

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1912.

Society

THE end of the first week of September finds a very large majority of the members of Washington's social world still at seaside and mountain resorts.

The President's reception, given at the White House last Wednesday, to the many distinguished chemists who attended the international congress of chemists here, was the one big event in society last week.

The President returned to Beverly, Mass., to join his family immediately after the reception.

Members of the Cabinet are more scarce in Washington at present than at any time for a year.

Mr. Huntington Wilson, who has been Acting Secretary of State, and who left here Thursday afternoon to attend a family reunion in the North, is expected to return to Washington to-morrow.

A wedding of great interest, that of Miss Jean Crosby and Mr. Charles Trowbridge Tittmann, is to take place Thursday, September 13, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of the bride.

Miss Louise Gruber, of Baltimore, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Kohner, of Belmont Road, for an indefinite time.

Mr. Richard Ely, who has spent most of the summer in her hospitable home in N Street, has gone to New York to meet her daughter, Mrs. Gibbons, and they will go together to the White Mountains before returning to Annapolis and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mayer, of the Alrey View for a few weeks.

Mr. Harry Frane has returned from a week's stay in New York.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. E. Johnson spent a few hours in Washington on Thursday last before taking the steamer for Norfolk, from which place they are going on a two weeks' fishing trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Stern, Miss Irma and Leona Stern are home after spending a month in Ocean View, Va., and Mount Holly, Md.

Mr. David Bear is the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. Strauss, of Richmond, Va., for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frank, of New York, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Strausberger during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emilie West and son Alvin are home from a month's stay in the West.

Mrs. Herbert Vaughn Kent, wife of Col. Kent, of the Royal Engineers, has been recalled to this country from England by the dangerous illness of her father, Lyman Tiffany.

Many Washingtonians have spent the summer months in Europe. Already some of them are wending their way homeward, and others will sail for America the last of this month or early in October.

Mrs. Robert Hinckley and her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Hinckley, were so discouraged with the bad weather in Hamburg that they left that place early in August and went on to St. Moritz, where they enjoyed their stay immensely.

Among the most prominent entertainers in Hamburg this summer have been Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George L. Gillespie, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Gillespie, and his wife, son, Lawrence L. Gillespie, and his wife, son, formerly Miss Irene Sherman of New York, Gen. and Mrs. Gillespie expect to return to this country early in October, and have already taken passage on the America.

Among the Washingtonians arriving on the Mauretia Friday morning were Mrs. George Lothrop Bradley and Mrs. William Hammond. They have been touring in Europe for over two years.

Mr. Hammond is to visit her stepson, Jr. Hammond, in New York, before returning to her home in Connecticut Avenue.

Mrs. Bradley will probably spend the fall months at her country estate in Pomfret, Conn., and will not open her house here until just before Christmas.

Dr. and Mrs. T. Morris Murray, who have been absent from Washington for over two years, have been at Westbaden for part of the summer, making that their headquarters for frequent motoring trips.

They have decided to reopen their house in Ninth Street, which last year was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Densers, of New Orleans, and are returning to America early this fall.

Chief Justice Seth Shepard, of the District Court of Appeals, and Mrs. Shepard, who have been in Ireland since June, are at present in Ireland. They expect to sail for Canada about the middle of this month, and will be in Washington by October 1.
