

Woodward & Lothrop, New York—WASHINGTON—Paris. Smart Mackinaw Coats Indicating the Effectiveness of Autumn Styles.

COLOR combinations such as predominate in English garments are conspicuous in these coats, which have just been received in time for the August and September vacationists and others whose wants necessitate the securing of a coat of a character assuring protection. Made in short and seven-eighths lengths, with every new feature that has been approved for autumn styles; in plain white, black-and-white checks, blue-and-brown plaids, chinchilla cloths in gray and brown with plaid linings. $10.00 to $32.50 each.

DRESS LINEN DEPARTMENT Places on Sale Black-and-White Striped Linen Suitings AT A PRICE REDUCTION.

THE modishness of this combination black-and-white stripes has not decreased one particle; if anything it is yet in the ascendancy; hence the timeliness of this offering, 36 inches wide. 39c yard. Was 50c. Also 48-inch French and Holland Linen Suitings of our own direct importation. The weave is an especially attractive one, being soft finish and noncrushable, and does not require as much pressing as the ordinary. 75c and 85c yard. New Bath Sets—Attention is directed to New Initiated Bath Sets, consisting of two bath towels and two washcloths. Very desirable to take on the vacation and for individual use at all times. $1.18 the set.

Society

President Taft, accompanied by Maj. Rhoades and Mr. William Herron, took a long automobile ride through Rock Creek Park yesterday. The President will leave for Beverly immediately after the adjournment of Congress. The Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Franklin MacVeagh, has returned to Washington, after a brief visit to his summer place at Dublin, N. H. Mrs. MacVeagh is there, and the Secretary will return also after the adjournment of Congress. Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry, formerly Miss Mathilde Townsend, of Washington, is the chairman of the Woman's committee of the Bar Harbor Horse Show, which will open Tuesday. Among the bookholders for the event will be Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. Nicholas L. Anderson, Mrs. Edward Beale McLean, Mrs. John Logan, Mrs. Herbert Parsons, Mrs. Clarence Wadsworth, Dr. Guy Fairfax Whiting, and Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean will entertain at dinner August 21 in their cottage at Bar Harbor in honor of their house guests, the Russian Ambassador and Mrs. Bakmeteff. Mrs. Meyer and the Misses Meyer, wife and daughters of the Secretary of the Navy, have arrived in Newport for the tennis tournament. Mrs. Meyer spent several days last week in Washington with the Secretary of the Navy, who has recently recovered from a long illness, while the Misses Meyer were the guests of Miss Catherine Cameron at her camp in the Adirondacks. The Third Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. Chandler Hale, spent the week-end with his family at Bernardville, N. J., where they are spending the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter and their young son have gone for a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farnall, at their summer place at Black Rock, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Leiter will return to their Rose Villa, near Washington, on Tuesday. Miss Maitland Marshall, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. William L. Marshall, U. S. A., has gone to her parents' summer home at Monterey, Pa., from Staten Island, where she has been visiting friends. Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, formerly Mrs. Barney, will come into the limelight to-day at Bar Harbor, when she will produce for the sake of sweet charity her beautiful and idyllic "On the Love of Echo," which she gave here for the first time last winter for the benefit of the Rhode Island Hospital. The play, which is a beautiful and dramatic work, has been produced in the play area at Bar Harbor, where she has been in the production here last winter, when her exquisite dancing and her wonderful beauty quite made the play. Mrs. Noyes has been in Paris since the early spring, where she has danced before the most distinguished men and women, and has given a number of beautiful performances in her Paris home. She returned to this country last week in time for the final rehearsal of the play at Bar Harbor. The boxes for the play were sold at $100 and the seats at $5 each, and they have had to erect more from time to time as they were sold, so great is the demand. Following the all fresco performance there will be numerous dinner parties and a costume ball at the Building of Arts. This will mark a brilliant opening of the Horse Show week at the fashionable city by the sea.

WEEK-ENDS IN ENGLAND COSTLY

Mrs. J. J. Brown Says Newport Is Best Place After All—TIPS Big Item Abroad. Newport, R. I., Aug. 18.—Servants who prey on guests by expecting enormous tips and bridge parties who consider it a business to collect steady winnings, make week-end visits to some homes in England cost as much as a trip to Europe, according to Mrs. J. J. Brown, of Denver, who spends as much of her time in Europe as in America. "About the guests on leaving, and live," Newport is thought by foreigners to be the axis on which the American continent revolves. To appreciate Newport, one must have spent a summer in the English, a notable season on the coast where the glaring sun of white cement and alkali streets, all treeless, makes one appreciate the cool, shaded walks to be found everywhere here. On the whole, Newport is a very pleasant place, much more favored than many living elsewhere. HOWE TRAVEL PICTURES Shows at Columbia.

