.
