Society

Mrs. Taft spent a quiet Sunday, going to St. John's Church for the morning service, as is her custom, and motoring about the District in the afternoon.

Miss Helen Taft was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Miss Frances Lippitt last night.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. George von L. Meyer announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Mrs. Alys Meyer, to Raymond Rodgers, U. S. N., at a luncheon yesterday at their residence in Scott Circle. It was also Miss Meyer's birthday anniversary.

The Misses Meyer have taken a prominent part in official society since 1907, when their father came to Washington to accept the portfolio of Postmaster General. He held the post until March 4, 1909, when he became Secretary of the Navy.

Lieut. Rodgers belongs to a family of fighting men, who have won distinction in the service of their country. He is the son of Col. Alexander Rodgers, U. S. A., retired, who resides at 1221 Connecticut Avenue. The wedding probably will take place before March 4.

A number of luncheons were given at the Chevy Chase Club yesterday, and among those who entertained friends at the clubhouses were Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Wetherston, who had with them Capt. and Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tuttle, Miss Bruce, Miss Jessica Bruce, Representative Charles Talcott, and Maj. Lassiter.

Maj. and Mrs. Henry T. Allen also entertained at the club for their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wiborg, of New York.

Mrs. Robert M. Thompson also took a party of friends there to a luncheon, as did Mr. and Mrs. A. Garrison McClintock. Others entertaining friends at luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moore and Miss Frances Lippitt, daughter of Senator Lippitt.

Mrs. Richard Harlow was hostess at a luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President-elect of the United States, is exhibiting two landscapes of the 18th Annual Exhibition of the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts, which opens in that city to-day. One of the paintings is an autumn scene and the other a bit of woodland. Academy officials say the paintings were received and passed upon in the same manner as all the other exhibits and obtained a place on the walls strictly on their merits.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter has left Washington for the Hot Springs, Ark., where they will make an extended stay. During their absence Col. and Mrs. Williams, the parents of Mrs. Leiter, are occupying the Leiter country place, in Virginia, where they entertained at an informal luncheon yesterday.

The sixth tea at the College Women's Club will be given this afternoon at its clubrooms, 1227 F Street, and Miss Alice Fletcher will deliver a short address.

A series of Lenten musical teas will take place in the Red Room of the New Willard on Thursday afternoons, February 12, 20, 27, March 6 and 13. The artists are to be Miss Christine Miller, contralto; David Mannes and Clara Mannes, in a soprano recital; Mrs. Edna Rieder-Kelsey, soprano; Miss Dacmar Rubner, pianist, and Horatio Connelly, baritone.

The tea is to be given under the patronage of Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. C. J. Bell, Mrs. Sydney Bailon, Mrs. A. E. Bates, Mrs. James Bell, Mrs. Harriet Cromwell, Mrs. Henry D. Clayton, Mrs. Albert A. Channing, Mrs. Henry P. Dimock, Mrs. W. F. Dennis, Mrs. W. Thornwall Davis, Mrs. W. Wirt Dixon, Mrs. John Jay Edson, Mrs. Frank Ellis, Mrs. Richard Ely, Mrs. R. F. Emmons, Mrs. Mortimer Egan, Mrs. Charles Egan, Mrs. C. C. Glover, Mrs. William Goddard, Mrs. Walter Gordon, Mrs. William H. Grundy, Mrs. M. A. Hanna, Mrs. H. Hooper, Mrs. M. F. Hall, Mrs. F. S. High, Mrs. Thomas H. Howe, Mrs. T. B. Hutchinson, Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. Rockwood Hoar, Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Duncan C. Phillips, Mrs. Edward Quattrone, Mrs. William S. Reynolds, Mrs. John Rudolph, Mrs. John Reynolds, Mrs. W. B. Ridgely, Mrs. G. F. Schutt, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, Mrs. Charles Shepard, Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. Gilbert Twigg, Mrs. Copley Shaw, Mrs. Oscar Underwood, Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, Mrs. T. A. Williams, Miss Flora Wilson, Mrs. Nelson Head Johnson, Mrs. Charles L. Johnson, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, Mrs. Charles Lintburn, Mrs. I. Mann, Mrs. W. W. Mathewson, Mrs. C. C. McChord, Mrs. James Dudley Morgan, Mrs. C. C. Neale, Mrs. Henry T. Pennington, Mrs. M. M. Paine, Mrs. John Parsons, Mrs. Frank Pleadwell, Mrs. Henry A. Peckham, Mrs. H. C. Perkins, Mrs. Peyton Russell, Mrs. C. W. Palfrey, Mrs. Lillian M. Golden Donaldson, Mrs. George Gordon, Mrs. Hayes Breckenridge, Miss Hilda Fletcher, Miss Harriet Winslow, Mrs. Fred Dubois, Mrs. W. B. Lamar, Mrs. John Larnes, Mrs. William H. Walker, Mrs. John Perin, Mrs. James Stevenson, Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, Mrs. H. C. Wiley, Mrs. Howard Nyman, and Mrs. E. L. Koon.

