Justice to the Indian.
The Senate Indian Committee has done well to recommend an increase of the appropriation for the prevention and treatment of dangerous contagious diseases among the Indians.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.
NOBODY CARES.
Tommy's horn is broken now; He cannot make it blow. The folks are sorry, they say, But do they really care?

COMPLEXIONS.
Complexions are worn by everybody but are most highly prized by women who wouldn't be able to keep house without one at any rate not for a husband.

The Story of The First President By The President-Elect WOODROW WILSON'S Life of Washington
Unable to Collect Customs in the Colonies, Parliament Takes a Step Further and Resolves to Secure Them Forcefully—The Move Met by Universal Indignation and Resistance—The Passage of the Famous Stamp Act a Further Incentive to Protest and Practical Defiance.

Not Fair to Wilson Pledges.
The Senate is filibustering against Mr. Taft's nominations to office. There is no disguise, no pretense that the men named are not fit, and not a whisper that Mr. Taft as an Executive is not exercising his constitutional functions in filling these vacancies.

That "Woman's Party."
It is true that the Colorado suffragists are contemplating the formation of a "Woman's Party," because they are dissatisfied with the treatment accorded them in the distribution of offices.

What "Constitution" Means in Russia.
The Herald long ago announced that the fourth Russian Duma would be fractious, and that for this reason negotiations for the making of a new treaty with the United States, would be practically under the control of the government.

The Increased Army Budget.
The change of Democratic sentiment with regard to the army, as expressed by an increase in the military budget of $1,000,000 over that of last year, is significant in that it marks the conversion of Democracy to the belief that the maintenance of an adequate military establishment is consistent with the progress of civil liberty.

CALL ON PRESIDENT.
Carn Club Boys Spend Another Busy Day in Capital.
Twenty-three boys, who earlier in the day had received diplomas from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson for growing superior crops in the District of Columbia, were received by President Taft in his office yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
