A LITTLE NONSENSE.
YOU CAN'T ESCAPE.
The barber who has shaved your head, and who has shaved the heads of many other men, is a very busy man.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.
Probably not many of the women who every year help to spend the life of every man at Paris are aware that, but a short distance from their chamber and bathroom, there is a community of women, with voices as musical as their own, who pass their lives in a similar way.

MAKES TRIP OVER CONTESTED LAND.
Judge Nelson Inspects Territory Alexandria Would Annex from Two Counties.
DENIES POSTPONEMENT OF CASE.

WOMEN WHO BUILD THEIR OWN HOUSES.
A woman may not be as well acquainted with lumber and building as a man, but any woman can come to us, look over our plans, buy the lumber, and have a cottage or bungalow built as well as a man.

WOMEN WHO BUILD THEIR OWN HOUSES.
The Frank Libbey Lumber & Mill Work Co.

China Shows Her Independence.
Yuan Shih-Kai stands manfully by the right of China to do her own borrowing in her own way. It was believed that the remonstrance of Great Britain, coupled as it was with a demand for the instant payment of outstanding debts to the powers, would have deterred President Yuan from proceeding with the negotiation of an independent loan in London.

Base Suicide in the Middle Class.
So far as can be discerned, there is no crying demand for more Astors, Vanderbilts, Rockefellers, and Morgans. The supply is quite sufficient. Therefore the indictment of childlessness which again is brought against the rich, this time by a Dr. Davis, of Boston, who said before the Association for the Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality that "the objection of rich women to assume the responsibility of motherhood is a disgrace" is not a true bill.

SNOBBS.
By GEORGE FITCH, Author of "At Good Old Swash."
A snob is a person who believes he is better than other people, but is afraid the world will not suspect it unless he keeps advertising the fact.

What Manual Training Has Done for Girls of Manhattan School.
From the Chelsea Herald.
The annual exhibition of the Manhattan Trade School, in East Twenty-third Street, New York City, was held the other afternoon, and charmed the hundreds of people who attended it.

GERMANS OBSERVE SETTLEMENT DAY.
Anniversary of Establishment of First Large Colony in America Celebrated by Local Societies.
About 400 German citizens of Washington and many of their American friends assembled at the Saengerbund Hall last night to celebrate the anniversary of the first large settlement of Germans in this country, which took place October 6, 1833.

Balloting Here and Elsewhere.
A contemporary records the surprise expressed by visiting French scientist delegates to the Hygienic Congress, when shown the little wooden edifices where the free born American citizen exercises his sovereign right as an elector, either to register or to vote. They considered this rather "droll."

PERTINENT AND IMPERTINENT.
From the Philadelphia Record.
I gold bricks Senator Quay," says Flinn. Maybe that feat is what makes him think he can flim-flam the common people.

FUNNYBIRDS.
Then She Got Out and Walked.
From the New York World.
Gigantic Lady to Tiny Elevator Boy—You are rather small to be running this elevator, my boy.

Notes of Alexandria.
A horse attached to a buggy driven by two young daughters of Mr. Blue, of Del

Officers Are Elected and Post Made Against Car Congestion.
The North Washington Citizens' Association held its first fall meeting last night in parish hall of the Church of the Advent, Second and U Streets Northwest.

That Georgia Outrage.
For a conservative and Democratic State, old Georgia is assuming strange airs of militarism, if not imperialism. A street car strike at Augusta resulted in disorder. The police force being small, militia were sent to the scene.

ADMIRAL LUCIEN YOUNG.
Have of the rolling ocean, And with my ship, my cabin, my crew, Oh, I should love to be sailing here, That I might drink down contentment here.

Man can live to be 125 years old, says an expert. Why not send along the recipe?
Who cares for moose hunting in the wilds of the Maine woods, when the political equivalent is so much more exhilarating.