Mrs. Eldridge J. Moore, a prominent clubwoman of New York, gave a bridge of twelve tables on Thursday, at Congress Hall, in connection with the Congressional women of the House. Handsome spangled fans were the prizes. The players were later joined by forty or more guests for tea, and all were then let into the secret, when a story, which was lighted with pink candles, met their eyes. Mrs. Hall, mother of Mrs. Moore, became the happy recipient of congratulations, it being her eighty-fourth birthday.

Mrs. Towner, wife of Representative Towner of Iowa, will be at home on Tuesday afternoon at the Farragut.

Mrs. Falson, wife of Lieut. Col. S. L. Falson, U. S. A., will give a luncheon on Thursday in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Sowers, a bride of New Year's Day.

The shortest official season in Berlin for several years closed Tuesday night with the court ball, which, at the same time, was the first and the last.

Ordinarily there are three court balls in a season, but the earliness of Lent and other considerations shortened it. There is no doubt, however, that Tuesday's affair was one of the most brilliant on record. About 2,000 persons were present, and there was an unusual display of beautiful gowns and jewels.

The Kaiser, in the uniform of his bodyguard Hussars, led in the Kaiserin, who wore a pale lilac velvet gown with a square train. Princess Victoria Louise wore a pale blue brooch set with amethysts in her hair.

America was well represented, the entire ambassadorial family being present except Mrs. Lethbrunn and her daughter, who were out of the city.

Frau von Below was in yellow satin veiled with yellow chiffon and trimmed with gold and silver baubles and rhinestones. The train was of yellow velvet. She wore a diamond tiara and collar.

Mrs. Rijnestad, the Naval Attaché's wife, appeared in pale pink satin trimmed at the bottom with fur. Mrs. Grew was in white silk.

Senora Pulido, wife of the Secretary of the Venezuelan Legation, who was Miss Betts, of Philadelphia, wore a white and gold creation.

Mrs. Chadwick, who was among this season's presentees at court, wore a blue satin gown.

Mrs. Seth Barton French, of New York and Paris, who was presented last year, wore white with a train of old rose velvet.

Mrs. H. W. Elias, wife of the Secretary of the Paris Embassy, wore a changeable blue creation.

Mrs. C. E. Schmitt, Mrs. Bedford, and the Countess von Moltke, who was Miss Thayer, of Boston, was in white satin.

Mrs. A. T. Boyd was at home informally Saturday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock at the Sheridan. She was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. R. Allen, of Waynesville, N. C.; Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Randolph Hopkins, the Misses Shackelford, Miss Fairfax, and Miss Wilton.