The second of the Lyman H. Howe series of travel pictures delighted a large audience at the Columbia last evening. Interesting and exquisitely colored views of Pountambieu Palace, unusual films, giving an idea of the people and customs of the far away tropics, and pictures of scenes in Holland were but a part of a varied and enjoyable programme. The trick pictures, without which no Howe entertainment would be complete, came in for their share of the applause, and of course the most enjoyable, which they were several. Just imagine an automatic moving when no human hand touched your household goods. Then your chairs and tables, beds and bed room furniture, and other articles, and down stairs of their own free will. An especially interesting film was that showing the students of the Culver Military Academy, a pontoon bridge, and another, and one particularly enjoyable last night, owing to the state of the weather, the film depicting winter sports in Switzerland. An entire new programme is announced for next Sunday night.

Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

BIG LINER FRANCE DOCKS. Vessel Recently Overhauled Arrives in New York.

Special to The Washington Herald. New York, Aug. 18.—With her bilge keels and ballast tanks entirely reconstructed at the shipyards at St. Nazaire, the French Line steamship France, the largest continental quadruple screw turbine steamer in the world, made her third visit to the United States yesterday, bringing 1,000 passengers from Havre. The reconstruction of her bilge keels and ballast tanks made the France the steadiest vessel in the trans-Atlantic trade, and her performance on her most recent voyage prompted the saloon passengers, among whom were many noted Americans, to present Capt. Poncet with a signed testimonial declaring their satisfaction with the comfortable crossing. Even though the mammoth vessel passed through several days of rough weather, there was not the slightest indication of the usual rolling when rough weather was encountered, and the diners in the liner's Parlor saloon were as comfortable during mealtime as if they had been at dinner in one of the modern palatial restaurants ashore. The labor troubles that tied up French shipping for nearly two months were taken advantage of to effect the reconstruction of the France's ballast and bilge keels, and the result has been a distinct innovation in ocean architecture.

Funeral of Brig. Gen. Hayes.

SENATOR PENROSE ANSWERS CHARGES Says $25,000 Archbold Check Was Used to Carry New York for Roosevelt.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 18.—Most of the $25,000 which he received by check from John D. Archbold, vice president of the Standard Oil Company, during the Presidential campaign of 1904 was used to help carry New York State for Theodore Roosevelt, declared Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania. "To-day for the first time, Senator Penrose broke his silence in connection with which he admits it is an attempt of William J. Flinn, the Pittsburgh Bull Moose leader, to bring impeachment proceedings against him in the United States Senate as a result of the publication in the Hearst magazine of a facsimile letter from Archbold to Penrose inciting the check. "Senator Penrose held a long conference here to-day with national and State leaders, as to how best meet the Flinn attack, and at its conclusion issued the following statement: "If I am to be called in the bar of the Senate to answer the accusation against me, would it be right for me to expose my defense before I was charged with the act which is hinted at? I am ready to answer at any time and in any place, and I defy any one to say that I ever used corporation money for any purpose. "I will say, however, that from what I recall of the incident, most of this money went to the treasury of the Republican campaign committee, and that the greater portion of it was used in carrying New York State for Roosevelt in the Presidential campaign in 1904. "I do not propose to be rushed into making any attempt at apportioning the affairs of every political organization, and I only want some one to make the direct accusation that I had anything to do with spending this money that existed in 1904, or they would never have made the charge against him. "May Come Before Senate. Further than this Senator Penrose refused to talk. He said it was possible he would take up the Flinn charges on the floor of the Senate this week. From Representative Holmstead it was learned that the Senator is contemplating taking up the whole matter in advance but that he had been advised to consult with the President before he took any definite action. Senator Penrose was never in a more determined mood than he was to-day. He conferred with his lieutenant at the Shelburne, and he talked in no uncertain manner. He intimated that those who had accused him had forgotten or were ignorant of the real political conditions that existed in 1904, or they would never have made the charge against him. The belief here tonight among the Pennsylvania leaders is that Penrose will himself take the initiative after his talk with President, and that he will make a statement, backed up by figures from the National Republican committee which will make some interesting revelations.

NEWPORT BOASTS OF RECORD SEASON

Newport, R. I., Aug. 18.—The busiest social season in twenty years and not one "foolish" entertainment in the lot. This is Newport society's boast. "Foolish" is the word applied by Newport's social purists to freak entertainments and ultra hilarious affairs, such as the all-night mask ball and Sunday morning parade of last season. The substitution of the alcohol rub for the good-night nip and the morning cocktail is another reform that has spread throughout the entire colony. The managers have never had a more profitable season here. This week will be the climax of this record season. The tennis and polo tournaments begin to-morrow, continuing through the week and to-morrow night Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish gives her $5,000 ball. Tuesday will be given up largely to outdoor sports. Wednesday, Mrs. Vanderbilt gives a dance at the Breakers, and on Thursday comes Mrs. R. V. Wilson's brilliant ball for Miss Beatrice Whitehouse. Friday night Mrs. Vanderbilt heads the list with her "three-ring" costume ball and vaudeville show, and on Saturday night Mrs. Fembeske Jones is giving a dance and fête. Besides these stellar events will be probably fifty pretentious affairs by the social lesser lights.

