

SOCIETY

CLEVELAND PARK.

Mrs. Louis W. Austin, of Newark Street, gave a beautiful tea in honor of her house guest, Miss J. Mackie Best, who is here as a delegate to the Congress of Hygiene and Demography, from Panama. The house was decorated in white, cosmos and Richmond roses. Mrs. Walter Allen poured tea and Mrs. Browne Graham and Mrs. George Wales assisted in serving the tea. Among the guests was Miss Helen Keller, who charmed all with whom she conversed. She is the guest of Mrs. Philip Sidney Smith.

Mrs. Jerry A. Matthews and children have returned from Indiana, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart have reached home, having motored from Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Emery have returned from Atlantic City.

GEORGETOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. King entertained the wedding party of their daughter, after the rehearsal on Monday evening at a dinner followed by an informal dance.

Rev. F. B. Howden and family have returned to their O Street home from a summer spent in their cottage in New York State.

Miss Florence Agatha King, who has been for two years in Alabama with her brother, Mr. Mitchell King, is coming home the last of this month to remain permanently.

Mrs. H. D. Beall, who has been spending some time at Atlantic City, is home with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Gwynn, 1513 Thirtieth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Royal Weaver motored down from Front Royal last week.

Miss Antoinette Ray expects to leave the last of this month to visit her sister, Mrs. Villack, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Miss Isabelle Jackson is spending some time with her sister, Miss Cordelia Jackson, of the Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Breslin, of Roanoke, Va., have been the guest of Mrs. Breslin, sister of Mrs. Allen Walker, for the past few weeks, and will leave tomorrow for their home.

The Fort Myer committee on things pertaining to Halloween, will soon meet to make arrangements for the appropriate celebration of the day. Marshmallow roasts and chestnut hunts, and many other good times are being planned.

Mal Allen entertained at a luncheon for some Frederickburg friends on Wednesday.

Capt. Barnett has moved into the city.

Miss Marie Murdoch left Thursday for the mountains of Virginia.

Miss Louise Smith is the house guest of Mrs. G. H. Cooper, of Somerset, Md.

Mrs. Wheeler, with her two daughters, Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Blocker, have moved up their apartment in the Kanawha, and will be for the winter located at the Utter Inn, 1827 Nineteenth Street.

Miss Rosalee Hancock has returned from a ten days' visit to her sister, Mrs. Marshall, in Chardatterville.

Mrs. Louis Mackall and family have closed their home near Langley, Va., and returned to their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Carroll and family who have lived for some time in Glen Echo, have taken an apartment in the Irving for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hadly Doyle and Mrs. Collins have returned from a visit to New York and Atlantic City.

Rev. Father Collins, of California, formerly here, is the guest of his mother for several weeks.

Mrs. J. McKenney Berry is entertaining Miss Woodson, from North Carolina.

Mrs. Eugene De Forrest Heath, who has just returned from a summer spent abroad, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Emily W. Reich.

Rev. James H. W. Blake, Mrs. Blake, and Miss Francis Blake have returned from Mountain Lake Park, N. J., where they spent the summer.

Miss Louise Arnold is home from an extended Western trip.

The Misses Sallie and Elizabeth Lacey have returned from three months spent in traveling abroad.

Miss Flora Brown, of "Stone Cottage," have returned from a trip North.

Mrs. Richard Poole, of Richmond, Va., is the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Williams.

Mr. Worden Parris, of Oregon, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Parris.

Miss Westervelt has returned from five months spent traveling through England, France, and Spain. On landing in New York she visited there, and in Newark and Wilmington, Del., before returning home.

Mrs. Robert Halt Merriam, of St. Paul, Minn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kondrup.

Miss Mary Porterfield, Miss Eleanor Eyster, and Miss Sidney Winkoop, of Charlottesville, Va., are guest of friends, coming on for the wedding of Miss King and Ensign Hinckley.

Mrs. Mours and Miss Ramsburg have returned from abroad.

Mr. Percy Miller, the new organist of St. John's Church, has arrived and takes charge of the choir to-day. Mr. Miller formerly had charge of a choir in Philadelphia and has recently returned from a year abroad.

MISS EDITH GRACIE, The young daughter of Col. and Mrs. Archibald Gracie, a debutante and belle of last winter.