The sixth tea of the College Women's Club will be held at the clubrooms, 1227 F Street Northwest. Miss Alice Fletcher will give a talk. The hostesses are Mrs. C. E. Schmitt, Mrs. Bedford, and the members of section 8. At the annual banquet, to be given at Rauscher's on February 15, Miss Sophie Irene Loeb, well known as a newspaper and magazine writer, will speak along the lines of her sociological work. Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of the New York Suffrage Study Club, will speak. During her stay in the city she will be the guest of Mrs. E. Dana Durand. All desiring to attend the banquet may communicate with Mrs. Thomas E. Robertson, Chevy Chase, Md.

LEGENDARY HALO NEEDFUL TO-DAY

Dr. Radcliffe Preaches on Education and Religious Training.

MERE LEARNING USELESS

Ideals of School System Should Be Restored—President Attends Service.

President Taft attended services at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church yesterday morning and sat in the Lincoln pew. It was the annual Presbyterian Lenten service for schools and colleges. Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, in his sermon, said in part:

"The boy Jesus emerges at twelve years into the full responsibilities of his parent's covenant to the church. He claims the divine fatherhood. God is not a god afar off and removed in stern and silent majesty. The church brings us close to God. In these ordinances we feel the throbbing of the Father's heart and read the assurance of His covenant, nurture, and protection.

"Jesus here announces His earthly life as the Father's business. The legendary halo around the head of Christ should be realized in every young life, not in visible glory, but in the beauty of holiness and the light of divine peace. We should demand its presence in our schools to-day. The godless school ordains an immoral citizenship. It is the student body that the home and culture should be trained to bear. Culture unassisted prepares for guilt and craft.

"Our common school education cannot afford to brook the influence of conscience. As the conscience is the individual. There is nothing beneficent in mere knowledge. Chemistry cannot make a thief a honest man; law cannot refine the citizen, nor its penalties reprobate the prisoner.

"It is a popular fallacy just now that vice springs from ignorance and poverty, and virtue grows with knowledge and competence.

"We must restore the ideals of our school system, or prepare for the barbarism of the future. With geography, the students should have a vision of the land afar off. Astronomy should turn its telescope toward the Star of Bethlehem. In the plants and flowers of his botany, the student should study the Rose of Sharon. His philosophy should include the wisdom that is from above, and one of his problems in arithmetic should be to add to faith, virtue, and to virtue, knowledge. This will bring to each child that divine 'must' which supplants frivolity with earnestness, adds grace to goodness, transforms business into recreation, and the life into a gospel."

GOETHALS FOR CABINET?

HIS FRIENDS SAY "NO!"

WILL STAY IN CANAL ZONE

In view of the frequent mentioning of Col. George W. Goethals as a possible Secretary of War in the Washington administration, considerable interest was manifested yesterday in the fact that Col. Goethals has just been elected to active membership in the Metropolitan Club in this city.

Inquisitive folks have been wondering why the colonel has become an active member of the club if he intends to spend the next two years in Panama. Col. Goethals' close friends in Washington, however, do not take much stock in the talk about his being in the Wilson Cabinet. They are confident that the colonel will remain on the job in the Canal Zone until the great waterway is opened to the ships of the world.

It was also learned that National Chairman McCombs has been elected as an associate member of the Metropolitan Club.

THREE GENERATIONS OF THE SAME FAMILY

LIGHTHOUSE KEEPERS

Superior, Wis., Feb. 8.—Three generations of Malones have been lighthouse keepers on the Great Lakes. At Malino, the third of the family that has saved many ships from the rock-bound island coast, is in charge of Lake Royale station.

The Superior man has been in charge of the Lake Royale light for nearly three years. He succeeded his father, J. H. Malone, and is the youngest lighthouse keeper on the Great Lakes. His age is twenty-nine, and he is assistant to his father and later as keeper he has been in the government service thirteen years.

The elder Malone is now in charge of the Pipe Island station, on Lake Huron. He has been in the service for thirty-nine years, having taken charge of the Lake Royale station in 1874, when that lighthouse was built.

Peter Malone, the grandfather of Al Malone, who died a few years ago at the remarkable age of 98, also was a keeper, and was in charge of the Portage Lake ship canal when it was established.
