

CHAMP THREE YEARS AND HAS $240,000

And Thrifty German Scrapper Has Saved Fully $200,000 of His Earnings.

San Francisco, Dec. 4.—Ad Wolgast has been deprived of his light-weight crown, but he has enough of earthly wares to act as somewhat of a balm.

Manager Tom Jones has made the statement that during the period of close to three years Ad Wolgast has been thrifty enough to keep the major part of his $240,000. Half of this big fortune was made up in purses and the rest was accumulated in bets, theatrical engagements, and outside investments.

"The beauty about it, too," said Jones, "is that the German has been thrifty enough to keep the major part of his $240,000. Half of this big fortune was made up in purses and the rest was accumulated in bets, theatrical engagements, and outside investments."

"I never felt better in my life than I did Thursday," said the champion, "and I can conscientiously say that the weight making did not injure me in the least."

"I never missed a meal in my training, drank what I wanted, and, in fact, did not have to even dry out. I think that the coming down to 125 pounds did me a lot of good. I naturally look big because of my height, but I am a legitimate light-weight. They may say that I looked drawn, but the best evidence that I was right was the fact that I stood the punishment and was strong enough in the sixteenth round to knock Wolgast down."

COMING TO THE THEATERS

The National—'Louisiana Loo.' The National Theater will have a week of musical comedy pyrotechnics beginning next Monday evening, when that Chicago and San Francisco musical comedy success, 'Louisiana Loo,' bursts into the local horizon.

Alexander Carr will be in charge of the comedy, while Sophie Tucker will wield the scintillating torch of ragtime. Other capable aids and assistants will be Harry Hanton, Burrell Barabertis, Lester Crawford, Beate de Voie, Helma Sellinger, Eleanor Henry, and several dozen charming girls. The piece was first produced at the La Salle Opera House, Chicago, in September, 1911, where it played for 26 performances.

Mme. Alma Gluck, the prima donna from the Metropolitan Opera, New York, who is interesting the entire musical world with a voice, a technique, and a personality to promise any height of greatness for the future, will be heard in concert at the National Theater Monday afternoon, December 9, at 4:30. Mme. Gluck, who is now on a concert tour, is meeting with unstated praise from press and public, and creating the greatest enthusiasm that has been accorded any great singer in years.

Every patron of the Cosmos will remember the Three Bohemians, who, with violin, harp-guitar and piano-accompaniment, were seen some weeks ago. They are not the headliners, but simply one of the features of the Cosmos bill for next week. The bill includes the Starros, who are said to be the greatest plate spinners and jugglers in the world.

The most enduring drawing power of 'The Old Homestead' is indisputable, and its long success and continuous prosperity and popularity are due to no inconsiderable measure to the fact that it is a perfect transcript of nature. It is old, yet ever new, and it is absolutely true to the New England country life, which it represents.

The musical features are the same as of old, the double quartet is just as good to-day as it was when Charney Gloom, Richard J. Jose, Tom Lewis, and others were mentioned were members of the organization. The grand choir includes twenty trained voices, and is as impressive as heretofore. The original company and production will be seen here under the personal direction of Mr. Frank Thompson.

The most beautiful architectural achievement in the world, the far-famed Taj, will be the starting point from which Burton Holmes will lead his hearers at the Columbia, Tuesday, December 10, and Monday afternoon, in the continuation of his journey through India. The route will continue along through Calcutta, Allahabad, Darjiling, all seats of unprecedented royal magnificence, to the most wonderful of nature's works, the lofty, snow-capped, and awe-inspiring peaks of the Himalayas. It will, indeed, be a revelation of the glories of India.

Ray Cox will be the headline of Chase's bill next week. Until recently she was the star feature of 'The Charity Girl.' Miss Cox is especially famous for her amusingly clever and correct portrayal of twentieth century girl types.

The extra added attraction will be Mrs. Louis James, former co-star with the late Louis James, the great American tragic and romantic actor. A special feature will be the dancing star, 'Pat Rooney and Marion Bent,' in their New York life musical comedy, 'At the News Stand.' The famous minstrel comedian, George Wilson, has been added to the bill.

The London Hippodrome sensation, Bobber's Bedouin Arabs, will perform their desert sports and tactics followed by their native music and instruments. Ben Lane, the rotund comedian, will double in songs, stories, and dances. The Schillings will give their Wild West Show marksmanship. The pipe organ recitals, at 12:30, 7:30, and intermission, and the new series of Animated Weekly photoplays delight motion pictures are other attractive additions.

'The Confession.' 'The Confession,' by James Hilleck, who enjoyed a successful run at the Bijou Theater, New York City, will be seen at the Academy next week, dare to tell the truth, and in its telling unfolds a dramatic story of power, strength, and literary merit.

Mr. Reid is firm in his belief that the public will welcome a play with real life interest, not depending upon the loud, sensational, or the vulgar for its success, but rather upon truth, which, since time began, has always been stronger than fiction. The management of the play, firm in Mr. Reid's belief, has furnished the play with a cast of exceptional ability. For the important offering, a scenic production befitting in detail and correctness has been built for 'The Confession.'

STUDENTS WALK OUT.

Members of Marquette University Medical Department Quit School. Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 4.—The entire medical department of Marquette University, 30 students in all, after a mass meeting to-day, decided to leave the school, and marched in a body to the Wisconsin College of Physicians and Surgeons, the rival school, and registered.

The students claimed the faculty had failed to raise the standards of the school to the point demanded by the American Medical Association, and that the rulings of the American Medical Association make it difficult, if not impossible, for a graduate of the institution to get a proper rating as a physician after graduating.

To Remove Collection Fees. New York, Dec. 4.—Following a spirited meeting held behind closed doors, the New York Clearing House Association to-day voted to remove the collection fees on checks in five States, namely, New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New Jersey. This action came in the form of adopting the report that check collection in these States should be free.

Why should you as a motorist put up with less service when such service is customary with users of G & J Tires.

G & J Tires advertisement featuring a tire image and text: 'Why should you as a motorist put up with less service when such service is customary with users of G & J Tires. We thought it might interest you to know that our car equipped with G & J Tires finished the first 10,000 miles. One of your casings has never been off the rim and looks good for several thousand miles more.'