MINOR'S AMERICANS

Paris, Aug. 18.—Prince Louis of Orleans and Braganza, otherwise known as the Comte d'Eu Pretender to the Brazilian throne, has just recovered some of the stolen jewels in a dramatic manner. The jewels consisted of three diamond-studded stars from the imperial crown of Brazil, and several valuable rings, disappeared from the Chateau d'Eu, near Dieppe, last June. No trace was found of them, and hope of their recovery was given up. During a dinner party recently, a watch dog barked before the window of Mrs. Braganza's room. Prince Louis ran into the dining-room and met there a man whom he recognized as his former valet named Nistin. The prince seized the fellow, disarmed him, and later a search revealed the missing stars and rings in his pockets. It is supposed that Nistin stole the jewels, hid them in the chateau, and was returning to get them when he was caught.

"KID" PALMER DIES.

Light-weight Boxer Succumbs to Injuries Received in Fight. Philadelphia, Aug. 18.—Albert Palmer, eighteen years old, of 1518 South Twenty-ninth Street and known more or less prominently throughout the country as "Kid" Palmer, the lightweight boxer died to-day in the Polytechnic Hospital from the effects of injuries sustained during a six round bout at a local theater on Wednesday night last. Palmer had been in poor condition when he entered the ring and according to his ante-mortem statement he had asked to be released from his engagement, but when the promoters taunted him about showing a yellow streak he gamely went on and received the drubbing which resulted in his death.

BALTIMORE PASTOR FILLS PULPIT HERE

Rev. Dr. V. A. Lonier Preaches at Service at Foundry M. E. Church.

TO PREACH NEXT SUNDAY

"The modern seeking after pleasure is greater than the struggle for wealth, health, or honor," declared Rev. Dr. V. A. Lonier, of Baltimore, in a brief sermon at the "Bright Hour" service of Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church last night. "People want pleasure. Rightly so. We ought to have pleasure. Yet there is a pleasure, divinely given, that satisfies where no earthly pleasure can. Would God satisfy you? Is not the greatest pleasure to have God? Let us accept that religion whose ways are pleasant and whose paths are peace." In the course of his discourse on the subject, "Religion—Its Necessity," Dr. Lonier said of the Bible: "Young people question whether it is as infallible to-day as of old. I must confess I am loathe to part with that old, blessed Book. If some one can give us a substitute then we are willing to lay aside this sacred Book." Three reasons why religion is necessary were named by Dr. Lonier. "It is good," he said, "for us to have religion. It is expedient, prudent and necessary for me to place myself in position to meet the approval of God. When I want to do good, evil is present. We are on a sea of controversy, there is conflict between heart and mind, between good and evil. Where can we find rest from this struggle? God says: 'Come unto Me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' "We need religion," continued the speaker, "because we are young. Book ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you. "Again, we should have religion because we want to succeed. Every man does not succeed. There must be something lacking. God's plan is 'Perseverance in spirit, serving the Lord.' We sometimes see the unrighteous man as a beautiful bay tree spreading its branches, but not in the divine manner. His are bitterness and tears. But the name of

Dancing Draws Crowds To Colonial Beach

The cool weather in the city has not prevented a great many people from going to Colonial Beach, "Washington's Atlantic City," for the soft sea breezes are not the only attractions at this famous resort. Indeed, there are many entertainment features which are more enjoyable in cool weather than warm, such as dancing and other indoor amusements. The steamer St. Johns leaves the Seventh Street wharf every morning except Monday at 9 o'clock. In order to care for the big week-end crowds, special trips are made Saturday afternoons at 2:30 and Sundays at 3. Every Monday night the steamer makes a forty-mile moonlight trip down the river. The boat is always crowded with merry-makers, and one spends a very enjoyable time.

CURRY RITES IN ST. LOUIS.

Body of Daughter of Former Representative Sent to Missouri. The body of Mrs. Lucy A. Curry, daughter of former Representative Brown of Missouri, who died Saturday afternoon at 125 N Street, was taken to St. Louis last night, where it will be interred in Bellefontaine Cemetery. Mrs. Curry was seventy-three years old. She came to Washington last October, accompanied by her son, Henry Curry, of St. Paul. She was the widow of Albert B. Curry.