Miss Helen Chase has returned to her home, after spending the summer in Westminster, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cheyney have taken an apartment at Dumbarton Court.

Miss Lillian Miller has as her guest for fortnight Miss Mary Porterfield, of Charlottesville, Va.

Mrs. Catherine Berry and family have again taken possession of their home on Dumbarton Avenue.

Miss Eunice Hoffman, who spent the summer in Portland, Me., is now visiting in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Chanceller has returned and will be for the winter at 1857 Thirty-first Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howie were in town for a short visit last week.

Mrs. John Magruder is located at 1810 P Street for the winter.

The Misses Traylor have returned to their home on Q Street.

Miss Mary Marbury has returned, after spending a month in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and New York.

Miss Ethel Perry, who has been the guest of Miss Martha Waters, has returned to her home in Michigan.

Mr. P. L. Wormley has been spending some time in New York.

Mrs. William Powell is home from Eggleston and Old Point, where she spent the summer.

Miss Alwarda Casselman will spend the winter in Baltimore studying at Peabody Conservatory of Music.

Miss Mary Parker has returned to her home on Q Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wood and little son Charles who has been visiting Mrs. Wood's brother, Mr. Charles Cropley, have returned to their home in Wilmington.

Mrs. Rosalie B. Salter has given up her apartment in the Kanawha, and will visit friends before going to Canada, where she will join her son, Mr. Oldron Salter.

Mrs. W. H. Weaver entertained in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Alice Williamson, of Winston-Salem, N. C., Thursday evening. Music was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hewitt, Mr. J. H. Goodheart, Miss Grace Goodheart, Miss Ethel Garner, Mr. William Poe, Miss Florence Detmora, of Norfolk, Va.; Misses Dora and Julia Cusler, Miss Katie M. Wynn, Mrs. E. D. Wynn, Mrs. J. L. Ricker, Mrs. Elizabeth Thorne, Mr. William F. Taylor, Mr. William Bell, Miss Mary Woodward, and Miss R. H. Hopkins, and Messrs. Jerome Whittle and Alfred Adams.

HYATTSVILLE.

Mrs. Ellen Egerton Tierney, widow of the late Michael V. Tierney, the first Mayor of Hyattsville, has announced the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss Ellen Vincent Tierney to Mr. Reamer Welker Argo, only son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Kelly Argo, of this place. The marriage took place in Buffalo, N. Y., Saturday, August 12. The young people are living in Pittsburgh, where the bridegroom holds a position with the Westinghouse Company. The announcement of the marriage created quite a stir in social circles in this section of the State, where both the bride and bridegroom are well known.

Mr. Harris Henderson, of Baltimore, has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Vandoren, on Ralston Avenue.

Mrs. Thomas B. Gourley, of Holland Point, Calvert county, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas E. Latimer, Johnson Avenue.

Miss Lottie Naylor, Wine Avenue, is visiting Miss Margaret Boyden near Glendale, Prince George County.

Mrs. Alfred Perry, of McKeonville, Anne Arundel County, Md., has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. John Gibson, on Wine Avenue.

The After Dinner Bridge Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Claude Warren, Riverdale. Mrs. Haig won the first prize, Mrs. M. E. Galt the second, and Mrs. R. G. Whiting the third. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, October 8, at the home of Mrs. Dunstan in Cleveland Park.

Mrs. Alfred H. Wells entertained a few ladies at five hundred Thursday evening. The affair was informal, and at the conclusion of the games a buffet luncheon was served.

Mr. Kenneth F. Brooks has returned from a brief visit to friends in Baltimore. Messrs. A. J. Leakin, A. T. Browning, and L. L. Gray have returned from a pleasant trip from Frederickburg, Va., to Baltimore, going by way of the Rappahannock River and Chesapeake Bay.

The first of a series of fall and winter meetings of the Five Hundred Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Thomas E. Latimer. Prizes for club members were awarded to Mrs. Charles O. Appleman, Mrs. W. D. Porter, and Miss Adelaide Rogers. Prizes for guests were awarded Miss Elizabeth Gibson and Mrs. Charles H. Welsh. The club members present were Messdames J. C. Rogers, N. F. Brooks, A. W. Tupper, Paul S. Herring, A. H. Wells, E. A. Fuller, S. Marvin Peach, O. B. Zantlinger, W. D. Porter, Charles O. Appleman, Adelaide Rogers, and the hostess. The guests included Mrs. Alfred H. Perry, of Anne Arundel County, Md.; Mrs. Thomas B. Gourley, of Holland Point, Calvert County; Mrs. James Dawson Reeder, Miss Elizabeth Gibson, Mrs. Charles H. Welsh, and Mrs. Robert U. Golt. During the afternoon tempting refreshments were served.

The Misses Carrie and Katherine Wentworth, of Boston, Mass., are visiting friends near Chillum, Prince George County.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hendricks, of Baltimore, have been visiting friends and relatives in the lower section of Prince George County.

Miss Edith Gallant, formerly of Hyattsville, now of Washington, has been visiting friends here during the current week.

The Misses Madeline and Florence Corbin, of New York, are visiting friends in West Hyattsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Sheriff, of Benning, D. C., have been visiting friends in the lower section of Prince George County.

The Misses Mary Bideley and Mary Wyvill, of Upper Marlboro, have been LAUREL.

Rev. Mr. Edge moved this week with his family to Delaware, where he has accepted a call.

Mrs. De Witt Berry and son, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hills and daughter, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in Laurel.

Miss Eleanor Dallam left this week for Ruxton, Md., where she is attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Black have returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Miss Luck Barber, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Charles H. Stanley.

Mr. Calvin Beall, of New York, is the guest of his parents.

Mr. H. W. Thies and family have moved into their new home on Prince George Street, which has just been completed.

Miss Wallis, of Prince George, was the guest of friends in Laurel during the week.

Miss Beatie Catrup was the guest during the week of Mrs. Clay J. Halverson, in Washington Avenue.

The Misses Jenkins have sold their home on Church Street, and are now living in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Frank Jenkins, of Baltimore, was the guest of relatives during the week.

Miss Henry, of Washington, has been the guest the past week of the Misses Kennedy, at the Maples.

The Misses Kennedy gave a card party on Monday afternoon at their home, "The Maples."

Father Meyer has moved into the new parish house of St. Mary's Catholic Church, which has just been completed.

Mr. Charles T. Manning, of Pittsburgh, was the recent guest of Mr. Matthew L. Thompson, on Washington Avenue.

Rev. T. A. Johnston has returned from Berkeley Springs, where he has been spending his vacation.

Mr. Frank Loeman, of Atlantic City, was the guest of Mrs. Butler during the week.

Miss Frances Williams has returned to Philadelphia, after spending the summer

CHEVY CHASE.

Mrs. Edwin C. Dutton has returned from a visit to Frederick.

The Columbia Country Club was the scene of a pretty luncheon on Tuesday when Mrs. McQuade entertained Miss Marion Edmondson King and Ensign Robert Ensign Hinckley, U. S. Navy. Covers were laid for fifteen. The table looked most attractive with the navy colors, blue and gold. The candles were shaded with yellow, and yellow and blue ribbon was carried from the center to the corners of the table with large bows. Yellow chrysanthemums were the flowers used. Mrs. McQuade's guests were Miss Marion E. King, George E. King, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Jenkins, Miss King, Miss Flint, Miss Green, Miss McQuade, Ensign Robert M. Hinckley, Mr. George E. King, Ensign Barnes Ensign Ensign Ensign, this city. Following Mrs. William Conrad returned yesterday from several months spent in the North.

Mrs. M. E. Danforth entertained delightfully at Columbia Country Club on Thursday the five guests of the club, which she is a member. Luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock. Covers were laid for twelve. After luncheon cards were played on the porch until a late hour. Those enjoying the afternoon were the Misses Shreckel, the Misses Callan, Miss Corinne M. Beavans, Miss C. O. Poole, Miss Blanche Gross, Mrs. C. K. Hibbs, Mrs. Ensign Roder, this city. Following B. Woodward, and Mrs. Waldo C. Hibbs.

ALEXANDRIA.

The marriage of Miss Anna Florida Brown, Charlottesville, W. Va., and Mr. Henry Starr Wattles, of this city, took place at noon Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a recent death in the bride's family. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Aitford, rector of Zion Episcopal Church. Among the guests from this city were Saturday last at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. and Mrs. S. George Brooks. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, and was given in marriage by her brother, Col. Forrest W. Wattles. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to a